Hear "The Trissel Family"

Evangelist — Singers — Musicians

The Trissel Family, from Bradenton, Florida, is a complete evangelistic unit. Rev. Paul D., the father and minister, has served as pastor, evangelist and minister of music for churches in various parts of the country. Mr. Trissel received his education at Owosso Bible College, in Michigan; Pacific Bible College, in California; High Point College, in North Carolina; and Alma College, in Michigan. Traveling with him and assisting in the music are his wife and children. Mrs. Mary Trissel, who is an accomplished musician, plays the vibra harp, accordion, and organ. Paul James, the oldest boy in his late teens, is an outstanding singer. Converted at the age of six and later sanctified, Paul James is an ardent Christian worker. Rebecca Joy, in her middle teens, has a sweet yet strong voice. Her soprano voice is effective both in solos and with the family singing. Debra Marie, also a talented singer and musician, frequently steals the attraction of the audience with her unique presentations. The whole family plays many instruments in each service.

The Trissel Evangelistic Party has been greatly blessed of God and you will enjoy every minute of every service.

Howell Asks About Parking Facilities Here

Although there has been criticism of Tecumseh's metered parking lots, favorable news from here has reached other communities in Michigan.

Last week, the general manager of Michigan Bell Telephone at Howell, and chairman of the community's parking committe, called Chamber Secretary Don Murphy to inquire about Tecumseh's "fine parking lots."

He told the secretary that he had heard that we have the best and would like to see them. An invitation was extended to visit Tecumseh.

Long interested in the youth of today, he was instrumental in forming the teen club in Tecumseh and is still active with the group.

He has spent time working at the Junior Hi Camp at Granville, Presbyteria Point at Lake Michigammie and at Alma College. Both John and his wife taught a special course for one year at Alma.

Mr. Hamilton is now engaged in helping to set up the youth program for the new Tecumseh Community Center and plans to include this in his talk.

NOTICE

The following ordinance will be presented for the third reading at the regular meeting of the City Council October 2, 2, 1961.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS experience has shown that one of the most difficult of enforcement in the Zoning Ordinance is that provisions relating to the conduct of certain professions within Residential Areas: and

WHEREAS it is deemed of advantage that this difficulty be resolved by the removal of all business and professional usage from Residential Areas.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS: (Effective 1 January 1962)

1. Section 7.114 (b) is hereby repealed in its entirety and there is substituted therefore the following provision:

(b) It is emphasized that no occupancy in Residential A, B, or C shall be such as to constitute the gaining of a livelihood from activities in such areas if such livelihood depends upon a general contact with the public whereby clients, patients, or customers would, as a matter of routine, visit the particular premises in connection with the owner's or occupant's livelihood.

Attest: Naomi Sallows, City Clerk

Let's Get Acquainted

The Board of Education has appointed a 10-member steering committee for a "Citizen's Advisory Group" and assigned them the task of conducting a complete study of the school system.

It will include curriculum, finance, school and community relations, school plant and personnel so that they may better understand any future operating millage issues.

The chairman of this committee is Thomas Jacoby, the secretary is Mrs. Larry Hart, and other members are the Rev. B. O. Bashore, Arthur Eaton, Mrs. Richard Preston, Martin Halley, Joseph Dziachan, Orville Bishop, Lee Prettyman and Mrs. Warren Puffer.

This study will augment that of the Bureau of School Services of the University of Michigan, which was conducted last year.

The Parent-Teacher organizations of the various elementary schools are planning programs which will help to acquaint the public with the schools and to get as many people as possible to visit their schools so that they may see first-hand the efforts which are being made to educate the children of their community.

SINCE THE junior and senior high schools have had no Parent-Teacher organizations, largely because children above the sixth grade seem allergic to having their parents attend such meetings, an attempt will be made this fall to present types of programs in these schools.

These will be of interest to the parents and should lead towards a wider range of visitation to the junior and senior high Schools.

The administration and faculty welcome visitors at all times. Only through actual visitation and personal study can parents really know whether their children are getting the kind of education suited to their needs.

Guidance departments in the junior and senior high assist materially to do just this, but it is practically impossible to get every parent to visit the schools.

However, it is hoped that many additional parents will come to the schools this year.

Sunday — Time to Test Our Convictions

Monday—Time to decide on Essentials

Tuesday—Time to Work Together

Wednesday—Time to Explore New Ideas

Thursday — Time to Salute Good Teachers

Saturday—Time to Look Outside Our Borders.

It is hoped that through the combined efforts of the Board of Education, the Citizens Advisory Group, the administration and faculty of the schools, the parent-teacher and other organized school groups, and interested and informed citizens the schools may be improved.

You have had your first look at the new "car of cars". Its name is Cadillac—and its destiny is a place among the most renowned automobiles of our time.

Its new styling is remarkably clean and crisp and graceful—with a look of "rightness" in every line and contour and detail.

Cadillac's new Fleetwood interiors beckon with a jewel-like beauty. There are marvelous new fabrics and leathers . . . and new conveniences on every hand.

Engineering triumphs include independent front and rear braking . . . exclusive new cornering lamps that light your way around turns . . . a revolutionary three-phase rear lighting system . . . and many other important advances.

Yet, some of the noblest advances cannot be seen. They must be felt and sensed—performance that is incredibly quiet and smooth and nimble . . . handling ease so great that the mere weight of your hand puts you in command of the road . . . craftsmanship that is so practiced and so precise that the car has become a marvel of construction and a paragon of dependability.

These new Cadillac wonders are evident in each of twelve new body styles—and are available with the widest selection of interiors in Cadillac history.

Even if you have never before considered a Cadillac—you should take a journey in this one.

NOTICE

All interested persons are advised that the relocation, grading, drainage, and surfacing of M-52 is being planned by the Michigan State Highway Department. The proposed 4.3 mile project will begin at the intersection of M-52 and M-50 approximately three miles west of Tecumseh. The new location of M-52 will go northwesterly approximately one mile and then continue north parallel to and approximately 1300 feet west of North Adrian Highway to the intersection of M-92 and US-112.

Relocated M-52 is being planned for a 24-foot concrete pavement on a 200-foot right of way. Provisions have been made so that this facility can be expanded in the future.

Under provisions of Federal law, any citizen who would be affected by the proposed improvement may request in writing that the State Highway Department hold a formal public hearing at which he will be given an opportunity to be heard concerning the location and the economic effect of the project upon the area. Such a written request must be received on or before October 6, 1961, by John W. Knecht, Jr., Director of Public Hearings, Michigan State Highway Department, Lansing.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THINGS IGNORED LAST WEEK

Well, I tried, but it didn't work; it never does. One simply can't hold on to summer hard enough so that when the allotted time is up, it doesn't slip away. There is just no use kidding ourselves any longer—'tis fall!

The days are getting progressively shorter and isn't it hard to get used to turning on the lights at six p.m.? And do you miss the long, lingering twilight of the summer evenings as much as we do? The sun is getting up much later these days too, and often he must start working right away at burning off the morning fog.

The extraordinary amount of rain we have had—some weeks it almost seems as tho' we are in the tropics with the daily afternoon shower—but as we started to say, all the moisture has kept things unusually green.

The grass is just wearing itself out growing so much (to say nothing of the poor-lawn-mowers), and many of the trees are still a lush green. But in case we do any daydreaming about spring or summer green; our beloved old walnut tree stands ready to jar us back to reality.

Already its leaves have completed their food producing work and are starting to turn yellow. Looking out either the south or west windows and seeing showers of golden leaves twirling to the ground is proof positive that summer is with us no longer.

THE BIRDS are acting fallish, too. For almost a month now flocks of robins have been 'coming through' — some days the lawns are full, it's nothing to look out and see 12, 14, even 15.

Some of the birds look old and experienced but others are so young that their breasts have not even started getting red.

They search the yard for worms; take long leisurely baths in the mud-puddles or the creek and occasionally in the bird-bath; and sometimes they just sit on the fence or nearby tree discussing, I suppose, last minute details of their upcoming trip.

The robins are busy this way for several days and then we wake up one morning to find them all gone.

How quiet everything seems, but in two or three days another bunch of happy travelers moves in and things are hopping again.

One of these times, of course, there will be no nest flock; they will have all 'come through.' How sad this will be, because it is a long time until the first robin of next spring.

There are many robin redbreasts who winter in Michigan but they don't show themselves to us, so after the last flock we wait until spring.

☆

MOST OF THE other birds who take winter vacations do it with less fanfare—at least as far as we and our window-watching are concerned.

Instead of watching big flocks come and go, we just suddenly realize that there hasn't been many of this or that bird around lately.

The grackles have about all disappeared but that is a rather happy miss. The cat-birds are gone too, but their departure leaves unhappy empty shots on the fence and in the barberry bushes.

It was great fun to watch the slick, gray beauties. Their fall journey is longer than the robins and the black-thieves—the catbirds are apt to winter as far south as Cuba and Panama.

An even greater traveler is the tiny yellow-warbler, who dropped in to say goodbye to me several weeks ago. He was on his way to Central or even South America.

We hadn't seen Mr. Yellow much since last spring but his farewell visit was very friendly, he spent most of the day playing hide and seek among the leaves of the nearby maple tree. Altho' I'm not sure, because we just had brief glimpses of the bird, but I think the brown-thrasher bid us a brief good-bye about this time, too.

I suppose he was joining the robins and grackles, heading for our southern states.

So it is that I am bowing to the inevitable, everything points toward fall but seven days ago, I was not about to admit it. I give in now and above are just a few of the things I ignored last week.

"What's new?"

Sweetest Day Started in Cleveland

It's that time of the year again —time to observe one of the most delightful and unique "days" set aside for special notice.

Sweetest Day, which traditionally falls on the third Saturday of October, will be Oct. 21 this year.

It's a day designed to remind people of all ages, from all walks of life, that kindness, courtesy and a pleasant smile are important. And they don't cost a penny.

It was some 35 years ago that a kind-hearted man in Cleveland decided to set aside one day a year to distribute cheerful gifts to orphans and shut-ins of the city to show them they were not forgotten.

Since then, the idea has spread throughout the country, and taken on an added meaning.

Always the heart of our business

Why do most drugstores sell everything from breakfast to dance wax . . .? The answer is simple. It is a matter of economic necessity. Americans, thank goodness, are generally healthy and there are not enough prescriptions to keep all drugstores going. Thus, we sell a variety of merchandise. By so doing we are able to stay open and render assistance whenever and wherever it is needed. Prescription service, however, continues to be the heart of our business and we are always pleased to assist you when medication is needed.

Our Readers Can Still Vote; McVey Says Interest is High

Over 50,000 newspaper readers have voted for their favorite hymns in the National Newspaper Hymn Poll, Bill McVey, the Christian Herald gospel singer, has reported.

McVey said a preliminary count by Audience Analysts, Inc., showed "The Old Rugged Cross, leading by a wide margin. "How Great Thou Art" was second, the baritone hymn singer said.

Audience Analysts, a leading independent research organization based in Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., said 970 newspapers in cities of all sizes were participating in the first definitive survey of hymn singing in America.

Editors To Discuss Con-Con

EAST LANSING — Michigan newspaper editors will be briefed on Michigan's Constitutional Convention when the annual Michigan State University Newspaper Editorial Conference convenes here Saturday, Oct. 7.

Headlining the conference will be Secretary of States James Hare, who will have gaveled the Constitutional Convention into its opening session on Oct. 3.

Secretary Hare will analyze the situation as it prevails at the moment and preview some of the problems and expectations.

Phase two of the Editors' Day meeting will feature two well-known editors, Dale Stafford, publisher of the Greenville Daily News and chairman of the Michigan Newspaper Committee for an Open Convention; and Ink White, publisher of the Clinton County Republican-News and convention delegate nominee.

They will present their views and lead a discussion of the part that the newspaper can play in helping to mold the best possible state convention.

Dr. Fred S. Siebert, dean of the MSU College of Communication Arts, will be chairman of the session.

Conference participants will be guests of the University at the opening home football game with Stanford University.

Cooperatively sponsoring the conference are the Michigan Press Association and MSU's Department of Information Services and School of Journalism.

Tecumseh Herald co-publishers Jim Lincoln and Tom Riordan will attend.

Expensive To Sleep in Church

It costs money to fall asleep in church as Leroy Duncan, 28, of 1939 W. Russell Rd. learned Wednesday when arraigned in Justice Oliver's court on a charge of vagrancy.

He was ordered to pay a fine and costs of $54.90 and spend 30 days in jail or an additional 30 days if the fine is not paid.

Mr. Duncan was arrested Wednesday at 1:10 a.m. when he was found sleeping in the Tecumseh Presbyterian Church.

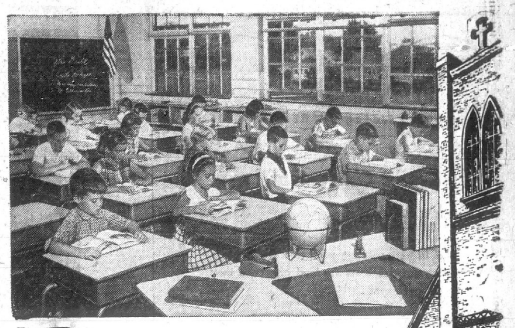
GREAT LAKES — Joseph J. Bartenslager IV, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Bartenslager III, 600 Orchard Lane, and Raymond B. Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raynor B. Sweet of rural Tecumseh completed recruit training, Sept. 9, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Military ceremonies marked the end of nine weeks of "boot camp" and included a full dress parade and review before high ranking officials and civilian dignitaries.

For All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church



The Unquestioned Compulsion

Years ago there were many who disputed the novel idea of free and compulsory public education. The first truancy laws were opposed as infringements on liberty.

But as our children return this fall to schools that will mold their growing minds—does a single parent complain?

I believe in sound religious education, as well. The molding of the character should keep pace with the molding of the mind.

Naturally I never want my government to exercise compulsion in this sacred area. And my Church, while it offers a complete curriculum of religious training, does so on a free and voluntary basis.

But I'm a parent! And, though I find that example and encouragement usually suffice, I'm not above telling Johnny,

"YES, SON, YOU HAVE TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL!"

As a child begins to see the importance Faith has in our lives and in the strength of our nation . . . you'll be surprised how quickly this becomes an unquestioned compulsion.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

New 4-Mile Section of M-52 Is Proposed

Relocation of more than four miles of M-52, from Billington's Corners to US-112, will be placed under contract next March if proposed plans are approved by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the proposed $1 million project is part of a long-range Highway Department plan to provide motorists with an alternate route between the Michigan-Ohio line and Mackinaw City.

This proposal was outlined by the Highway Department recently in a report of Michigan highway needs for the next 20 years.

It calls for combining portions of highways M-52, M-92, M-36, M-47, M-33 and several sections of new and relocated highway for use as another continuous north-south route.

Mackie said the route primarily would serve tourist traffic and light commercial vehicles.

The proposed relocation of M-52 in Lenawee County would start at the intersection of M-52 and M-50, about three miles west of Tecumseh, and run northwesterly about one mile, then north to the intersection of M-92 and US-112 west of Clinton.

The new two-lane highway would be parallel to and about 1,300 feet west of North Adrian Hwy. for a distance of about three miles from US-112 south to the vicinity of Occidental Rd.

It will be built on a 200-foot controlled access right-of-way providing additional room for expansion of the route when necessary. Each traffic lane will be 12-feet wide.

Mackie said when the relocation project is complete, the M-52 route number will replace the M-92 route number between US-112 and Stockbridge in Ingham County.

"This will provide a continuous number for the highway which will then extend from the Michigan-Ohio line to Stockbridge," he said.

The Highway Department said any person who will be affected by relocation of M-52 in Lenawee County may request a formal public hearing by writing John W. Knecht, Jr., Detroit of Public Hearings, Michigan State Highway Department, Lansing.

A transcript of such a hearing and comments on the economic effect the relocation would have on the entire area, would be reviewed by Highway Department and Bureau of Public Roads officials before final plans for the project are approved, officials said.

Applications for a hearing should reach Mr. Knecht by Oct. 6.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A "Moving" Story

A couple of nights ago, Bud Holmes, who runs the town's local drive-in movie, got to talking about a "boner" he had pulled last summer.

Seems one night he was waiting to close up when a customer came over and asked if Bud would get his car started. Turned out his battery was dead. Bud drives over to where he thinks the customer's car is parked and starts to give it a big shove.

All of a sudden, Red Dolan's head pops out of the front window! "Listen, Bud," Red says with a grin, "if you want me to go home so you can close up, I'll go. But you don't have to push me!"

From where I sit, a person always has to be careful not to interfere with other people's enjoyment by "pushing" his preferences. Whenever Bud has me over to dinner, he's always considerate enough to make sure there's some beer on hand for me, even though he prefers tea himself. He's respecting my right to think for myself, and not trying to "drive home" his own views.

BEAUTIFUL SUNSET—Mrs. Hollis Shelton, woman's editor of The Monroe Evening News, was driving down M-52 into Tecumseh when she spied this sunset over the Red Mill Pond. Pulling off the road, she got out her reflex camera and recorded the scene. Were the ripples caused by a leaping trout? No confessed Mrs. Shelton, she had her husband toss a rock into the water to create added effect. In any event, we think it's a swell shot..

OPEN HOUSE SHOWING

Fri., Sat. — Sept. 29-30

1962 AUTO SHOW

1962 FALCON. This Falcon four-door sedan highlights the compact car's new styling for 1962. While still "distinctively Falcon" the top-selling Ford compact features a new grille, new front fenders and hood and larger taillights, but still retains the inside-outside dimensions of its predecessors. On the interior, the instrument cluster has been revamped and there are new fabrics, styles and colors for all models. The new Falcon line, to be introduced by George Underwood on September 29, will feature a total of 13 models.

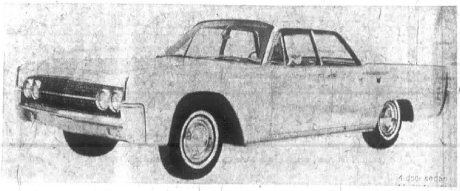
1962 MERCURY COMET. The Mercury Comet for 1962 has significant rear-end styling changes but continues to offer the same features that have made it a strong competitor in the compact market. The Comet name has been altered to reflect its membership in the broadened Mercury line for 1962. Rear fins have been tapered down and new taillights are set in pairs on a bright metal applique. A new spear moulding distinguishes the side appearance. Sound deadening material has been nearly doubled to isolate the driver and passenger compartment. A new Custom series increase the number of Comet models from five to nine.

1962 MERCURY. Introduction of a new Custom series and extensive styling improvements distinguish the Mercury Monterey for 1962. The crisp roof is four inches longer and there are major styling changes in the rear of the car. The Monterey and the Monterey Custom series offer a total of 12 models, including the Custom four-door hardtop shown here. Nine engine-transmission combinations are available. Cost of ownership for the Monterey is reduced by extending normal servicing intervals to twice-a-year for the average driver.



1962 LINCOLN CONTINENTAL. The 1962 Lincoln Continental's classic styling is enhanced by a redesigned front bumper, new front grille and repositioned headlamps. Many customer conveniences have been added to the car. Engineering refinements provide greater reliability, smoother and quieter riding and less need for car maintenance. Each Lincoln Continental undergoes a 12-mile road test. Two models of the luxury car are available this year. The four-door sedan is shown above. The four-door convertible has been improved in appearance to stimulate the look of a sedan when the top is up.

WHAT IS A PRESCRIPTION

Actually, a prescription is a passport to better health. Physicians study about ten years to be able to write one, Pharmacists study about five years to learn how to compound them. Drug firms sometimes spend millions to perfect the drugs in them. The few dollars all this knowledge costs saves you sickness time and sometimes your life.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Ray Zimmerman Now Purchasing Airport Bowl

Mrs. P. M. Preston and Paul J. Breitenwischer have announced that an agreement has been signed with Mr. Zimmerman.

In the pact, the new owner will purchase, over a period of years, all outstanding capital stock in the bowling establishment.

Mr. Zimmerman has assumed complete management of the lanes. The snack bar has been leased to Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Anderson.

Mr. Breitenwischer and Mrs. Preston will remain as president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, and directors.

Mr. Zimmerman has been elected a director and vice-president of the corporation.

Mr. Zimmerman expressed his pleasure for the opportunity to purchase this business and hoped for the continued support of the people of Tecumseh and surrounding territory.

He stated that he would continue to carry a full line of bowling balls, bags and shoes.

With the ball drilling equipment, he will be able to deliver a bowling ball measured and drilled to each person's individual requirements within a few minutes after the purchase of a ball.

He stated that the lanes are in excellent condition and that there is considerable time available for open bowling.

Boysville Loses, 13-0, to Deerfield

By DAVE KLAVON

The Boysville Fighting Knights dropped their opening River Raisin League game last Friday night to the Minute Men of Deerfield, 13-0.

In the first half, the game was a standstill. Then the Minute Men crossed the goal for their first touchdown on a wide end sweep, covering 15 yards.

In the third quarter the Knights pushed their way across the goal line twice, but both scores were called back because of penalties.

Another play—a pass which put the Knights on the two-yard line—was called back because of an ineligible receiver down field.

In the fourth quarter the Minute Men scored again.

Tomorrow night the defending champions, Boysville, will meet the Britton Tories in Britton at 8.

Mrs. E. C. Boss Takes Top Prize

Mrs. E. C. Boss was awarded high prize for her bridge score at the luncheon and bridge held Wednesday at the Country Club.

Mrs. F. C. Hanna was awarded second high and table awards went to Mrs. Don Nixon, Mrs. L. B. Milheim, Mrs. Robert Bonner and Mrs. Ned Baldwin.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

It was a bright September afternoon last Thursday. Football fans cheered lustily as the St. Elizabeth Cubs faced the Britton Tories in the first game of the season.

Passes clicked as the Cubs moved expertly across the field. Eric Wilkins, quarterback, scored two thrilling touchdowns and Jim Biscupski and Tom Loughran roused the spectators to wild excitement with two more.

Congratulations, Cubs, and special "orchids" to the cheerleaders, Christine Dziachan, Mary Gentner, Marilyn Willis, Marjorie DeLisle, Sharon Boudrie, Julie Mudgett, Bridget Miller, Sally Vaillancourt, Cathy Wallace and Kathleen Weakly, who spurred the boys on to victory.

"Safety First" is the slogan at St. Elizabeth's. The seventh and eighth grade safety patrol boys and girls are vigilant in the performance of duties on the playground and at dangerous intersections.

We are striving to make this year not only a safe one but through study and prayer, a banner year as well.

Interest in amateur thespian productions has captivated the fifth and sixth graders.

The fifth grade presentation, under the direction of Carol Riordan, was a modified version of the "Cradle Song." Ruth Warner, Cindy Caterina, Ann Beardsley, Debby Zimmerman, Sara Beck, Carol Riordan, Karen McCrate, Jane Westfall took part.

Homemade costumes and props and an efficient stage crew contributed to an enjoyable play. Preparations are already in progress for the staging of a fairytale favorite, "Rumplestiltskin."

A total of 341 pupils enthusiastically greeted the opening of another school year. Now after three weeks even the little first-graders, who nervously clutched their mothers' hands the first day, seem completely at home in their new surroundings.

√

The second graders held a class election on Friday and proudly announce the names of their new officers:

Nancy Hodges — president

Kathy Kempkes — vice-president

Mary Pobuda — secretary-treasurer.

√

The fourth graders are absorbed in an interesting science project. Judy Prochaska has contributed a colorful collection of leaves and Robert Laidlaw has arranged a unique assortment of rocks.

ADVANCED THRUST

Moves power forward for arrow-straight going

It puts the engine ahead like the tip of an arrow • It tames "wind wander" and road sway • It sweeps you forward in a hush of luxury • It turns the floor hump into foot space.

WHAT IT IS—Buick's big new move: It positions the great new Wildcat V-8 and Turbine Drive way up front over Buick's front wheels.

WHAT IT DOES—As the engine went forward, the floor hump went DOWN. And, the forward weight makes wheel response far quicker, cornering far surer, ride far smoother.

WHY YOU'LL LOVE IT—It's the closest you can come to sports car handling in a passenger car. Distances shrink before its ¾-G thrust. Hills disappear. Lean on curves is gone because the frame's gone wider. Winds don't make you wander. It's going at its Buick best!

Penalties Rag Indians In 2nd Win of Season

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh pounded out its second straight victory of the season last Friday night at Dundee, tripping the Vikings, 14-6, on first and third period scores.

Plagued by penalties, and once by an intercepted pass, the Indians overcame their troubles to score their win through sheer force.

Just before the tally from the 20, Rutherford scooted into the end zone on a counter play only to have it nullified by Tecumseh's first of seven penalties.

Dundee, failing to register even one first down in the first quarter, struck for its lone TD late in the first half on a Don Heiden-to-Terry Miller pass for 25 yards.

Earlier in the period a 30-yard play involving a lateral from Craig Rosacrans to Sisson was nullified by a penalty and resulted in pushing the Indians deep into their own territory.

After the Vikings tallied, Tecumseh moved to Dundee's 35 on a screen pass and then to the 26 before a penalty shoved the Indians back again. With about one minute left, Dundee picked off a pass from Sisson to end the threat.

IN THE SECOND half, an early, third-stanza Tecumseh drive bogged down on the 19 where the Vikings took over. Three incomplete passess forced them to punt.

Danny Green, alternating between end and halfback gathered in the punt on his 45 and returned it 30 yards to the Vikings' 2.

Fullback John Britton, carrying on four of six plays, bounded into the end zone from the two for the Indians second TD. His plunge for extra point ended the game's scoring.

Improvement in the defense was noted in Tecumseh's second victory. The Indians, unable to get straightened out against Willow Run in the season's opener, showed definite progress.

The ends and corner linebackers, for the most part, contained plays in their direction. Interior linemen also showed signs of stiffening and possibilities of developing into a strong line.

The fine play of quarterback Sisson and the running of Britton and Doug Goldsberry were outstanding, although neither can be considered breakaway backs.

Britton paced the local runners with 50 yards in 12 carries for a 4.1 average. Goldsberry toted the pigskin six times for 39 yards and a 6.5 average.

ANNOUNCING

THE CAR THAT CANNOT BE OUTDATED BY THE CALENDAR

You will have to look closely to tell the difference between the new Lincoln Continental and its predecessor. The changes are really refinements and there are more than 38 in all, each with a purpose.

Outside, a keen eye will discover the chaste new look of the grille. You may also see that the headlights are one inch higher for a better view of the road at night.

Inside, there are further refinements. The steering wheel, for example, is ¾ of an inch higher for more comfort. And beneath the hood are more refinements such as a new self-sealing dipstick to prevent dust particles from contaminating the crankcase lubricant.

The fact is that the Lincoln Continental was deliberately designed to be the first American car that cannot be outdated by the calendar. Its character remains the same—distinguished, durable, beautiful.

The extra distinctions are there, too. Notice the four doors which open at the center for easy entrance; are counterbalanced to open at a touch, for all their reassuring thickness.

*These are but a few of the qualities that make the Lincoln Continental an American classic in its style, its workmanship, its timelessness. It is your finest investment in tomorrow; in fact, it is warranted for twice as long as any other American car (24,000 miles or two full years).

LINCOLN CONTINENTAL

*Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers, in turn, warrant to their Lincoln Continental customers as follows: That for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement including related labor, will be made by dealers, of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty, appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance service and routine replacement of items such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points and wiper blades.

KEEP SOYBEAN FIELD LOSSES DOWN. Using proper harvest procedure, it's possible to cut normal harvest losses in half. Adjust the real speed about 25% faster than your rate of travel and lower the cutter bar to about four inches from the ground wherever possible. Travel at a reasonable rate of speed — about 2½ m.p.h. You can keep shatter losses down by combining while dew is still on the beans, particularly if you have drying facilities.

ADD AN ANTIBIOTIC TO LAYING MASH for a week to ten days after you move pullets into the laying house. Following this practice, you reduce your disease problems considerably during the laying period. Moving pullets from the range puts considerable stress on them for a time. Consequently they're likely to be more susceptible to disease during this period. The antibiotic will help pullets ward off disease until they become adjusted.

RAISE DAIRY CALVES AS ECONOMICALLY AS POSSIBLE. Some dairy men are reducing the cost of growing calves by substituting milk replacer for whole milk, particularly in areas where the price of fluid milk is favorable. Do a little figuring to see how costs compare. Calves do just about as well on replacers as long as they're fed the proper amounts. Whole milk can be substituted when the calf is about two weeks old.

FALL'S A GOOD TIME TO LIME. Fields are usually drier now than is normally the case during the spring. Besides, putting lime on now will allow it to dissolve and improve the soil's acidity more for next year's crops than if you wait until spring. Apply according to soil tests.

PAINTER JIM GURIN PUTTING FINISHING TOUCHES ON OUTSIDE OF CENTER

Remodel Job Almost Complete on City's Community Center

Five fire wall partitions, ordered to be installed by the state fire marshall, have delayed progress on the new Community Center.

It is expected that the building remodeling work will be completed this weekend, according to George Gobba, foreman for Krieghoff Lenawee Construction Co.

Mr. Gobba said that with the sprinkler system throughout the building and fire walls the building is as safe as it could possibly be made.

It had been planned to use the fire alarm system already installed until it was learned that rental on the system amounted to $800 per year.

A fire alarm system has since been purchased from Faraday Corp. and will be installed.

Drain and water is available for sink facilities.

An acoustical ceiling is being installed on the first floor of the building, insuring quiet there, even though the Teen Club will use the top floor.

Terrance Mackin, chairman of Parks and Recreation for the city, was instrumental in organizing the advisory board which has had several meetings concerning the new facility on Globe Pond.

Directors of similar community programs from Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Jackson, Detroit and Ypsilanti met with the group last week to offer suggestions as to the type of program which could be carried out here.

Some of the board members have voiced the opinion that a full-time supervisor of the building should be hired.

Mr. Gobba also made this same statement, adding that it would be indeed a shame if such a fine building were not put to full time use and events scheduled regularly by someone in an authoriative capacity.

Work was begun last week by Consumers Power in placing new light poles in the parking area. It was decided that the former poles would remain for decorative purposes.

Several board members attended a showing of recreation furnishings at Cobo Hall this week, looking for possible items for Tecumseh's new center.

A group of about 65 men have already indicated a desire for indoor golf facilities, others have mentioned a gun club and one group seeks an archery steup.

Bids Asked for Sewer to Faraday

By JIM LINCOLN

City Manager Ed Nelson was told by Councilmen Monday night to proceed with plans for installation of a sewer to the Faraday plant site on S. Maumee St.

He was requested to seek bids for the work and to be prepared when the final approval for the plant construction is received.

Councilman Royal Welch, member of the Tecumseh Industrial Development Corporation, said his group expected to have plant specifications by the middle of the month.

Mr. Nelson said it would take approximately two months to install the sewer. A section of the sewer will be over 20 feet below the ground.

☆

IN OTHER action, Council:

► Appointed Joe Rice to fill the unexpired term of Harry Spencer on the Planning Commission.

► Adopted a resolution for the installation of sidewalk between Shady Lane and Murray Drive on Adrian St.

► Accepted an ordinance regulation professions in residential districts and scheduled a public hearing on Nov. 6 at 8 p.m.

► Approved the annual audit report.

► Adopted a resolution for assessing side yard frontage, up to 150 feet, on any special assessment for installation of sewer and water mains.

Sale Will Be Monday

Members of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club will open their second annual light bulb sales Monday.

They'll make a complete circuit of the city in Fred Nash's truck during the evenings of next week.

The vehicle is being lavishly decorated with glowing light bulbs and will have a public address system.

Fifteen Kawanians will be working off the truck, going door-to-door to seek bulb sales.

Money earned on the project will go into the group's youth fund.

Couple Jets to Far West

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Snyder, 503 Nokomis St., are celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary, which occurs on Oct. 5, in a big way.

They left by jet Sunday for a month's vacation.

First stop will be Washington State to visit their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Dick, of Mercer Island.

Mr. Dick is the son of the Herman Dicks of Dinius Rd.

Toward the end of October, they will visit the Millard Snyder family in Lincoln, Neb. and the Paul Snyder family in Bunscombe, Ill.

The couple are also the parents of John Snyder, who lives with his family on Aebersold Rd.

Library Bids Are Received

A contract for consideration of the new Tecumseh library will probably be signed Tuesday evening at the monthly meeting of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation.

The Foundation's board conferred this week with the library study committee and opened seven bids on the project, which will probably cost well over $200,000.

Several details still are to be worked out with the architect, Carl Marr of Detroit, before the actual bid will be let.

Construction is expected to start Oct. 17.

The library, to be located on the old Monument Park, immediately west of the junior high school, is to be built from money donated to the Foundation's annual charity drive.

At present, the Foundation has assets of nearly $120,000.

The 1961 campaign will be opened later this month with Virgil Tucker as chairman and James McKenna as co-chairman.

Sandra MacGeorge Baptized Sunday

Sunday at the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, Sandra Darlene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge, was baptized.

German Youth Reports on First Impressions to Wit & Wisdom Club

The Rev. and Mrs. Allen Wittrup and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNeil were guests.

Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw conducted the business session when the year's program booklets were distributed.

The president appointed a membership committe composed of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Munger, Mrs. Perry Hayden and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Partridge.

Fay Van Valkenburg presented the program following the business session. Program Chairman, Mr. Van Valkenburg, opened with group singing and introduced Neils Hansen, house guest of the Robert Bonners.

He spoke of his first impressions of the United States and of his family and home land.

The program closed with a two-piano number by Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Arthur Schwartz, Mrs. Fred Oberlin and Mrs. John Hamilton. Their number was an arrangement of Verdi Operatic themes.

Cider, homemade doughnuts and coffee were served by the host committee.

Ted Brooks Now Runs Own Market

A long-time chain store butcher, Ted Brooks, 321 Maiden Lane, has opened his own store in Tecumseh.

Mr. Brooks butchered for Kroger here 11 years and was with Country Markets, Inc. for 10 years.

Mr. Brooks states that he will carry only meats graded choice. His market will be open until 6 week nights except Friday when it will be 9 p.m. and Saturday, 8 p.m.

The shop will also handle trade Sundays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Committee Works Out Regulations

A six-person committee has been appointed by City Council to formulate a set of regulations for operation of the new Community Center.

A preliminary session was held Tuesday evening.

The full set of rules is expected to be approved by next week.

Working on the committee are Terry Mackin and John Hamilton, both members of Council; Mrs. Cliff Knudson, Don Judd, Mrs. Lee Prettyman and Ken Conway.

According to a tentative schedule, the Center will be opened later this month with a formal ceremony taking place in early November.

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

The youngsters at Hartford High School have a novel arrangement for tolling off the score at their football games.

A bell from the old high school has been given a coat of green paint and set in a special mounting, explains Hartford Day Spring Editor Jack Sinclair.

It's hauled to the field for each home game and when the local club scores, the big bell bongs once for each point.

Would Tecumseh have some ancient bell which could be used for such a scheme?

☆

Yell leader Sherry Packard, who appeared under Mrs. Humphrey's sponsorship, was invited to the shop Friday for a complete hairdo — on the house.

Journalism students at the University of Michigan can count themselves lucky if they're enrolled in a course being taught by Jake Albert.

Now a guest lecturer at U of M Jake retired last spring as promotion director of The Detroit News after 47 years on the job.

Jake's category is newspaper management.

His wealth of experience can be invaluable to the budding scholars — if they'll pay attention and ask some questions.

We visited a few minutes Saturday during the University Press Club gathering in Ann Arbor and one of Jake's comments that tickled was, "Everybody (students) wants to become a foreign correspondent."

☆

This month marks the beginning of the fifth year Jim Lincoln and I have published your local weekly. It seems as if we arrived only a few months back.

It also opens The Herald's 112th year and makes this paper one of the oldest in Michigan.

There has been a whale of a lot of newspapering packed into the 5,772 editions of this community's paper since that first press day back in 1850.

On the over-all, we've only had a small hand in the history of this weekly.

I wonder if some of the former editors, like the late Earl Wickwire, ever glance down to see how the old paper is doing?

The John Birch Society is still firing with both barrels.

Robert Welch, the driving force behind the Birch movement, has gone sled-length in his condemnation of just about everything in this nation.

"All churches, without exception, have been infiltrated by well-placed agents, often in Holy Orders," the Birch phamplet

After the downtown parking lot is hardtopped, it will be lighted, lined and metered, as are the other three lots.

This will complete the city's $65,000 off-street parking project.

Massed Bands Play 4 Songs

A capacity crowd is expected to witnesses the 15th annual Lenawee County Band Festival on Tecumseh's Recreation Field Tuesday at 8 p.m.

In the event of rain, the affair will be held the following evening.

Tickets are 75c for adults and 35c for students. They can be obtained at Tecumseh High School or the Chamber of Commerce office.

Besides the schools from these two communities, others taking part in the Festival are Addison, Deerfield, Morenci, Hudson, Onsted, Blissfield, Clinton and Adrian.

All gate receipts are divided equally between the participating schools.

The event is coordinated by the local Chamber of Commerce, through the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, in cooperation with school band directors.

☆

IN THE Festival's finale, the bands will mass 600 musicians strong, under the baton of Ken Spaulding, Addison band director and current president of the Lenawee County Band Directors Association.

They'll play four numbers:

► "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp"

► "Battle Cry of Freedom"

► "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

► "Star Spangled Banner"

One of these numbers will be dedicated to the late Clare Camburn, one-time Tecumseh band director, who conceived the Band Festival idea.

The Rev. Blair Bashore, who worked with Mr. Camburn on the original plan and has served as public address announcer every year, will pay a special tribute to Mr. Camburn.

Tecumseh's theme will be "Wagon Train."

Sale of refreshments in the stands will be allowed before the first band takes the field, but not during the performance.

You Told Us

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Mrs. Joseph Loveless, who lives north of town on the Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., has been enjoying a strange quirk of nature in her red raspberry patch this week.

She picked eight quarts of large luscious red ripe fruit, her second crop for this year.

Must be those shrubs do not know its nearly time for old Jack Frost to nip their "nose" if they don't get to "bed" for the winter.

Mrs. John Stephens of 413 Center Drive has some confused plants too. She has two Easter lilies in bloom.

Mrs. Merrill Murphy accompanied Kay Southwell, Linda Sinkey, Linda Spooner, Diane Hoch and Pat Rutherford to Jackson for the senior planning board meeting Monday night. This board plans and negotiates all major senior activities for the year.

"The placement of agents in the Foreign Service, defense forces, communication systems, and key industries of all the western Powers is only a part of the enemy's vast system of subversion and contamination."

As to the newspapers, the digest stated:

"The world Press is infiltrated by Communist agents. The most conservative newspapers have one or more communist agents on the staff. They are well camouflaged and are there to give a crucial twist to the presentation of news or feature articles.

"Often, no attempt is made to foster positive communist propaganda; it is enough if anything connected with conventional ideas can be ever so slightly placed in doubt.

If the main objective in Asia and Africa is to make positive converts, in western Europe and America the objective is fatally to weaken belief in conventional concepts so that finally we shall each fail individually to resist the new ideology.

"To twist news presentation is considered a vital operation," the writer concludes.

Mr. Welch has all sorts of similar tidbits in his offering, including under "Agenda for the Month."

"The movement to impeach Earl Warren . . . gathers steam, as you can see. Keep on doing everything we have urged, and anything else you can think of, in support of the movement."

Extremes in any direction are dangerous and it appears the Birch group has long passed the area of being a useful organization if it ever was.

In a recent issue of the county daily, there was a harmless-looking feller, which read:

"DOES WONERS"

"A little celery salt sometimes does winders for a cream sauce that is to be served with fish."

But then one should never point a finger, especially when the following came from one of our correspondents this week about a church meeting and almost got into print:

"Then Mrs. ———— gave a reading and Mrs. ———— played for the group sinning."

Miss Young, Jerry Lane Speak Vows

A double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Blair Bashore united in marirage Johanna Lynn Young and Jerry O. Lane Saturday at the First Baptist Church of Tecumseh.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ralph Young of Dinius Rd. and the late Mr. Young. The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Lane of Reading, Mich.

The altar vases were filled with white chrysanthemums and hampers of bronze and gold flowers were placed on either side of the altar.

Before the ceremony, large candelabra at the altar were lighted. The pews for the family were reserved with satin bows.

Mrs. Kenton Hunt played a prelude of organ music and accompanied the Rev. Paul Fredericks of Tipton, the soloist.

The radiant bride approached the altar on the arm of her uncle, Harvey Young, of Milan. She wore a floor-length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bateau neckline.

Her veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of crystal and pearls and she carried a white lace Bible topped with two gardenias and ivy.

☆

MARY GRIFFITHS of Litchfield was the maid-of-honor and the bridesmaids were Sharon Bottoroff of Britton, Sharon Burleson, Marcia Shepherd of Pontiac and Martha Livingston of Howell.

All wore emerald green brocade gowns fashioned with elbow length sleeves, bateau necklines and bell shaped skirts.

Their hats were veils falling from a bow and their crystal earrings and white gloves were gifts of the bride.

Each carried a crescent arrangement of Mary Jo roses and bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

Ray Hopper of Lansing, college friend of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Dan Kearney of Kingsford and brothers of the bride, Lawrence, Richard and Philip Young.

A reception for 250 was held in the Youth House following the wedding. A five tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was featured.

Mrs. Charles Arch of Angola, sister of the groom, cut the cake, Mrs. L. Young poured coffee, Mrs. R. Young served the groom's cake and Mrs. B. Young, the ice cream.

JOANNE WING poured punch. Mrs. Robert Mallock and Barbara Young, cousins of the bride, and Sandy Ross and Sarah Wright assisted with the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and both young people are graduates of Michigan State University. The groom is employed as a claim adjustor for State Farm Mutual Insurance Co.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

St. Elizabeth's is the proud owner of a new intercom unication system which was installed this week by the Rev. Fr. Thomas Collins and three kind assistants, Don Young, Louis Suess and Herbert Bagby.

The new system will be used to relay messages to classrooms. The faculty and students wish to express their sincere appreciation to Father Collins and his able assistants.

School library was re-opened last Monday and a flood of eager students from all classes are seen there every noon hour. The library contains about 700 books.

Students are anxious to fill the remaining shelves. Anyone who would like to donate used books to the library, we would be most grateful.

Members of the Girls Safety Patrol assist the librarian. They are Marilyn Willis, Mary Gentner, Bridget Miller of the eighth grade and Onalee Cote, Joanne Biscupski and Carol Allen of the seventh grade.

The needs of the Missions in our own country as well as in foreign lands are ever increasing. Children at St. Elizabeth are expressing their charity by responding to Bishop Sheen's recent plea for contributions to this worthy cause.

Seventh grade pupils elected class officers on Sept. 22. Thomas Neidlinger was elected president. Michael Kossey holds the office of vice-president with Melissa Sage as secretary and Elsie Wilkins as treasurer.

Four long rings of the fire-bell sounded loudly throughout the corridors of school last Thursday afternoon.

Silently and in perfect order the long line of students marched out of front and rear entrances of the school to their proper sections on school grounds.

In less than three minutes the entire schools was emptied and all precautions against fire were taken. The demonstration was successful.

Robert McKee, a second grad-er, has recently returned from a visit to France. The McKee family spent three weeks visiting relatives and friends abroad.

Their stay was most pleasant, but Bobby's first words upon being welcomed back were, I'm so glad to be back in school again!"

Awards were given to Joanne Brion and Michael Wykes of the Patrol Squads for exceptional performance of their duties during the month of September. They were named Boy and Girl of the month.

Congratulations to them both!

Judith Baxter Married to Donald Craig

Tall lighted cathedral tapers in brass candelabra outlined the altar of the Grace Lutheran Church Saturday for the wedding of Judith Baxter to Donald Dean Craig.

White chrysanthemums and pompons, white urns of ferns and palms were also used to enhance the altar. Single candelabra with garlands of ivy and satin bows marked the entrance aisle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Baxter, 209 N. Oneida St., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Craig, 503 Center Dr.

The Rev. K. F. Koeplin performed the ceremony, Mrs. Hazel Collier was the organist accompanying Harry Hans who sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

☆

THE BRIDE chose a floor-length gown of organza over taffeta fashioned with chapel train, empire style lace bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of pearls.

Mrs. Earl Kruger of Ft. Wayne, Ind. was matron-of-honor. Dottie Goodwin of Ann Arbor and Darlene Craig were the bridesmaids and Linda Baxter was junior bridesmaid.

They carried cascade bouquets of chrysanthemums and pompons accented with bittersweet, sea oats and wheat.

MRS. DONALD CRAIG

Earl Kruger of Ft. Wayne was best man and the 300 guests were seated by Clarence Smith and Ronald Baxter.

A three-tiered cake surrounded by four heart-shaped cakes were featured at the reception at the Product Union Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Milheim were hosts. Barbara Showab, Marti and Sue Grunke, Janet and Joyce Brollier, Peggy Newell, Mrs. Carl Thieme and Mrs. Roger Bipes also assisted.

Following a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will make their home at 314½ W. Logan St.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and Stautzenberger Business College and the groom is a Britton-Macon graduate.

People Stand 'Tiptoe' To See First Spaceman

Everyone is on "tiptoe" to see who will get the first man into space. Saint Paul once said, "The whole creation is on tiptoe to see the wonderful sight of the sons of God coming into their own."

"This New World we are looking for will simply be a new place of habitation for the same old kind of people, unless we begin to take seriously the teaching of the Gospel of our Lord," states the Rev. Blair Bashore, First Baptist Church pastor.

"The new world we are looking for will be uncovered, not in outer space but rather by our exploration into "Inner Space," he adds.

The ancient world called the, The Gospel, "The Good News", because those who believed in Christ found in their Faith, a release guilt in the assurance of God's love.

They found a power motivating them to goodness.

To the ancient people, and for us today Paul said, "Once the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead lives within you, he will, by that same spirit, bring to your whole being new strength and vitality."

The Christian Gospel says to each of us, "You are a child of Almighty God, Live up to your heritage. Be yourself as God created you to be!"

These are excerpts from the SERMON FOR OCT. 8 at the First Baptist Church. "The New Life in Christ" will be the topic of the pastor.

The first coffee hour of the fall season will be held Sunday following the worship service.

Mrs. Dwight Helms reported on the program of the kitchen committee for the Jaycee field trials. Many members volunteered to work in the kitchen for the day.

Several will attend the fall board meeting in Tawas City Oct. 14 to 15. They are Mrs. Helms, Mrs. Shelton, Mrs. Richard Creswell, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Walt Wonderly, Mrs. O'Neill.

'Little Child Shall Lead Them,' Is Theme

"Our children are so important in our lives and our responsibilities to raise them in the home and community demands our best efforts."

The Rev. Allen Wittrup has chosen as his subject, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them", for the 10 a.m. service Sunday at the First Methodist Church.

There will be private baptism for adults at 9:30 a.m. Infants and children will be baptized at the 10 a.m. service.

Friends Giving Food, Clothes to Ohio Home

Sunday will be Annual Harvest Home Day at Tecumseh Friends Church.

"Each year for many years our people have contributed canned goods, dry goods and produce for the Friends Rescue Home of Columbus, O." states the Rev. Paul Brantingham.

The ladies of the Friendly Class have furnished a room at the Home each year with linens and accessories.

The offerings for the day have gone toward the budget for this home missionary work.

This year, representatives of the Friends Home will be here during the 11 a.m. Sunday School hour according to the superintendent, Richard Butler.

Those desiring to help with grocery items, fruits and vegetables may have them at the church by Friday so that the chairman, Mrs. Herbert Murphy, may arrange the display.

Bible Study Is Resumed

Bible study will resume Monday at 8 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church.

All members of the church family and friends are invited and encouraged by the Rev. Julian Gresham to participate in this informal discussion and study.

Overcome Sin

Why the healing law of God can be relied upon to overcome sin and sickness will be explained Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Former Medical Missionary Speaks

Many people, today, feel inadequate in their understanding of world events. A steady stream of recorded conflicts and near conflicts flows across the pages of our newspapers.

We read of these far off events, brought near by modern communication, and wonder what has caused them. Who are the people involved? Which is right and which wrong?

We have the facts without the background. We have information without understanding. We have pieces of a puzzle, but cannot see a picture.

One such spot today that produces much news but little understanding is Africa, a land that has in recent years come under the influence of the western culture in terms of industry, methods of self-government and religion.

What has been the effect of the western influence? To what extent has the western culture contributed to the present conflict? What effect has Christianity had on the nations of Africa? What is the role of the church there today?

This year, as in past years, the Ministerial Association of Tecumseh will have a joint community service focusing attention on the Belgium Congo.

The speaker will be Dr. Robert White, former medical missionary of the Methodist Church, now on leave, who has most recently been head surgeon and hospital administrator at Wemba Nyama Hospital in the Belgium Congo.

The service will be at the Presbyterian Church, Sunday evening, Oct. 29 at 8 p.m.

Hal Weakly Named to MESC Position

Hal Weakly has accepted a position with the Michigan Employment Service Commission in Jackson.

He will serve as the employment service representative and administer the "plan of selection" program.

Mrs. Lola Thyne, manager of the commission's Jackson branch, made the announcement last week.

She said that the addition of the new staff member will expand the program in keeping with a presidential order extending the MESC services to both prospective employers and unemployed persons.

Mr. Weakly's job will be to analyze the employer's store or plant, or office needs, hiring requirements, working hours and conditions and match the qualifications of the jobseeker.

The information will be used by the employment service in screening and referring job applicants to vacancies as they occur.

About 20 employers in Jackson are already using the selection plan according to Mrs. Thyne. The service is provided to employers without cost.

'Whiskers' Is Selected Show's Best

"Whiskers" was also the shaggiest dog.

Danny Hare, 107 N. Oneida St., had the dog with the most spots, "Pepper."

Peggy Loughney's "Yellar" was the dog with the longest tail.

Language Lab Is Being Added

Tecumseh High School will soon have a language laboratory.

The National Defense Educational Act and an anonymous donor are making the acquisition of this equipment possible at no cost to the local school district.

What will this mean to our students?

"Today, the teaching of foreign language has become a key issue in our educational system, not only because Sputnik has impressed upon us the urgency of the international situation, but, because brand new avenues of teaching languages are bringing such important results that these raise the question whether such new tools of teaching could not similarly apply to other fields of education as wellh" states Neville Hart, Tecumseh High School principal.

"At this time when the Language Laboratory—a new teaching tool which incorporates electronics to carry it out—is becoming important equipment in our schools, we should focus our attention on the deeper potentialities of this approach.

"Its significance lies in the fact that it apparently faces up to one of the greatest educational challenges of our times—the present problem of quantity versus quality education, of standardization versus individualization, of providing education for 44 million Americans and at the same time affording the gifted and talented opportunity to progress according to their own speeds and ambitions," the principal added.

Thirty years ago, the good language teacher realized that with a large class the opportunities to encourage continued student participation and expression were often limited.

The weaknesses of teaching a language without bringing it "to life" through sustained student response were as obvious 30 years ago as they are today:

► The teacher felt the need to remove routine work from the classroom into some other area or some other place, so that more time would be available for creative class teaching.

► The student felt the need to participate more. He needed to hear "his master's voice" and then to speak and hear his own, so that listening and speaking and continued self-evaluation eventually would form a basic unit of the learning structure. He needed to become a more creative individual with greater liberty to advance at his own rate of learning.

☆

WHAT IS this new approach to language teaching, the language laboratory?

It is an electronic system which is composed of a classroom divided into small "rooms" or booths, each student having his own.

These booths are equipped with "private lines" to the teacher. He hears the teacher exclusively on his headphones, as if the teacher were a private tutor. Therefore, the student can participate all of the time, instead of once in a while.

Theoretically, by this method there is no longer a limit to mass teaching. Through the privacy of the headphones, the student is always personally engaged in the learning process, no matter how many students are actually in the room.

What about the teacher?

Now he has multiplied and become many instructors at the same time, for each student individually. By freeing himself from drill, routine and pronuciation problems, he can now give without disturbing or holding up any of the others.

THE BIG problem of our times is still the question of student individualization according to talent and ability.

The next step, therefore, is to further individualize by dividing students into several groups, administering several programs from a master console. This parallels what is being done in many classrooms today—the breaking up of a class into several smaller groups.

The difference is that if the teacher breaks up his class into five groups, he can still teach every group only 20% of the time. Through electronics, he can teach all of the groups, as individual groups, 100% of the time.

Another step toward greater student individualization by means of electronics is what is called the library method, or the individual study approach.

Here each student booth contains facilities for the student himself to operate and control his own "master". The student can progress entirely at his own rate of learning, with as much repetition as he needs and with nothing to stop him, but his own ambitions and talents.

He can compare and evaluate as many times as he wishes. If he prefers, he can again listen to the "master", making a new recording of his own version by automatically erasing his previous attempts.

☆

LIKE ANY teaching tool, the language laboratory can be used differently by different teachers. But, however it is used, the language laboratory does accomplish the following:

1. There is often a marked increase in student motivation. The fact that the student has less chance to daydream and that he is required to participate constantly has a lot to do with this.

The visual privacy of the booth, with outside distractions removed, is another motivation, as is the complete privacy of the headphones with the feeling of having a private tutor at one's side.

The student can establish closer contact with his teacher. He can sense this and his motivation can therefore be increased. This is probably the most significant aspect of the language laboratory.

2. Through electronics the language teacher can successfully handle larger classes. Classes of 50, 75 or even 100 students are often found in language laboratories, on the university level. This factor may become important in high schools if the demand for language teaching continues to increase and the number of available qualified teachers continues to lag behind.

3. A language laboratory can speed up the teaching of any foreign language, often with dramatic results on beginner's levels It has been reported that in one college a first-semester French course was completed in half the time by this method. In Spanish the speed-up was less, but still marked.

4. More important than speed, which is actually only a quantitative improvement are the results of actual tests given to several controlled groups throughout the country.

From a qualitative point of view, the students who have been exposed to laboratory methods did far better than those who had no contact with the laboratory.

"Perhaps this sounds rather revolutionary," Mr. Hart comments, "But looking at what has been happening in the tecahing of foreign languages during the past few years, it would be well to recall the time when another teaching tool caused a similar revolution. This teaching tool was the book.

"Because of the book our present schools became possible. Only because the student could be given a visual text to do some self-teaching, was the teacher freed to do more individual and creative work."

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Intramural football season is under way at Boysville.

Boys who do not participate in either varsity or freshman football must play intramurals.

Brother Charles Mack, CSC, intramural coordinator, has divided the boys into two circuits the Senior and the Junior Leagues.

Games are played each afternoon after school, with each team playing about twice a week. The games are looked forward to eagerly by the boys.

☆

Sophomore Clarence Riggs was chosen treasurer.

The Fighting Knights of Boysville captured their first football victory of the season in three attempts by beating the Britton Tories, 27-12.

The Tories opened the scoring in the first half with Larry Hummel making an end run from the Boysville 10-yard line.

In the second half, the Knights pushed their way down to the Britton 22 yard line, but were forced to give the ball up to the Tories.

But the Britton team was held and had to kick. Big Roger Jozwiak blocked the punt and end Tom Ryan picked up the loose ball and ran it over for Boysville's first touchdown.

Later in the quarter, Ryan again scored on a pass interception on the Britton 35.

With both extra points being scored, Boysville led at this stage 14-12.

The fourth quarter saw Boysville score its first touchdown from scrimmage as Tony McFarr scampered 10 yards for the tally.

Another TD was added by Jozwiak in the fourth frame, bringing the total up to 27-12.

Tomorrow night the Knights hope to keep their victory habits going when they meet the Bulldogs of Summerfield on the Summerfield gridiron.

Boysville's showed much promise to Coach Joe Fortunato, but started too late in the game to catch up with Morenci's scoring.

Tecumseh Future Farmers have traded in their old FFA truck and purchased a new 1962 Ford one-half ton pick-up from Tecumseh Motor Sales.

The FFA boys saved money over a period of years for this purpose. In a few years they intend to trade in their tractor for a new one.

Their projects for this year include raising 500 broilers, 14 acres of corn, feeding off six feeder pigs.

The boys also earn money by renting out the truck on a mileage basis to the school in connection with the hot lunch program and other school business.

If any individual uses the truck he also must pay for its use on the same basis.

Some other group projects the boys are working on this year is a Duroc pig chain with five pigs in it at the present time.

The boys have just purchased two registered Hampshire rams and are now in the process of buying 30 commercial ewes.

MICHIGAN IS GOOD ROADS

The people of Michigan are determined to maintain the state's highway leadership. Our current roadbuilding program is moving ahead at a rate nearly twice that of the national average.

Since 1957 Michigan's freeways have multiplied five times. These freeways are of great importance to national and international industry in the efficient movement of raw materials to the plant and finished goods to the customer.

Under present plans there soon will be four-lane divided highways to all Michigan cities of 50,000 population or more — freeways that will serve industry in planned industrial districts, adjacent or close by freeways that will serve this industry quickly, safely and cheaply.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your own comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together, we can assure a greater future for all of us.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

Big Reds Are Favored

The Big Reds, tied with Tecumseh and Grosse Ile for the Huron League lead, are favored to trim the Indians and hand them their first set-back of the season.

The loss, only one suffered by Coach Dune Lectka's team in 1960, occurred with five Indian regulars sidelined by injuries.

So far this season, the Indians have not appeared in the same class as the squads in the three previous years. Whether the team can arouse itself for a battle against the Big Reds will have to wait until Friday evening at 7:30.

Although improvement is noticeable, the Indians have yet to play spirited, hard football which will be necessary to stay with Milan.

Milan will be as big as Tecumseh, faster, and has a fine passer in quarterback Jerry Hitchcock to boost their attack.

STARS FOR YPSILANTI—Dave Sparrow, shown sprinting back with the game's opening kickoff, was a standout for Ypsilanti Lincoln, which fell prey to the Indians for their third win of the season.

Britton Stars in Win

By JIM LINCOLN

A 33-yard scoring drive late in the fourth quarter paid off for the Tecumseh Indians last Friday night with a 6-0 victory over Ypsilanti Lincoln.

The win, third in a row this year for Coach Dune Lectka's crew, tied the Indians for first place in the Huron League with Milan and Grosse Ile.

Ypsi, far tougher than expected, was the best team faced by Tecumseh this season and outplayed the local gridders for much of the game.

John Britton, becoming Tecumseh's most consistent gainer and hardest running back, sparked the Indians to their lone tally.

The visitors, stymied on their 16-yard line after three plays gained only four yards, punted just 17 yards to the 33 and opened the way to pay dirt for Tecumseh.

After Britton picked up two yards and Doug Goldsberry one, quarterback Tim Sisson hit Britton with a short pass to the 16.

Freshman halfback Goldsberry then plunged for six to the 10, picked up five more on the next play before being tossed for a yard loss to the six. On the next play Britton crossed over left tackle for the game's lone score.

WITH JUST 3:31 left on the clock, Ypsi passed and ran to the Indian's six where time ran out. It was the visitors' lone real threat of the game, although several times they moved well, only to be stopped short of the goal line.

The Indians missed several opportunities to wrap up the game. In the first period, a recovered Ypsi fumble gave Tecumseh the ball on the visitor's 26. A fourth down pass on Ypsi's three missed to spoil the first opportunity.

In the second stanza, Tecumseh twice moved inside the 30-yard line, but couldn't score. Once missing a first down by less than two yards and the second time an intercepted pass on the 18 stopped scoring drives.

Dave Sparrow, sparkplug of the Ypsi team, is probably the best all-round player Tecumseh will see this season. The senior quarterback did about everything for the visitors including an outstanding job on defense.

Enjoy Hay Ride

Thirty-four young people of the Baptist Youth Fellowship enjoyed a hayride Sunday evening to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn on Billmeyer Hwy.

A weiner roast was held before they returned to the church.

Marilyn Beland read "A Prayer of a Young Teen" for the devotional period. A short business session was held with Anita Sebring presiding.

Julie Ann Reeg and Larry Patterson Exchange Wedding Vows in Sturgis

BRITTON — The Trinity Lutheran Church at Sturgis was the scene of an autumn wedding Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Herbert Heidenreich performed the double ring ceremony in which Julie Ann Reeg of Sturgis became the bride of Larry Dean Patterson of Britton.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reeg. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson are parents of the bridegroom.

Hampers of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and lighted candelabras were used in the church chancel.

Matching arrangements of fall colored chrysanthemums and gladioli were on the altar.

A prelude of nuptial music was played by Eleanor Mecklenburg.

She also accompanied the Rev. Gustav Hannevik, minister of the Congregational Christian Church of Britton, who sang "O Perfect Love."

☆

Mrs. Kenneth Irelan of Sturgis was her sister's matron-of-honor. Her gown was golden satin fashioned with a scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves.

Caroline Glenn of Kalamazoo and Mrs. Wallace Simmons of Constantine were the bridesmaids and wore emerald green satin gowns fashioned identical to the matron-of-honor.

Little Diane Reeg was her cousin's flower girl in a gown of gold satin identical to that of the matron of honor.

Ricky Patterson was ring bearer in an afternoon tuxedo, identical to those worn by the men in the wedding party.

☆

The bride is a graduate of Sturgis High School, Pansons Business College of Kalamazoo and is employed in the accounting department of Kirsch Co.

Her husband is a graduate of Britton-Macon High School, Adrian College and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and Theta Alpha Phi National Honorary Dramatic fraternity.

The couple will make their home at 208 N. Maple St. in Sturgis after a short wedding trip to Chicago.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Patterson's Supper Club in Sturgis.

FOR All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

This is the best bubble he has ever blown, big and shiny and full of rainbow lights that shimmer gaily as he blows . . . and blows . . . and blows . . .

Inevitably, there will come the moment, when he will blow too hard and the bubble will burst. And then what was a thing of bewitching beauty will have vanished into air.

Some of the brightest-appearing things in life are no more stable than bubbles. They can shatter in an instant. But there are values that endure . . . the kind of values we learn in Church. The Church can help us achieve something solid and real, and the faith it teaches us is in no danger of disappearing today . . . tomorrow . . . or ever.

How do you tell a drunk?

The man was acting strangely. You know what people thought. But the neighborhood pharmacist had a hunch, took a close look, gave the man sugar. Then he called a physician who found the man was in insulin shock. Too much insulin, not liquor. Without prompt treatment, he might have died. This story illustrates the potency of modern drugs. Before using powerful drugs you should see a physician and then follow directions to the letter when taking them. There's a happier moral. Without modern drugs, the diabetic in this story wouldn't have had a life to save.

Initiation was held last week for 70 girls who were joining the Girls' Athletic Association.

As part of the initiation, these girls were required to wear their clothes "backwards," one day, along with applying a dot of red lipstick on the tips of their noses

As you can imagine, there were quite a few laughs and some embarrassed giggles from many of the initiates.

Soccer, speedball and hiking are activities planned by the GAA for the fall. The GAA will meet on Monday nights, after school, for the next month.

Other officers are:

Vice-president—Mary Smith

Secretary—Jean Packard

Treasurer—Ellen Spreeman

Membership is open to all "teens" (ages 13-19). This year, all members, old and new, are anticipating something very special, for the new teen club, situated in the Community Center, will soon be open.

Tecumseh High School students are very enthusiastic about the coming teenagers' program in the new Center.

A sincere awareness of appreciation to the Anonymous donors for his generosity in making the community center possible, is much in evidence around Teen Club membership, and it now appears that interest and participation in the Teen Club activities will not be lacking.

FFA Project Is Completed

by DAVID HOUSEMAN

BRITTON—Current project of paving the barnyard for the steer pen was completed last week.

It was originally planned to pour one 10 x 34 foot section of concrete, but with the xcelelnt results of the first piece, the group decided to add a second section of the same size, thus providing better drainage.

The steer committee will attnd an auction at West Branch, Oct. 19, where they hope to purchase steers for the coming year.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

SORT OF A DIRTY TRICK

A P.S. to last week: we were talking about some of the early migrating robins and how flocks of about 15 congregated in the yard—well, what a difference a week makes.

The robins are really getting serious now. Doctor called late the other afternoon to report a gathering of 30 to 40 birds. That is quite a yardful of robins.

But we must fly on to other things—the first part of September, do you remember how the temperature and the humidity seemed to be competing against each other to see which could go the highest?

The thermometer readings high-jumped toward the 90-degree mark and the air was so full of moisture—well, what do they say about wringing it out?

It rained at the proverbial drop of a hat and between showers, the hot sun shone brightly, making everything steam. It was summer's last real fling and what a whiz-bang-up job!

Activity at the bird feeders was somewhat less than overwhelming. Heat-wave doldrums had set in. An occasional titmouse or nut hatch would leave the cool shade of a leafy perch in the nearby maple tree to pick up a quick sun-flower seed snack and once in a while the suet was pecked at by Mr. and Mrs. Downey Woodpecker.

The sparrows were dumping around with bills open and wings drooping low and the squirrels just weren't to be seen at all.

The blue jays were really unhappy with the heat, their tempers were short and oh, the screeching and screaming.

☆

IT WAS typical hot-weather birdwatching until all of a sudden there was a burst of bubbling song, a flash of black, gray and white and we could hardly believe our eyes but sitting on the feeder was a chickadee.

Imagine, 90 degree weather and chickadees. The 's' is correct, because I hadn't recovered from the shock of seeing one until the second appeared.

They looked things over, showed particular interest in the sunflower head, but finally decided upon a suet luncheon, and all the while they were apparently not the slightest bit concerned that their appearance had turned my thinking topsy-turvy.

After all, chickadees are cold weather birds. At least, we always think of them as coming with the snow.

Actually, we count on them to lift our spirits when the old north wind starts the temperature tobogganing downward and our window-pictures are bleak, dreary things.

When winter is at its worst the chickadees are never disheartened and their happiness is contagious. What for goodness sakes, were they doing around here in 90 degree weather?

IF THEY were here to taunt and tease me about "cold weather is coming", well they did a good job. For us hot weather is porch weather and we spend all the time possible on the screened porch.

The bird feeders are on the other side of my room but even when we were 'outside' we knew when the chickadees were dining

They don't know, or maybe just don't care, that it is impolite to whistle and sing at the table. Their loud "chickadee-dee-dees" attracted our attention even when we had to look thru' the door, across the room and out the window to see them.

After eating their fill the two little characters often act as though they weren't sure we were paying them enough heed and so around the end of the porch they would come.

Flitting from branch to branch in the mulberry bush, they whistled and chattered—the cold weather never dampens their happy spirits and certainly this summer's heat-wave didn't either.

So it is that we have had chickadees already, but really, if Mother Nature sent them just to remind us of what is coming weather-wise, I think it was sort of a dirty trick.

Questions and Answers

1. Question: I am a 62-year old man and am not able to do any hard work. I applied for disability benefits last year but was turned down. Will the new social security changes help me?

Answers: Yes. The retirement age for men has been lowered to 62. If you decide to claim your payments now, they will be about 20 percent les sthan you would get if you wait until 65.

2. Question: I understand my monthly social security check will be permanently reduced if I decide to retire at 62. What effect will this have on my wife's benefits? She is 3 years younger and has never worked.

Answer: The new changes will not affect her payments. If she takes her payments as soon as she reaches 62, she will get 75 percent of the amount that would have been payable if she had waited until 65.

3. Question: I am 63 years old and have been laid off from my job as a night watchman. At my age, I doubt if I can get another job. Can I draw social security benefits now?

Answer: Yes, provided that you apply and have worked long enough. The 1961 amendments allow men between the ages of 62 and 65 to receive payments beginning with the month of August. Your checks will be reduced slightly be taking them early.

4. Question: I am thinking about signing up for my social security when I reach 62 in October. If I find a job and decide to go back to work later, how will this effect my checks?

Answer: Any checks due you before age 65 will be paid at the same reduced rate. When you reach age 65, your checks will be refigured to include your additional earnings. However, there will still be a slight reduction. You must, of course, notify us as soon as you return to work.

5. Question: Is the reduction rate for a 62 year old man the same as for a women worker of the same age?

Answer: Yes. At age 62, benefits are reduced 20 percent for both.

MSU Now Has 25,044 Enrollment

EAST LANSING — Enrollment at Michigan State University this fall will reach a total of 25,044.

Budget limitations imposed by last year's legislative appropriations restricted the number of new students. Beginning freshmen this fall totalled 4,740, as compared to last year's 4,690.

University officials were directed by the MSU Board of Trustees to attempt to hold the enrollment on the East Lansing campus to approximafely 22,560. The total on-campus enrollment today was 22,637.

The over-all growth came because of the addition of a third class at MSU—Oakland, where the enrollment went to 1,068.

Farm Parents Must Use Care in Use of Tractors

Deaths from tractor accidents in Michigan are decreasing, but highway tractor fatalities are on the increase, says Richard Pfister, Michigan State University agricultural safety engineer.

"Highway accidents with tractors are claiming a larger percentage of the death toll," Pfister says. "This is due to a combination of more accidents on the highway and fewer mishaps in the field.

"Statistics show that farm children between the ages of 10 and 14 have the highest mortality rate. For every hour of a child's time on a tractor, his chances of becoming involved in an accident are 30 times as great as a person between 15 and 45.

"A tractor on the highway should be operated only by a person mature enough to understand and follow the rules of the road. Tractors too should be driven preferably by a licensed driver. Last year, a third of the fatal accidents on Michigan highways involved unlicensed operators.".

Parents must use a maturity of judgment factor in determining whether Junior is old enough to drive the tractor, Pfister says. If he's old enough to service and maintain it without any supervision, then he's old enough to drive it.

"Tractor accidents among children will continue even though they are now back in school. Last September there were six deaths in the state involving school children.

Regular Audit of County Books Now Underway

Otis M. Smith, State Auditor General, announced that a state audit of Lenawee County for the calendar year 1960 is being conducted.

Mr. Smith said that this is regular audit which his department is required by law to conduct in each county.

These audits are conducted to ascertain if the accounting systems and records conform to and are consistent with proper governmental accounting standards.

It also is a check to see if there has been any irregularity in the receipt, expenditure or disposition of any monies received or appropriated, or if such funds have been disbursed and used for any purpose other than that provided by law.

A 2/c Randall S. Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beck of Tipton, is stationed in Okinawa. Airman Beck attended Tecumseh High School. VOICE of THE HERALD

To Speak Another Tongue

When one meets Tecumseh's three exchange students from Europe, the first thing that impresses is their mastery of the English language.

They speak and write it as well as most of us.

Now, let us consider the other side of the coin. Can 17 and 18-year-olds from America do as well with French or German or Spanish.

It's doubtful if there is a high school student in this community—and few adults—who could move to Holland or Germany and easily converse with the local citizens in the native tongue.

That's one of the major reasons the Youth for Understanding exchange program is limited mainly to full-time students coming into the United States and few of ours going overseas. They can speak our language. We can't handle theirs.

Most of our exchange students visit a few months during school vacation — and have to depend on their hosts speaking English.

An announcement from Tecumseh High School principal Neville Hart this week may have a distinct effect on this situation in future years.

THS is going to have a language laboratory, in which students will use individual booths, working with ear phones connected to recording devices and their instructor. This is a fascinating approach to mastering a foreign tongue, not only to read and write it, but also to become proficient in conversation.

Compared to European methods of language instruction, America has long dragged its feet. Only a part of student bodies is ever exposed to speech of other lands. Some high schools have no languages at all.

Tecumseh, fortunately, has been better than average in its language program. The new laboratory will help shoot the local school into a leading position in the state.

Its greatest accomplishment will probably be to create a much wider desire among students to study foreign languages and in turn give many a mastery of tongues, something they never dreamed of having when they entered high school.

Rules for Community Center

Rules and regulations for the use of Tecumseh's new Community Center are now being formulated.

This is going to be quite an undertaking and will have to cover almost every situation which could possibly arise.

In the meantime, work speeds on completion of the structure. Employees of Krieghoff Lenawee expect to be wrapped up by the first of next week.

Their job has beeen enormous. Folks who last toured the building while it was Talon, Inc. just won't recognize the place.

Every wall, inside and out, gleams with bright new paint. The floors and ceilings have been tiled or painted. The big main floor room, which measures 130 x 36 feet, is now wide open. Formerly, it had a series of supporting posts, which have been removed in favor of steel beams. The old elevator is also gone.

The glass room sparkles. It will be terrific for meetings, art displays and the like.

Some groups have already sought dates on which their organizations can use the Center. As of now, nothing is being booked, or can be, until the rules have been written and approved by City Council.

State Aid Estimate $22,000 Too High

By JIM LINCOLN

Supt. James McDowell reported to the school board Monday night that the school census, taken during the spring and including pupils in school to the 11th grade and those expected to enter kindergarten, exceeded the actual school enrollment.

Official school enrollment, taken as of Sept. 29 for state aid, is 3,082. This is 109 less than expected.

The smaller enrollment means approximately $22,000 which the Tecumseh schools will not receive, although it had been figured into the 1961-62 budget.

The new budget had allowed for over $30,000 to be applied to the school's $136,000 debt. The lesser enrollment and other unforseen expenditures have cut sharply into the budget's small excess.

One unexpected expenditure as reported to the board involves bringing Central School in line with recent recommendations made by a fire marshal inspector.

The cost will be approximately $1,200.

Supt. McDowell also reported that the hot lunch program went into the red to the tune of $500 during September.

Survey of the program — at Tipton, Ridgeway, Patterson and high school — show that many pupils are either carrying their lunch or going to downtown Tecumseh to eat.

There are only 156 students out of 1,227 at the high school and junior high eating hot lunches, 90 of 347 at Patterson, 59 of 166 at Ridgeway and 43 of 202 at Tipton.

☆

IN OTHER action, the board:

► Approved full replacement insurance on boilers and burners, amounting to approximately $250 additional premium a year.

► Approved an administration and teacher plan for grading in the elementary grades with A-B-C-D-E as symbols for marking.

After viewing two major college games in the last two Saturdays—one in Ann Arbor and the other at East Lansing—a satire on big-time football comes to mind.

Written by the late H. G. Salsinger, long-time and brilliant sports editor of The Detroit News, the piece was done as the two-platoon system took over.

Mr. Salsinger's story dealt with the mytical death of big-time college ball.

The money-hungry schools were so intent on bringing in gate receipts, they all soon had two stadiums each, one night next to the other.

All would be jammed to overflowing every Saturday afternoon.

At the same time, the offensive crew of school A would be receiving from the defensive 11 of B next door.

This worked wonderfully well, explained the wry report. When the ball changed hands, the defense and offense would jog from one stadium to the other by means of a tunnel which connected the two.

Dollars rolled into the tills and the schools launched bigger and better recruiting programs.

Then, on one fateful Saturday, the rains came. Turfs at the twin stadiums of a midwestern college were quagmires and the biggest games of the year were at hand.

Things got underway promptly at 2 p.m. and within 15 minutes all 44 players were covered with mire.

As the behemoths went through the motions, units changing from stadium to stadium, an odd thing happened.

School B's offensive unit was playing its own defense in one park. On the next-door gridiron, A was meeting A.

This went on for nearly a quarter before the drenched fans discovered what was happening.

Almost as one, the 200,000 people suddenly realized what had happened to college football. They silently filed out the exits.

The news flashed across the land and big-time football was dead.

Like my brother, Bob, remarked as we watched Michigan State and Stanford line up for Saturday's kickoff.

"It's not whether you win or lose, it's how many pay to see the game."

Magnificent Pictorial

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Eleven bands in excellent form, against the lovely green carpeting of the Tecumseh football gridiron, made a truly magnificent pictorial Tuesday evening in the 15th annual Band Festival of Lenawee County.

Music presented by the various bands was excellent as was that played by the massed band of 600 students.

"New York City's Rockettes have nothing on these bandsmen," was the thought going through this reporter's mind as each white-spatted foot came down at exactly the right time.

The Rev. Blair Bashore, narrator of each festival, gave fitting tribute to the late Clair Camburn, who first conceived the idea of the festival, 15 years ago.

The massed band played "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" as a memorial to the founder.

Members 'Fly' to Mission Fields

Members of the First Baptist Women's Society were carried briefly to many home mission fields as Mrs. E. H. McConnell told stories of work among the American Indians, Negroes, Mexicans, Latin American and Alaskan friends Monday evning.

Mrs. Robert Smith gave a capsule review of the Fall Associational rally in Temperance.

Many ladies met early to work on White Cross projects with Mrs. Charles Beland and Mrs. Floyd Bryan directing.

Twenty-five dollars was voted to the Scholarship fund of Michigan girls in Missionary training at Alderson Broaddus College Phillipi, W. Va.

Mrs. McConnell was again appointed chairman of the locally adopted student Wilma Jean Evans.

A love gift of $23.44 was received and dedicated by the chairman, Mrs. Vern Manwaring.

A pastel shaded centerpiece of fall flowers centered the table where refreshments were served with Mrs. Harold Davidson and committee in charge.

Women are alerted to make ready now for the auction at the Nov. 13 meeting when Mrs. Eddie Kirkland will auction baked goods and hand-made articles, with money being sent to Mathers School.

Mrs. Harold Harper and committee will be hostesses.

JCs To Distribute Fire Check List in Safety Effort

In an effort to increase community safety, the Jaycees of Tecumseh will sponsor a "Community Fire Safety Drive" in the coming month.

The Jaycees will conduct a door-to-door educational campaign on preventive measures and preparedness against fire.

As a preventive measure, they will institute a "fire check" of all homes in Tecumseh, leaving a list for each family to fill out and hang up for future reference.

The fire check list is a unique run down of all areas in the home, garage and automobile that should be under observation in the interest of safety.

In line with being prepared against fire, the Jaycees will sell "foolproof", a first aid fire extinguisher that is designed to combat incipient grease, gasoline, oil and electrical fires.

Fire Cheif Leo Alderdyce endorsed the "community fire safety drive" and stated:

"A fire check of all homes in Tecumseh, should aid in the disposal of all trash and other fire hazards, thereby increasing community safety immeasureably."

"If the public will take heed to the suggestions contained in the fire check list, we in Tecumseh will be doing our share to cut down the tragic loss of life and property by fires," he added.

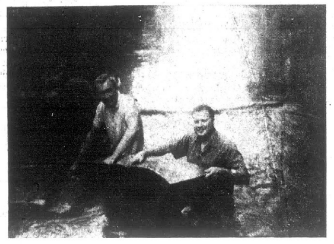
TRIO FOUND IT WEDGED IN PLACE BY GIANT TREE



BOB MOORE AND KARL SCHNEIDER WITH MISSING CANOE

Missing Canoe Is Located

The seven-month-old case of the missing canoe has been solved.

Search parties were never able to find a trace of it.

Three canoeists—Karl Schneider, Bob Moore and Ed Standish—discovered the missing vessel lodged under a giant tree several Sundays ago.

It was found midway between Comfort Bridge and Sutton's Crossing, near the river bank.

They attempted to free the canoe, but found it securely wedged in place by the tree.

St. Elizabeth NEWSETTES

During the month of September, members of the eighth grade service squad have been monitors in the various classrooms during the noon hour.

Completing a month of duty, they have retired temporarily. The service squad is now in the capable hands of the seventh graders.

Though they may experience a few difficulties now and then, they assure us that they are enjoying this time as junior teachers.

The eighth graders have selected the name "Thomists" for their class club and have chosen St. Thomas Aquinas as the class patron. The motto is, 'Do all to the best of our ability."

Meetings will be held on the last Friday of each month.

√

Last Thursday the principal of St. Elizabeth's, Sister Maureen Therese, OP, was pleasantly surprised as the students greeted her after flag raising with a song and gift to honor her feast day.

√

Sixth graders have been busily working at several selections which they will present in verse choir to the student body this week. It will be one of the many ways in which the new intercom system is used by the students.

√

Young artists in the fourth grade are creating beautiful centerpieces, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Dale Monagin. The children have gathered branches and Queen Anne's lace, which will be sprayed with various colored paints.

What would you think if a little brown pup came scampering into school? No, we're not starting a K-9 classroom, but it seems the pup thought so.

For awhile we had a real battle on our hands. I guess the front is quiet now so we better study. Just in case this happens to you treat him kindly. After all, he only wants to learn.

Cards Played

Junior Hi-lights

A Look at Mathematics

During the first weeks in mathematics in Tecumseh High school, the number system is explored and an attempt is made to make secure the fundamental arithmetic operations with whole numbers, fractions and decimals.

An effort is made to apply these operations to problematic situations in a manner which will be meaningful to the pupil.

Although the pupil is invited to consider various aspects of a problem and its solution, he is encouraged to pursue that method of solution which is most reasonable to him.

For example, if a student is met with the problem of finding how many minutes it will take a car to travel 30 miles if it is traveling at a speed of 45 miles per hour, his attention is directed to the possibilities of arriving at the correct solution by:

(1) — Dividing 60 by 45 and multiplying the quotient by 30

(2)—Dividing 45 by 60 and dividing 30 by that quotient

(3)—Dividing 30 by 45 and multiplying the quotient by 60.

It is deemed essential that the student be able to label any step in the solution of a problem e.g. in

(1) above if 60 is divided by 45 the student must realize that the quotient is the number of minutes required to travel one mile if the rate is 45 mph.

It is believed that an appreciation of various correct approaches to the solution of a problem and number correlations not only make possible more difficult pursuits in mathematics, but is the foundation of any sound judgement.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Opportunity Comes Knocking

Right in the middle of harvest, Smiley Roberts' hired man hurt his shoulder. So it was a stroke of real luck when a stranger knocked on Smiley's door asking for work.

"You can start right now!" says Smiley. "O.K.," says the stranger, "but what about wages?" With that Smiley pauses and says, "Well, I guess I can pay you whatever you figger you're worth."

The stranger thinks it over for a minute, shakes his head, and starts to walk away. "Sorry, mister," he says. "It's just not worth it to work for that kind of money!"

From where I sit, a man who undervalues himself is l[illegible] to lose out in a lot of w[illegible] even worse is the l[illegible] undervalues other p[illegible] Chances are he's the k[illegible] man who thinks o[illegible] ideas are worth some[illegible] kind of man who respects no opinion but his own. If he prefers tea, he's likely to object to your choice of coffee—or my choice of a glass of beer. Intolerance like this is no way to "reap" the rewards of good friendship.

HANDLE FEEDER CATTLE WITH CARE for 1 to 2 weeks after they arrive in your feedlot. This can mean a big difference in shrink and how efficiently they'll go on feed. Move newly shipped feeders to restraining pens away from other cattle to force them to rest. Watch them closely for any outbreak of shipping fever, or other disease, and treat immediately. After cattle appear to be fully rested, they can be put on pasture, stalk fields or a full feed in the feedlot.

BALANCE FIELD LOSSES WITH DRYING COSTS in deciding at what moisture you should begin harvesting corn that you plan to dry. Granted, losses are normally lowest when corn is harvested at around 30% moisture. But this adds to the cost of drying corn to the safe storage level, compared with when corn is harvested after it dries a little more in the field. This level will depend upon your particular costs. But normally it is within the 23% to 27% moisture range.

GET THE MOST FROM YOUR FEED DOLLAR. Feed cows individually according to their production ability. There may well be some cows in your herd that would do better if more concentrates were included in their ration. You're money ahead so long as the increase in milk produced by a particular cow will more than offset the extra cost of the feed. Better look over your production records and see what cows appear to have a potential of more milk.

RATS CAN COST YOU MONEY. Over a year's time, one rat alone can consume, waste and damage $20 worth of grain. Cover areas where rats may gain entrance to grain bins with screen. Place some of the many types of bait stations about the farmstead. Put about 6 to 8 ounces of bait such as warfarin in each station.

Indians Drop First of Season

Unable to get their offense rolling, the Tecumseh Indians dropped their first game of the season at Milan Friday, 19-0. It was only the second defeat for Coach Dunc Lectka's team in three years.

The score fails, somewhat, to indicate the closeness of the game for nearly three quarters. After the Big Reds tallied late in the first quarter, their second TD did not come until just one minute remainder in the third stanza.

Tecumseh has a good chance this Friday night to boost its season's mark to 4-1 when the Indians tangle with Flat Rock at FR. Game time is 7:30.

A partially blocked punt early in the first quarter against Milan kept the Indians in the hole which they never got out of until after their opponents scored.

Milan tallied on its third series of downs, moving 40 yards to paydirt in five plays. Big play of the series was a 21-yard pass-play on a third and four situation on Tecumseh's 34.

A 51-yard run by Milan's John Rolen set up the tilt's second score when the shifty halfback scooted from his 32 to Tecumseh's 17. The Indians held on the 17, missed by two yards for a first down on the 25, then punted only to have Milan run the ball back to their 39.

Rolan then scored six plays later from the two. Jerry Hitchcock's pass to end Bernie Wilson made it 13-0.

Four minutes later in the final period, Milan pushed 38 yards for it final score, sweeping Tecumseh's right end for 21 and finally for 14 yards and the TD.

Tecumseh's best opportunity to break into the scoring column occurred late in the final period when the Indians reached Milan's 10 before relinquishing the ball.

Quarterback John Oberlin and Danny Greene, alternating between end and halfback, bore the brut of the thrust which just failed.

Greene, thrown for 29 yards in losses while attempting to pass in the first half, broke away for runs of eight and 18 yards.

Statistically, the teams were about even with Rolen's 51-yard sprint giving Milan an edge in rushing. Tecumseh's interior defensive line appeared equal to Milan's but the Indians offensive line couldn't open holes to spring the offense.

Chicken dinner was served to the students by the Grange members.

"It was like a little United Nations", said Mrs. Harold Rohrback, program chairman. "Our guests enjoyed it so much that they requested they be invited to return Nov. 9 to the regular meeting."

Linda Dean, accompanied by Dexter Bailey, sang two vocal solos and told of her trip to South America this summer, thanking everyone who had helped her to go.

"God Be With You Till we Meet again" was sung by the assembly to close the evening's festivities.

TRIO FOUND IT WEDGED IN PLACE BY GIANT TREE

BOB MOORE AND KARL SCHNEIDER WITH MISSING CANOE

Missing Canoe Is Located

The seven-month-old case of the missing canoe has been solved.

Search parties were never able to find a trace of it.

Three canoeists—Karl Schneider, Bob Moore and Ed Standish—discovered the missing vessel lodged under a giant tree several Sundays ago.

It was found midway between Comfort Bridge and Sutton's Crossing, near the river bank.

They attempted to free the canoe, but found it securely wedged in place by the tree.

St. Elizabeth NEWSETTES

During the month of September, members of the eighth grade service squad have been monitors in the various classrooms during the noon hour.

Completing a month of duty, they have retired temporarily. The service squad is now in the capable hands of the seventh graders.

Though they may experience a few difficulties now and then, they assure us that they are enjoying this time as junior teachers.

The eighth graders have selected the name "Thomists" for their class club and have chosen St. Thomas Aquinas as the class patron. The motto is, Do all to the best of our ability."

Meetings will be held on the last Friday of each month.

Last Thursday the principal of St. Elizabeth's, Sister Maureen Therese, OP, was pleasantly surprised as the students greeted her after flag raising with a song and gift to honor her feast day.

Sixth graders have been busily working at several selections which they will present in verse choir to the student body this week. It will be one of the many ways in which the new intercom system is used by the students.

Young artists in the fourth grade are creating beautiful centerpieces, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Dale Monagin. The children have gathered branches and Queen Anne's lace, which will be sprayed with various colored paints.

What would you think if a little brown pup came scampering into school? No, we're not starting a K 9 classroom, but it seems the pup thought so.

For awhile we had a real battle on our hands. I guess the front is quiet now so we better study. Just in case this happens to you treat him kindly. After all, he only wants to learn.

Cards Played

Dessert luncheon was served preceding the business session conducted by Mrs. Percy Bowen.

Cards were played and prizes awarded. Mrs. Ned Baldwin won second high at bridge and Mrs. Jack Smith, high score at the Canasta table.

Already slated to have a hand in the library are Kuhlman Concrete, R. H. Moore & Son Lumber Co. and Wes Haeussler Construction. Othel local concerns which work in excavating, painting and wiring are currently being contacted by Mr. Hikes. The new library will have space for 35,000 books, as compared to the present 17,000 volumes.

A Look at Mathematics

During the first weeks in mathematics in Tecumseh High school, the number system is explored and an attempt is made to make secure the fundamental arithmetic operations with whole numbers, fractions and decimals.

An effort is made to apply these operations to problematic situations in a manner which will be meaningful to the pupil.

Although the pupil is invited to consider various aspects of a problem and its solution, he is encouraged to pursue that method of solution which is most reasonable to him.

For example, if a student is met with the problem of finding how many minutes it will take a car to travel 30 miles if it is traveling at a speed of 45 miles per hour, his attention is directed to the possibilities of arriving at the correct solution by:

(1) — Dividing 60 by 45 and multiplying the quotient by 30

(2)—Dividing 45 by 60 and dividing 30 by that quotient

(3)—Dividing 30 by 45 and multiplying the quotient by 60.

It is deemed essential that the student be able to label any step in the solution of a problem e.g. in

(1) above if 60 is divided by 45 the student must realize that the quotient is the number of minutes required to travel one mile if the rate is 45 mph.

It is believed that an appreciation of various correct approaches to the solution of a problem and number correlations not only make possible more difficult pursuits in mathematics, but is the foundation of any sound judgement.

Student Council Elects Officers

Preceeding the elections, group guidance classes studied parliamentary proceedure with practice in choosing qualified candidates, nominating candidates and campaign or seconding speeches.

The Student Council in Junior High has charge of all social functions. It runs a refreshment stand at the basketball games and arranges for a number of assembly programs during the year.

The purpose of the Council is to aid in building student morale, forming and enforcing rules that will help to make the Junior High a better school; and to plan activities that will involve as many students as possible.

In addition to the members represented from each section, each club of the school sends a representative to the meetings and files a constitution of their club with the council.

Seventh grade—Dean Hebb, Tom Irelan, Rudy Valdez, Rick Skinner, Terry Bates, Gary Gottschalk, Cindy Calhoun and Jim Goodman

GAA—Kay Upell

Indians Drop First of Season

Unable to get their offense rolling, the Tecumseh Indians dropped their first game of the season at Milan Friday, 19-0. It was only the second defeat for Coach Dunc Lectka's team in three years.

The score fails, somewhat, to indicate the closeness of the game for nearly three quarters. After the Big Reds tallied late in the first quarter, their second TD did not come until just one minute remainder in the third stanza.

Tecumseh has a good chance this Friday night to boost its season's mark to 4-1 when the Indians tangle with Flat Rock at FR. Game time is 7:30.

A partially blocked punt early in the first quarter against Milan kept the Indians in the hole which they never got out of until after their opponents scored.

Milan tallied on its third series of downs, moving 40 yards to paydirt in five plays. Big play of the series was a 21-yard pass-play on a third and four situation on Tecumseh's 34.

A 51-yard run by Milan's John Rolen set up the tilt's second score when the shifty halfback scooted from his 32 to Tecumseh's 17. The Indians held on the 17, missed by two yards for a first down on the 25, then punted only to have Milan run the ball back to their 39.

Rolan then scored six plays later from the two. Jerry Hitchcock's pass to end Bernie Wilson made it 13-0.

Four minutes later in the final period, Milan pushed 38 yards for it final score, sweeping Tecumseh's right end for 21 and finally for 14 yards and the TD.

Tecumseh's best opportunity to break into the scoring column occurred late in the final period when the Indians reached Milan's 10 before relinquishing the ball.

Greene, thrown for 29 yards in losses while attempting to pass in the first half, broke away for runs of eight and 18 yards.

Statistically, the teams were about even with Rolen's 51-yard sprint giving Milan an edge in rushing. Tecumseh's interior defensive line appeared equal to Milan's but the Indians offensive line couldn't open holes to spring the offense.

Like Little UN

Approximately 110 people attended the Tecumseh Grange Booster Night Saturday evening when 40 foreign English teachers from Ann Arbor presented the program.

The teachers, visiting from the University of Michigan, represented many European countries, oriental lands and South America.

Chicken dinner was served to the students by the Grange members.

"It was like a little United Nations", said Mrs. Harold Rohrback, program chairman. "Our guests enjoyed it so much that they requested they be invited to return Nov. 9 to the regular meeting."

Linda Dean, accompanied by Dexter Bailey, sang two vocal solos and told of her trip to South America this summer, thanking everyone who had helped her to go.

"God Be With You Till we Meet again" was sung by the assembly to close the evening's festivities.

Choose Way of Redeemer Minister Says

Four members of the Board of Deacons will assist the Rev. Blair Bashore in service on the Layman's Sunday, Oct. 15.

"Choosing a God" will be the title of the Sermon.

"Sometimes we hear that God Chooses us, yet we read, "Choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your father's served in the land beyond the River, or the gods of the Amerites in whose land you dwell", said the Rev. Mr. Bashore Monday.

"As parents, we have the sacred responsibility of holding up before our children the God of Life and Redemption. It is a fact that the God of our father's is in us. The values we hold dear often become the gods we follow," he continued.

"Money, Power, success—these have a way of replacing the true, eternal, loving, forgiving, Father God.

"We have the power of choosing—we are capable of choice. We are free to say YES only if we can really say NO.

"Doubting Thomas saw what commitment to the True God meant to His Son, Our Lord, and worshipped Him saying, 'My Lord and My God.'

"There is a Way of Life that leads to happiness and Peace. Jesus said, 'I am the Way' and again He said, 'Follow Thou Me' Choose wisely. Choose the Jesus Way, he concluded.

Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation

It is anticipated that the cost of the building will be in the neighborhood of $170,000.

It is further expected that the furnishing of the new library will be approximately $30,000. The library was designed by Marr & Marr, architects of Detroit, after months of study by a committee headed by Mr. William Wright and appointed by the Foundation's Board of Trustees. THIS IS THE REALIZATION OF A PROMISE MADE BY THE FOUNDATION TO TECUMSEH AREA CITIZENS WHEN THE FOUNDATION WAS CREATED, TWO AND A HALF YEARS AGO.

The new library, to be located across from the Central school, will be 136x73 feet with an exterior of limestone and steel. The main floor will include an 81x72 master reading and stack room, three offices, ladies lounge, 27x40 children's room, conference room, restrooms, work room, and lobby. The basement will include a 47 x 26 meeting room, mechanical equipment room and a 53x36 storage room. There will be an interior and exterior stairways to the basement.

The purpose of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation is a joint participation of Tecumseh area citizens to help each other so that all may benefit from worth while projects realized through their contributions. A brief sketch of the many organizations which receive financial assistance from our donations are:

MICHIGAN UNITED FUND . . . 34 agencies, including U.S.O., American Heart Association, Cancer Research, Multiple Sclerosis,, and Leader Dogs for the Blind share in our offerings.

AMERICAN RED CROSS . . . there are many worth while projects, including the local Gray Ladies and their assistance and work at Herrick Memorial Hospital, and water safety programs.

IRISH HILLS GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL . . . for programming with all troops participating and partial costs of camping and facilites and leader training courses.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICES . . . religion, color or position is not a factor or issue as social casework services are offered to anyone in Lenawee County.

COMMUNITY PARTY FUND . . . under the auspices of Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, three major events — Christmas Party, Halloween Party, High School Band Festival — are planned.

TECUMSEH RECREATION PROGRAM . . . emphasis is placed on summer sports for boys and girls, supervised play for tots, and maintenance of ice skating rinks.

HURON VALLEY GUIDANCE CLINIC . . . provides professionally trained personnel for the treatment of children, ages 3 through 17, with emotional problems.

LENAWEE COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY . . . retiring mortgage debt on shelter, shelter's operation and maintenance expenses, and rehabilitation of worthwhile animals.

SALVATION ARMY . . . direct relief to county families and providing for transients — meals, lodgings and clothing, and sometimes, medical and transportation costs.

TECUMSEH SERVICE CLUB . . . aids families hit by disaster and contributes and coordinates contributions to the unfortunate at Christmas time.

WOLVERINE COUNCIL OF BOY SCOUTS . . . maintains and coordinates program for better Scouting and maintains office and assistance to local leaders.

ADMINISTRATION . . . covers expenses for promotional materials and advertising expenditures to assure the community of a successful campaign.

American Farmer Degree Goes to Lawrence Wagner

By DAVID HOUSEMAN

BRITTON — Eleven Future Farmers of America from Michigan received the organizations highest degree, American Farmer at the 34th Annual National Convention of FFA in Kansas City, Mo., this week.

Lawrence Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wagner, Britton, member of the Britton FFA Chapter was one to receive this degree.

Lynn M. Bartlett, State Superintendent of Public Instruction reported that he has received information from FFA headquarters in Washington, D. C., stating that the Board of Student Officers and Board of Directors of the national organization have reviewed the Michigan applications and recommended to the delegates at the convention that the eleven boys receive the coveted degree.

Nationally, the FFA Board of Directors voted to recommend that 377 Future Farmers receive the American Farmer Degree.

Each degree winner received a certificate and gold key from the Future Farmers of America Foundation, Inc.

Attainment of the American Farmer Degree is based on the Future Farmer's record in farming, leadership and scholarship.

During the seven years that Larry Wagner has been a FFA member he has fed-out 404 steers, raised 448 acres of corn, 137 acres of soybeans, 98 acres of wheat, 16 acres of oats, 2.2 acres of sugar beets and two acres of tomatoes.

LAWRENCE WAGNER

Several of Larry's leadership activities have been state and chapter FFA officer, 4-H club officer, class officer, president of the Short Course Dorm and many other rural organizations.

Larry graduated from Britton-Macon in 1958 and MSU Short Course in March 1961.

The degree is limited to FFA members, who have been out of high school at least one year and showing evidence of becoming successfully established in farming.

State Associations of FFA are limited to one American Farmer Degree candidate for each 1,000 members or major fraction thereof.

Michigan, with FFA membership of 10,659, submitted the names of 11 candidates, all of whom were recommended to the convention delegates for the degree.

One Future Farmer, who is outstanding of the degree winners was named Star Farmer of America and received $1,000 cash award.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

A SATURDAY MORNING SURPRISE

It was several weeks ago, about 10 o'clock on a bright, sunny Saturday morning and Dad had just put a book on my reading table when, out of the corner of my eye, I saw something in the yard.

My first reaction was, "Oh gracious, look at that big cat!" Even before the words were out of my mouth, however, I realized it was no cat—it was a racoon!

As Dad and I watched, "our visitor" scampered around the yard, hopped over the bottom rail of the fence, investigated a clump of weeds in back of the white barrier and then came back into the yard.

He trotted along the top of the creek bank and finally disappeared down the hill. I had just begun to wonder where he had gone when he popped back into view.

He splashed across the creek in a shallow narrow spot and was gone for good.

The whole adventure could not have lasted more than four or five minutes but fortunately, thrills and excitement aren't measured by the clock.

We are still a bit breathless over our racoon and I think one of the reasons we enjoyed him so much was that he did such a wonderful job of showing himself off.

Performing not more than 15 feet from the window, we had a wonderful look at him. His coat was so thick and heavy it just had to be soft, and if tails have any prestige value in the racoon world this fellow must be "it."

His was a beauty, long and bushy and ringed with wide black bands. A real handsome character and of course we could not help chuckling whenever he turned to face us—a little pixy face, bright shoe-button eyes, sharp pointed nose and, most characteristic of all, the black bandit-type eyemask.

☆

THIS FIRST VISIT was such fun we hope every day he'll favor us with a return engagement but so far, no. We can't help wondering if he is one of the family who paid us the early morning visit.

That was something—I think Mother never will get over looking out the window at 4:30 a.m. and seeing a mother racoon and five babies. I should think it quite possible that our Saturday morning friend was one of this group, wouldn't you?

Whenever coons come up for discussion I always think of our first experience with one.

It was many, many years ago and at that time we had two dogs, my little Topper and the Llewellyn Setter named Lady, no relation to our present great Lady.

They were good dogs, well-behaved and reasonably well-trained—usually they could be counted upon to obey a command to quit barking.

On this particular night, however, they barked, barked, barked. Hour after hour they carried on. Dad's efforts to quiet things down were completely ignored, calling from the window did no good and several trips out into the cold back yard were also ineffective.

Something was obviously wrong but he could see nothing —we decided we would just have to wait until it was light.

☆

BY MORNING the poor dogs had barked themselves hoarse. They were still trying but not even yips would come out.

The only sounds they could make were little squeaks. What had caused all the commotion?

Well, between the dogs' houses was a big walnut tree and somehow a half-grown racoon had gotten into the tree without either Topper or Lady seeing it.

The going up was fine, but the poor thing was spotted before it could come down and thus we spent a night listening to our bird dogs make like coon-hounds, who have their quarry treed.

So it is that every once in a while we have a racoon adventure. I think, however, that for sheer fun none have ever topped our Saturday morning surprise.

Flu Bugs on the Way MD Warns

LANSING—Michigan residents can probably expect an increase in flu cases this fall and winter.

State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis urges people considered poor health risks to consult with their physician about flu shots.

He recommended immediate vaccination of persons with heart or pulmonary disease, diabetes and other chronic illness, persons over 65 and pregnant women.

Those who have not had previous influenza shots should have a second injection in two months

"The various strains of influenza usually strike in fairly consistent cycles, but we are overdue for Type B flu outbreaks, which come in four to six year cycles, and we may be in for a major assault from Asian flu, which usually strikes every two to three years," he said.

Persons previously immunized with the vaccine should receive a booster shot each fall, prior to Nov. 1, Dr. Heustis said.

WSCS Will Donate to Proposed Church

Members of the WSCS of the Methodist Church voted Oct. 4 to contribute to a "living memorial" a church to be built on the campus at Michigan State University.

The memorial will honor Bishop Marshall Reed.

Mrs. Paul Hadsell conducted the meeting, held in the social rooms of the church. The calendar of events for the year was read:

Oct. 24—District Conference at Strathmore Church, Detroit.

Oct. 26—Macon at 2 p.m. to share their "Quiet Day of Prayer."

Nov. 8 — Janousek Fair, to raise funds for missionary work.

Dec. 3—Lenawee County Methodist Churches contribute to Chelsea Home.

Dec. 9—Christmas Tree Lane.

Mrs. Jean Miller presented the program assisted by Mrs. Richard Loughney, Mrs. Howard Kronberg, Mrs. Glenn Work, Mrs. Walter Hizer and Mrs. Ned VerHage.

The theme was "Churches for the New Times."

During the short skit, the call brought out the responsibility of the church in growing cities and the areas with shifting populations.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee, Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mrs. Warren Duckworth and Mrs. Robert Younglove.

Pick Pockets — and It's Legal

Three new features have been added to the festivities of the annual Fun Night Saturday, Oct. 14, at Tecumseh Acres School sponsored by the PTA.

Mrs. Robert Beard, in appropriate costume with a live black cat, will tell fortunes with the use of a crystal ball.

An opportunity legally to pick pockets will be offered to patrons by the two "tall guys", John Robinson and Thomas Kampmueller.

Pockets in their unique outfits will be loaded with interesting loot—to be had for a small sum.

Climaxing the event will be the "spook-nik ball" complete with spook house and spook eats for all spooker-oos.

The Halloween theme will be used throughout the attractions.

Twelve door prizes, donated by the Tecumseh merchants and valued at $5 each, will be awarded.

A king and queen to reign over the event will be chosen from the sixth grade by all students of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Colson and Mr. and Mrs. William Tilton are co-chairmen of the Fun Night this year.

IT'S A TRADITION — Mrs. Ralph Dabe (left) and Mrs. Carlos Knisely display "the nightshirt" which will fly again for the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. The rummage sale, the ladies are co-chairing, will be held Oct. 12 and 13 in the building formerly occupied by Cook Electric. Proceeds will be used to furnish a floor at the hospital. The "night shirt" became a noted item when Mrs. Ray Sluyter found it in articles for sale in rummage in 1958. Since that time it has been used to proclaim a sale by the Auxiliary.

Gail E. Elliott, 17, of 105 E. Pottawatamie and Troy R. Hicks, 38, of 215 W. Shawnee were involved in an accident Wednesday at W. Chicago Blvd. and Maiden Lane.

Gail was waiting to make a left turn when Troy started to turn right. Another car was alongside and in turning back, Mr. Hicks hit the Elliott car in the rear.

A summons was issued to Mr. Hicks for failure to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

William L. Shavalier, 18, of Tipton was arrested Thursday by the Clinton State Police on a charge of aiding and abetting a forgery. He waived examination before Justice VanDusen and was ordered held at the county jail in lieu of $1,000 bond.

A 16-year-old Clinton boy, arrested with William, is being held at the County Children's home awaiting probate court action in the case, troopers said.

Mrs. Beckey did not see the stop sign and both cars preceeded ahead and collided.

Plastic Replaces Wax Cartons

Meadowridge Dairy has announced the complete conversion from the conventional wax-coated carton to the new "Bright Plastic" Pure-Pak carton, according to Ken Blumerick, owner.

Mr. Blumerick said the new plastic carton is the dairy industry's finest container for fluid milk. He added: "The new carton is smooth to the touch, easier to handle, and eliminates the leaking and flaking problems sometimes found in other types of cartons.

"The move to the new plastic carton was made," he continued, "in keeping with the dairy's policy of bringing the latest technological improvements to its customers as soon as they are introduced."

The Pure-Pak method of packaging milk now accounts for about thirty million units a day, making it the world's most widely used food package.

UNICEF Will Be Oct. 30

Tecumseh's participation in the national UNICEF Trick or Treat program was arranged at a meeting of representatives from six local churches, and the mayor's office.

It was decided to hold this years' drive on Halloween eve, Monday, Oct. 30, between 6 and 8 p.m.

In this community, as well as in all parts of the 50 states, citizens will have good reason to be proud of their children.

The "treats" of coins the little folks correct will help the United Nations Children's Fund to chase the year-round hobgoblins which still plague most of the world's children—the ghosts of hunger, disease and fear of the future.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

Your last half of Long & Short for Oct. 5 seemed like a waste of space to me. As I put The Herald down and glanced at the Toledo Blade it tells of Dr. Rolland C. Wolfe, chairman of the Western Reserve University Department of Religion.

Mr. Wolfe deplored the American people's "insane mania" of antipathy toward Russian people, called for recognition of Red China and Cuba by the United States and said this country has been brandishing bombs while Russia is talking peace.

Decision, July issue. Billy Graham Says "We have agreed to a cease-fire in Laos, after meeting Communist terms that will ultimately hand over the entire country to Communism and further endanger the free nations of south east Asia".

Maybe your Long and Short could tell us about the National Council of Churches and its stand on Red China as a member of the United Nations.

I think 10 years prior to their admission to the UN Red China should account for over 300 American soldiers who disappeared after the cease-fire in Korea. I know this may sound strong, but next time it may be my son.

The Ford Foundation working through the Metropolitan Opera, commissioned Marc Blitzstein to write opera. Blitzstein admitted membership in the Communist party. This same foundation had a hand in the organization of Fund for the Republic.

Our government sends aid to Marshal Tito's country, about two billion dollars worth. Have we bought friendship? I don't think so.

The point is, if Mr. Robert Welch doesn't bring out some of these facts for the John Birch Society for consumption by the American people who will?

Or shouldn't we know the awful truths? So far he doesn't seem to threaten any of our American Freedoms.

Lyle M. Grigg

Editor's note: Apparently, the point was not clearly made. We do think America should become aware of the communist menace, as witness our efforts last spring to get the film "Operation Abolition" shown and have objective discussions following the showing.

Our comment is directed to the John Birch Society, which boarders on fanaticism, sweepingly condeming almost everything in sight.

We must know much more about communism. We must not call everyone who objects to our opinion a communist.

The National Council of Churches did come out in favor of admitting Red China to the UN. We violently oppose this thinking. However, we do not feel this makes the Council communistic.

New Baseball Diamond

A brand new baseball field is being fashioned by Tecumseh American Legion members on property the post owns south of Burt St., adjacent to the Raisin River. Work began Saturday morning when a bull dozer and grader leveled the field (at left). Working the transit was Legionnaire Dale Clark (bottom photo) of Clark Lake, assisted by Dick Purkey and Donald Woods. About 25 post members will begin to drag and seed the diamond this weekend. The field will measure about 350 feet along the left and right field lines and have an area running 550 feet to center. The infield is going to be grass. Also scheduled for an area north of the field will be a picnic ground and park for use by Legionnaires.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

The Junior Knights' football team at Boysville won their first game in two starts last Wednesday by defeating the Junior Bulldogs of Summerfield, 27-0.

Fleet-footed Jim Eldrington, quarterback of the Knights, raced for two touchdowns on long runs of 80 and 70 yards, and set up another with a 91-yard sprint to the enemy's one-yard line.

The intramural season is well under way at Boysville.

In first place in the Senior League are the Lions with a 3-0 record. Under star passer Charlie Kramer, they have the defense baffled. The cry now is, "Who will beat the Lions?"

Each team bears the name of a professional football crew. There are the Rams, the Forty-Niners, the Bears, the Packers, and so on.

In the past, each team chose its own "special" name, like "The Idiots," or "The Bruisers," but this year the names and rules are different. Each team plays seven men at a time on an 80-yard field. Two-hand touch "brings the man down."

In the Junior League, the Browns are holding first place as of now, but every game played is an important one.

The Senior League is comprised of five teams, and the Junior League has seven.

It is hoped that at the end of the season, as in the past, the intramural "All Stars" will play a game against the teaching faculty at school.

The workers have finished the foundations of the building and are now working on pouring the concrete floor.

Some of the faculty and students have been working out, preparing for the time when the finishing touches will be added.

Some carelessness in tackling and ball handling in the second half on the part of Boysville cost the Knights loss of possession of the ball several times, and in the long run cost them the game.

Then Charlie Stone roared 25 yards for the final Boysville score. Big Roger Jozwiak scored the extra point for the Knights.

The Bulldogs caught fire in the second half, and, taking advantage of several Knight errors, especially fumbles, scored three times—twice through the air and once through the center of the line.

Tomorrow night the Fighting Knights will play the Bobcats of Whiteford on the Whiteford gridiron.

How food fads can fool you

We don't mean there's anything wrong with eating yogurt and wheat germ and so on. They are fine, healthful foods. But here's the rub. Advocates of some food fads promise benefits that diet alone can't deliver. Occasionally, someone with a medical problem will try to solve it by living mostly on cabbage juice or some such thing. Special foods and diets, however, have limitation—can be harmful when improperly used. So if you think there's anything wrong with you, by all means see your physician.

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Banquet for Ed

Ed Nelson got the job.

During that time, Tecumseh has grown tremendously and through all of the municipal changes and improvements, Ed has been in the forefront.

If a city job goes wrong, Ed accepts the blame—whether it is his or not — and quietly goes about the task of rectifying things. Ed never hides from trouble.

Everyone seeking a favor from the city doesn't get it, not because Ed is uncooperative, but because some difficult-to-move obstacle stands in the way. If, in future months, things can be worked out, Ed will be in there pitching.

The Herald's publishers were delighted when we learned that a full-scale banquet is being held in Ed's honor on Oct. 27.

Several exciting surprises are in store for Ed that evening and we're sure the citizens of Tecumseh will be greatly pleased when they are unfolded.

Next Is Cash Give-Away

In recent years, Tecumseh merchants have staged some excellent town-wide business promotions.

Most familiar to area shoppers are the Sidewalk Sale , the Pancake Supper and Moonlight Sale and two year's ago the give-away of a Rambler.

To run through part of November and all of December, the event will see a jackpot of $150 awarded weekly with a top prize of $100.

The fun of this type of promotion is that should the cash go unclaimed, because the winner isn't on hand, the following week's prize will be greatly enriched.

Free entry blanks for the drawing will be made available in all participating stores when the program starts next month.

Full details will be released by the retailers immediately prior to the event. The idea gained acceptance from storemen at a session last week of the retail division.

Niels Enjoys America

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Niels Hansen, 17-year-old son of a baroness, is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bonner and their son, Bob, for the coming year.

Under the "Youth For Understanding Program, Niels came from his home at Braunschweig, Germany only 20 miles from the border of the East and West zones to learn what life in America is like.

Braunschweig is a city of 250,000 persons and was founded in the 10th century.

In telling of his family, Niels says, "I am the spoiled one." He has four brothers and one sister, all older than he.

The oldest brother is 33, the second oldest was married a week ago and lives in Mexico City and his sister, 24, works with handicapped people. She is unmarried.

Niels' father, a wholesale textile merchant, came from Hamburg to Braunschweig. His grandfather was a general in the first World War. He has two uncles in Texas who are US citizens.

☆

AT THIS POINT in the interview, Niels blue eyes lighted up and he smilingly said, "Mrs. Bonner is a very good cook." He also remarked that the food at school was to his liking.

He agreed that the food here is somewhat different from that in Germany, but "very good."

In speaking of the school comparison, Niels mentioned that at home he would take as many as 14 different subjects, but not each every day.

He thinks that it is good to take the same subject each day because so much more progress is made on that particular course.

Except for some difficulty with English—he has only studied it three years—he said that he did not think school here as difficult as it is in his home land.

The Bonners agree that Niels' English has improved greatly since he has been here.

☆

HE HOPES to study law and business administration in the future. He said, "I like it. I hope to combine the two."

With music there is no language barrier, agreed Niels. He especially enjoys Gershwin's music. "Porgy and Bess" is one of his favorites.

Niels is enjoying the football games with "brother" Bob explaining the plays and scoring. He especially liked to watch the people and the cheer leaders.

In Germany, the big sport is soccer.

On board ship, with Niels, were nearly 400 other teenagers. He said that they had lots of fun for the 10 day ride on the 13,000 ton liner. Some got together and published a newspaper.

Niels liked Quebec and Montreal in Canada. He enjoyed visiting an old castle in Quebec, where they spent a half day.

☆

NIELS LIKES to play chess and tennis, though the courts here are paved and in Germany they are not. He said this makes quite a bit of difference.

Speaker for the members of the Wit and Wisdom Club recently, Niels reiterated about the kindness of the people here, especially the teachers, who offer their assistance at any time.

When asked if he did not expect kindness, he said "Yes, but not to such a degree as it has been extended."

Hours of Advanced Work

The director must study the play and decide how he wants to present it. What tempo and mood he wants to set.

He must know each character, almost as well as the actor gets to know him at the end of the play.

It is his job to set the rehearsal schedule. The first meeting is usually a read-through of the play.

The characters are analyzed and discussed so that the director and actors have the same feeling and understanding of a part.

The next step is what is known as "blocking a play." The actors are told where and how to move. Directors vary in "setting the blocking."

Some have the movement of the whole play planned ahead of time. Others improvise as the actors read and walk through the play.

Within a week or two, one act at a time is required to be memorized. The following rehearsals are spent in working on characterization, motivation, certain business, trouble spots and finally complete run-throughs of the play.

A good director has to have a thorough understanding of people. First to be able to analyze the characters in the play and secondly to motivate the actors and to get utmost out of them.

Some actors can be given a direction or a correction. On others, the director has to use "reverse psychology". He corrects another actor who can stand criticism for something someone else is doing wrong.

The technical rehearsal, with set, lights, sound, props, follows. Then one or two dress rehearsals and — "the play is on!"

The responsibility of a successful production now rests on the actors and crew performing the play as the director rehearsed it.

Tickets for the play "Blithe Spirit" to be presented Nov. 4 and 5 by the Tecumseh Players are available from Tom Corkery, HA 3-2525.

Silver-plated shovel bites into turf at site of new library under the right foot of Vern Manwaring.

Ground Broken for Library

Wielding the tool was Vern Manwaring, president of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, Inc., which is financing the structure.

On hand for the brief ceremony were:

Mrs. Jule Fosbender, librarian
Bill Wright, chairman of the library fact-finding committee
Harold Easton, mayor
Jim McDowell, superintendent of schools
Chuck Hite and Ned Krieghoff, representing Krieghoff Lenawee Construction Co.

☆

ACTUAL LABOR on the project begins yet this week as grading and excavation is started.

One sad note is that a large maple tree must be removed, since it is located right where the building is going.

A mobile Krieghoff office will be set up and serve as construction headquarters.

Completion of the project, which will cost $169,802, is hoped for by mid-winter.

Tecumseh's new library will offer space for 35,000 books, nearly twice as many currently possible.

☆

THE LIBRARY is the first "bricks and mortar" project of the Foundation, whose prime responsibility is to collect funds each year for charity needs. All donations over and above this budget go into the Foundation's building fund.

The current amount for assistance to 12 area agencies and the Michigan United Fund is $20,150.

A goal of $65,000 has been set in the current drive which was kicked off Tuesday by the industrial division under Joe Fortunato of Tecumseh Products Co.

The commercial, profession and municipal segment of the 1961 effort begins Oct. 27. The residential campaign starts Nov. 1.

The annual fund-raising project closes Nov. 9, state Virgil Tucker, chairman, and James McKenna, co-chairman.

Open House Program Is Saturday

Mrs. Robert MacDonald was the hostess for the October meeting of the Raisin Green Bees Extension club.

Roll call was, "Our Favorite Magazine and Why."

Mrs. Ormand Socks announced she is planning to attend the Michigan Consumers Protection Conference Nov. 2 in Detroit.

Mrs. Donald Baker and Mrs. Merlyn Downing will help at the Christmas Open House program Saturday at the Alexander School, Cherry St. and Northwestern Dr. in Adrian.

This display of centerpieces, decorations, gifts, and other items is to give families new ideas for Christmas. The public is cordially invited.

The club elected to again provide an evening of entertainment and refreshments for a monthly birthday party for the residents of Maple Lane Manor.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Merlyn Downing, with Mrs. Robert Beevers as co-hostess. Members will be making Christmas decorations as their project for the evening.

The hot lunch program at local schools is in the news again.

A report in last week's Herald that more than $500 was lost in the operation during September brought several comments (including a letter, which appears on page three of the second section.)

So I called Supt. James McDowell and invited him out for lunch Tuesday — at the high school cafeteria — and a chance to talk about the program.

Besides serving at THS, where both junior and senior high pupils can eat, there are facilities at Patterson, Ridgeway and Tipton Schools.

Many bring sack lunches, others hustle downtown and wolf a hamburger or sweets from the bakery.

There are no rules requiring the youngsters to eat at school cafeterias.

Despite this, the program still is worthwhile and in the long haul doesn't go too deeply into the red.

September is always a loser. The weather is nice and the youngsters want to be out and going as soon as noon recess starts. Last year the loss for that month nearly reached $1,900.

Gross business . . . $61,898.68.
Deficit after expenses . . . $3,011.75.

Now, here is an interesting point. Of the deficit, $1,542.75 is for noon supervision, which has to be furnished whether there is a hot lunch program or not.

This used to be charged off under "instruction supervision" on the school's operating balance sheet and probably could once more.

So, taking this from the $3,011 deficit, we come up with a "red" figure of $1,469 for hot lunches, which is but 2% of gross business.

Since a school lunch program is strictly in the realm of being a service — and a good one — we must be willing to subsidize it.

Mrs. O'Neill follows a careful formula as to meal content. Local lunches always exceed the minimum, which calls for two ounces of protein and/or one-half cup of fruit and/or one-quarter cup of vegtables, one slice of bread and butter and a half-pint of milk.

This constitutes a Class A lunch and costs students 40c at the high school and 35c in the other locals. (Adults pay 50c.)

The government helps out by providing a subsidy of 5c per meal. Last year it ran 6½c most of the time, but one month it dropped to 2c. This figure varies and the schools have no idea what it might be.

The government also at times provides surplus foods.

"This month we hit the jackpot," Mrs. O'Neill explained, "We received chickens, turkeys, cheese and peanut butter."

'All last year, we had chick-

Not-So-Funny Gags

Halloween pranks are in the making.

One motorist was shaken when an early tricksters pulled a "practical" joke.

She came upon the youngster, laying next to the street with his bicycle over him. Stopping her car she scrambled out to see what had happened and if she could help.

When she had nearly reached him, the boy hopped up and sped away, laughing as he went.

Another "joke" that seems to tickle the funny bones of some older children is the smashing of jack-o-lanters as they beamingly light the entrances of Tecumseh homes.

Perhaps parents of these older trick players, who are seemingly a little too old for "trick and treating," will present to their teen-agers feeling of despair of a youngster when the pumpkin he so carefully has fashioned, with the help of dad, is smashed to bits.

For the third time young vandals have torn up several greens at the Tecumseh Country Club, according to Robert H. Moore, groundskeeper.

Damages amounted to $150, Mr. Moore told State Police.

Consternation was caused for the Tecumseh police Tuesday when two Patterson School students forgot to make their whereabouts known to the bus driver and their parents.

The eight and nine-year-old, did not realize what an extensive search they had caused before it was determined that they had hitch-hiked a ride home with dad.

Fun is fine when it does not hurt others and cause them needless grief and expense.

Chief Police Murel Clark said Wednesday that the full force, plus the auxiliary police, will be on duty Halloween evening and they will absolutely not tolerate any destruction of property.

Adrian St. Will Get Sidewalk

By JIM LINCOLN

Mostly routine matters were handled at Monday night's Council meeting.

Councilmen approved installation of sidewalk on Adrian St., between Shady Lane and Murray Dr., with the work scheduled to be completed yet this fall.

City Attorney James Beardsley told councilmen that sale or lease of land for a medical building near the hospital was legal and suggested a long-term lease.

Drs. Carlton Cook, Richard Coak and Harold Ocamb have contemplated a new professional building for their offices in that area.

Mayor Harold Easton and Councilmen Arthur Schwartz and Robert Bonner were selected to determine a city pension plan with two city employees, to be selected by City Manager Ed Nelson.

Referred to Mr. Beardsley for study were:

Mike Hite Completes 25th Year

W. D. "Mike" Hite completes 25 years in the hardware business in Tecumseh this month.

In 1937, he moved here from Toledo and opened a hardware store in what is now the east section of Wright's drug store.

Ten years later he purchased the present building and has been located there since.

Only three or four other businessmen have been on Tecumseh's main street longer than Mr. Hite.

Halloween Parade Will Be Oct. 31

In this modern age it's a rare occasion when one sees shocked corn anymore, but certainly the pumpkins have been frosted.

What a marvelous time for a jaunt to the north woods. Dr. Richard Dustin and sons, Bill and John, will spend the week-end bow and arrow hunting at Clear Lake.

Last week Dr. Dustin and Doctors Don and Al Phelan spent the complete week in the same area. They didn't get deer but did several partridges.

√

An interesting tidbit was related in The Herald office this week. It seems that when Jim Barton and his hunting party were enroute to Wyoming they stopped in Hinsdale, Ill., for gas for their car.

The station manager asked what part of Lenawee they were from and when told Tecumseh, he replied,

"Oh, that's where they have that big music doings every year, my wife and I have attended that a couple of times."

Seems the Band Festival may have drawn listeners from a further distance than we realized.

The Hayden Flour Mill entertained the Neuhauser Hatchery managers Saturday with luncheon at the Tecumseh Grange hall and a trip to the Michigan-Michigan State game in Ann Arbor. About 60 people attended.

It was nice the birds arrived this week. We had two large pieces of fried chicken, a biscuit and butter, slice of cheese, beans, milk and coffee at our Tuesday luncheon.

The meal was well-prepared and tasty. It would be nice if parents of school children might drop in for lunch sometime, too.

There was one sidenote that tickled. A government rule makes it mandatory that to qualify for the subsidies, each item on the menu must go onto the tray.

Jim McDowell allowed as how he'd pass up the beans to Mrs. O'Neill, but she wasn't about to go along. So Jim got the beans. I was too busy talking to notice if he ate them. If he didn't, he missed something. Mine were tasty.

☆

"OK, I goofed. The game was at Flat Rock. I got here in plenty of time. The stadium was dark. I was too chagrined to find out where the Indians were really playing. I missed that one, but did have more time to work on Project X."

It was signed with a paw print.

Ruth Frost and Walter Solarski Exchange Vows

The Grace Lutheran Church was the scene of the informal wedding Saturday afternoon of Ruth Frost and Walter Solarski.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. K. F. Koeplin before the immediate families.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Solarski.

WABJ will also carry the Blissfield and Adrian tilts.

Assisting Mr. Wood with the broadcasts will be Tom McWilliams.

Ed Brazee, president, and Dean Hebb, vice-president, of the Junior High Council will also attend.

Here Are Two Which Can Kill

Mrs. Jerry Tomecek opened her home of 16 members of The Young Mother's Club Oct. 11 when Dr. William Hewes of Adrian was the guest speakr.

Dr. Hewes spoke on "Poison Control." He told of various household items not usually marked poisonous that definitely are. Perfume and window spray were two items mentioned.

Dr. Hewes suggested that a parent should take a child, having swallowed either of these items, immediately to the hospital and take the container with them.

In the case of a child swallowing bleach, he should be given vinegar before he is taken to the hospital.

A short business session was held followed by refreshments of cider and doughnuts. Mrs. Frank Geigler was co-hostess.

The Nov. 8 meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Creswell.

FUTURE FARMERS TAGGED THEIR NEW SHEEP LAST WEEK

FFA Buys 30 Ewes

The sheep were shipped from Montana to Marion, Mich. last spring where they were kept on pasture until the boys purchased them.

Paul Burns, FFA advisor, states that these ewes are of the right type to get the project off to a good start. The sheep cost the FFA chapter $21 each, delivered to Tecumseh.

In addition to the ewes, the boys recently purchased two registered Hampshire Rams. These cost $35 and $50 each.

They have also purchased the necessary equipment to operate this project efficiently.

☆

AFTER RECEIVING the sheep the FFA boys cut them into three groups of 10 to be given to Larrie Eaton, Terry Johnston and David Woods.

At the end of the first year the boys are to return one-half of the original ewes, one-half of the lambs, and one-half of the wool.

These will then be given to another boy who is interested in a commercial sheep project of his own.

This is a standard sheep agreement which was recommended by Graydon Blank, Animal Husbandry Department of Michigan State University.

The Sears-Roebuck Foundation is the sponsor of the project which will be officially known as the Sears Roebuck Community Sheep Improvement Project.

The Sears Foundation donated $300 towards this project. Up to the present time the local Future Farmers have spent $720 on their newest venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Comfort arrived Monday to spend several days here visiting in the homes of his brothers, Ralph and Russell Comfort and his sister, Mrs. Perry Hayden. The visitors are from Tryon, N. Carolina.

What Do Prescriptions Contain?

Sometimes you get a large bottleful, or perhaps a few tiny tablets or capsules. But, each one also contains several priceless ingredients.

A prescription represents the accumulated knowledge a physician acquired after many years of study. To compound it properly, a pharmacist had to attend a College of Pharmacy for a long time. The drugs in it took much research to perfect and extensive clinical testing to insure safe use. Yet, the average prescription costs only about $3. Truly, an amazingly low price for better health.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

Wednesday, Oct. 11, Mr. Trellay of the Automobile Association spoke to the members of the service and squad and safety patrol of St. Elizabeth School.

During the meeting in the auditorium, Mr. Trellay instructed the students in the correct performance of their various duties.

The service squad has charge of caring for the rooms, the library and playground, and the patrol members guard the crossings, guide bicycles to and from the racks, and perform playground duties.

Mary Gentner

The patrol and service squad of St. Elizabeth School held their meeting Oct. 11 in the auditorium.

The captains and lieutenants expressed their points of view on improving the patrol and squad.

Now that the new arm bands and belts have arrived, all members were asked to make sure they are worn while on duty.

While this year's safety record has improved immensely, members of the patrol and squad are trying to make the record perfect.

Julie Mudgett

Thomas Riordan, co-publisher of The Tecumseh Herald, visited the eighth grade class of St. Elizabeth School on Oct. 13.

Instead of the usual English period, Mr. Riordan presented a talk on the art of writing an interesting news article.

We in the eighth grade learned the importance of a newspaper, whether it be a daily or a weekly edition.

Straight news articles must be informative and short, containing the five W's — who, what, when, where and why, if necessary.

Feature stories using more adjectives and thus becoming more "flowery" differ from news articles in the manner in which they are written and in the use of descriptive words.

Sally Vaillancourt

√

The eighth grade class has been divided into groups for a speaking choir as the class has studied Sister Mary Ada's poem, "Limbo," during the past two weeks.

The verse choir recited the poem for the seventh grade last week. The eighth graders hope to reach their goal of learning longer and more difficult poems before the end of the school yera

October 13, the sixth grade class presented the play "Mother Cabrini." The leading character was portrayed by Mary Lou Boudrie, and the narrator was Anna Drouillard.

Jack Osburn takes time every day from his busy schedule to teach the seventh and eighth grade boys of St. Elizabeth School the proper techniques of playing football.

This season, the Cubs have a 1 and 2 record, winning once from Britton and losing a second time to Britton and once to Sand Creek.

In the Sand Creek game, early in the third quarter, the fired-up Aggies began to move, and they soon racked up 13 points.

The Cubs did not swing into action and score until the final period when Eric Wilkins scored a TD and ran for the extra point.

The Aggies sacrificed two points when the Cubs captured the ball and scored a safety making the score 13-9.

Bridget Miller

There will be a UNICEF fun-raising drive for under-privileged children on Oct. 30 instead of the usual trick-or-treat begging.

Carol Riordan and Cynthia Caterina have already placed posters advertising the project in Tecumseh store windows, and other children are working on the publicity.

The school children will encourage parents and classmates to support the UNICEF drive generously.

Marjorie DeLisle and Joe Caterina

√

This week, the girls of St. Elizabeth School have begun wearing their uniforms. Green jumpers with the letters SES on the left shoulder and white blouses with green ties will display the school colors.

Mary Kruger

Everyone at St. Elizabeth School looks forward to Tuesdays and Thursdays because they know enjoyment and fun are in store.

Over the intercom system is broadcast the University of Michigan's radio show, "Festival of Song." This program consists of well-loved songs sung and taught by Frances Gillette of the School of Music and her quartet of U of M students.

Christine Dziachan

The cheerleaders have decided to select a new captain for each game. They have chosen Mary Gentner for the Onsted game.

Sharon Boudrie was captain for the Sand Creek game. After the Onsted game, another meeting will be held to decide the captains for future games.

Joanne Brion

Have you seen an unusual number of little children on the streets lately? It's leaf-gathering time for the fourth graders of St. Elizabeth School.

They plan to make charts of the leaves listing names, characteristics, and type of tree. They have recently completed leaf booklets.

William Prochaska

√

As you know, the world is in dire need of an enormous amount of prayers for peace. Realizing this, St. Elizabeth School has adopted the slogan of peace for the entire school year.

Each morning after the bell rings, the children assemble in line for the Pledge of Allegiance. Following this, three Hail Marys are said for peace in the world.

Cathy Wallace

Cal Roll pleasantly surprised his classmates in the first grade on the occasion of his birthday last week. Delicious cupcakes were served to all after lunch.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS LOADING SOD AT FRANK CSOKASY FARM

Lutherans Sod Lawn

In anticipation of the congregation's first annual "Missionary Conference" scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, men of the Grace English Lutheran Church have been pushing to complete the work on the property of the congregation.

The bulk of this activity centered around the sodding of the ground surrounding the recently-completed parsonage.

In order to prepare and fit the soil for sod, organic peat moss and light top soil were first worked into the ground.

Nine loads were hauled in and dumped. Dick Whelan and Bob Kennedy spread the soil, using a blade mounted on one of the tractors from Whelan's Implement Co.

Wednesday a crew of men hand-raked the whole property. Laboring on this were Roy Beasley, Oakley Baxter, Ronald Baxter, Henry Korth, Burton Goodwin, Gaza Kish, Thomas Kish, Wayne Kaiser, Fred Ward, Herb Simon and Clarence Natterstad.

Saturday began actual laying of the sod.

Completion of the phase of the project involved the services of Rhae Henkel, Kenneth Hinkleman, Roy Beasley, Otto Teske, Dick Whelan, Carl Schomberg, Frank and Dave Csokasy.

Mr. Whelan, who was chairman, summed up the project by saying, "It's been hectic, but well worth it. The finished product sure is beautiful."

Turf Is Donated by Frank Csokasy

Sod for the Grace Lutheran parsonage was donated to the church by Frank Csokasy, the well known potato farmer who lives on 6548 Smith Rd.

It was the first cutting in his new crop—grass.

Two years ago, Frank decided he wanted to diversify his operations and planted five acres of his rich, loamy land in Merion bluegrass.

Frank plans to start selling his sod commercially either this fall or next spring.

To keep his grass lush, Frank top dressed it with about 40 yards of peat muck and large quantities of nitrogen.

FRANK CSOKASY

Results have been exceptional.

☆

WHEN THE Lutheran Church project was set up for Saturday, Frank rented a sod-cutter from a Detroit firm. Looking like a garden cultivator, it has a knife which neatly slices the turf about an inch and one-half below the surface.

Neatly, that is, when it works.

Unfortunately, the device was acting temperamental, but luckily Frank's "top hand" Homer Garza is an experienced mechanic, who once worked on a Lansing sod farm. Homer practically rebuilt the unit so that the schedule could be met.

All told, Frank gave his Church 1,174 square yards of turf. At the current market price of 35c a square yard, his gift to Grace Lutheran topped $410 in value.

The Csokasy sod layout is the only one in Lenawee County and actually in a serval county area since Detroit, Toledo and Jackson are the nearest points to purchase turf.

Church Notes

Family Night Supper Day Is Changed

The monthly family night supper of Grace Lutheran Church, usually held on Thursdays, will be held Friday, Oct. 20, in connection with the Missionary Conference.

This will give families the opportunity to meet their missionaries.

"Children for Christ" will be the theme Saturday morning when all the children of the church, and their friends, will be entertained from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

A lunch will be served by the Pioneers. That evening the men of the church and their guests will enjoy a stag dinner and a program entitled "Adventuring for Christ."

Sunday, Holy Communion will be offered in both morning services. At 4 p.m. the annual Mission Festival service will be held with Pastor Vertz as the speaker.

The Ladies Aid Society will serve a dinner to members and guests in conclusion.

Ladies Aid Will Sponsor Tea on Friday

Friday afternoon at 1:30, the Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid will sponsor a missionary tea with the theme "Women For Christ."

Mrs. L. J. Koeninger of Lansing will present the slide lecture, "Healing In His Wings."

Three missionary-wives, Mrs. Gene Hartzell from White River, Ariz.; Mrs. Kenneth Vertz, Owosso, Mich., and Mrs. A. G. Wacker, Scio, Mich., together with Mrs. Koeninger, will form a panel at which time an overview of missions from a wife's standpoint will be presented.

A nursery and supervised play will be provided for the children.

Tea will be served by the committee of Mrs. Robert Kennedy, Mrs. Herbert Simon and Mrs. Edgar Jordan.

Personal Problems with Everyone

"Moral wrongdoing and the pain that results is a personal problem attending each one of us," states the Rev. Blair Bashore.

How do we get "forgiveness" for those sins? The sermon topic for Sunday at the First Baptist Church, will be "Forgiveness of Sins.

"We may well concern ourselves with the sins of Social Attitudes; with those, we as parents, commit against our children and with those we commit against ourselves. Our unwillingness to forgive others makes it difficult for God to forgive us," the minister adds.

"Let us remember Jesus' words about the priest and Levite, because they left a fellow human in neglect, by the side of the road. Selfish haste is also a sin.

"Forgiveness will re-establish personal relationships, broken by sin, and make them deeper and sweeter.

"The Gospel invites all of us to The Cross where we obtain, from The Christ, forgiveness. There is only one way—penitence, confession and then forgiveness," the Rev. Mr. Bashore concludes.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

The Bobcats of Whiteford High School used their fast running halfback, Pat Iott, to run up a healthy score against the surprised Knights last Friday night, 35-12.

The Knights scored in the first quarter on Charlie Stone's end run after the Boysville team was down seven points early in the first quarter.

Boysville tallied its final score in the fourth quarter when Tony McFarr swept right end. But it was too late to hurt the Bobcats as the River Raisin leaders walked away with the victory.

Tomorrow night the Boysville Fighting Knights will meet the Sand Creek Aggies on the Sand Creek gridiron.

St. Mary Alumnae Give Show

Players, Inc. of Catholic University in Washington, D .C., will stage "A Midsummer Night's Dream", in the St. Mary Academy Auditorium at Monroe Nov. 7 at 8:15 p.m.

Now in its thirteenth successful year, this extraordinary group has been touring the great classics since 1949.

Four Make Stage Debuts

When the Noel Coward comedy, "Blithe Spirit" opens here in two weeks as the third production of the Tecumseh Players, four out of the cast of seven will be making their stage debuts.

Appearing before the footlights for the first time when the curtain goes up at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 1 and 2 at the Strand Theatre will be William DePuy, Mrs. Fred Pokorny, Molly Mitchell and Vern Manwaring.

Bill DePuy, 309 W. Pottawatamie St., a Tecumseh resident for 27 years, has the leading role of Charles. Bill has been a Tecumseh Products employee for 22 years.

Jackie Pokorny, who plays his "spirited" dead wife, Elvira, is the pretty mother of three young children. She and her husband Fred, an engineer at the Products, came here 4½ years ago. She and her family reside at 9299 Tonneberger Rd.

Her smiling face is a familiar one to customers of the United Savings Bank where she works as a teller. Molly lives with her parents in Palmyra.

VERN MANWARING, 116 W. Pottawatamie St., a life-long resident of Tecumseh, has the role of Dr. Bradman. Offstage he is the local real estate broker and insurance agent.

The veteran of the theatre in the cast is Bertha Vallelunga, who has the difficult, but delightfully humorous role of Charles' wife, Ruth.

Bertha who works in Dr. Archie O'Connor's office in Clinton, appeared in the Tecumseh Players first production, "Charley's Aunt" and was seen this past summer in the Clark Lake Players' "The Matchmaker."

She played in summer stock, worked as a television make-up artist in New York and attended the American Theatre Wing.

Attractive brunette Mrs. Allen Russell, 499 Seminole Dr., who will appear as Mrs. Bradman was seen this past summer in the Clark Lake Players "Bus Stop". Carolyn's husband is Products advertising manager.

Mrs. Leo Dixon, 510 Center Dr., who works as an accounting clerk in the Consumers Power office will play the eccentric Madame Arcati, a highly amusing "medium".

Pat's performance should be a highly-polished one since she starred in the same role in the Tecumseh High School senior play five years ago.

DIRECTOR will be Al Katz, who also directed the local community theatre group's second production, "The Golden Fleece."

After each performance a social hour to meet the cast will be held at Don's Beef Buffet.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Players and from ticket chairman, Richard Kureth, 209 Adrian St.

If an order is mailed, please send a self-addressed stamped envelope. Call Mr. Kureth at HA 3-7050 or Tom Corkery at HA 3-2525. All seats are $1.55. There will be no matinee.

DIRECTOR LENDS A HAND—Rehearsals for the coming Tecumseh Players presentation of "Blithe Spirit" were halted Monday evening so that Director Al Katz could adjust the tie of his leading man, Bill DePuy, who makes his stage debut in the show. Watching the proceedings, with the eye of a make-up expert, is stage veteran Bertha Vallelunga, who plays opposite Mr. DePuy. The cast is working at a steady clip to smooth the comedy, which plays the Strand Theatre, Nov. 1 and 2.

A total of $4,570.85 was taken in and approximately one-half of this amount will go to the Curtis Circulation Company, while the other half will be kept by the class.

This money retained will be individually credited to students proportionally to the volume of sales he or she made.

School will be closed on Thursday and Friday for Teachers' Institute. This time off will give the students an opportunity to catch up on homework, various class acivities, and sleep.

With no school on Thursday and Friday, the pre-game pep meeting this week was held Wednesday afternoon in the gymnasium. The meeting, this time, is to pep up the team, instead of the crowd and Neville Hart gave a talk.

It is felt by many that the fans are behind the team, but the team isn't behind itself.

First Book Review Is Due October 27

Students of junior high school age are called upon to use the technical skills—sentence building, punctuation, capitalization, and parts of speech — which were taught in the previous grades.

The emphasis is on expanding the use of these skills.

In the seventh grade, students begin to realize the need to communicate on a more mature level. During the first weeks of the school year various ways to meet this need are presented.

The dictionary is found to be a valuable source of reference and a vocabulary builder. Attention is given to assignment preparation, note taking and oral participation.

Library facilities are also brought to the student's attention.

During the first nine weeks of the school year the preparation of a book report is a class project. Each of the phases previously mentioned is linked to this preparation.

Students are encouraged to consult the dictionary for words more suitable and to take notes as they read to facilitate the final draft. The library is used for research material about the author and his works. Finally the student presents a neatly-written, well-organized report.

In the eighth grade, after a brief period of orientation, the classes work on punctuation and capitalization. This is a review in preparation for writing themes and book reports. The final date for the first term book report has been set for Oct. 27.

At present, the classes are engaged in library work, learning about the reference material in our library and how to find information about science projects or historical events.

Special assignments will be given in the use of reference material. This will involve both speaking and writing activities.

Exploring the library is a fascinating and rewarding experience, one that teachers enjoy as much as the students.

Spelling is stressed at all times, but one day each week is devoted to the spelling workbook.

Vowel sounds, syllabication, usage, and varied meanings are studied. An effort is made to increase the students' working knowledge of words and to build more mature vocabularies.

What Does Future Hold for THS 11?

What does the future hold for Tecumseh High School football?

A grid power since Duncan Lectka took over three years ago, the Indian fortunes have taken a dip this year.

Already the loser of two games, the squad faces a critical four-contest windup, beginning Friday night here against Airport.

Following the Jets, the Indians 11 must meet high-stepping Blissfield, Grosse Ile and finally Adrian.

All four are going to be tough opponents.

Low tide was reached last week, when unheralded Flat Rock tripped THS, 6-0.

The Indians worked the ball to the Rams eight-yard line with first and 10. But the best they could do was seven yards as the Ram line stiffened.

Flat Rock's quarterback Ed Greene was sprung on the Ram's first play at the point, sprinting 94 yards to Tecumseh's six where Capt. Tom Simmons pulled him down from behind.

The long run was nullified by a penalty, but Greene still became a hero later in the game, taking a pass in the third quarter from Mike Crewder for the lone touchdown.

Coach Lectka received bad news in mid-week when regular and halfback Dan Greene cracked his ankle in practice and will probably be out for the season.

To help fill in for Green and at the same time bolster the Indian offense, the mentor inserted John Oberlin into the backfield at quarterback and moved Tim Sisson to halfback.

There are 16 happy young athletes around town.

They're the lads, from 6 to 10, who won prizes in the local Ford Motor Co. Pass, Punt and Kick competition that attracted 39 entrants.

The contest was run off on Recreation Field Saturday morning in real gridiron weather under the direction of Coaches Duncan Lectka and Vic Lawson, assisted by Jim Lincoln.

Clarence Maglia of the Ford Co. served as judge.

Third place prize was a football.

Here are the winners:

Heavyweights Play Tie Game

Heavyweight teams of Ted Todd and Harold Collins battled to a 7-7 tie last Thursday afternoon. All scoring was in the first half with Mr. Todd's black shirts scoring on a long run just as the half ended.

When the final whistle blew Mr. Collin's white shirts lacked five yards to break the tie. MacMeyer scored the touchdown for the white shirts with Ron Bolz adding the extra point.

OBITUARIES

● MRS. EDWARD BARRETT

Services were held Saturday in Jackson for Mrs. Edward Barrett, 78, who passed away Wednesday at St. Paul's Hospital, Vandercook Lake.

Mrs. Barrett and her late husband were former residents of Britton and Tecumseh. He died seven years ago.

Mrs. Barrett is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Jack Maddock of Jackson, four grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Burial was in Roseland cemetery.

● MRS. ALFRED D. HALL

Services were held Tuesday at the Everiss Funeral Home for Mrs. Alfred Hall who died Sunday morning at Bixby Hospital where she had been a patient for two days.

Born July 28, 1876, in Fairfield township, the daughter of Lewis and Anna Morley White, she spent her entire life there with the exception of two years in Tecumseh after her marriage in October 1897 to Mr. Hall.

She was a member of the Fairfield Baptist church and a life member of the Fairfield Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Clifford McClure of Tecumseh, Mrs. Harold Case of Blissfield, Mrs. Edward Jeffrey and Mrs. Archie James of Fairfield; three sons, Nelson of Fairfield, Lewis of Tipton and Alfred of Brooklyn.

One sister, Mrs. Mima Sager, of Fairfield, also survives.

She was preceded in death by her husband, two daughters, Dora and Mrs. Mildred Wingard, and one brother, Claude White.

Burial was in Fairfield Cemetery and the Eastern Star had charge of the graveside services.

PTA Council Gathering at Ridgeway

The Tecumseh Acres PTA Council will hold an informal round table discussion Tuesday, Oct. 24 at 8 p.m. in Ridgeway School.

Executive boards of all District PTA organizations are invited to attend so that the groups may be better able to work together.

Meetings of this type were started last year to promote better understanding between the schools and the administrative staff, according to Earl Greene, supervisor of elementary education.

Hastings Announces New Plan

A new form of Farmowner's insurance is now available through Hastings Mutual Insurance Co. agents, announced Robert Stanley, executive vice-president of the insurance firm.

Elmer Eberhardt is the local agent.

"For the first time, we are able to reduce insurance rates by combining virtually every insurable peril into one Farmowners package policy," Mr. Stanley said in making public the availability of this type of insurance.

He further explained that reduced rates may be obtained when farmers meet certain qualifications in the care and maintenance of property, or when specific deductibilities and exclusions are agreed to by farmers and Hastings Mutual.

"Since many auto insurance companies are reducing rates as an incentive reward for continued safe driving, we felt we, in the farm and home insurance business, could offer our policyholders the same cash savings for the same general reasons," Mr. Stanley said.

THEY DID IT SO CAN YOU

These three youngsters were the first to earn premiums in The Herald's annual subscription campaign. There is still time for other area young people to join the fun and earn either a $44 deluxe Hiawatha bicycle, as sold by Gambles, or a Westinghouse transistor r a d i o, as sold by Wolf's Tires and Appliance. The campaign will continue until Nov. 11, so you still have time to start. For full details, stop at The Herald office, across from the fire station, on S. Evans St.

FIRST TRANSISTOR—Pretty Miriam Puffer, 11, a sixth grader at Patterson School, was the first to earn a Westinghouse transistor radio set, which includes batteries, carrying case and earphone. Miriam, who sold 10 NEW subscriptions to get her prize, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Puffer, 515 E. Logan St.

NO. 1—Steve Hawkins of Britton, just five-years-old, was the first to sell 15 NEW one-year subscriptions to The Herald and earn a bike. He started Friday, with his dad, and had the job done by Monday afternoon. In last year's drive, Steve's brother, David, age 7, earned a bike. Those Hawkins youngsters are real salesmen. They're sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins.

NO. 2—Second in the bike catagory was Billy Berry, a third grader at St. Elizabeth Catholic School, who is eight. A mighty excited boy when he claimed his bike, Billy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Berry, 100 Cairns St.

King, Queen Named

It was led by the village police, followed by the Britton American Legion color guard.

Next came the Britton-Macon High School Band, led by Drum Majorette Sandy Beal, the cheerleaders, the FFA and FHA prince and princess, Joe Prochaska and Barbara Gillespie.

The sophomore float, Camp Fire and Blue Bird Girls were next in the line up followed by the eighth grade float and the freshman float.

At half time of the Ida-Britton game, the winning floats were introduced and the kings and queens were announced.

The eighth grade king and queen, Rosalee Fairbanks and Larry Richards, were the first introduced at half time.

As the High School Band made an honorary arch, the candidates were announced:

Don Mastie went over on a five yard run for Britton to open the scoring. Ida knotted the count and then Britton's Larry Hummel scampered into the end zone on a 15-yard sprint, but Ida struck back several more times to ice the contest.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I see by The Herald and have heard from the children that some concern is being shown in school because more children are not eating at the cafeterias.

This anxiety coming after the prices have been raised seems rather ridiculous to me. It is a basic fact of economics that higher prices cause lower volume and vice versa.

And my understanding of the objective of the federal school lunch program is that it is to furnish an adequate noon meal to the largest possible number of children.

In The Chicago Daily Tribune of Oct. 2 I noted that the cafeterias there serve 100,000 lunches a day at a charge of 27 cents per pupil. And from what I can learn all other schools in Lenawee County charge either 25 or 30 cents.

No wonder the kids can't afford to eat at school, especially those who come from families of three or four or more children.

There are other reasons too: seems like I recall that children within a certain distance from the elementary schools can't eat there even though they would like to. and I have heard that the atmosphere in the high school cafeteria is not very congenial and that frequently youngsters are humiliated by staff members while being served.

All in all it seems to me that this would be a good problem for the school advisory committee to sink its teeth in, including a thorough examination of the books of the lunch program by the committee.

Other places have vigorous, well adjusted lunch programs. Why not Tecumseh?

Does any one else feel as I. do?

TO THE EDITORS:

Here it is the "morning after," after the wonderful, awe-inspiring Band Festival.

What a great thing the late Clare Cambum did for music in Lenawee County when he initiated the Band Festival!

So far in the 15 years of its history I have missed only one year and each one is better than the last.

Oh yes, every once in awhile someone blows a "clinker" but who cares when we realize each musician is trying his or her best to do a good job.

Now if the spectators would be as courteous and considerate as the bandsmen are diligent things would be fine.

I sat a-top the hill where many high school age boys and girls were standing about behind me. They constantly chattered, laughed, made fun of the bands and were generally obnoxious.

After several minutes of putting up with this I turned and told three or four boys that I had come to hear music not conversation and if they wanted to carry on a conversation I would appreciate it if they would move back.

In fairness to them I must say they left, but were soon replaced by more and noisier ones and not all boys either, but couples who seemed bent on outtalking each other.

I'm wondering if in future years this could be overcome by an announcement by the narrator to the effect that most people have come to listen to music, not loud, rude inconsiderate teenagers.

No, I'm not a kill-joy old "fuddy-duddy." I have a teenage son and enjoy young people with their fun and noise in it's place but not behind me at the Band Festival.

Music Lover,
from Britton

TO THE EDITORS:

Although we have moved away we appreciate The Herald very much.

We cannot forget so easily the things that have become dear to us over the years. Please find enclosed money for our renewal.

We appreciate very much the write-up you gave Gale (Kimerer) on his winning the trip to Kansas City with the county judging team.

He was most proud and happy to represent Lenawee County.

They are back now and had a delightful trip being able to drive through with Gary Seevers, County 4-H agent as chaperone.

They tied for fifth place in the nation, which is good for teenagers, the winners being older and more experienced.

Perhaps you already know that Gale won again the contest on the Ten Ear sample at the Fall Crops Show Oct. 7.

We like our new home real well and have fine crops which make Gale and George both proud and happy.

Yours,
Mrs. George Kimerer

How to swallow a bitter pill

First, find a bitter pill. There are so few nowadays. It all started because children, bless 'em, are so good at resisting bad-tasting medicine. You can medicate their chins or hair, but getting the stuff in them is beyond the ken of science. Kids can spit a country mile. So pharmacists began sugar-coating pills, putting medication in capsules, or mixing with sweet syrup. And we soon found that adults, too, like medicine the easy way. So now, most of our prescriptions are quite pleasant to take. If you should run into one of the few bitter ones, believe us, there are good medical reasons for it.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

Members of the Class of 1962, under the sponsorship of Brother Romain Healy, CSC, received their class rings on Oct. 7, Boysville's 14 birthday.

The rings are blessed by the school chaplain, then presented to each senior. A short talk on the meaning and purpose of class rings accompanied the presentation.

√

This year, Boysville students returned to a new and larger infirmary under the direction of a new infirmarian, Brother Lionel Light, CSC.

Brother has made the new infirmary look as clean and as bright as the best-kept hospital.

Boys taking their aches, pains, cuts and bruises to Brother Lionel find an experienced and sympathetic hand to treat them.

Cases which require more treatment than Boysville is equipped to give, go to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Mid-quarter examinations are over, even though it seems we've been back in school a much shorter time.

The school year is flying fast, and the boys were looking forward to their first weekend home, which occurred from Oct. 14 to 16. Now they're all back and raring to go.

The weekend vacation began on Saturday at 10 a.m. and ended Monday evening at 8.

The next vacation period at home will be the Thanksgiving vacation late in November.

It may seem like a long way off, but if the time flies as fast betwen now and then as it did between now and then as it did and now, it will be on us before we know it.

√

It was on Oct. 7, 1948, that Boysville High School in Macon began conducting classes for boys with a problem.

The plant at that time was practically nothing but a few wooden buildings moved to the site from an old NYA camp.

If you happened to be passing Boysville today, however, you would see great improvements.

Permanent buildings are in every corner of the campus today, and even now a new dining hall is being built.

Permanent buildings constructed since Oct. 1948, are a gymnasium, two dormitories, a chapel, a steam plant and a school building.

Vast improvements have been made underground, as the standup tunnels for heating and electricity all around the campus will show.

A 50,000-gallon watersphere has helped to equalize the water pressure and supply all over campus. Various other improvements in the original buildings have aided in making Boysville a really attractive school, one which is well equipped to handle the 180 students enrolled.

Time To Fertilize Lawns

You won't crab about your grass next spring if you fertilize it this fall.

That's the advice of a leading expert who can help you grow a lawn so beautiful it will make your neighbors green with envy.

"Fertilization and proper cutting are absolutely necessary to produce a good lawn. Without adequate plant food your grass will be unable to grow vigorously. And if the grass is cut too closely it is robbed of vigor and can't compete with weeds — particularly crabgrass."

Fall is the ideal time to fertilize because many annual weeds such as crabgrass and dandelions die out and the grass has a chance to fill in the bare spots.

When spring arrives, the spots are covered by young grass and weeds don't have room to thrive.

Since grass plants consume more nitrogen than any other element, it must be supplied to them in sufficient amounts. Otherwise, you'll have a scrubby lawn.

Be sure the turf fertilizer contains more nitrogen than phosphate or potash. Analyses such as 10-6-4, 20-10-5, 15-5-10 etc., are all good turf fertilizers.

1. In early fall apply 20 to 30 pounds per thousand square feet of a complete fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphate and potash. The fertilizer should contain more nitrogen than phosphorus or potash.

2. Make a soil test. Apply lime if needed.

3. Each time you water, soak the soil to 6 or 12 inches. Don't water lightly each evening. This only promotes crabgrass.

4. Set your lawn mower to cut 1¼" to 1¾" high. Bluegrass cut closer than this is not vigorous and can't compete with weeds. Fertilizer applied to lawns cut too closely may promote weed growth rather than the growth of good turf grasses.

Follow Dr. Stangel's advice and you won't hang your head in shame come spring. After all, what's a lawn without grass.

"We'd have a better nation If there was more wild life in our forests and less in the big cities."

THROUGH MY WINDOW

IN BUSINESS AGAIN

Every once in a while, no matter how grandiose a banquet feast is spread business at the bird-feeders abruptly falls off to nothing.

Altho' it can happen anytime, we have come to expect it twice a year, at least.

When the seasons change, as winter reluctantly gives way to spring and summer lets fall take over with no contest at all, these are our slack times.

The change almost seems to happen over-night and the ears of corn, piles of scratch-feed, chunks of suet and heads of sunflower seeds which are so heavily patronized one day, go begging for customers the next.

It's quite a shock, a window picture absolutely lacking birds and squirrels. And believe me, when even sparrows are missing, it is indeed utter desertion.

Fortunately this unhappy situation does not last long— I think we have had our "nothing" period. Slowly the freeloaders are drifting back so we hope the boycott is over.

☆

BY FAR the most handsome returnees are Mr. and Mrs. Downy Woodpecker. Their new fall clothes are simply elegant —never has black been so black nor white so white.

Apparently it was a good summer for the pair because they are plump and their feathers look so soft and smooth.

They are proud of their new clothes too—if either one has any suet drop on his pearly white front how quickly and carefully it is cleaned up.

Being woodpeckers they most often eat clinging to the limb which stands at the corner of the feeder and picking up the bits of fallen suet involves much leaning back and twisting and turning.

Never once has there been a self-inflicted stab wound but, my, those long bills look dangerous sometimes.

DISPLACED as No. 1 on the best-dressed list is the tufted titmouse. We have three of the little gray ones this year and they are a far cry from the sleek and slick birds of the past.

These are youngsters and they are having a terrible time growing up. Their feathers are rough and ragged looking, especially around the head and neck. One has a fairly respectable top-knot, but the other two are woefully small, barely noticeable.

The trio puts on quite a show at the "dining-table," but so far all my efforts to capture on film some of the antics have been thwarted. They seem to know when the camera is turned on and avoid us like the plague.

The minute it is turned off however, they come bouncing down and have all sorts of fun.

In appearance and performance, the chickadees are first cousins to the titmice. The pair that taunted us in September vacationed with the rest but they too are back.

Their necks have still not feathered out—they had better hurry, it will soon be time for warm winter mufflers.

As for the camera, the other day a chickadee sat on the feeder and watched as Ida aimed the camera, checked the setting, pinned the switch on my bed and turned it on. He then promptly flew away.

Even more unobliging are the beautiful, but distant cardinals. Cautiously the big bright male is returning. He has not as yet made it to the feeder, but every day, just before dark, we hear him chirping, either on the fence or along the creek-bank.

Lovely Mrs. C. shows herself in the afternoon. She is much taken with the firey red berries in the barberry bushes.

THE BLUEJAYS are having a hard time—this time of year there is so much natural food available and I guess our freeloaders actions correspond to the urge we humans sometimes have to get away from the complexities of civilization and "get back to nature."

Well anyway, the bluejays have had their fling at the simple life, but are gradually giving it up and straggling back home. Soon I hope they will calm down and get back to normal.

So it is that after a quiet spell, the birds are coming back and happy, happy, happy, we are in business again.

THE TECUMSEH HERALD

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Toast to Our 'Week'

What does National Newspaper Week mean to a weekly like The Herald.

There are so many "weeks" now-a-days that folks become pretty blase about them, even when they touch one's own profession.

We have to admit to a little of this attitude, but not enough to forego the chance to fashion an editorial about this business of newspapering during the annual observation.

We'd like to take you behind the scenes in the production of The Herald and tell something about the personnel who team together so well in the mechanical operation.

The average reader could never guess the myriad of details which the "back shop" must complete in order to set, make-up, print and mail The Herald each week.

As stories are written and edited and ads prepared, the material goes to the Linotype machines (we have two), which are presided over by Mrs. Leota Smith.

She spends about 28 hours each week setting lines of type for the paper. (In additional, we have a night operator who does about four hours each Monday and Tuesday to keep pace with the flow of copy.)

While the ads are being set, Ernie Jeschke is casting mats (i.e. pouring moulton lead into an apparatus, in which he places heavy cardboard mats that we receive from advertisers.)

Shop foreman Lonal Bishop, assisted by Ernie, will make up the ads, deftly fitting slugs of type and illustrations together.

When eight chases have their quota of ads—usually about 55% or 60%—Lonal will start adding stories and pictures to complete the makeup. This is an exacting task and as you scan this page you'll note each column comes out almost perfectly.

Some rows are just a trifle short and that's where we use the little fillers, "Shop in Tecumseh,'" or "Say you saw it in The Herald," etc.

The pages are then carted to the big press on a "turtle" (newspaper jargon again), which is a small cart.

The Herald press is web fed meaning the paper starts from a giant roll and weaves its way through, is printed on both sides, folded and trimmed. It comes out as an eight-page section.

The first run is off Tuesday afternoon or the first thing Wednesday. Ernie is at the control of the press for this one, as Lonal continues his make-up chores, now working at a greatly accelerated pace because late Tuesday and early Wednesday are hectic.

If you were to drop into our shop some Wednesday, you'd note a bee hive of activity. A few stale jokes waft through the air, but most of the time folks are too busy for kidding.

This is the day that the co-publishers become printers, donning shop uniforms and aprons.

The last run, which includes the front page, goes to press under Lonal's touch about 3 p.m., with numerous sighs of relief. From this point on, the task rolls down hill.

The job now turns to stuffing the second section into the first, addressing and bundling the papers for the post office. As this goes on, about 900 "street folds" (copies with the top half of the front page showing) are prepared for our 18 news stand locations.

Along about 5 p.m. on Wednesday, the week's Herald is completed.

Folks like to chide us, "This is certainly a swell setup, the week's work complete by Wednesday evening."

Yes, it surely is. The only trouble is that we have another deal going—commercial printing — which nicely gobbles up Thursday and Friday.

A toast to National Newspaper Week.

Doesn't Cost a Penny

Have you said thank you to your paper boy lately? Or offered a pleasant good morning to the bus driver? Have you smiled cheerfully at the sourpuss down the block? (You may discover he really isn't one, after all.)

Have you stopped to offer a word of comfort and encouragement to the elderly widow next door?

If you've been too busy to be polite, courteous and cheerful, stop a moment. It doesn't cost a penny—or take more than a bit of your time.

There shouldn't have to be a special day set aside for being nice, but in the rush of modern living we too often forget about —or don't think of—the small niceties that make life more pleasant.

To point up the need of bringing happiness to others, Sweetest Day is observed each year across the country. This year, according to the Southeastern Michigan Sweetest Day Committee, it will be observed Oct. 21—a day set aside to remember the sick, aged and orphaned, your friends, relatives and associates.

Special emphasis is placed on "Making Someone Happy" on this special day. It doesn't have to be done with an elaborate gift. A smile will do. However you choose to Make Someone Happy, it will make you happier too.

We Lose, They Gain

While Tecumseh school officials are pondering the fact that anticipated enrollment fell off and thus state aid was down, $22,000, Blissfield finds itself on the other side of the coin.

Enrollment there was higher than expected and the neighboring district finds itself with $24,690 more in state aid.

Blissfield schools, in dire financial straits, will have no trouble in finding a use for the cash.

For one thing, the state fire marshall has been breathing down necks of schoolmen, insisting that all stair wells in the old school be enclosed.

This project could eat up much of the $24,000 and if it doesn't there are many other items which were pared from the austere budget.

Based on the annual school census, Blissfield figured on 2,000 pupils. When the actual count was made the fourth Friday after Labor Day, according to state law, there were 2,115.

One interesting side note is that of the added 115 students, 46 were children of migrant workers who would not have been in class then except that the tomato crop was late this fall.

They're now in schools around Greenville and Traverse City as their folks work in potato fields. The presence of the 46 youngsters as residents in the district on the all-important nose-counting day means about $9,000 to Blissfield.

What Does It Prove?

For three years, the Tecumseh Indian football teams rolled past opponent after opponent, and in doing so compiled a record which showed 22 wins and just two losses and three ties.

Coach Dunc Lectka and his assistants proved themselves, during this span, that they're top flight coaches, experts in their field. It is surprising that Mr. Lectka has not been lured away—and into the collegiate coaching ranks.

This year, the Indians are stumbling and may well lose more games than they will win. If the bumpy road ahead does show more defeats than victories, what does it prove?

It merely proves that the present squad does not have the ability that previous squads possessed. It's not the fault of the boys nor of the coaches that size, speed, desire and other influencing factors do not persist in the '61 squad.

There are two, and most likely three, certainties ahead in the next few weeks — the boys will keep trying, the coaches will keep trying, and, we hope, that Tecumseh fans will continue to back their Indians at home and away games.

Get Polio Shots, Dr. Skufis Warns

Dr. Eleanor Skufis reports today the first case of paralytic polio for Lenawee County in several years.

The patient, a young father, had never received any polio immunizations.

This spring national epidemiologists predicted an increase in polio in babies and breadwinners — in children under five and young men over 20.

Educational campaigns via TV, radio and newspapers urged people to see their family doctor for the series of three injections of Salk or polio vaccine which immunize against polio viruses Type I, II and III.

Type III polio virus has caused the paralytic polio found in Michigan in the past few years and was expected to be the agent in this years polio.

As yet the oral vaccine proven safe and effective immunizes only against polio virus type I. Thus it would not replace the use of Salk vaccine.

A limited amount of polio vaccine has been available from the Michigan Department of Health without charge to physicians for use in children under 18 years since last spring. This allotment was used up and another was requested by Dr. Skufis.

The physicians in Lenawee County have for several years given polio and other immunizations to their patients, who could not pay for these injections, if the patient obtained a statement of medical indigency from the Lenawee County Welfare Dept.

"So if you haven't had your series of at least three injections of polio vaccine—see your family doctor as soon as possible," says Dr. Skufis.

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

Mrs. Carson House, 705 Outer Dr., dug back in her memory to bring out an odd spelling of the city for our series.

The incident happened just after World War II ended. Betty was a southern belle in Memphis, Tenn. when she got a phone call from her husband-to-be, who had just returned from the Pacific.

The Memphis phone operator asked for Betty with, "There is a call for you from Pecumseh, Mich."

Another one this week comes from United Savings Bank employee Marjorie Linden, 4600 Blood Rd.

She noted a check made out to "The United Savings Bank of Techumseh."

Want to learn about modern American writing?

The fourth annual Esquire Symposium is being staged at the University of Michigan this weekend.

There is no charge.

Among the speakers will be Nelson Algren, who wrote, "Man with the Golden Arm," Vance Bourjaily, William Styron and Gore Vidal.

Sessions are slated for Friday at 8 p.m. and Saturday afternoon at 3, both in Michigan's Rackham auditorium.

Moderators will be Tecumseh's Allan Seager and Esquire Publisher Arnold Gingrich.

The guests will discuss "the condition of the writer in America" and then answer questions from the floor.

Mr. Vidal won't be at the Friday night gathering — he's booked up in Washington, D. C. as escort for Mrs. John F. Kennedy to a social function.

Thanksgiving Service To Be November 19

This year's community Thanksgiving Service, sponsored by the Ministerial Association, will be on Sunday evening, Nov. 19 at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

This annual service offers people in and around Tecumseh an opportunity to express its common thanksgiving to Almighty God and to share a period of worship.

This year, the sermon will be delivered by Dr. Howard Emrich, chaplain at Adrian College and professor of philosophy and ethics.

H. W. Tuttle Company Expanding Manufacturing Operations

The firm has been awarded a contract to build 1,000 units for Autopop Manufacturing Co., of St. Louis, Mo. with a tentative agreement to make another 9,000.

The new contract will require additional manufacturing and warehousing space and is expected to result in a 20% increase in employment by January with additional increases in 1962. Tuttle now employs 85.

The popcorn vending machine is the size of a large household refrigerator and will automatically pop, salt, butter and dispense the product when the customer inserts the necessary coins

The machine will be sold for use in a wide variety of public places such as motion picture theaters, waiting rooms, terminals and the sports arenas.

Autopop officials were in Tecumseh Friday to inspect the assembly line at the plant as the first models were being completed.

Bert Strubinger, Autopop president, said that this is the only dispenser of its kind being made. Autopop owns all patents on the device.

Mr. Struhinger stated that distributors will market the vending machine. Orders already have been signed in California, Nevada, Hawaii and Missouri.

Others are being negotiated in New York, Iowa, Texas, Arizona and the British West Indies

First ones shipped from here will go to the Los Angeles area.

The machine will have a list price of $960. It has a capacity of 400 cups of unpopped kernels

Under operation, the machine has a seven-second cycle, which is activated when the patron inserts 10c. Corn can be seen popping through a circular window at the top of the machine.

It tumbles into bin, which holds 30 cups of heated, but unseasoned corn. A cup drops into receiving position and corn funnels from the bin. As it heads towards the cup, the corn is buttered and salted.

PRETTY TECUMSEH FRESHMAN DIANE RIES POSES WITH TUTTLE POP CORN DISPENSER

Trick or Treat Night in City Will Be Tuesday

Trick or treat night in Tecumseh will be Tuesday, states Mayor Harold Easton.

Children are asked to beg only on that evening and householders are requested to turn on porch lights to welcome the boys and girls.

Porch lights should also be turned on Monday night if residents wish to make donations to UNICEF.

Costumed youths will be out Monday solely for the purpose of getting donations to aid underprivileged children in foreign lands through the special United Nations fund.

200 Youths Will Help

Halloween Eve, Monday, between 6 and 8 p.m., approximately 200 Tecumseh children will participate in the annual drive for UNICEF.

This is the United Nations Children's Fund.

Under the sponsorship of six local churches and the Chamber of Commerce, they will meet in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church, where they will receive their official cartons and tags.

Baptist—Mrs. Eddie Kirkland
Gloria Dei Lutheran — Mrs. Laszlo Gero
Grace Lutheran—Mrs. Edgar Jordan
Methodist—Mrs. Ned Ver Hage
Presbyterian—Mrs. Glen Van Vleet
St. Elizabeth Catholic — Mrs. Robert Murray.

Mrs. Carroll Sprague will be in charge of routes and drivers, and may be contacted at HA 3-3024 for additional information.

All children who would like to help in this drive are welcome to come to the Presbyterian Church at 6, and will be assigned to a driver.

"Remember, you will only be called on once, so please welcome the child who comes to your door with the UNICEF carton," stated the committee members.

After the collection, the Trick or Treaters and their escorts will return to the Presbyterian Church for refreshments, at which time their "treats" of coins will be counted.

Center's Opening To Be Nov. 19

Three-hundred folding chairs, six tables and two 84-cup coffee urns have been ordered by the Center committee, states Terry Mackin, its chairman.

The group is now looking at drapes, lounge furniture and portable partitions, which can be used to form meeting rooms on the basement and first floors.

Applications for use of the building by all Tecumseh area organizations are now being accepted. Blanks can be picked up at city hall and the United Savings Bank, Mr. Mackin reports.

Festivities for the official opening are being arranged by a committee which includes representatives from each of the city's service clubs.

Although the Nov. 19 date has been established as the Center's grand opening, the building will probably be available for use as soon as furniture arrives.

A complete set of rules for use of the facility will be printed in The Herald, Mr. Mackin states.

Products Employees Hit 85%

By mid-week, Tecumseh Products Co. emloyees had reached 85% of their goal in the plant's annual charity drive.

The quota is $20,000.

All funds earmarked for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation will be matched dollar-for-dollar by the company.

Employees had a choice, through the payroll deduction plan, of giving to any community fund, following the theme, "give where you work, it works where you live."

Tim Neill, who is chairman of the company drive, states that the closing date is Friday.

A complete city industrial report for the Tecumseh Foundation will be made next week by chairman Joe Fortunato.

State Civil Defense Officials Will Speak

Top Civil Defense officials of Michigan will be in Tecumseh next week.

Acting state director Robert D'Amelio and Henry Fink, state plans officer for CD, will appear at a public meeting Thursday, Nov. 2 at 7:30 in the Tecumseh High School cafeteria.

Discussion, including a question-and-answer period, is expected to concern nuclear bombing, fallout of radioactivity, shelters and the handling of school children in case of an attack.

It's now reported that school children will be retained in school buildings should there be an attack.

Two films, "Activating the Civil Defense Emergency Hospital" and "Seconds for Survival," will highlight the session.

Steve Illeck, local CD director, and Joe Rice, who made arrangements for the Nov. 2 meeting, hope that many parents and residents will attend.

There will be no admission charge and plans include using the gym if attendance warrants it.

The hospital film will be shown later in the evening at the Jaycee meeting. Those missing it at the high school may attend the other session.

Festival, Open House Is Sunday

Maple Lane Manor, the Lenawee County Medical Care Facility and Infirmary, on Cadmus Rd. near Adrian, across from the Airport, is holding its annual Harvest Festival Open House Sunday.

The hours will be 1:30 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and 6 to 8 in the evening.

Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome.

It's 'Blithe Spirit'

Playgoers are in for a delightful evening next week.

"Blithe Spirit" is being staged at the Strand Theatre, Nov. 1 and 2, by the Tecumseh Players.

Before the final curtain falls, so will the curtain rods, vases and pictures in a room setting which looks as if it's coming apart.

Although this Coward "ghost story" will be 24 hours late for Halloween, time doesn't matter in this drawing room farce of tricks with some ticklish theatrical treats tossed in.

Mystery writer Charles Condomine — played by Bill DePuy — wants to get some authentic dialogue for a medium in one of his books. He invites eccentric Madame Arcati, a garlic-waving medium who loves cucumber sandwiches, to stage a seance.

Through her "concentrated efforts" the spirits get crossed and the ghost of Charles' first wife, Elvira, is conjured up and the boiling plot turns up some zany characters in and out of this world.

Elvira's devilish scheme to take Charles "out of this world" runs amuck and the wrong person "passes over."

Mrs. Fred Pokorny has the role of Elvira.

The cast, in nightly rehearsals for four weeks, also includes Molly Mitchell, Mrs. Bertha Vallelunga, William DePuy, Vern Manwaring, Mrs. Allen Russell, Mrs. Leo Dixon and Mrs. Fred Pokorny.

Egyptians in 28 Did Floral Arranging

More than 200 attended the District 2A meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan last week at the Youth House of the First Batist Church.

Mrs. Esther Wheeler's lecture-demonstration, "Modern Trends in Flower Arrangement" was the highlight of the all-day meeting.

Mrs. Neil Pearson, co-chairman, introduced the speaker.

Interesting historical points that she made were:

► Egyptians around the year 28 BC were making arrangements with palmetto plants. These palms are still useful today.

► Symmetrical balance was given to us by the early Greeks. However, a symmetrical balance is employed more today.

An illustrating scale or size relationship. Mrs. Wheeler used a hand carved wooden Madonna, large tan leaves and cattails for a most exquisite example.

☆

"Third dimension is one of the most important principles of flower arrangements," she said.

Mrs. Wheeler's program was "Modern Trends", which does not suit all types of homes or personalities, but everyone attending received useful and interesting ideas.

Mrs. Donald Purkey, co-chairman, Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Stanley Cook assisted Mrs. Wheeler.

☆

THE TECUMSEH Garden Club held a coffee hour before the morning business meeting. The coffee table and foyer were beautiful with fall arrangements.

Mrs. Walter Marder, district director, conducted the morning meeting. Little Garden Club president, Mrs. William Schroer gave the welcome.

Greetings were given by Mrs. John Holnville, president of the State Garden Clubs of Michigan.

During the meeting short reports were heard from club presidents in the district. Several state committee chairmen also gave reports.

Luncheon was prepared and served by the ladies of the Baptist Church.

The 15-table center pieces and charming miniatures "in a nut shell" favors were dried arrangements made by Little Garden Club members.

Mrs. Robert J. McCoy gave the invocation. State board members were introduced by Mrs. Hoinville. Tecumseh Garden Club president, Mrs. Joe Rice, introduced the hostess committees.

☆

CO-CHAIRMAN, Mrs. Pearson and Mrs. Purkey, stated that it was a successful venture by the two garden clubs.

Mrs. Purkey was especially proud of the fact that even though not all her group's members names have appeared in print, every member of the Litle Garden Club played some part in the making of this meeting a success.

Carolyn Cowen and Hugh Gooding Were Married

MRS. HUGH GOODING

Carolyn Grace Cowen became the bride of Hugh Gooding in a beautiful double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Hughes, pastor of the Milan Methodist Church Saturday.

The Milan church was enhanced for the occasion by candleabra with 14 lighted candles and lovely bouquets in the altar vases.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Cowen of Tipton and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gooding of Milan.

Mrs. Carl Witten of Milan was the soloist accompanied by Mrs. Clayton oolner.

Mrs. James Gooding of Tipton was the matron-of-honor wearing a gown of Chantilly lace over mint green taffeta in intermission length. She carried yellow chrysanthemums.

At present, Dr. White is in Africa at the request of the State Department and will not return to this country until late November, thus necessitating the change of date.

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

Third anniversary of the death of Edward Cardinal Mooney was commemorated Wednesday when the Rev. Fr. Thomas J. Collins offered a high Mass at St. Elizabeth Church. All the students assisted.

√

Tuesday of last week, the pupils of the eighth grade visited the chapel at the convent. This visit was to help them in preparing miniature altars for their religion projects.

Sister Maureen displayed the sacred vessels and vestments to the children, and explained their use at Mass.

Each eighth grader brought his altar to school Oct. 20 for the judging by Sisters Stephen Marie, Maura Michael and Mary Alma.

First prize was awarded to Christine Dziachan, second prize to David Lips, and third prize to James Greene. All of the altars were evidence of much creativity on the part of the students.

"Trick or treat!" Surely everyone young and old recognizes this familiar cry of the Halloween season.

Children of all ages will soon echo this call throughout Tecumseh as goblins, witches, ghosts and, most likely, junior astronauts come seeking treats later to be enjoyed to the fullest extent.

Stock your cupboards with candy that first class protection against eerie strangers, for if you don't, the goblins will get you!

Witches aloft on dilapidated brooms, black cats prowling about, and merry-faced pumpkins perched atop weather-beaten fenceposts adorn the black board of Mrs. Monagon's fourth grade classroom.

St. Elizabeth's next game is with the Tories of Britton at the athletic field Saturday morning at 9:30.

St. Elizabeth has two other home games to play this season, with the Aggies of Sand Creek and St. Mary's of Adrian.

Hard Hitting, Alert Football

By JIM LINCOLN

Could the Indians be getting tough?

This question undoubtedly was going through the minds of many fans last Friday night after Tecumseh soundly trounced visiting Airport, 24-7.

Whether Tecumseh can take Blissfield in the homecoming tilt here Friday evening, or Grosse Ile or Adrian in the final two frays, is questionable.

Before meeting Airport, most fans were conceding the final three games—now the Indians have a chance.

For the first time this season, Tecumseh started hitting hard and playing alert football.

Although the Indians were inconsistent and spotty in places, Coach Dunc Leetka's squad exhibited willingness and desire, which make a scrappy football team.

Tecumseh scored in each quarter with halfback John Britton and end Jerry Forsyth each tallying twice.

Lineman Mike Osburn set up the first score when he broke through to block a punt at the 4:33 mark in the initial stanza. Forsyth picked up the pigskin on the 10 and went in untouched.

THE INDIANS missed a second score in the first quarter when Airport recovered a fumble on its three. The threat was set up by another blocked punt, this one by Tom Simmons.

Airport marched from its three to Tecumseh's 16, where a rolling Jet bobble scooted to Tecumseh's two where Paul Decker fell on it. On the next play, the Indians fumbled the ball on the one where Airport took it in on the second play.

Only 56 seconds remained in the first half after the Airport TD, but the Indians scored again to lead at the half, 12-7.

Airport, expecting a pass, allowed Britton to run 24 yards up the middle after the Jets kicked off and stopped Craig Rosacrans on the 31.

Quarterback Tim Sisson then connected on four straight passes, the last tone, a high lob to Forsyth who had to battle with an Airport back on the 10. The ball bounced high in the air off their finger tips, but Forsyth stayed with it, gathered in the ball and raced into the end zone.

☆

ANOTHER SISSON, pass, plus fine running by Jack Rutherford and Rosacrans, set up the third period score.

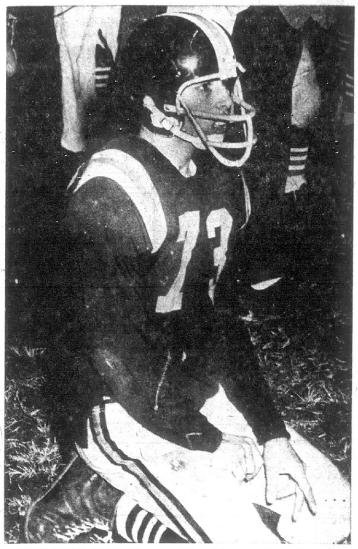
Tecumseh, after the kickoff, marched 62 yards in 11 plays. Rosacrans picked up 32 yards in the march, Rutherford 12, and a Sisson-to-Rosacrans pass was good for 22.

Britton capped the drive, which included a five-yard loss on a fumble, by diving over from the one.

The Jets, who were minus rushing yardage in both the first and third quarter, went to the air late in the fourth stanza to reach Tecumseh's eight.

The drive occurred after the Indians recovered a Jet fumble on the visitor's 34. Dave Lemerand's run of 29 yards was the big gainer of the final score. Britton again marked up six points with another plunge from the one.

Airport	0	7	0	0	— 7
Tecumseh	6	6	6	6	—24



HE BLOCKED PUNT—Lineman Mike Osburn, taking a breather late in the Airport game, turned in an outstanding performance, highlighted in the opening period when he blocked a Jet kick, which team mate Jerry Forsyth picked up and ran 10 yards for a touchdown.

JV Eleven Nips Milan by One TD

Milan jumped into an early 13-0 lead in the first quarter before Coach Carl Hale's got rolling.

Baker went over in the second quarter and again in the fourth.

Milan began a drive, but it was thawed when Jay Osburn intercepted a pass and sprinted back 25 yards before being brought down.

The Jayvees are now 2 and 1 for the season.

Clobber Visitors

That was the ball game as the Tories stopped Summerfield.

Britton added another score when Ron Mastie tossed to Tom Komon and the final count was 14-0.

Boosters Will Park Cars Friday

The Tecumseh Athletic Boosters have planned several fund-raising projects in hopes of erasing a $700 deficit on the new press box at Recreation Field.

This Friday evening, the Boosters will take 25c donations for parking on the athletic field at the home coming game with Blissfield and for parking in front and behind the high school building.

It will be the first time in many years that parking has been allowed on the athletic field.

Ken Conway, General Telephone manager here, is in charge

Many Boosters also will be selling membership tickets at the game, from which proceeds will be used to help pay off the organization's debt.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Munger and family attended the 50th wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner in Ridgeway Sunday.

Church Notes

Danger Is an Integral Part of Life

"Anything that is at all worthwhile is apt to be dangerous," according to the Rev. Allen Wittrup of the First Methodist Church.

"But some people can't stand danger, they want security instead. So they drift through life like a leaf on a slowly moving stream. They carry a cushion instead of a Cross," he continued.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup will speak on the subject "Danger! High Voltage!" Sunday at 10 a.m.

At 11:15 a.m. the pastor will lead a class of new and prospective members in a study of the Methodist Church.

Nov. 1 the WSCS will hold a potluck at the church at 6:30, with Mrs. Allen Wittrup in charge of the program "Jesus Christ the Light of the World."

The Janousek Fair will be held Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 5 to 9 p.m.

The Commissions on Missions with the help of many willing and energetic members of the church have planned an exciting evening.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup said of the fair, "It has been some time since we have shared together in such an experience. What could be more fun—and what could have a better goal than sharing in the work of our friends and our missionaries, Charlotte and Jerry Janousek."

Nov. 1. Wed. the Methodist Men's Club will meet at Carl Hale's home for a chicken dinner at 6:30.

How Folks Live in India

The Tecumseh Friends Ladies Missionary Society will meet Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement.

For the program Mrs. Harold Righter, program chairman, has designated several ladies to present sktches of the lives of Missionary families serving in Friends Mission fields in India, Formosa and Africa.

How One Avoids Mistakes

How to avoid the mistakes of the past will be brought out Sunday in all Christian Science churches.

Highlighting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" is the Golden Text from the Bible: "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Three generations of the Waldron family now take part in the age-old process of pressing the juice from the apples to make the delicious drink.

The cider press was first purchased by Horace Eaton, grandfather of Art Eaton, from an establishment operated in Tecumseh by Tyndall and Slayton.

Wilfred's father, A. K. Waldron, bought the press from Mr. Eaton in 1904 and bushels and bushels of luscious apples have been ground through it since that time.

An electric motor was added to the grinder, but the pressing process is still done by hand. A bushel yields about two gallons of cider, according to Mr. Waldron.

Apple butter was made at the mill too until the early 1900's when it burned down.

Wilfred, a recently-retired township supervisor, has invited the Senior Youth fellowship of the Presbyterian Church to pick apples and make cider Saturday for a party they are giving at the Junior High group Sunday.

Here's the Reason for State Aid Loss of Over $21,000

By JIM McDOWELL
Superintendent Of Schools

The Tecumseh Public Schools face another serious financial problem since 149 more pupils have left the district than have enrolled since school started this year.

The losses by grades are as follows:

Kindergarten to first — 42.
First to second — 1.
Second to third — 20.
Third to fourth — 14.
Fourth to fifth — 4.
Fifth to sixth — 14.
Sixth to seventh — 10.
Seventh to eighth — 6.
Eighth to ninth — 4.
Ninth to tenth — 13.
Tenth to eleventh — 14.
Eleventh to twelfth — 7.

In addition to these losses 15 less kindergartners enrolled than listed on our census.

This is a total of 164 less than the registrations indicated by enrollments of last year and the census.

The Board of Education in estimating income from state aid for this year was conservative. Even though the enrollments and census figures last spring, when the budget was made, indicated that there would be 164 more children in school this fall than last year, an anticipated increment of 150 was used.

Since 52 more children than expected are enrolled in the special education or ungraded rooms at West Branch and Tecumseh Acres, the actual enrollment difference between the estimate from last year's census and enrollments and the actual enrollments this year is 104, which at $205 per pupil is $21,320 less than the District expected to receive in state aid.

The enrollment this fall at the end of the fourth week of school in all grades is 3,083 so there is an actual increase in the total number of pupils of 42, but all indications were that there should have been an increase of 164.

Since this loss is spread out over the 12 grades and kindergarten, no savings could be made by reducing the number of classrooms and teachers needed.

The greatest loss was in the first grades and 42 pupils divided by eight, the first grade sections taught, would reduce class size by only five pupils and the sections even now run approximately 34 each, which is too many per class.

The Board of Education had planned to use this $21,320 towards reducing the deficit accumulated over the previous years.

Unless additional funds are made available through additional state, federal or local aid, additional cuts must soon be made in school services and the curriculum to pay off the debt.

Not even the reduced program of this year can be financed another year without additional funds from some source.

He Built His Own Home

Bill Mackey, one of Tecumseh top-flight independent contractors, recently went to work on a home for himself along the River Raisin, south of Tecumseh. Bill is well qualified when it comes to knowing the best in building materials and Moore Lumber was pleased that he chose us as his supplier. Bill has said that he knew the items he wanted would be on hand at our yard and delivery by our trucks could be made when he wanted them. If you are planning to do some building or re-modeling at your home, please check with us on materials and a variety of free plans. Estimates are cheerfully given. No obligation, of course.

Youngsters Will 'Beg' for UNICEF

BRITTON — Halloween evening the children of this area will join more than 2,500,000 American boys and girls "trick and treat" fun.

Instead of seeking goodies, they'll be out to save the lives of other children in more than 100 countries aided by UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund.

Under the sponsorship of Britton School PTA, the young people will receive cartons Tuesday at school, insuring all participants of having proper identification.

Students in all grades up to sixth will make posters to be judged then be placed in the Britton shopping district.

Ribbons will be awarded the winners.

The church bell will ring at six when the children begin their "trick or treat" for UNICEF.

At seven they will deposit their coins at a stand near the school and then form a parade.

The fire truck will lead the parade through the downtown area and then back to the school where students will meet in their respective rooms for games. Preschoolers will meet in the gym and their parents in the cafeteria.

☆

PRIZES WILL be presented for costumes, including adults, and refreshments will be served.

For $1, UNICEF can ship enough dried skim milk for 500 glasses to areas where it is most needed.

A single penny can mean the vaccine to protect a child from TB, a nickel can supply penicillin to cure a child of yaws, a crippling highly contagious tropical disease.

A dime can buy enough DDT to protect a child from malaria for nearly a year and a quarter can mean the antibotics to save a child from blindness of trachoma.

Board OKs Borrowing of $16,000

BRITTON—Permission to borrow $16,000 for October operations was granted by the Britton-Macon board of education against anticipated state aid.

The board approved a plan to innaugurate parent-teacher conference as a method of better reporting to the parent the progress of the student.

This is in addition to the regular report card system. Details of this plan will be announced in the near future.

The board also authorized Superintendent of Schools Russell Spalding to negotiate with various companies as to the purchase of a piano for the auditorium.

Boardmen who attended the annual meeting of the Michigan Association of School Boards gave their report to the other members.

A meeting for board members and interested citizens regarding the Tri-County College Study will be held November 2 at 7:30 p.m. in Adrian's Madison School.

He Walks Trail Blindfolded

Any boy wishing to join should attend a meeting any Wednesday evening during October or November.

Many interesting events are planned each year and are highlighted by a trip in the summer. Boys joining after Nov. 30 will not be eligible for this event.

Last week, 22 members of the troop spent Friday and Saturday walking the Freedom Trail —23 miles with overnight camp.

Scoutmaster Auten said that this trail is probably one of the most difficult of those throughout the country and that several hundreds of boys have come from all states to make the trek.

Those from Britton who hiked it last week were:

Dick Sommers
Danny Shepard
Keith Auten
Dick Cook
Norman Auten
Ronald Moore
Bill Kahle
Doug Fairbanks
David Reeck
Gerald Jordan
Carl Bower
Keith Crutchfield
Kirk Crutchfield
Michael Jordan
Clark Griffin
Mike McKenzie
Tom Watkins
Joe Hemphill
Jim Henry
Larry Richards
Larry Kopke
Terry Auten
Walter Anspach
Bob Auten

Dick Sommers, who has hiked the trail before, made the entire trip blindfolded, thus setting a non-official record.

Scoutmaster Auten said that the troop has enjoyed wonderful cooperation from the Mother's Club and parents during the money-making events held to finance the troop.

He expressed thanks to them for their support.

Men Seven Feet Tall

BRITTON — Urundi, one of the smaller Central African nations, was brought into sharp focus in the Congregational Christian Church Wednesday night by Lawrence Ehinger, who has spent several years there.

His lecture was illustrated with slides showing the terrain of the country, its peoples, many of whom are seven feet tall and many of whom are pygmies.

Mr. Ehinger, a mechanical engineer and missionary, also showed pictures of the church, the schools, hospital and hydro-electric plant built by the missionaries and natives.

"Assisting them to build colleges and universities," Mr. Ehinger declared, "would be far more effective than bringing them to this country for education, since many of them who come here do not return to use their knowledge for the good of their own country."

Skins of wild game, including lion and leopard, especially interested the young folk at the meeting. A gun was necessary equipment there both for protection and food.

"Turmoil in Urunda may be expected to increase," Mr. Ehinger stated, "When the murderer of the prime minister of province is discovered."

Sharp contrasts in the living and culture of the people were evidenced as the effect of the work of the missionaries was noted.

The Duets Class of the Church sponsored the Family Fellowship night, which began with a co-operative supper.

DAIRY REPLACEMENT CALVES must be fed properly right from birth. Otherwise, they won't get into production as early or give as much milk once they start milking. Tests indicate heifers which are seriously underfed may not come into heat until they're 18 to 22 months old, whereas well-fed heifers may begin about 8 or 10 months. Even after they freshen, cows won't produce as well as their inheritance would permit had they been fed well-balanced rations as heifers.

REDUCE WINTER SOIL EROSION in corn fields. On fields which are subject to erosion, USDA agronomists have been able to cut soil losses in half by chopping corn stalks in the fall after picking. Shredded stalks are much more effective in absorbing the impact from rainfall. Furthermore, shredding aids in decomposition of the stalks and makes plowing easier next spring.

AVOID LOSSES AT FARROWING. Now is an especially critical time of year. The weather's not extremely cold but any time the temperature in farrowing quarters drops below 40 or 45 degrees, there's a chance the young pigs may become chilled. Heifer get those heat lamps out and place them 30 inches above the bedding of the farrowing stall over the area occupied by the pigs so they'll be there when you need them.

COST OF HEATING LIVESTOCK WATER FOUNTAINS can be minimized by placing the waterer in a well-protected location. Also, insulate waterers well with fiberglass and cover unneeded portions. By using the lower thermostat setting of about 45 degrees, you can save about ½ the electricity required at 60 degrees.

"You know a good doctor for this?"

It's a question we answer all the time. Sometimes it's someone new in the neighborhood. Sometimes it's an old friend who just doesn't happen to have a family physician. The boy sprains an ankle . . . the baby runs a temperature . . . Grandma has a bad cough. Troubled people often turn to us for help, and rightly so. We work closely with physicians, providing the medicines they prescribe and use in their offices. We know who they are, their specialties, their office hours. In an emergency we're good people to ask. And we're always happy to be of service to our friends and patrons.

News Reporting Course Offered by Penn State

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Everybody wants to be a better reporter of news. At least it seems that way to the Pennsylvania State University correspondence course office, because more than 5,000 have taken their course in news writing by mail.

News Writing, a course of 10 lessons, was prepared primarily for those who report activities of their schools, club, churches, and organizations to weekly and daily newspapers.

Some editors have used it as a short course of instructions for staff members and correspondents.

Included in the course are lessons on editing copy, newspaper style, taking accurate notes, basic English grammar, etc. It also has a glossary of terms used in the newspaper profession.

Author of the course is Harold Fox, veteran newspaper editor and farm writer, now associate professor of agricultural extension information at Penn State.

Anyone can get the complete course, including postage, and expert correction and grading of lesson papers by sending $2.50 to Correspondence Courses, Agriculture Education Building, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Pa.

Make checks payable to The Pennsylvania State University.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hall, owners of the Skate Arena, have presented courtesy passes to 4-H members in the county so that boys and girls only pay skate rental to enjoy an evening of skating.

Carol and Sue Allen are new members of the Raisin Cane Club.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Friendly "Enemies"

Just a t my closest friend in town is old Colonel Harmon, our banker. Yet, when I was a lot younger and had just started the Clarion, I actually thought he was my enemy!

Whenever I wrote an editorial, there was sure to be an angry letter from the Colonel, taking the opposite side. Seemed pretty clear he'd just as soon I was out of business.

But in the Depression, when it looked like the Clarion would have to shut down, it was Colonel Harmon who offered the loan that kept me going. Startled, I asked him why. "Well," he growled, "just because I don't agree with a man, doesn't mean I don't value his opinion. Besides—if you'd closed up, who'd I have to argue with?"

From where I sit, one of the wonderful things about America is the way people respect each other's opinions. For example, the Colonel doesn't happen to share my preference for a glass of beer, but he understands I have a right to feel the way I do. It's tolerance like this that keeps our friendship "in business."

'62 CORVAIR-MONZA

NEW FACE, SAME SPORTING HEART

We might as well tell you straight off: Corvair's the car for the driving enthusiast. Think that lets you out? Maybe. Maybe not.

Until you've driven one, you really can't say for sure, because Corvair's kind of driving is like no other in the land. The air-cooled rear engine sees to that. You swing around curves flat as you please. You whip through the sticky spots other cars should keep out of in the first place. (Especially this year, now that you can get Positraction as an extra-cost option.) You stop smoothly, levelly with Corvair's beautifully balanced, bigger brakes.

Corvair's found other new ways to please you this year. A forced-air heater and defroster are standard equipment on all coupes, sedans and both Monza and 700 Station Wagons. So are dual sunshades and front-door armrests and some other goodies. You'll note some new styling, inside and out. Nice. And safety-belt installation is easier, too, and cheaper.

So you can see we haven't really done much to Corvair this year. Why on earth should we? If this car, just as she is, can't make a driving enthusiast out of you, better take a cab.

CHEVROLET
A New World of Worth

And here's America's only thoroughbred sports car, the '62 CORVETTE. We warn you: If you drive a Corvette after your first sampling of a Corvair, you may well end up a two-car man. And who could blame you?

Neffs Honored by Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Neff were honored with a goingaway shower by their many friends during a recent meeting of the Tecumseh Friends Missionary Society.

Mr. Neff had been out of town due to a previous engagement and so Mrs. Neff, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comfort, were among the many guests, accepted for both.

The Neffs are missionaries to Nigeria.

Mrs. Harold Righter, the program chairman, introduced Mrs. Perry Hayden, an aunt of Mrs. Neff's who told of her childhood in Tecumseh, of her faithfulness to the Church and then of her life as a young lady at college where she met her husband.

Mrs. Neff responded by relating some of the unusual and often amusing experiences they had during their last stay in Nigeria.

Mr. and Mrs. Neff were presented with many useful gifts unobtainable to them during another three years stay among the Yorbua and Fulani tribes of Nigeria.

Owen Merrills Visit Adirondacks

Located in the northern part of the state, New York's Adirondack Mountains again this year are attracting hundreds of thousands of vacationers and tourists.

Forty-six peaks, over 4,000 feet in height, and more than 200 lakes, preserved in their state of natural beauty, give the area its unique attraction.

The Adirondacks State Park, encompassing more than 7,000 square miles, is larger than the combined area of Yellowstone, Yosemite, Glacier and Grand Canyon National Parks.

Recent visitors from here to Whiteface and the high peak area of the state were Mr. and Mrs. Owen Merrill and family, 111 S. Ottawa St.

News From Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

This year Brother Oliver Baran, CSC, has taken over the job of being moderator of Boysville's weekly mimeographed newspaper, the Campus Info.

The Boysville Varsity Band has been practicing for the past few weeks for a concret coming up shortly in Mount Clemens.

Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, director of the Boysville Band, has composed another new number for the band to work on. It is entitled, "Theme from Nowhere."

The band will be presented with a new school flag next Sunday by the Monsignor Hunt Council of the Knights of Columbus from Detroit. The flag was designed during the summer by Brother Philip.

It is blue with white letters, giving the name and location of the school. In the center is a coat of arms containing symbols representative of the hierarchy of Michigan, the Knights of Columbus and the Brothers of Holy Cross, each of whom play an important role in conducting the school.

√

The Knights scored first on a beautifully-executed pass play from Billy Bonnell to Bob

Jim scored two touchdowns on runs, and Jim Concannon put the other on over for the Knights.

We at Boysville hope for them to keep up the good work under the coaching of Joe Fortunato.

√

The inside corridors will have bright yellow tile from the floor to about shoulder height, the remainder of the wall being cinder block.

The building is shaping up more and more each day and conceivably the structure could be closed-in within a few weeks if the good weather holds out.

√

The intramural season is about half over at Boysville, and the senior league Lions are still on top with a 7-1 record.

They were finally toppled last Friday by the sharp running attack of the Rams under Dave McKnight.

A point system will determine who is league champion at the end of the season. Two points will be given a team for a win, and a tie will earn one point.

The team with the greatest number of points will be champion.

Stuart.

The Aggies picked up their two touchdowns, one on a line plunge, and the other on a screen pass and run combination.

Tomorrow night Boysville will be in quest of its second victory when they take on Ida at the Bluestreaks' park.

Tony McFarr, first-string halfback for the Knights, will be sidelined for the remainder of the season as a result of torn ligaments in his ankle, an injury sustained in the Sand Creek game.

√

The Mission Club, under the direction of Brother Francis O'Donnell, CSC, had its first meeting of the year. The chief topic of discussion was how to raise funds to send to the foreign missions this year.

Officers were elected at the meeting. Pat Collins, a senior from Dearborn Township, was elected president.

The Mission Club is selling Christmas cards, not only to supply people with good, sensible greeting cards, but also to raise funds for the missions.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

WHAT TO TALK ABOUT

This time of year so much is happening, so many things going on which beg for attention, that it is hard to know where to start or what subjects to pick.

One thing I am definitely not going to talk about is the weather. If there are any more beautiful Indian Summer days left for us, never let it be said that I jinxed them away. If and when they come we will enjoy them to the utmost but we will do it silently.

Of course, the most obvious thing this time of year is the gorgeous display of fall colors. The King Midas touch is indeed evident in our window pictures—they are gold, gold, gold.

When the lazy, late rising sun starts working his magic, then the gold turns bright and shimmering. Strong back lighting gives the leaves an utmost luminous look and the reflections in the creek are breath-takingly lovely.

The one discord in this symphony of fall color is the wren tree. In the enchanted world of gold it sticks out like a sore thumb—oops, excuse my mixing of metaphors. This ample tree apparently doesn't know it is fall because, with all the color around, it is still a lush summertime green. Poor crazy mixed-up tree.

OR WE COULD talk about birds. As of October 19th the kingfisher was still around. As he flew to his favorite perch atop Doctor's bridge he rattled, "Good Morning".

Wonder how many more days he will be around to so greet us—I realize the experts usually figure that fall fishing is excellent but soon this bird Izaak Walton will surely be heading for his winter home, which may be as far south as Central America.

Or how about racoons—do you remember our Saturday morning visitor of a few weeks back?

Well, last Saturday afternoon I had another raccoon visitor but this time she was right in my room!

Friends up the creek had an exciting summer raising a baby 'coon and before turning it loose, they thoughtfully brought her down for me to see.

At first I thought this was probably the one who had thrilled us by scampering around the yard but second thoughts have changed my mind.

'Our' raccoon, I think, tended to be more of a tannish gray, where this one was a pretty, gray, gray.

It is hard to know, though, and actually, does it really make much difference? I enjoyed both visits exceedingly.

☆

AND IF we tire of out-door things, it seems to me that lately there has been an abundance of good kid stories.

Example—my uncle took his two small grandsons and their mother to the zoo the other day.

I think Sheila went along just for the ride because it sounded like strictly a grand dad and boys day to me.

But that is beside the point, what really matters is that they had a wonderful time. The next day Bill, a bright and mischievous two-year old, was playing with Duke, the family's huge Weimaraner, when all of a sudden Shiela heard a terrible noise.

In response to her query as to what was going on, Bill answered in that tone which so clearly says grown-ups-certainly-a ksome-dumb-questions "I'm being a friendly tiger at Duke."

So it is that there is much article material available but look what has happened—I have rambled on for a whole column without ever really deciding what to talk about.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Your Help Needed

If a mother in an underdeveloped country has had six children, probably three are already dead. Though she herself has survived the dangers of childhood, her own life will be about 15 years shorter than in a developed country.

She lives in a village, as do three-quarters of her fellow-countrymen. She has not learned to read or write and her children have only a small chance of ever going to school. If her husband is alive and working, his income may be around $100 per year.

Prices of local products are low, and the family can find food to satisfy hunger but not to meet nutritional requirements. In particular the children do not get the proteins needed for their growth.

The doctor, nurse and midwife in a health center equipped by UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, are the only contact with health services or personnel for 10,000 or even 20,000 people. Indeed a family is lucky to have a health center within reach. Most do not.

Yet such a family has dignity and courage, sometimes even gaiety, and possibly beautiful children. They may be illiterate, but they are by no means unintelligent people. And they have begun to hear of the possibility of a better life.

If their children are to become healthy and useful citizens they must be adequately fed and protected from diseases which may cripple or blind them. They must also be educated to the full use of their capacities. This is where UNICEF and other United Nations agencies can help.

You can help, too, by donating to UNICEF when youngsters Trick or Treat for this cause next week.

Tecumseh youngsters will make door-to-door collections for UNICEF Monday evening. In Britton, the effort will come on Tuesday evening, Halloween.

Traffic Light Needed

It's time that the State Highway Dept. did something about the intersection of N. Evans St. where it crosses Herrick Park Dr. (Brown St., west of the intersection).

The traffic situation there has become progressively more congested in the past few years.

Motorists, often lined up four and five cars deep, find it nearly impossible to cross Evans at peak traffic periods.

Not only is it a long wait, but the pattern of travel and the jog in the union between Herrick Park and Brown make it exceedingly dangerous.

Considerable traffic is turning at this intersection, either going off of Evans onto Brown, or coming from Brown onto Evans.

We feel the city should officially petition the state to check out this corner, with the thought of getting a light there.

Visitor from Japan

Square dancing, games costume judging and a visitor from Japan were the agenda as 10 families held a Sunday afternoon Halloween party at St. Elizabeth's School auditorium.

Mrs. Raymond Mattis called for dancing, which attracted all members of the families, from five-year-olds on up.

The Robert Laidlaw clan scored high in the costume competition, with prizes going to David, Robert, Jr. and Suzie. A prize also went to Nancy Schwartz.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Merz took the adult costume honor.

Miss Mori is a student at the University of Michigan and is being groomed for Japan's 1964 Olympic games as a high diver. She is being coached by the "M" diving mentor.

This was the October party of the Family Club with details arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Riordan.

Other families taking part were the Earl Baldwins, the Hugh DesErmias, the Carson Houses and the Robert Murrays.

Will Have Gift Booth

The Charlotte Circle of the Methodist WSCS was ntertained Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Hadsell with 13 ladies present.

Mrs. Walter Hizer, vice-president, conducted the business session in the absence of the president, Mrs. Richard Loughney.

Mrs. Victor Lawson presented devotions and the program. She read from the Old Testament about David and then led a discussion in which many participated.

During the business session, members voted to have a gift booth at the Janousek Fair Nov. 8 from 5 to 9 p.m.

Articles suitable for Christmas gifts to sell for not more than $1.50 will be on display.

HARVEST QUEEN — Sharon Ries was selected queen of the Harvest Ball Saturday evening at Michigan State University by judges from the Agricultural Council. There were 10 candidates in the court.

$44,185 Given by Employees and Industries

Industry in Tecumseh has done it again.

Employees of local plants and services made $44,815.10 in donations to charity during the industrial phase of the annual Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive, reports chairman Joe Fortunato.

Topping the field was Tecumseh Products Co., where a whopping $40,689.60 was given with most workers' gifts coming via the payroll deduction program. As is the firm's practice, employee gifts to the Tecumseh Foundation were matched dollar-for-dollar by the company.

Of the Products' total, $5,568.40 was earmarked by employees, who live outside the Tecumseh area, to be sent to fund drives in their home communities throughout the general area.

Overall goal for the Foundation effort this year is $65,000. Chairman is Virgil Tucker with James McKenna serving as co-chairman.

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

We Americans can be blase and sophisticated at times.

Then, we can be child-like in our attitudes.

Take the world situation. Does the thought that a 50-M bomb might drop in our backyards bother us?

Subconsciously, yes.

But we do everything to push this thought from our conscious minds. It's the old theory: if we ignore the situation, it will probably go away.

There's talk now of fallout shelters. But most folks look at this as more or less akin to adding a second Cadillac to the family's vehicle lineup.

My own opinion is that the fallout shelter should get serious consideration.

What do you think?

☆

From the world of business, a few notes.

Out Holloway way, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kapnick of apple orchard fame, are busy putting the finishing touches on their sparkling new salesroom along Rogers Hwy.

With a lot more labor and some good luck, the Kapnicks will be all set for their grand opening this Saturday and Sunday.

If a person is hungry for a snack either of those days, the place to visit is the new showroom. The Kapnicks are treating —apple cider and donuts.

Back in downtwon Tecumseh, it's nice to have Carl Lamb with us again.

To both Carl and John I wish the best of luck.

☆

Mrs. Donald Beevers says Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Oyer who moved from Tecumseh to Riverside, Calif., in September, have a new spelling to add to the list.

They write that folks in California refer to our city as "Tekucmseech."

☆

The staff here grinned when Onalee Cote got an award bracelet for reporting from The Adrian Telegram.

Her winning report was dedicated to The Herald.

☆

When nearly 400 turn out to pay tribute to a fellow, you can be sure he is greatly respected.

A well-done goes to the banquet committee and the Baptist ladies who served the excellent meal.

☆

Mrs. Tom Cushman, of Brooklyn, a recent patient, received a letter addressed to:

Tecumpseh

☆

Herrick Memorial Hospital probably won't be the same.

Entered as a minor surgery patient last week, our society gal, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, simply moved her base of operation from The Herald to Room 124, at the hospital.

ED THANKED FRIENDS . . . SHOOK HANDS WITH SEVERAL HUNDRED AS MAYOR EASTON STOOD BY . . . PLENTY OF LAUGHS

Friends Honor Ed

By TOM RIORDAN

Ed Nelson had a belated birthday party.

It was well worth waiting for and one he'll never forget.

Nor will nearly 400 of his friends.

Ed was 60 on Oct. 5.

The festivities came 21 days later on last Thursday when the civic affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce staged a banquet to climax Ed Nelson Day.

Ed was being honored for his loyal years of service to Tecumseh, as a village councilman and later its first and only city manager to date.

The party was slated for the Baptist Youth House, but when the demand for tickets became so great, it had to be moved to the larger United Products Workers Union Hall.

☆

LAUGHTER rolled through the hall as toastmaster, the Rev. Blair Bashore and other guests recounted Ed's lifetime.

Like the time Ed went spear fishing from a boat in Red Mill Pond and insisted on making the first lunge — which ended with Ed going overboard.

And the blind date with the girl who was to become Mrs. Nelson.

There were serious moments, too.

A tribute to Ed by Mayor Harold Easton was climaxed when he announced that Waterworks Park, where the new Cub League baseball diamond has been constructed, will now be E. J. Nelson Park.

A bronze plaque was placed at the site that afternoon, the mayor explained.

Mr. Easton said that the job of city manager brings many complaints.

"Lesser men would have responded quite differently than Ed. His conscientious efforts and productive performances under these adverse conditions have gained the respect of all of us and have motivated our appearances here tonight," the mayor stated.

☆

JEWELER ED HEILMAN told the audience about Ed's early days in Tecumseh, during the Thirties, when he came here to manage the old Cyclone Fence Co.

Rexall Store Sold

John "Cliff" Cameron announced the sale Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Lamb, who lives at 513 Nokomis St., took over the business Wednesday and renamed it Lamb's Rexall Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron expect to leave Tecumseh late in November and move to the Ozark Mountains in Arkansas.

It began last summer when they drove their daughter, Ann, to Illinois where she was to serve as a Girl Scout camp counselor.

By error, the family arrived one day early. They noted that the Illinois State Fair was going on and so decided to see it.

At The Fair, Mrs. Cameron filled out a chance on a lot being given by Ozark Acres, Inc., which is located neary Hardy, Ark.

A letter arrived some weeks ago, telling Mrs. Cameron she had won the land.

Mr. Lamb, who served as a pharmacist at Hodges Drug Store from 1955 until this year, had earlier conferred with Mr. Cameron about the possibility of purchasing the local Rexall store.

When the Camerons decided on the move to the Ozarks, the sale was organized by realtor Glenn Kohler.

Mr. Cameron purchased the store in 1932 from B. J. Pulver, who had operated it for nearly 30 years.

The Camerons, who reside at 205 N. Democratic St., have three children, all attending the University of Michigan:

Mr. Lamb, who is 40-years-old and graduated from Ferris Institutes school of pharmacy in 1950, will be assisted here by his wife Mary.

Besides Mr. Lamb's work with Hodges, he served a year with a Muir Drug Store in Saginaw, three years with Cunningham's in Adrian and two years at Morrison Pharmacy in Adrian.

After leaving Hodges last winter, he managed the Corner Drug Store in Saline.

While at Hodges, Mr. Lamb served as chairman of the retail division of the Chamber of Commerce and was elected to the City Council, a position he still holds.

He is a member of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club and belonged to the Lenawee County Druggists Association.

The Lambs, who are members of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, have one son, Dick Wright.

This was Neva M. Ayers on June 23, 1906, the day she became Mrs. Charles Jacobs and received her wedding ring. It was lost in 1908, then found recently by accident and returned to her last week. Read the full story on page two.

Mrs. Hart states: 'We urge all the citizens of Tecumseh to cooperate with the workers and help put the drive "over the top" by Nov. 10. If anyone has already given to the Fund, please assist the workers by displaying the appropriate sticker in your window thus making another call unnecessary.

"Remember this drive is twofold — When you give to help others, you are also helping yourself by making Tecumseh a better place in which to live!" she concludes.

The room was overflowing with notes, partially completed stories and copy paper. Right in the middle of all this, battering away at her portable typewriter, was our Dorothy.

Her latest choice has been to make everyone from Detroit to Jackson realize the Tecumseh Players are staging "Blithe Spirit" this week.

By last Thursday, Mary had prepared so many stories on the Noel Coward comedy and phoned so many people about the show, she was waking up at night to poke Terry in the ribs and asked him if he could think of any story angle on the show she may have forgotten.

One of Mary's calls was to Louis Cook, drama critic of The Free Press. The idea: wouldn't it be nice if Mr. Cook could come down for the play.

Well, Mary wasn't able to reach Mr. Cook, but talked to one of his associates, who told Mary that there were something like 60 little theatre groups in the Detroit area and so far four were doing "Blithe Spirit" this fall.

If for no other reason, we'd love to see full houses both nights of "Spirit" to reward Mary for her efforts.

Homecoming was last weekend at Michigan State and Cherie and I visited East Lansing for the event.

Touring the town about 11 p.m. Friday., we watched the collegians having a ball puting the finishing touches on some fabulous displays.

There was a missle that towered five stories high, figures of Spartan gridders, a Spanish galleon, a stadium—everything imaginable.

But the one that left us holding our sides was on the majestic, rolling front lawn of the Psi Upsilon fraternity.

Hastily hand-lettered on it was, "RAH"

Sixty - Six More Parking Spaces Added

Sixty-six more hard-topped, lined, metered, and lighted off-street city parking places went into official use Tuesday.

This is another phase in the city's $65,000 parking improvement plan.

The financing is being done through revenue bonds, paid off entirely by pennies and nickles collected in the meters.

$443 Collected for UNICEF

Thanks to more than 300 of Tecumseh's boys and girls, who participated Monday in the national UNICEF Halloween program, this year will be a happier one for many of the world's needy children.

Youngsters here collected $443 in the most successful drive ever held in Tecumseh for this cause.

"The 'treats' of coins generously contributed will help UNICEF continue to assist 55 million needy children and mothers in over 100 countries," the committee reported.

"We fully appreciate the part The Herald has played in making the program such a success."

Following the collection, the children and their drivers from the Gloria Dei Lutheran, First Methodist, First Presbyterian and St. Elizabeth churches returned to the Presbyterian Church, where they were served cider and cupcakes.

Children from the First Baptist and Grace Lutheran churches returned to individual parties in their own churches.

The committee wishes to thank everyone in the community who contributed their time, effort and money in making the drive a success.

After 53 Years, Ring Is Found

By DOROTHY GRIGG

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gaydosh of rural Onsted brought happiness to Mrs. Charles Jacobs, mother of Mrs. Harry Schuch, Thursday.

Mrs. Gayodsh called at the Schuch residence to present Mrs. Jacobs with her gold wedding band, which she had lost working in a garden 53 years ago.

The Gaydoshes now own the farm property near Onsted previously owned by Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs.

It was in the summer of 1908 that Mrs. Jacobs lost her ring and this summer Mr and Mrs. Gaydosh came across it in the same garden.

The ring was in excellent condition and the inscriptions "NMJ" and "1906" were inside.

Through assistance from a fellow-employee at the Tecumseh Products Co., Mrs. Gaydosh was able to learn who the owner of the ring was.

Mrs. Jacobs was thrilled and delighted Thursday when the ring was returned to her after so many years.

She has been staying at the home of her daughter because of a recent illness. Mr. Jacobs is deceased.

Mrs. Jacobs said that she would never be able to repay the Gaydoshes for the happiness they brought to her by their thoughtful deed.

ED NELSON

Mr. Heilman persuaded Mr. Nelson to run on his party's ticket for the village council and Ed was elected.

"The mayor's office used to be in the blacksmith shop," Mr. Heilman said, "And we held many informal sessions there, often ending with group singing.

"I never could figure out how Ed could be so efficient in his work on the council and then in our singing bit so many sour notes," he grinned.

"I still want him on my ticket," he concluded.

City Engineer Cal Zorn outlined the tremendous strides made by Tecumseh under Ed's management as it grew from a 4,400-population village to city status and its present 7,050 citizens.

Five subdivisions have been built, the sewage treatment plant completed, miles of improved streets, sewer and water lines, curb and gutter installed under Mr. Nelson's watchful care, Mr. Zorn pointed out.

Cal pointed out that Ed served under three mayor's Charlie Mensing, the late Hugh H. Hanna and Mr. Easton.

☆

CLIFF MILES, city manager of Adrian, representing the group of managers to which Ed belongs, extended greeting for the group and read a congratulatory telegram from the state association president.

A quartet from Hudson, the Standard-Aires, sang and an orchestra of Tecumseh High School musicians played from the stage during the meal, which was served by members of the First Baptist Church.

"I didn't know I had so many friends," Ed grinned happily.

Dinner Proceeds Will Buy Food

The Ladies Aid of the Holloway Presbyterian church met Oct. 26 with a dessert luncheon preceding the business meeting.

Mrs. Glen Mumaw and Mrs. Kenneth Kopke were the hostesses.

The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer in unison, followed by roll call when each member responded with a thought or proverb on the harvest season.

Mrs. Kenneth Kopke gave a reading.

Proceeds from two suppers the group recently served, will be used for Thanksgiving baskets.

EASTER ALREADY? — A lily plant owned by Mrs. John Stephens, 413 Center Dr., got its seasons mixed and bloomed beautifully a week ago. Some roses in the Stephens garden, not to be outdone, also blossomed, giving the family a love'y bouquet.

Want Alley Closed

A recommendation to close the alley exit between DesErmia's Furniture Store and the D&C will be made to Council next week.

The Chamber of Commerce parking committee will offer the suggestion.

D&C management has asked for the arrangement so that it can fashion a rear entrance adjacent to the new off-street lot just completed behind the E. Chicago and N. Evans business block.

Committee members agreed at a luncheon meeting Monday that the proposal was logical and would seek Council OK for it.

The alley is extremely narrow, with room for only one vehicle. Under the present setup, it is too dangerous to use as a walkway and alley.

The flow of traffic to and from the city's newest hard-topped lot can be made at three other spots—north of the DesErmie store, behind Marv's Market and farther down N. Ottawa St., just north of the Tuckey home.

Other business places in the area which have alreday or are planning new rear entrances include Eggleston's Jewelry, Cal's Tog Shop, Hanna Insurance and DesErmia.

Residential Drive Kick-Off Is Friday

All worthwhile projects and all worthwhile objectives take considerable time and effort. Many times those who give willingly of their efforts, seldom get due recognition. This Friday, 109 ladies of Tecumseh will join together for the first time, make plans and outline solicitation schedules, and seek your contributions for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation. They have volunteered their services to seek contributions from the citizens of Tecumseh living in the residential areas. They like many others, give time and labor plus their own donations. How much you can afford to give is a personal decision. What you give, what your friends and neighbors give, collectively will help make Tecumseh a better place in which to live, a place for your youngsters and family that you will be proud to claim. During the next few days, perhaps even a week or so, one of the 109 ladies will knock on your door. Be ready, be generous. You'll be glad and happier in years to come when you can say that I helped to make this community the finest anywhere.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Circulation Climbs

Four years ago this autumn, the circulation of The Herald was flirting with the 2,000 mark.

Today, it stands at 3,475—and is still growing.

In the communication business, readership is the important item.

How many folks read The Herald each week? Based on national surveys, which state that each paid circulation publication is read by an average of three persons, we have a total readership of well over 10,000.

That's our selling point to advertisers. It's not how many copies, it's how many people read each issue.

On this point, our loyal readers can do their hometown newspaper a lot of good by telling store keepers when they buy, "I saw your ad in this week's Herald."

Then too, when folks spend their hard-earned cash on a newspaper you can be sure they're going to read it, especially when they'll find considerable hometown news and pictures on all of its pages.

This brings us to the "meaty part" of our editorial. A newspaper is primarily made up of news. Each week, all its resources are strained to the breaking point to gather every fact available about the things which took place in the community during the past seven days.

Future happenings also get considerable attention—often time with editorial boosts.

And so it goes, every worthwhile event in the area—whether big or small—gets a helping hand from the community newspaper, which, after all is its job.

100 Volunteers Go To Work

Final phase of Tecumseh's annual charity drive begins Friday.

More than 100 volunteer workers will solicit gifts at Tecumseh homes.

Business, municipal workers and professional folks began their giving next.

Residential solicitations signal the last portion.

Under the unique Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, we do our share in local, state and national charity giving—a total of $21,000 for this purpose.

The balance of our gifts go into the Fund's building program, which will bring new and needed structures, starting with a library, which is now under construction.

Donations we make now help those who need help and at the same time aid in fashioning an ever finer city.

More Fame for Tecumseh

This has long been the Refrigeration Capital of the World.

One of these days, Tecumseh may become equally famous as the headquarters for building popcorn vending machines.

We reported last week that H. W. Tuttle Co. has started manufacture of such a device and expects to gear its production to about 250 units a week.

But once the popcorn vendor idea started into motion, the operation became a team effort with many folks at Tuttle chipping in their skills and talents.

Our congratulations go to the Tuttle firm and we wish them great success.

Anyone for a cup of hot, fresh popcorn?

MR. AND MRS. JAMES LINDEN

Church Notes

Church Should Be a House of Dedication

Every church should be a house of dedication to Christian teaching, service and action, states the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

Every person who enters in should feel the consecration of the members of the church.

This will be the basis of the sermon of the Rev. Mr. Wittrup, "This House of Dedication," at First Methodist Church, Sunday at 10 a.m.

The class for new members and those desiring to study the teachings of the church will meet at 11:15.

Intermediate Youth Fellowship members plan a potluck supper for their parents at 6:30. Senior MYF at 6 p.m. will prepare candy for a booth at the Janousek Fair.

In A House with Neither Wealth, Prestige

The Seventh Day Church of God held services Saturday in the Pythian Hall.

Sabbath School had Howard Friddle as superintendent and church service William McCann delivering the sermon.

Sermon was "The True Church" which might be found in an upper room or in a house and where there is neither wealth nor prestige, but where the blessed hope of the coming of the Son of Man can be found.

Prayer meeting will be Wednesday evening at the Thurlou Mooney home.

Bunker Hill Was A Defeat – Then Victory

"We can't win for losing," is often the expressed attitude of humans.

God is as able to get through to us when we are down and out as when we are winning and ahead of the game, states the Rev. Blair Bashore.

"On page after page of the Bible we can find a heartening word to the losers: to the poor and the oppressed, to the "weary and heavy laden;" he adds

"Bunker Hill was a defeat. But from that day the colonists determined that they would not be overcome. Our standard for achievement should never be lowered because of a moment of defeat.

"Our prayer life should include the desire to do God's Will. This may cause us to lose on occasion, that we may accept God's choice for us.

"God in His greatness knows how to take inferior material and make it worthy. He notices ordinary losers like you and me and uses us according to His purpose. This, we call redemption," he concludes.

"Redemption for the losers," will be the sermon title at the First Baptist service Sunday morning. Holy Communion will be celebrated during the Morning Service.

'Gracious Life' Presbyterians Sermon Topic

Sermon at the Presbyterian Church this Sunday, "The Gracious Life," will deal with the justice and the biblical basis for human relationships and for divine-human relationship.

"Today there is much concern for justice, for individuals as well as for groups. But there are times when justice is both insufficient and inadequate," states the Rev. Julian Gresham.

This Sunday sermon explores those areas of life which require more than justice.

Bible Study is held each Monday evening at 8 p.m., except for the first Monday of each month, in the Fellowship Center of the church.

All interested persons, both within and without the church, are cordially invited to attend by the Rev. Mr. Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Viele had as their guests this weekend Trooper and Mrs. Benjamin W. Viele and sons, Donald and Steven, of Sturgis, and Mrs. Viele's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Irvin of Lansing.

James A. Lindens Honored at Dinner on Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Linden, 4600 Blood Rd., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday with a dinner and a small gathering of relatives and friends.

The Lindens were married Oct. 27, 1936, at Caro.

They lived in Roscommon, then moved to Tecumseh.

Mrs. Linden, the former Dorothy Gebauer, is employed by Clinton Engines Corp. and Mr. Linden is with Tecumseh Products Co.

Their anniversary dinner was given by their children, Marjorie, Donald, Dennis and Dean, at home, and David, who is stationed with the Army in Germany.

Cub Hayride Plans Turned Into Outing

The hayride, which was scheduled for the day, was postponed because of the weather.

The group held a punt, a kick and pass contest and the following boys were awarded Cub Scout knives as prizes:

Peter Speerstra — eight-year-old class

Paul Burns — nine-year-old class

David Kitson — 12-year-old class

The following Scouts received Bob Cat Badges:

with Tecumseh

TEENS

By NANCY NIXON

Annual homecoming was staged Friday at the Tecumseh-Blissfield game.

School was dismissed Friday afternoon for the parade, which began on Shawnee St. and proceeded down the Chicago Blvd. through Tecumseh's business district.

The High School band, along with Britton's majorettes, led the procession, which consisted of colorful floats entered by various student groups.

The senior float, "Royal Flush," depicting a Blissfield Royal hanging out of a comode, was awarded the first prize of $15, by judges who were scattered among the spectators.

The juniors' "Beat The Royals," illustrated by a large bowl with beater paddles mixing Royal pudding, and the sophomores' "Clean 'em Up," showing a Blissfield Royal player getting scrubbed in a bathtub, tied for second.

Both classes won $10.

The fourth-place freshmen float "Deal Tecumseh a Royal Flush" portrayed a hand of cards.

First prize among club competition went to the Varsity Club entry of a decorated manure spreader, which cleverly stated "Spread the Royals."

Homecoming festivities were enjoyably concluded by a royal reception for the queen and her court in the gymnasium, attractively decorated by the GAA.

Music was furnished by Andy Anderson and his Combo.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were prepared and served by the Future Homemakers Club of America.

RUNS IN FAMILY — Susan Frost was named Homecoming Queen by her fellow Tecumseh High School students last week. Just two years ago, Susan's equally lovely sister, Kendra, now a student at Albion College, was also afforded the same honor. Beauty just runs in the Frost family, we guess. The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frost of Macon.

High School Will Stage Open House

The Baptist Youth Fellowship held a Halloween party Sunday evening.

The group met at the Youth House and were escorted by Mrs. Claude Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brooks, Mrs. Charles Beland and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Griewahn to the Griewahn home on Billmeyer Rd.

Twenty-two members and guests enjoyed a tour through a spook house.

Refreshments of barbecue, potato chips, punch, cider, apples and candy were served.

Thespians See Comedy 'Tender Trap'

A group of theatre-goers, all members of the Tecumseh Players, motored to Jackson last Saturday to view the Jackson Civic Players production of "The Tender Trap".

The theatre party included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kureth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dabe, the Frank Daltons and the Edward Mengerinks, Mrs. Bertha Vallelunga, Mrs. Gloria Jadwin, Russell Steinke and Richard Boyd.

According to Mr. Boyd, who is stage manager of the Tecumseh Players currently playing "Blithe Spirit", "There are going to be playgoers from Jackson represented in groups on both nights at our comedy."

Speakers Can't Come, CD Session Is Washed Out

Thursday's planned Civil Defense meeting in Tecumseh was washed out when the guests speakers said they couldn't make it.

Local CD leaders, Joe Rice and Steve Illeck, who arranged the session, announced that the meeting will be called off.

Royals Win, 13-0

By JIM LINCOLN

Once-beaten Blissfield spoiled Tecumseh's Homecoming Friday night with two second half touchdowns for a 13-0 victory.

The Indians, playing the Royals on even terms in a scoreless first half, succumbed to a 69-yard drive in the third period, and were victims of a pass interception deep in their own territory in the final stanza.

Coach Dune Lectka's squad has a chance this Friday evening at Grosse Ile to end play in the Huron League with a 4-3 mark.

Game time there is 7:30.

Blissfield struck back to threaten twice in the same period, once reaching Tecumseh's 10.

A brilliant passing display in the second quarter by Tim Sisson, including a string of five straight completions, carried Tecumseh from its own 10 to the Blissfield 25, where a Royal defender snagged an aerial to stop the march.

Except for a late spurt in the fourth period, the Indians were stymied most of the time deep in their own territory in the second half.

Top ground gainers for Tecumseh were Jack Rutherford with 52 yards in 12 carries, and Craig Rosacrans, 28 yards on seven carries.

Both halfbacks lost additional yardage due to penalties, which nullified gains.

Although the Indians bowed for their third loss, it was one of their better games and could give them the lift needed to upset Grosse Ile.

A win Friday will give Tecumseh fourth spot in the Huron League.

The first two years of the league, the Indians either won or shared the top rung.

CATCHES TWO—Craig Rosacrans, shifty Tecumseh halfback, was on the receiving end of two passes from quarterback Tim Sisson Friday night.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Last Sunday at Boysville Band was presented with a new flag to be used at parades and other activities during the year.

Brother Philip Armstrong, C-SC, director of the band, was presented the flag by members of the Monsignor Hunt Council of the Knights of Columbus from Detroit.

The Boysville Band members are awaiting the dedication of the Mt. Clemens Council Knights of Columbus Hall, for the day of dedication, probably this Sunday, the band will play a concert during the Open House at the council hall.

Next Friday will mark the end of one full quarter of the 1961-'62 school year at Boysville. Examinations will be given on Thursday and Friday next week.

√

The boys are using the library for the pleasure of reading and also for school assignments.

Presently Boysville's library has over 5,000 volumes for the boys to enjoy and is considered one of the best equipped libraries in the state for a school which has an enrollment of about 180.

The Knights tallied in the second quarter on a pass from Roger Jozwiak, quarterback, to end Tom Ryan for nine yards and a score.

They were unable to make the extra point, however, and Boysville took its halftime rest with a one-point lead.

This time Jozwiak passed to Charlie Stone, a junior halfback, for 20 yards and paydirt. John Taylor drove for the extra point.

The victory over Ida Friday night puts the Knights at two wins, four losses in league play.

Tomorrow night the Knights will meet the Irish of Adrian Catholic Central at Maple Stadium in Adrian.

The Boysville season will be closed Thursday, Nov. 9, at Wayne, where the Knights will take on Wayne St. Mary's in a non-league contest.

Ridgeway PTA

Ridgeway Area PTA will meet at the school Wednesday, Nov. 8 at 8 o'clock.

R. G. Mulchahey of the Coldwater State Home and Training School will show slides depicting the general program of the school and the types of care, educating and training given the children.

Refreshments will be served by the fourth and fifth grade mothers.

MICHAELE PSOLLA

Michaele Psolla and Joe Hayden Will Marry

A summer wedding is planned by Michaele Psolla of Canton, O., and Joseph P. Hayden of Tecumseh.

Their engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Psolla of Canton.

Mr. Hayden is the son of Mrs. Perry M. Hayden of Tecumseh and the late Mr. Hayden.

Miss Psolla was graduated from Glenwood High School at Canton and is an employee of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Akron.

Mr. Hayden was graduated from Hampden Du Bose Academy in Zellwood, Fla. and is a senior at Malone College, Canton.

Police Blotter

Ralph Fisher, 32, of the Pike Hotel in Clinton was arrested at 11:45 a.m. Oct. 31 for drunk and disorderly conduct. He pled guilty before Justice Ernie Oliver Nov. 1 and paid a $25 fine and $4.30 costs.

√

Three juveniles were arrested Tuesday afternoon for shoplifting in downtown Tecumseh.

Five juveniles were arrested for malicious destruction of property the night of Oct. 31.

The malicious destruction of property during the Halloween prank days was light, a spokesman of the Tecumseh Police department stated Wednesday.

Part of the credit for this can be attributed to the work of Civil Defense Auxiliary Police who aided the regular police in patrolling the city.

Motar D. Santo, Jr., 20 of Jasper, was arrested by the Tecumseh police Sunday at 8:45 a.m. and charged with drunkenness.

√

Richard E. Stuart, 34, of rural Tecumseh and Glen B. Hargis, 40, also of Tecumseh, were involved in an accident at 11:45 a.m. Sunday at the intersection of Macon Hwy. and M-52. The cars were slightly damaged.

He is now enrolled in Adrian College, majoring in Business Administration.

A January wedding is planned.

Dogs Again Attack Murphy Lamb Flock

For the fourth time this fall, dogs have slaughtered sheep on the farm of Tom Murphy along Allen Rd.

This time, they practically finished his flock.

They also killed 18 ducks on the farm of George Dinius, 10087 Billmyer Hwy. and a prize ewe on the farm of Charles Allen, 5390 Allen Road.

Mr. Allen has some rams valued at well over $100, although these escaped injury.

The dogs were sighted by a neighbor, Larry Carson, in the Allen flock and he chased them with his shotgun. He believed he wouded one dog.

A search party was organized, but the dogs managed to elude their pursuers.

The dogs were described as large, black, police-type dogs with orange and tan markings on the neck and feet.

Anyone knowing of a pair of dogs that answer this description are asked to contact the dog warden, Howard Saunders, 7902 E. Toledo Rd., Blissfield, phone 400-R.

400 Attend Party

Sixteen prizes of $2 bills were awarded to the lucky winners of the drawings. Refreshments were served to the group.

Dance music was provided 8 until 11 by the Imprints Combo and refreshments were enjoyed by the 200 who attended.

Prizes of $2 bills were given.

Scouts Tour Camp

Junior High and Senior Girl Scout Troops, serving as program aides, entertained the Brownies for Fun Day last week.

The young Scouts enjoyed a tour of Camp O' the Hills, cookouts, songs and games and a marshmallow roast.

Apples were distributed among the Brownies.

First-year Brownie leaders attending with their troops were: Mrs. Clyde Grady, Mrs. Charles Hensen, Mrs. Jerry O'Brien and Mrs. Robert Bird.

Second-year leaders and troops: Mrs. James Record, Mrs. Dale Burnett, Mrs. Bernie Hitchcock and Mrs. Harold Ocamb.

Third-level leaders and troops, Mrs. Robert Moore, Mrs. Donald Ketteman, Mrs. Douglas Murdock, Mrs. Walter Nichols, Mrs. Hal Yoder, Mrs. Richard Van Sickle and Mrs. Dean Cook.

The sale will be held Nov. 3 and 4 in the building formerly occupied by Cook Electric Co.

A paper party will be held Nov. 7 at the home of Mrs. Escott, 500 Seneca Dr.

Anyone desiring products, who is unable to attend may call their order to Mrs. Escott or Mrs. Alice Collom.

Cider and doughnuts were served by Mrs. C. C. Richard assisted by Don Escott.

Card party for Nov. 4 will be held at the Odd Fellow Temple with Mrs. Collum, Mrs. Robert Cooper, Mrs. Orin Beevers, Mrs. Roger Pawson, Mrs. Richard and Mrs. Donald Escott on committee.

Approximately 150 teengaers were present and received a standing ovation from the crowd for their help in the past.

Sixteen of the group were introduced by Mr. Bagwell as "Polio Pioneers" in the fight against the dread disease.

A feature of the meeting was a tour through the March of Dimes — supported Clinical Study Center at University Hospital.

Like Medieval Torturer

BRITTON—"The Bruiser" will take on 6'6" Bobo Brazil in the feature match of the Boy Scout professional wrestling show Wednesday, Nov. 8 in the local gymnasium.

In the days of the Roman Empire The Bruiser would have survived the bloodiest hand-to-hand combat.

He has no pity, as his attack has the vengeful qualities reminiscent of a medieval torturer.

Many wrestling experts speak of this gigantic colossus of flesh and fury as "The Greatest Attraction in the History of Professional Wrestling."

Who can offer any argument when one checks over the record-breaking attendance figures this mighty Goliath has achieved throughout America.

Also on the same billing will be Hercules Romaro and Bronco Lubich.

Tickets for this event may be purchased from any Boy Scout of Troop 23, from members of the Boy Scout Mothers Club or at the door.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

English Teachers Confer

English teachers of the junior and senior high schools held a conference recently.

Other senior high English teachers present were: Mrs Irene Boltz, Mrs. Dorothy Westdyke, Mrs. Barbara Spoenstra, Mr. Crowell and Mack Renfro.

The librarian, Mrs. Suydam, attended also.

The English teachers represenenting junior high were Mrs. Ruth Ries, Mrs. Rose Crawford, Mrs. Joyce Costigan, Florence Smith, Beverly Miller and Mrs. Anabel Cadmus.

The discussions led to a better understanding of each other's problems.

Mr. Babcock began by stating some basic problems in the task of coordinating the two departments. There followed a discussion about how far junior high school students are to be prepared in grammar, punctuation, penmanship, word study and themes for ninth grade work.

Book reports were considered at some length. The senior high teachers told what they wish to accomplish with book reports and the junior high teachers explained their methods of approach in the transition period of seventh and eighth grades.

Last spring the same sort of conference was held by the principal of Herrick Park School, Mrs. Gordon Garlick, with several sixth grade teachers and the junior high school English teachers participating.

This sort of meeting fosters understanding between the different levels of teaching and it also prevents too much overlapping of subject material.

Kids Snip Precious Leaves

There have been strange happenings in Tecumseh and the surrounding community.

Have you noticed any young scientists stumbling down your street or wandering across your back yard, orchard, or lower 40?

They can be recognized by their blind stagger as they trip along with their nose poked into a field manual and by the frequent searching glances at the surrounding greenery.

Periodically the young scientist will stop at some previously unidentified botanical wonder and with great care the individual will snip a precious leaf off the object of his attention and finely store it away for future reference.

If you are very curious you could question one of the culprits when you catch him redhanded with a sample of that acer plantanoides nigra that you have been babying along for the past few seasons.

You will probably get a response something like this, "Oh, I gotta collect leaves for science class!" That is about it.

☆

BY COLLECTING leaf samples and identifying some of the trees and shrubs around the community these industrious students are reacquainting themselves with their environment. For some individuals this project may open new avenues of interest.

The projects consist of a collection of leaf samples of the trees and shrubs that the student has identified. Whenever, possible a sample of the fruit, bark, or a twig of the tree are also collected to aid further identification of the plant.

The leaves and fruit are pressed and dried, between the pages of a book or magazine, to preserve them. The dried specimens are then mounted on some sort of stiff, unlined paper.

Next the mounted specimens are properly labeled with the common name and scientific name of the plant, its location and the date it was collected. The mountings are then inserted into some type of folder.

Usually the folders are made and decorated with an appropriate design by the student. The project must contain a minimum of 25 species of tree or shrub before it will be accepted for credit.

☆

TO PREPARE the students for this project, time is spent learning how to use tree identification keys. The students practiced using these keys by identifying the trees and shrubs around the school building and around the athletic field.

From this point on, the students have had to rely on their own initiative to collect the specimens and identifying them. A few of the students have chosen to work on projects of a different nature, such as insect collections.

A selection of these projects will be on display for the next few weeks. The display will be located in the second floor display case at the junior high school. If you are interested, please drop in and look around.

The science labs are located in rooms 103 and 105 on the first floor and in room 207 on the second floor.

Parents of Students Will Follow Schedules of Their Offspring

Tecumseh Junior High is making plans to welcome parents of students at an open house Wednesday evening, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m.

Herbert Beck is the chairman of the committee in charge. He is being assisted by Florence Smith, Don Berkley and Katharine Naser.

Prior to the open house, the students will fill out a card containing their daily schedule of classes. They will take this schedule home to their parents, who should be sure to bring this with them when they come to the open house.

Members of the Student Council, under the direction of Helen Sisson, will be on hand to direct parents to the rooms they are seeking.

The first-hour class will start promptly at 7:30, so parents should plan to be at the school a few minutes before the program starts.

Classes will be eight minutes in length, followed by a four-minute passing period between classes. Teachers will outline the year's work for the parents.

Following the "typical school day" program, refreshments will be served in the girl's gym. Table decorations will be provided by the art department under the direction of Beverly Miller.

Following the program, teachers will be available for conferences with individual parents. All Junior High parents are invited to come back to school on Nov. 8.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

Last Wednesday at the Tecumseh Athletic Field, the St. Elizabeth Cubs and the Sand Creek Aggies clashed in their second meeting this year.

The Aggies kicked to the Cubs on fourth down, and the Cubs made a 20-yard return. On the next play, Eric Wilkins ran to the 10.

With eight seconds left to play, Eric flipped the ball to Jim Greene in the end zone, but the referee missed the play and ruled the ball dead on the one-yard line.

Jim dived through the line then, but offside was called against the Cubs, and the game which the Cubs might have won ended in a tie.

The days are gone when only men and boys are interested in football. No longer do the girls of St. Elizabeth School confine their enthusiasm to the cheering section.

Every noon hour, 12 eighth grade girls meet on the playground for an enjoyable game of touch football. Each game ends as the bell rings, so the competition for touchdowns is fast and furious.

This week, the third graders have been memorizing poems given them by their teacher, Mrs. Carmen Alafita. On Friday, each student recited his poem to his classmates and three eighth grade judges: James Greene, Michael Velandra and Robert Donahoe.

First, second, and third prizes were awarded in order to Dennis Bagby, Irene Mudgett and Louis Robattero. These children went to the other classrooms and recited their poems.

No hangmen, gravediggers, bums, or ghosts were to be seen Oct. 31 at school. Instead, a movie was presented to the whole school.

Different customs in Catholic churches around the world were explained to the eighth grade class Oct. 20 by Father Collins.

The class is studying the Mass and therefore, Father's talk was most informative. For example, unlike our church, some European churches separate the sanctuary from the rest of the church by a large screen.

In history class recently, the eighth grade students learned that the city of Tecumseh holds a famous place in history.

General Evans of Mexican War fame was born here and gives his name to Evans Street and Evans Creek.

Tecumseh was also a center for Underground Raidroad activity during the Civil War. The Beardsley home on the corner of Union and Chicago Blvd., is believed to be one of the Underground Railroad stops.

√

The seventh grade class has been diligently working on an interesting religion project. They constructed miniature baptismal founts, completing them last Friday.

Rory O'Connor

√

At its first class meeting of the year on Oct. 20, the sixth grade discussed the idea of having a hobby show. A committee was appointed to plan a weekly class newspaper.

Mrs. Dale Monagin's fourth graders are working hard on product maps of the state of Michigan.

Later, pictures of the products will be placed in the correct vicinity.

√

The second graders were at their best this week when their teacher, Mrs. Thomas Riordan conducted an arithmetic bee. It was a contest of speed and accuracy.

Bill Prochaska

√

"Happy Birthday" is a greeting familiar to all fifth graders as four of their classmates celebrated birthdays this month.

Congratulatory wishes were given to Anthony Davilla, Paul Velandra, David Laidlaw and Linda Young. Songs were later sung honoring all four.

New Name: 'Tecumseh Engines'

'Tecumseh Products Co. has formally made its small gasoline engines division a part of the family circle with a name change.

All engines produced by the division — except karting models — will now be known as Tecumseh Engines and will bear the parent company's identifying emblem with its profile of an Indian chief.

The name change was prompted by the need for simpler means of identification for the family of two and four-cycle engines, said R. C. Roll, Tecumseh vice-president in charge of the division.

Tecumseh purchased and merged two Wisconsin engine makers — Lauson Engines and Power Products Co. — into a division in 1958.

"We have found the combination of previous names unwieldly and confusing not only to manufacturer and consumers, but to ourselves," Mr. Roll said.

The plants in Grafton and New Holstein, Wis., make engines of somewhat different design although manufacturing standards and production techniques have been standardized.

"Administrative, sales, purchasing and engineering departments have been integrated for several years," Mr. Roll added.

"The name change is simply the final step in our philosophy of being known as a producer of a line of engines for virtually any purpose."

Although the Tecumseh identifying trademark will be used, each engine will carry an instruction decal indicating whether it was made by the Lauson division or Power Products Division.

JCs Say Fires Aren't Accidents

The record of approximately 600,000 fires and 6,000 fire fatalities each year in the United States and Canada is a sorry one, agree members of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Most tragic of all is to know by far the greater part of this death and destruction could be avoided.

There is nothing mysterious and complicated about the causes of most home fires.

A cigarette is carelessly left to smolder in an overstuffed chair, a portable oil heater is refilled while still burning, electrical circuits are overloaded and overfused, rubbish is not cleared out and become fuel for fire.

Fire deaths in homes equally result from failure to follow the simple rules of fire safety — from smoking in bed, or leaving children alone in the house, or letting youngsters play with matches.

A major failure is that most families are utterly unprepared to act in a fire emergency. No thought has been given to plan all possible escape routes from every room in the house, and never has a drill been held to make sure that both adults and children can act quickly and without panic.

☆

AS LONG as fires and fire deaths are regarded as deplorable accidents, progress will be slow.

When people everywhere correctly recognize them as the consequences of neglect and carelessness, the rules of fire safety will be learned and headed.

In an effort to make the people of Tecumseh recognize fires, as the consequences of neglect and carelessness, the Jaycees are instituting a check of every home in Tecumseh, for fire hazards.

They will distribute, starting Nov. 6, a "Fire Check List" which is a unique listing of all areas in the home, garage and automobile, that should be under observation in the interest of safety.

Statistics show that 95% of all homes and automobiles are without fire extinguishers.

So that citizens might be better prepared in event of fire, Jaycees are selling a fire extinguisher which is designed to stop grease, gasoline, oil, flammable liquids and electrical fires.

The Jaycees "Community Fire Safety Drive" has been endorsed by Fire Chief Cecil Alderdyce, as a worthwhile community project.

18 Cases of Polio

With only 18 cases of paralytic polio reported during the first nine months of the year, it appears that Michigan may record the lowest number of polio cases in history.

So states Dr. George Agate, director of the Michigan Department of Health's division of epidemiology.

Last year, 56 cases of paralytic polio were recorded, while the total was 184 in 1959.

In 1954, the year before the Salk vaccine immunization program got underway, over a thousand cases of polio were reported in Michigan.

"While the figures for this year look good, it doesn't mean we have polio licked," the public health physician said. "The risk to those unprotected by immunization is just as great today as it was before the vaccine was developed."

The school checkpoint immunization law, which went into effect last year, focused attention on the question of immunization. As a result, about 96% of all children entering Michigan schools for the first time this year are protected by the vaccine.

"The ones we're concerned about now, are preschoolers and young fathers," Dr. Agate said. "Experience in recent years shows that the highest incidence of the disease is in these two groups.

"This year, for instance, eight of the 18 cases reported in Michigan occurred among pre-schoolers and six were men between 28 and 32. This is where we need to focus our immunization efforts now."

Lenawee County had one case of paralytic polio last month a young father. "A short survey following this reported case revealed that many young parents in this county have never received polio immunization."

Jap Beetle Under Fire In Lenawee

Japanese beetle this year put in its appearance in two areas of southeastern Michigan — including 250 acres in Riga and Blissfield Township.

The Lenawee acreage will be treated with ground equipment this month, reports Joe Wells of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Japanese beetle in the adult stage feeds on more than 250 kinds of vegetation — fruits, ornamentals, vegetable plants and turf.

The larvae of the Japanese beetle spends 9 months underground where it feeds on plant roots before emerging as a beetle. In Michigan the emergence is usually early July.

The adult is a great hitchhiker and gets from one area to another on cars, trucks, railroad cars, airplanes and other forms of transportation. In fact areas near heavy traffic are usually where they are discovered.

Several insecticides are used in Japanese beetle control. Formerly DDT, Chlordane, Dieldrin or arsenate of lead were considered the best controls .

But today Aldrin is often chosen because of its lower cost while being as effective as some of the older compounds.

Aldrin in granular form (about like sugar) will be used in treating the Jap beetle infested areas in this county.

Lenawee Receives $190,487

LANSING — The State Highway Department has started distributing third quarter Motor Vehicles Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

Managing Director Howard E. Hill said net receipts of the Highway Fund during July, August and September of 1961, amounted to $42,189,219, a decrease of $65,736 over the same period of 1960.

Hill said gross collections amounted to $44,035,312, from which collection costs of $1,634,109 and the Waterways Commission's share amounting to $211,894 were deducted.

Hill said gas tax revenues were up during the quarter, but the number of license plates sold was down compared to the same period last year, causing the slight decrease in both total revenue and net receipts after deductions.

Nutrition Is Topic

"What we eat today walks and talks tomorrow," H. F. Robinson of Battle Creek and Clearwater, Fla. told Rotarians last week.

His talk was on health and he emphasized the point that proper nutrition means good health.

Agriculture colleges, the speaker mused, have given knowledge of correct animal nutrition, but humans fail to apply this thinking to themselves.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

SCIURUS NIGER

The large walnut tree which stands a faithful sentinel at the corner of the house produced a bumper crop of nuts this year.

They fell, banging loudly on the roof, then crashing to the awnings and finally plopping with a dull thud to the ground 'til at last the yard was literally carpeted with big green nuts.

Usually this would have set the squirrels into a wild frenzy of nut gathering but their '61 fall change-of-season vacation co-incided with the nut-falling.

The nuts stayed where they fell and my, but it seemed strange to have no busy, busy squirrels scampering among them.

Vacation is over now, the bushy tailed acrobats are back and altho' they are caching a few nuts for the winter, I really can't say that they are making up for lost time.

Maybe the weather has been too nice for them to think about the long cold days to come—of course, I'll be the first to agree that our beautiful Indian Summer is much more conducive to fun than work.

☆

AND FUN is what the squirrels have been having, too. From our room we can't see it but we do hear, at least the results we can hear and from past observations it is not difficult to imagine exactly what is happening.

It is always great fun to tease when a gullible soul who never fails to rise to the bait is handy; in our case the Great Lady is the victim and the squirrels her tormentors.

They get in the walnut tree out in back, the one which her house is beneath, and hour after hour taunt her.

One or two of them scramble up the opposite side of the tree and when safely out of Lady's reach, their 'fun' begins.

Around and around the tree trunk they go, back and forth on the limbs above her house and there is not a thing she can do except bark.

Oh, they have lots of little friendly games they play and how frustrating and nerve-wracking they are for Lady.

Eventually both sides tire but whenever the squirrels are ready to go again they know exactly how to get things started.

Sitting on a limb right above the dog's head they will chatter, chatter, chatter. Poor Lady, the squirrels nearly drive her out of her mind.

☆

SPEAKING OF squirrels, this may sound a bit silly, but have you ever wondered what kind, what species, ours are?

Without ever really knowing or probably thinking about it, we always talked about fox squirrels; however, one day an animal book crossed my reading table and all sorts of questions arose.

In "The Animal Kingdom" their discussion of the fox squirrel contains phrases such as "It resembles the common gray squirrel", "It owes its name to its great fox-like face", "If you are to see the fox squirrel at all, it will be in scattered localities" and "the animal is quite scarce nowadays."

This hardly sounds like the characters who keep things so lively around here, does it? Actually, this book's description of the Eastern Gray Squirrel sounded better — a common squirrel, agile climber and expert jumper.

Which are ours—gray or fox?

The question has been nicely answered by the Michigan Audubon Society.

In an old issue of their publication, "The Jack Pine Warbler", they say about the fox squirrel, "The tips of the tail hairs—are always fulvous and never white as are those of the gray squirrel."

That does it—we do have fox squirrels.

New to us was the word fluvous but according to the article it means almost orange in color and that is quite descriptive of our 'foxies" too, isn't it?

So it is that whether teasing Lady, casually picking up walnuts or making a good reading, he has been busy lately, has Mr. Fox Squirrel, Sciurus niger.

Adrian 11 Ends Year

Game time will be 7:30.

For the first time in four years, the Indians will be decided underdogs in the clash which usually determines the top team in the county.

This year, the Maples enter the tilt with a 5-3 record, losing only to Monroe, Battle Creek Lakeview and East Lansing, while whipping Coldwater, Bedford, Sylvania, Hillsdale and Lansing Everett.

If Tecumseh can muster its strength and play its best game of the season, the Indians could give the visitors quite a tussel. The potential of the local gridders have never jelled, except for moments during the Airport and Blissfield games.

Injuries, especially during the last few weeks, have crippled Coach Dunc Lectka's squad which will nearly equal Adrian's team only in size.

Adrian mentor Chappy Marvin has done wonders in building a line riddled by graduation. Behind the line he can boast of one of the best runners in southern Michigan in Jerry Dunbar.

Dunbar, a senior, 155 pounds, is fast and shifty and is the leading Adrian scorer. If the Indians expect to keep pace they will have to stop Dunbar — and before he gets beyond the line of scrimmage.

An influencing factor in the game could be the weather. Tecumseh-Adrian contests are noted for either rain, mud or snow, and last year it was bitterly cold.

Two years ago, one of the top teams in Tecumseh's history battled mud and a water-covered gridiron to defeat a so-so Adrian

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

A fellow who lives in the Occidental Hwy.-Willow St. area brings up the old National Homes sign which stands at this junction.

He reports it's getting pretty tacky and should be removed or repaired.

Guess this is one for the City Council.

☆

A couple of weeks ago, Bill DePuy's picture appeared in The Herald in conjunction with his part in "Blithe Spirit."

Bill was wearing one of those string ties and the writer wanted to know where he purchased it. She wanted to get one for her husband.

Reacting as any gentleman would, Bill buzzed over to Harold Green's, where he got his, only to discover Harold had exhausted his supply.

So Bill had Harold order one for the lady and she'll have it shortly.

Reason: So that they might drive together to Newport News, Va. for the christening of the new Enterprise.

All ex-Big gobs have received formal invitations to take part in the commissioning ceremony which will be Saturday, Nov. 25.

If there are any in the area, please contact Keith.

Mr. Carpenter, who was a photographer aboard the Big E for two years during World War II, says that the new Enterprise is the first atomic-powered aircraft carrier to become part of our fleet.

There's going to be a luncheon for one of its clients in Detroit this week at the Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel.

Here they are:

Dear Mr. Riordan:

"Plans to bring American consumers Bourbons and blended whiskies that, for the first time since pre-Prohibition days, meet traditional concepts of aging will be announced by Schenley Industries, Inc., at a luncheon in Detroit on Thursday, Nov. 9.

"These plans will be backed by a major advertising and promotional campaign in Michigan.

"You are most cordially invited to join other representatives of the area press at the luncheon. Your host will be Paul Lockwood, a vice president and director of Schenley. A reception will precede the luncheon.

"Each course of the luncheon will be laced with an aged whiskey and each guest will be invited to take part in a taste test in which whiskies ranging in age from one day to 12 years will be judged."

It's doubtful if The Herald will be represented. But just think, each course laced with an aged whiskey, and testing all that booze.

"For goodness sakes, where have you been?" was the only comment that came to mind when Bootin' Pussy stepped into the office through the back door Tuesday evening.

Opinions Are Sought on College

Hundreds of Tecumseh School District parents will be asked their opinions about a junior college in Lenawee County or supporting a tri-county community college at Jackson.

Questionnaires sent home through students must be returned to Mrs. Joe Rice, 310 W. Logan St., Tecumseh, no later than Friday.

Others wishing to express their opinions may do so by simply writing Mrs. Rice.

For the past several months, officials of Jackson Junior College and state education representatives have been pushing for a tri-county community college with financial support from citizens in Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson counties.

A mill and a one-half for expanded facilities at Jackson for 20 years will probably be voted on by the entire district, the three counties.

There's already some opposition to the Jackson plan, especially from the eastern part of Lenawee County.

CROWD AT INTERMISSION OF PLAYERS' PRODUCTION

She Steals Show

Bertha Vallelunga stole the show.

The extremely-talented Mrs. Vallelunga did an exceptional job as Ruth in the Tecumseh Players production of "Blithe Spirit" last week.

Nearly 600 saw the two performances, which were staged Wednesday and Thursday evenings on the Strand Theatre stage.

This was the Players third production since the founding of the group almost two years ago.

Mrs. Vallelunga is a real pro and for some years worked in summer stock and off-Broadway productions.

She handled the role as Noel Coward wrote it—witty, annoyed, baffled.

Mrs. Fred Pokorny portrayed Elvira, the wife brought back from the spirit world, in a charming, impish manner.

As Madame Arcati, Mrs. Leo Dixon, was doing the same role she played five years ago as a senior at Tecumseh High School.

Making their stage debute along with Miss Mitchell were Bill DePuy in the lead opposite Mrs. Vallelunga, and Vern Manwaring, as Dr. Bradman.

Mrs. Bradman was played by Mrs. Allen Russell.

Coffees followed both nights at Don's Beef Buffet. The cast, along with technical crew and other members of the organization, celebrated Saturday evning with a turkey dinner and party.

New OB Ward Is Dedicated

Providing room for 16, the OB section is located on the second floor of the south wing and cost $100,000 to complete.

He also thanked members of the Hospital Auxiliary for helping to furnish the rooms.

Dr. Al Phelan, chief of staff, praised the new facilities.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Julian Gresham of the Presbyterian Church.

☆

THE NEW section contains two private rooms, one ward of four beds and five semi-private rooms with two beds each.

These are painted in different colors — blue, pink and green, with matching bedspreads. Each room has oxygen piped into it.

There are two nurseries, with capacities of 10 infants each, and a smaller isolation nursery.

The section has two delivery rooms and three labor rooms.

A seven-bed recovery room is also located in OB. This will be used for all surgery patients for immediate, intensive post-operative care, explains administrator Orrie Gilbert.

☆

INCLUDED IN the recent construction work was the addition of a badly-needed doctor's lounge, 15x25', adjacent to surgery.

Mrs. Alvin Kappler, RN, is OB supervisor; Mrs. Howard Cavin, RN, nursery supervisor; and Irene Merx, RN, in charge of recovery.

Shortly after official opening of the new section, OB patients were moved upstairs and work begun on changing the former maternity ward into general use.

BERTHA VALLELUNGA DID AN EXCELLENT JOB

Fall from 84' Silo Fatal to David Day

Fourteen-year-old David Harry Day, a Tecumseh High School freshman, accidentally fell to his death from an 84' silo at Cone Elevator Tuesday night about 9 o'clock.

David and his father, Murray Day, had each just sold loads of soy beans to night operator Dick Lutton of Britton.

David received a $230 check, which he planned to add to his college savings account.

When Mr. Lutton mentioned he had to go to the top of a silo to adjust the machinery, David asked to ride along in the elevator.

Once at the top, the operator told David to wait in the lift until he made the adjustments.

When he returned, David was gone.

The body was picked up by Green-Dunn Ambulance.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in the Green-Dunn Funeral Home with Mrs. Robert Stone, a Christian Science reader, in charge. Burial will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Day, three sisters, Mrs. Frank McGlasson of West Lafayette, Ind.; Susan a student at Western Michigan University; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Day of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. William Fishlock of Milan.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations be made at the funeral home to the Tecumseh Band Boosters. David played baritone in the Tecumseh High School band.

115 Volunteers Canvassing City

Approximately 70 volunteer Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation workers turned out in the rain Friday to attend a rally and tea at the Tecumseh Country Club.

James McKenna, co-chairman for the 1961 fund drive, gave the workers full instructions for using the supplies they were given at the meeting.

The tea was a donation by the Tecumseh Country Club and arrangements were made by George French, manager.

Virgil Tucker, general chairman of the drive, spoke as well as Vern Manwaring, president of the Community Fund Foundation.

Mrs. Neville Hart presided at the meeting as chairman of the residential division of the drive.

Much enthusiasm was displayed by all the speakers and the workers were urged not to miss anyone in their solicitation.

"Everyone in this community added.

A total of 15 volunteers are covering the city calling from door to door for contributions.

"We ask your co-operation to make their job as easy as possible. If you have already given, please display your sticker in the window," continued Mrs. Hart.

Industrial division giving totaled $44,185.

The goal for the entire community is $65,000.

"Thirty-five charitable agencies are helped by our contributions besides what stays here to help build Tecumseh," she is a part of this tremendous project and should be given their opportunity to help with their contribution," said Mrs. Hart.

"We realize fully the many demands on our resources, but all donations no matter how small, will be appreciated.

Sewer Bids Are Tabled by Council

By JIM LINCOLN

Bids for construction of a new sewer to the proposed Faraday plant on S. Maumee were opened and then tabled to the Nov. 20 meeting by Council Monday night.

Probable reasons for the delay are Tecumseh Industrial Development Corporation's plans to instigate construction of the building in December and an unusually low bid for the sewer by A. L. Roll.

Bids received were:

A. L. Roll—$10,907.

Arthur Brady—$17,914.50.

Lowell Selders—$18,372.65.

Weasel Bros.—$20,200.75.

SEVERAL residents voiced opposition to the ordinance which incurred removal of all business and professions from residential districts.

Before approving the ordinance, councilmen pointed out that existing situations would not be affected unless there were signed complaints.

They added that the ordinance, which concerned primarily doctors, dentists, lawyers, architects and CPA's, was merely an addition to an ordinance passed in 1947.

☆

IN OTHER action, Council:

► Adopted ordinances pertaining to soliciting and parking of comercial vehicles in residential districts.

► Scheduled a public hearing on Dec. 4 for re-zoning a portion of land just east of the hospital parking lot for a medical clinic for Drs. Carlton Cook, Richard Coak and Harold Oeamb club. If similar conditions prevail Friday night, the weather could nearly equalize the two teams.

► Adopted local Civil Defense plan.

► Approved closing the alley off N. Evans St., between the D&C and Des Ermias, to vehicler traffic.

A victory over the Maples, or even a respectable showing, could ease the disappointment of the Tecumseh coaching staff and fans.

The Indians, depending largely on junior and sophomores, have never reached local expectations. Although handicapped somewhat by experience and definitely by lack of speed, the local gridders have not been out weighed to any degree and are not expected to be against Adrian.

Entering the game the Indians are even for the season with a 4-4 mark. Although neither good nor bad in most respects, it's the poorest season for Coach Lectka who had compiled an amazing 22-2-3, won, lost and tied record in his first three years here.

Six seniors will conclude Tecumseh High School gridiron careers against Adrian.

Included are Capt. Tom Simmons, Kent Nagule, Chuck Osburn, John Britton, Mike Rohrer and Roger Wittrup.

Public Invited To Stag Show

Southern Michigan prison inmates are going to repeat their show, "Panorama," for the public Saturday, Nov. 11, Warden William H. Bannan announced.

The fourth annual all-inmate revue was performed for the public Oct. 28 and was met with much acclaim.

"So many people spoke so favorably of the show," Warden Bannan stated, "and said they would return with friends if we had a second showing, we decided to do a re-run."

"Panorama" is a three-act revue. The segments are titled, "The Gay Nineties, The Fabulous Thirties and the Sorry Sixties."

The first act is the turn-of-the-century type of presentation, complete with a melodrama and barber shop quartet.

The second act features the "big band sounds." The prison orchestra plays in the styles of Glenn Miller, Orrin Tucker, Lawrence Welk, Guy Lombardo, Shep Fields and many other orchestras known by their distinctive styles.

They complete the segment with several numbers in their own style, which is original music composed, arranged and conducted by Don R. Young, SMP music director, who produced and directed the entire revue.

The "Sorry Sixties" lampoons rock 'n' roll, TV, the parole board and even prison rehabilitation.

Comedy material for the show was written by inmates.

Tickets for "Panorama" are 95c. Doors open at 6:45 p.m. and curtain time is 8:15.

"You know, Project X. And by the way I saw Jack Osburn's ad proof hanging on the hook. I like that guy's style. Me, I'm with Jack. See you Friday."

Life of Adventure

By MRS. JOHN HAMILTON

Many thrilling and exciting stories came out of World War II.

If Elinor Winn could remember her babyhood, she might well be content to sit back and be a spectator the rest of her days on the premise that she has had her share of adventure.

The youngest of three children, Elinor was born in the Philippines just before the Japanese invaded. Her parents were missionaries there.

When the Japanese demanded that all Americans come into the concentration camp, the Rev. Mr. Winn surrendered himself to enable Mrs. Winn to escape into the mountains with her young family in the company of other missionary wives and children.

After the perilous crossing of the island was accomplished, contact was made with an American submarine to remove the courageous band.

The escape was detected and Mrs. Winn was appointed the task of keeping all the children quiet for five hours while the sub lay on the bottom under attack.

When Australia was reached those requiring hospitalization were visited by General Douglas MacArthur.

☆

BUT ALL this, plus living a year in China after the war with her parents, was not enough adventure for Elinor.

This past summer she qualified as one of two hundred young Americans for Operation Crossroads Africa.

This is a student work-camp project that takes college young people to the new nations of Africa where they are joined by African students for work supplemented by study and recreation. These experiences lead to mutual and fruitful understanding.

Elinor was in the group in Gabon for 10 weeks where they had the added privilege of meeting Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

☆

A SOPHOMORE at the University of Michigan, Elinor is majoring in music composition, sings with two campus groups, participates in the organization "Americans Committed to World Responsibility" and is affiliated with the African Student Union.

Wednesday, Nov. 15, at 8 p.m. Elinor is showing slides and will tell of her experiences in Africa at the Women's Association meeting in the Fellowship Center of the Presbyterian Church.

The public is invited and the young people of the community are especially urged to attend.

Elinor says, "I'd love to try and give someone else the desire to go and spend as fine a summer as I did."

Loyalty Sunday To Be Observed at St. Peter's

Loyalty Sunday will be observed Nov. 12 at the St. Peters Episcopal Church when a short family Thanksgiving service will be held at 11.

Members of St. Peters experienced a unique problem recently at the morning worship service.

There just wasn't room to seat everyone attending.

The problem was resolved by moving the children to hte front where they could watch the confirmation by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Archie Crowley.

Pledges will be received Sunday, says the rector, the Rev. Frank Hawthorne.

Anyone desiring transportation will be assisted if they will contact A. G. Barber or Lothair Hardesty.

Mrs. Dale Cook and son Curtiss and Earl Colbath of Walworth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hart of Clayton Sunday.

Loren and Martin Scott.

However, someone from the community told the Scotts that taxes were too high. So they picked Clinton.

Seventh Day Church of God Hears Sermon

The Seventh Day Church of God met in the Pythian Hall Saturday for Sabbath School followed by the preaching service.

The subject of the Sabbath School lesson was the Anti-Christ and the Beast.

Walter Williams preached about the Holy City and the Book of Life and the prospects of our names being written on the Book of Life.

"And the City had no need of the sun. The nations which are saved shall walk in the light of it and there shall in no wise enter into it anything that maketh a lie, but they which are written in the Lamb's Book of Life," he said.

There will be no services held Nov. 18 due to an all-day meeting at the Springvale Academy.

Indestructible

The indestructible relationship of God and man will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

First report cards of the year will make their appearance Friday as parents of the students come to receive the cards.

Questions arise in the minds of all. "Did I really flunk that English test, or was Sister just trying to scare me?

Why do I alway manage to forget that silence is golden?

Can I help it if my little brother tries to eat my homework papers?

Though report cards are not really as bad as imagined in the mind of the student, qualms about the first period markings always plague him.

The football season came to an end for the St. Elizabeth Cubs at Recreation Field Saturday.

The Cubs played their best game of the season and posted an imposing 26-6 victory over the Irish of Adrian St. Mary's.

The win over St. Mary's brought the Cubs' season record to two wins, three losses, and one tie.

Bridget Miller

√

All the boys of the St. Elizabeth football squad express their gratitude and appreciation to Jack Osburn for his patient coaching of the Cubs this year.

He has taken time from his real estate business to coach St. Elizabeth gridders for the past eight years.

Bill Prochaska

√

As a reward for winning their last game, the St. Elizabeth Cubs will be treated to a Coke sometime, in the near future. The boys really gave their all to beat the Irish of St. Mary's, and they deserve a refresher.

The cheerleaders will be going, too, as they will be taking care of the expenses. So look out, drugstores, here we come!

Sunday, eighth graders and the high school catechism students visited St. John the Baptist Church in Monroe to take part in a holy hour.

High school classes from all over the archdiocese made this visit for Catholic Youth Week. The hour was spent in reciting prayers and singing hymns. The Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament brought the hour to a close.

The seventh and eighth graders of St. Elizabeth School have recently received two new basketballs.

Each noon hour, the boys play a game, and the contests are usually exciting. Later, the girls will probably be found playing.

Our thanks goes to Father Collins for providing the basketballs for us.

DON'T NEGLECT PROTEIN IN HOG RATIONS. Regardless of the relative price between corn and protein supplement, it will never pay to skimp on protein — it may cost you more. Generally, one pound of protein fed in the proper proportion to hogs will save you 4 to 7 pounds of corn while producing comparable gains. Normally, a 50-pound hog requires 14% crude protein up to 125 pounds — 12% from there on out to market weight.

SILAGE RATIONS WON'T ALWAYS PREVENT VITAMIN A DEFICIENCY in beef cattle, even though silage usually contains several times more carotene than normal daily requirements. There's suspicion that heavy nitrogen fertilization of silage crops may be associated with the problem. The thought is that nitrate may hinder the conversion of carotene to vitamin A. Until more is known, it may be wise to include 12,000 to 15,000 units of vitamin A per head in all drylot rations.

USE CAUTION IN APPLYING FERTILIZER this fall. Except on sandy soils, phosphorus and potash can be applied just about any time. But nitrogen application should be limited to insoluble forms such as ammonia and urea on heavier type soils. Delay application until after the soil temperature drops to 40 degrees. At lower soil temperatures, soil bacteria become relatively inactive and won't convert these fertilizers to more soluble forms.

SIGN UP FOR THE WHEAT PROGRAM. You won't be eligible for support and diversion payments unless you do — even though you meet the other requirements pertaining to allotment and diverted acreage. So make sure you sign with your local ASCS office before the deadline, which is November 30 in most areas.

Why do you live in Tecumseh? Why here, why not in one of our neighboring communities? In most cases the answer would be due to employment here. Some would answer relatives and friends. Others, and perhaps those who answer with employment or relatives, would say, "I just like the town." Tecumseh has many assets, some of which we take for granted until we see what other communities have — or don't have. We like to feel that Tecumseh is such a fine community because of the willingness of its people to cooperate and work together for goals which are beneficial to all. Industry, businesses and professional people are used to joining hands to attain an aim. Not often is this the case with the majority—The residents who are not bound with an association through business or any organization. Only once a year, do the residents have this collective effort and association through which they can combine to reach a goal. This, of course is the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation drive. During the past two years, the Foundation through everyone's efforts progressed and is now responsible for a new library under construction. A new library will be a tremendous asset to our youngsters in school and to the many adults who simply enjoy reading. Other worthwhile projects are in the future, when Tecumseh will have the facilities only enjoyed by the metropolitan areas. It's your community, it's your Foundation, support it generously.

Bids Sought on New Plant for Faraday

Bids of construction of a new industrial plant here for Faraday, Inc., of Adrian, are being sought and may be opened by members of the Tecumseh Industrial Development Corporation this Thursday.

Prints and specifications for the plant were received just last week, about two months after the Tecumseh group signed contract papers with Faraday.

The date for ground-breaking is indefinite and may not take place until the middle of December.

TIDC does not expect to have complete financing completed until about 30 days after the bids are opened.

Four firms—Krieghoff, Haeussler, Goodrich-Hazen and Lenawe Construction—are known to be bidding for the job, which will incur construction of a building, maximum size of 93,600 square feet, on S. Maumee St. at Russell Rd.

Several factors, including financing, may determine the size of the building; however, local TIDC expects the building to be at least 76,000 square feet.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

I am one of the few people who burn every time I hear the teenagers blamed for everything that goes wrong. While reading the latest issue of Teen magazine I came across this poem which seems to say everything I would like to have said on the subject so I am sending it along to you with the hope that you will find a place for it in your paper.

PLACING THE BLAME

We read in the papers and hear on the air
Of killing and stealing and crime everywhere.
We sigh and we say as we notice the trend
"This young generation, where will it all end?"
But can we be sure that it's their fault alone,
That maybe a part of it isn't our own?
Are we less guilty who place in their way,
Too many things that lead them astray;
Too much money to spend; too much idle time;
Too many movies on passion and crime,
Too many books not fit to be read;
Too many of evil in what they hear said;
Too many children encouraged to roam,
By too many parents who won't stay home.
By too many parents who won't stay home.
Kids don't make the movies, they don't write the books
That paint gay pictures of gangsters and crooks.
They don't make the liquor, they don't run the bars,
They don't make the laws and they don't buy the cars.
They don't peddle drugs that addle the brain,
That's done by older folks greedy for gain.
DELINQUENT TEENAGERS: Oh, how we condemn!
The sins of the nation are all blamed on them.
By the laws of the blameless the Saviour made known,
"Who is there among you to cast the first stone?"
For in so many cases it's said but it's true
The title of "DELINQUENT" fits older folks too.
How about it parents, don't you agree with me?

'Not To Play Nurse Maid'

TO THE EDITORS:

Upon hearing of recent complaints which have been issued to the school by a few of the merchants and citizens of this town, it has come to my attention that far too much blame is placed upon the school for the way in which some of its students act after school hours.

I wish that some of these merchants and citizens who complain would stop and try to realize that the schools job is to educate the teenagers and not to play nurse maid to a bunch of ill mannered and poorly brought up hoods.

I think that this town should feel extremely fortunate that we do have a faculty at our school which does take an interest in the actions of their students.

But to complain to the school about the behavior and lack of respect of some of its students is unfair to the school. This lack of social instruction comes from the home and parents of these hoods, not the schools!

If the merchants and citizens of this town would stop calling the schools every time they see something they don't care for and call the parents of these hoods instead, I feel that much more could and would be done about these undesirables. The good students of our school don't care for these misfits any more than you or I do.

Thank You,
Larry McClain

Idea for Community Center

TO THE EDITORS:

As a former resident of Tecumseh, I have a suggestion to make regarding the new Community Center.

Why not form a Horizon Club for men and women over 65 years of age to meet once a week, 1 to 4 p.m.?

I spend the winters in Royal Oak and attend such a club there. (Editor's note: Mr. Ladd spends his summers at Manitou Beach.)

We sometimes have a short program and play games, cards, dominoes, checkers, etc., have a light lunch and a very pleasant time together.

Mrs. Carrie S. Palmer is in charge of the club at Royal Oak and I am sure she will be glad to give any help she can.

Her address is:
Royal Oak Library
Royal Oak, Mich.

Ira G. Ladd
4314 W. Webster
Royal Oak

TO THE EDITORS:

I would like the opportunity to ask the people of Tecumseh which is more important, children or money?

It seems taxes are a sore spot in everyone's life, although I wonder if cigaretts, beverages and cosmetics were faced with a tax, like we are with millage for our schools, would we quit using them? More over if gasoline were 50c a gallon would we quit driving our cars?

No I don't think we'd even quit taking our sight seeing trips or visiting grandmother no matter what price gasoline was.

When our schools and our children are the price and the educators say they need more cash a few people who say NO rush to the Polls. We sure had a poor showing of parents at the last millage vote.

Sure I know it's hard to dig tax money up, but what things in this old world worth having do we not have to put forth some effort to get.

Not only are the little first graders on half days this year, but next year the second grade may be put on half days and this year's first grade. So two years of half days sure will hurt these little people's learning ability.

My children are in senior high, therefore band is my interest. I for one do not want to see any cut made in the extra activities of THS.

We as Band Boosters have worked hard to get many things for the band. You as citizens have helped in tag days. You all helped buy uniforms a few years ago.

Do we want all our efforts thrown to the wind? What happens to our nice uniforms? Let the moths have a feed? Even a year of no band would ruin the progress these kids and our band directors have worked so hard for.

I wonder if anyone has thought of what these kids get in money value from band.

If one takes private lessons they usually pay $1.50 per half hour. We have 310 band pupils from 6 to 12 grades taking lessons 187 days per year one hour a day. At $3 per day will equal $561 per pupil for one school year. 310 pupils for one year equals $164,910.

These 310 pupils in band for six years equals $969,460 and most of the kids have been in band fifth and sixth grade too.

The fifth and sixth grades also have two or three lessons per week. This year we have about 250 fifth graders trying to make their way for our band in the future.

Some of the young people earn extra money playing in bands etc., after they leave high school, also some of our graduates are playing in college bands, navy and other branches of the service. So you see they can have a career from a high school activity.

May I say in closing I'm sure other parent's could write about their child's activity as much as I have band.

Therefore I hope we don't see THS cut anything from its program. Perhaps some one can come up with an idea to keep our schools on full days and all activities too.

Thank you,
Mrs. Ward Perso

Indians Are Bombed

Bombed for two touchdowns in the first quarter, plus two more in the third, Tecumseh Indians bowed to a surprising Grosse Ile team, 33-6, last Friday night at GI.

The game had been judged somewhat of a toss-up prior to the contest, but the Blue Devils broke the game wide open in the initial stanza.

Two long runs, one for 82 yards on a punt return by Doug Powell in the first quarter and one for 91 yards by Bob Groom in the third, squelched Tecumseh's hopes of victory.

Halfback Jim Johnson hit paydirt for the Indians in the fourth period on a 30-yard romp. It was Johnson's first TD of the season.

Tecumseh was without the services of several players, including top scorer John Britton.

The senior halfback, who alternates at the fullback post, may see some service against Adrian here Friday night in the final game of the season.

Friday's loss to GI was the fourth this season and dropped Tecumseh to fifth spot in the Huron League.

The Indians, who dominated football in the league the first two years, have lost more games this season than in the three previous seasons combined.

Coach Dunc Lectka's eleven, 4-4 for the year, will have to pull a big upset against Adrian for a winning season.

WITH Tecumseh TEENS

By NANCY NIXON

Most Tecumseh High students are taking breaths of sheer relief Thursday because the dreaded mid-semester exams are over.

These tests were given on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Report cards will be issued on Nov. 15 and they are to be returned with the parent's signature by Nov. 22.

✓

The main purposes of the club will be to promote good sportsmanship and to generate enthusiasm — a dire need — among the THS students.

The members of this club, both boys and girls, will hold flash cards at the basketball games, wear special "bibs" so as to form a design in the bleachers — among the crowd and after satisfactory service each member will be awarded a letter or medal.

✓

Last week, the Varsity Club held its first meeting of the year. Officers were elected as follows:

President — Tom Simmons
Vice president — John Britton
Secretary — Mike Rohrer
Treasurer — Tim Whitney

Wayne Reganall, the high school paper staff advisor, along with Kathy Tressler, Diana Duffin, Arthur Collingsworth and Neils Hansen, attended Michigan State University's Journalism Day Saturday.

They went to many meetings, which were both beneficial and enjoyable.

CROP Opens Annual Drive In Lenawee

"The 1961 Christian Rural Overseas Program Campaign to help feed the world's hungry is now under way," according to Robert Johnson, of Clayton, the Lenawee County CROP committee chairman.

Farmers will be asked to contribute corn to this year's drive while churches and other organizations will ask for money to buy rice for the school lunch program in Hong Kong.

A $4 contribution will furnish enough rice for one child for one year. Local elevators will accept contributions of corn for CROP and money will be sent to Willis Moore, Court House, Adrian.

Huntsmen Should Leave Locations

LANSING — Deer hunters soon to be striking out for camps where there is no telephone service are urged to register at the nearest field, district, or regional offices of the Conservation Department when reaching their northern hunting areas.

This is so they can be located quickly in case of home emergencies.

Their families are reminded to make calls to the Department's offices only when there is a "real" emergency—death, a serious illness or accident.

Judging from recent seasons, Department men can expect to deliver about 50 emergency messages to hunters this fall.

Although this is not a high figure in proportion to hunter numbers, it is all important to hunters and their families that they cooperate to make the delivery of "must" messages as prompt as possible.

For the benefit of hunters who are still wondering about where to pitch their tents or park their trailers, the Department points out that about 6,000,000 acres are open to free camping in state and national forests.

Hunters using state forest lands must post camp registration cards at their camp sites. This not only helps Department men locate hunters in emergencies, but it also works to reduce litter problems.

Camping facilities are also available at state parks. The daily camping fee is $1 at these parks. An additional 25 cents is charged per day for electricity. Daily or annual vehicle permits are also required at state parks.

Emilie Rose Korican Exchanges Vows with Oleg Michajlenko

BRITTON—In an impressive ceremony Saturday, Oct. 21 in Sts. Peter and Paul Russian Orthodox Church in Detroit, Emilie Korican and Oleg Michajlenko were united in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Korican, 6260 Britton Rd., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michajlenko, 606 Occidental Hwy. Tecumseh.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant as she approached the altar in a white silk organza waltz length sheath with attached full overskirt.

A row of hand clipped medallions were appliqued on the front full length of her dress which featured a portrait neckline and elbow length sleeves.

☆

HER VEIL was a full shoulder length French illusion held in place by a crown of seed pearls and lace.

Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace and earrings, gift of the groom.

Mrs. John Korican of Britton was her sister-in-law's matron of honor.

Her gown of amber silk organza was waltz length and featured a bell shaped skirt with soft cross fold in front, a square neckline and short sleeves.

Her headdress was an amber cabbage rose with a circular veil and she carried a crescent shaped bronze chrysanthemum bouquet.

Vera Michajlenko of Tecumseh, sister of the groom served, as maid-of-honor in a medium brown dress styled the same as the matron of honor and carried amber chrysanthemums.

Marilyn Korican of Britton, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid in a light brown dress identical to the other attendants.

☆

JOHN KORICAN of Britton, brother of the bride, served as best man and Walter Korican, also a brother of the bride and Larry Matzinger, of Toledo, O., friend of the groom, were the ushers.

Her corsage was green

Her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids.

The bride's table featured a five tier wedding cake which was baked by Mrs. Frank Wroblewski of Tecumseh.

A senior at Eastern Michigan University, she was a 1958 graduate of Britton-Macon High School.

The groom graduated from Tecumseh High School in 1957 and was a former CICA Insurance Agent and was recalled to active duty in the Army and reported Tuesday to Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

OH, TO BE A CARICATURIST

The juncos are back and what dear little birds they are. Whether flitting about flashing their two white outertail feathers or scratching through the leaf strewn lawn or dining deluxe at the bird feeder, they are always fun.

I, especially, enjoy the juncos because they always make me think of something right from the drawing board of a talented caricaturist.

They are rather squat, barrel-shaped birds, the perfect cartoon-type self-made business man. Round and roly-poly, I pictured Mr. Junco as wearing a heavy gold watch-chain across his gray vest, a fist size glittering stickpin in his black neckpiece and to make the caricature complete, a big fat half-smoked cigar would be held in the fingers of his one outstretched wing.

The bouncy little chickadees lend themselves to this kind of thinking, too. They are cocky little toughies, and mischief sticking out of those bright shiny eyes.

Their black caps should be pulled to one side and cocked over an eye and, of course, the black bibs under their chins would become searves with long ends "flapping in the breeze."

The tufted titmice present a problem — aside view of the birds, one which really shows their bright shiny eyes, makes one think of only two words—pert and perky.

☆

YET, WHEN one is standing on the feeder with his back to us, he looks for all the world like a little gray minister.

The illusion is heightened when he holds a sunflower seed against the side of the feeder with his feet because, each time he bends his head to crack open the seed's hard shell, it appears that he is saying his prayers.

The cardinals offer a paradox, too. Papa and mama are so compatible, at least part of the year they are, but with his brilliant coat of scarlet and mean-looking black-face mask, the male cardinal looks like a red devil. His lovely wife, so demure and dainty, in her soft grayish-brown is a petite and prim Puritan lady.

Almost as perfect a caricature as the junco is our noisy friend the kingfisher. He is the Everett Dirksen of the bird world. His large head is topped with a shaggy unruly thatch and as for having the gift of oratory with which the Senator is so blessed, having heard the king-fisher sound off, I am sure he too could do a beautiful job of putting the opposition party in its place.

☆

SPEAKING OF the kingfisher, he is, as of Nov. 2, still around. I was talking to Tecumseh's Number One Birder and Ella said that weather permitting, he may stay around all winter.

She has seen them sticking close to open spots in creeks or rivers when the weather is not unduly severe.

Wouldn't it be something to have a kingfisher patrolling our creek; with snow covering the ground and trees, wouldn't his bright blue show up—wow!

But back to business. I see we have room for about one more bird and since a nuthatch just flew to the feeder, shall we do him? Mr. Upside Down is a Roman Gladiator.

The shiny navy-blue top of his head could be drawn as a helmet and his longbill—what else but a sword. Were I to give the nuthatch speech as in the comic strips, his words would be in an old-fashioned automobile horn shape.

The kind of a horn with a bulb on the end that is squeezed and I pick this because these birds have such funny voices, their honking always reminds me of an old-time horn.

So it is that we enjoy watching the birds and photographing them but once in a while one comes along and, "Oh, to be a caricaturist!"

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Makes A "Lot" of Sense

The other day I was driving by Slim Thomas' used car lot, when I noticed he'd put up a big neon sign. Trouble was, one of the letters was upside down. So I drove in. "Hey, Slim," I said, "that's a nice new sign—but one of the letters is wrong-side up!"

"Heck, I know that," laughs Slim. "Matter of fact, I had it made that way deliberate. Figured folks were bound to come in to tell me about it—and it works! I must get four or five new prospects a day."

Then he grins down at me. "By the way, Joe," he says, "I could give you a pretty good deal on that car of yours . . ."

From where I sit, "look before you leap" is especially true whenever you start to give advice. Unlike Slim, some folks may not welcome your suggestion—especially about personal tastes! Whether your neighbor takes coffee with his meals, or prefers a glass of beer—that's really his own "business." Giving folks credit for knowing their minds is a good way of keeping friendships "right-side up."

Son Nails Mule Deer

The Helzermans hunted in Gillette, Wy. during October where Dr. Helzerman had previously nailed mule deer and a fleet antelope with bow and arrow.

The kill weighed 200 pounds and had eight points.

Dr. and Mrs. Helzerman, hunting with rifles each brought down a mule deer and antelope.

Ralph, Jr., a student at the University of Michigan, flew out for the fun.

His folks drove. Their return trip was a nightmare as they ran into a terrific snow storm. Next time they'll fly, too.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Cornerstone for the new Boysville Dining Hall was blessed by Father Harry Stegman, CSC, chaplain at Boysville on Nov. 1.

It was then set in place by the stone masons.

The construction workers are laboring diligently on the building, hoping to have it finished in advantage of the Feb. 1 deadline.

Each day shows more and more of the exterior completed.

Quarter exams were last Thursday and Friday, bringing to an end the first portion of the school year.

Nov. 1, the Feast of All Saints, was a free day for the students, and many spent their time studying for the exams.

It seems difficult to believe that one quarter of the year is gone already.

This Saturday night the Junior Prom will be held in the gymnasium.

Member of the Class, under the direction of Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, have been working hard, preparing for the big night.

NEW FLAG — Boysville High School in Macon was the recipient of a new school flag last Sunday. The Monsignor Hunt Assembly of the Knights of Columbus from Detroit presented the flag to the school. The designer of the flag, Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, one of the Holy Cross Brothers who teaches at Boysville, is shown examining the new school banner.

WSCS Holds Potluck

Thirty-five members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church attended the potluck supper Nov. 1 in the social rooms of the church.

Mrs. Frank Lasky, Mrs. Albert Hich and Mrs. Ross Halberstadt were the hostesses.

Mrs. Vaynrd Close, vice-president, conducted the meeting when final plans for the Janousek Fair were discussed.

The secretary read a letter from the Janouseks, who are now in Africa.

It was announced that Christmas Tree Lane will be held Dec. 9 at 1:30 p.m. Tickets 50c.

Mrs. Allen Wittrup was program chairman and Mrs. Don Long led in devotions.

Mrs. Earl Nisbett narrated a film strip, which explained the functions of the "World Council of Churches."

The next meeting of this council will be held Nov. 18 through Dec. 6, 1961 in New Delhi, India.

There have been two other such gatherings. The first in 1948 in Amsterdam, Holland and the second at Evanston, Ill. in 1954.

The main theme for this year's meeting will be "Jesus Christ, the Light of the World." French, German and English will be the official languages for the conference.

The council represents 50 countries and its conrtol office is in Geneva, Switzerland.

Suggestions for further study and information on the World Council were given. Mrs. Wittrup closed the program with prayer.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 6 at 8 p.m.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

QUESTION: I began working as a farmhand last January. I am paid $200 a month, but my employer has not been taking social security taxes out of my pay. What can I do to get social security credit for my work?

ANSWER: You should discuss this with your employer. If he refuses to deduct social security taxes and report your wages, then ask him to give you a written statement of your wages.

He should give you this statement at least once a year anyway. Keep an accurate record of your wages.

After April 30 next year, get a "Request for Statement of Earnings" form from your social security office. Complete this form and mail it. You will receive from social security's national record keeping headquarters, a record of earnings posted to your account.

If your 1961 earnings as recorded on social security records disagree with your records, get in touch with your local social security office again and they will help you get your social security account corrected.

QUESTION: I work on various farms with a crew of farm workers. I am paid by the leader of our crew. I heard that farm work counts for social security only if a person earns $150 in the year or works on 20 days in the year for the same employer. Since I work short periods and have small earnings from each farmer, am I missing out on social security credit?

ANSWER: Probably not. Unless your crew leader's contract specifically says that the farmer is your employer, you are the employee of the crew leader.

Therefore, as long as you work for the same crew leader on more than 20 days in a year, or are paid $150 or more in wages by him in the year, you should get social security credit.

Has the crew leader been withholding social security taxes from your wages? If he has not, get in touch with your local social security office.

VOICE of THE HERALD

This May Be Answer

A former city councilman, Don Brazee, has come up with a plan to help clear up traffic conditions at N. Evans St. and Herrick Park Dr.

Long familiar with the problem, Mr. Brazee suggests that eliminating the jog in Herrick Park Dr., as it joins Brown St., would go a long way towards righting the situation.

Mr. Brazee points out that the city owns the land which would have to be turned into roadway, next door to the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

This certainly would be a great improvement and might well eliminate the traffic congestion which builds up at this A&P corner during peak load periods.

We're of the opinion that something should be done and feel the Brazee plan well worth considering.

An Industry Is Lost

An industry to employ about 10 and possibly expand later was lost to Tecumseh after this city had been first choice.

Instead, the firm is starting operations in a new 50x100' structure in nearby Clinton.

Why did Tecumseh originally rate the inside track? Why did we lose out?

At first, the owners were impressed with the fact our town has an airport. Apparently much of their business is conducted with use of small planes.

Then the owners chatted with people in town.

In these informal conversations, one person helped to send the industry running.

He said that taxes were too high here. Apparently it was enough to shove Tecumseh out of contention as a site for the small plant.

What is the moral.?

We find two to this story:

1. The airstrip at Meyers Aircraft means a great deal more to this community than the average person realizes.

2. Conversation with strangers should be carefully weighed before making an offhand remark.

We never know when the friendly fellow we sit next to in the restaurant or at a party is a bona-fide scout for an industrial or business site.

His questions about our community may seem frivolous, but it could be far from this. He might be formulating an opinion of an area through casual chatter.

We know you can't lump taxes, for instance, in one terse statement, apparently as the unfortunate fellow tried to, when the men who picked Clinton asked. Nobody likes to pay them, whether they're large or small, so to some people taxes are always bad.

But is this truly the case in Tecumseh? We don't think so at all. We think an answer about taxes should be framed in the realm of what this city's citizens get for their money. Certainly, no sweeping statement is proper about something so complicated.

It boils down to this—every citizen in this community is a potential Ambassador of Good (or Bad) Will for Tecumseh.

Our town has a multitude of strong points and we should stress them when folks ask us about Tecumseh — whether strangers or out-of-town friends.

We all should be proud of our hometown.

Remember, it's just as easy to praise as it is to knock.

Still Just a Game

It seems strange, we have become so used to great THS crews with long strings of victories.

But, does the fact our '61 gridders are not prancing onto the field undefeated against the Maples make us want to wring our hands in mock horror?

Not in the least.

Sure, we'd like to win 'em all. But defeat brings its lessons, too. Sometimes much better than victory.

This is still a game, it is still an excellent and healthful activity for teen age youngsters.

We really hope our lads tear into Adrian with every ounce of strength and talent they have. We hope we clobber the Maples.

But no matter what the outcome we salute our young gladiators and their coaches, who have turned in another season of competent work.

Roar, you Indians.

Oldsters Could Be Losing Cash

Nobody wants to lose money, yet this is happening every day, according to Raymond C. Backus, Manager of the Jackson social security office.

There are several hundred local people among the 1.3 million persons nationally who are age 65 or over, eligible to receive some social security payments, but, losing them by failing to file applications.

This is true because people do not seem to know that they do not have to quit work completely to get all or some of their social security benefits during the year.

Under the social security law, if you are eligible for retirement benefits, you can earn up to $1,200 a year and get a benefit check for all 12 months in the year.

If you make more than $1,200, you will still receive a check for any month in which you do not earn more than $100 or do not render substantial services in self-employment.

Working persons of retirement age are urged to visit, call or write the Jackson office and ask for a free pamphlet on this subject. The office is located at 2301 E. Michigan Ave. The telephone number is STate 4-9172.

Teen Guest Tells Club About Trip

German customs and that nation's educational program were discussed by a teen-age guest at last week's Rotary meeting.

Last summer, Nancy was in Europe as a Youth for Understanding exchange student. Most of her time was spent in Germany.

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

Sunday's Free Press ran a striking piece on Bill Brown, the fellow who runs the $600,000 Kitty Kurtis Farms, Inc., just east of Tecumseh.

The Free Press noted:

"Lenawee County grows more corn and feeds more cattle than any other county in Michigan and in Lenawee young Bill Brown has become the acknowledged leader in putting corn and cattle together."

There is delight in the story of a father and son being reunited after 21 years.

More happiness comes with the story of a veteran grade school teacher at Ridgeway being honored.

But, these happy thoughts are tempered somewhat in the news that Duncan Lectka has resigned his position here as football coach.

Dunc has done a tremendous

COMPLETELY RENOVATED AND REDECORATED, TECUMSEH'S $100,000 COMMUNITY CENTER WILL BE DEDICATED SUNDAY

Center Open House, Dedication Sunday

A dedication program and open house will officially open Tecumseh's $100,000 Community Center Sunday afternoon.

Festivities get underway at 1 p.m. in the "glass room" when the Tecumseh High School Pep Band, under direction of Don Johnson, presents a one-hour concert.

Serving as toastmaster will be Dr. Robert Laidlaw.

Terry Mackin, city councilman and chairman of the Center's organization committee, will present the structure to Tecumseh.

Acceptances will be made by Mayor Harold Easton, representing the community's adults, and Neville Hart, speaking in behalf of the area's young people.

Tecumseh historian Clara Waldron will be the dedication speaker.

Invocation is to be given by the Rev. Paul Brantingham of the Friends Church with benediction by the Rev. Thomas J. Collins of St. Elizabeth's.

Mayor Easton will conclude the ceremonies when he cuts a ribbon in the doorway between the "glass room" and the rest of the building.

Tours will be conducted until 5 p.m. with free refreshments of Coke, coffee and donuts served.

☆

TECUMSEH'S new Community Center is a building rich in history, located on a site along Globe Pond that is equally famous in this part of Michigan.

It was here in 1835 that one of the state's first grist mills was built.

In 1935, Henry Ford acquired the property and razed the old structure, putting up what is the present frame portion of the Center.

Sparing no expense, the project cost the motor magnet $250,000.

Later, Mr. Ford added the brick section, which was a hyroelectric plant.

The ground level "glass room", three sides of which are floor-to-ceiling windows, was loaded with dials and gauges used in the manufacture of electricity.

The "glass room" had been completed, renovated and now is a meeting room that will seat about 250.

☆

THE REMAINDER of the building is divided into three parts.

► Ground floor proper, 132 x 36' will be used for meetings, dancing, little theatre, concerts and exhibitions.

► Third floor, 125 x 30', has been set aside for the Teen Club.

► Basement, 132 x 36', will be used for a rifle range, indoor golf practice, archery, youth recreation, arts and craft.

Use of the Center is open to all citizens and organizations in

After Twenty-One Years, Dad and Son Together

A Tecumseh father and his European son were reunited Friday evening—after being separated for 21 years.

That was in 1941, when Mike joined the Yugoslav army to fight Germany. He was captured the same year and was a prisoner of war in Germany until 1945.

Because of the communist take-over in his fatherland, Mike remained in Germany. His goal was to reach the United States and then bring over his wife and son.

☆

MIKE was able to cross to America in 1951 and began immediately on the project of bringing over his family.

But the red tape and delay was almost insurmountable. In 1954, Mike's wife died and his boy went to live with relatives.

Yugoslav officials wouldn't release the youth, despite the fact Mike had posted the necessary $5,000 to insure payment of transportation costs.

They informed Mike that his boy must first serve in the Yugoslav army for 22 months.

Steve's service time was up last March and he began doing everything he could to make the move possible, reporting daily to the local police station, where initial steps had to be made.

He did this for nearly six months before the final OK arrived.

☆

MIKE, WHO had waited almost 10 years for the event to take place, received first notification of Steve's coming a week ago Monday. An airlines office called from Detroit to say that Steve would come in Thursday.

STEVE SENT HIS DAD THIS PICTURE IN 1959

As it turned out, bad weather held off the trip nearly a day, and Steve arrived at Metropolitan Airport Friday night.

On hand with Mike were close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Galovich of Gaylord, who formerly owned the Top Hat; and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Savcic of the Irish Hills.

It was Mr. Savcic who first spied Steve as he came out of the plane. Mrs. Galovich ran forward and seized his arm, asking, "Are you Slavic boy?"

Steve, who speaks no English, grinned.

Mike ran to his son, shook hands, then the pair hugged one another, crying at the same time.

The father and son readily recognized one another from pictures they have exchanged over the years.

☆

THE 22-year-old young man, who finished his full-time schooling four years ago, was driving trucks and cars for a living during the day and going to night school.

His first goal here is to learn English. Steve plans to work with his father at the Top Hat and they'll live together in Mike's home at 122 Herrick Park

Coach Lectka Resigns Post

By JIM LINCOLN

Dunc Lectka, most successful football coach to hit Tecumseh in a great number of years and undoubtedly one of the most popular, has resigned his post to accept a position with the athletic administrative department at Michigan State University.

Announcement of the new job for Mr. Lectka was made by Biggie Munn, MSU director of athletics.

His resignation will be effective at the end of the semester in January.

His family will remain in Tecumseh through the school year, although he plans on leaving for his new job immediately after completion of his duties here.

Mr. Lectka rebuilt the football program here in 1958 and produced some of the school's outstanding football teams.

In 1958, his team won six, dropped one and was tied twice.

In 1959, Tecumseh posted a 9 and 0 mark, and the Indians were ranked high in the state. It was one of the best football teams ever to wear the orange and black.

The 1960 club hit a 7-1-1 mark for the season to continue as one of southeastern Michigan's high school powers.

☆

THIS FALL, the Indians were slow and inexperienced, especially in the backfield, and were only 4 and 5 for a mediocre season.

She was the star in a "This Is Your Life, Thelma Younglove" production — a complete surprise to the instructor who has taught school for 38 years.

Miss Younglove's mother, Mrs. Wilbur Younglove, Mrs. Joseph Kingsbury, a friend and classmate of the honored guest, and Mrs. John Becker had compiled a scrapbook of her life.

Mrs. Leland Bush wrote to all but two of her high school classmates and they in turn sent letters, cards and pictures if they could not attend.

Mrs. Robert Stone read the history of Miss Younglove's life and presented her with a corsage and a plaque which reads. "Thelma Younglove in recognition of her years of excellent and devoted teaching at Ridgeway School."

☆

MISS YOUNGLOVE was born June 23, 1904 on Centennial Rd. in Raisin Township, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Younglove.

Dawn Staley Marries Ja mes Warren

Dawn Marie Staley and James Lester Warren were united in marriage Friday at the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church by the Rev. William Harvey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steuwe, 514 Seminole Dr., and the groom is the son of Mrs. Robert Dannels of Onsted and Harold Warren, 1203 W. Russell Rd.

He made his home with his grandparents, Mrs. Bert Warren, and the late Mr. Warren of Vineyard Lake until recently.

Mrs. Robert Whipple, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Midge Warren, the groom's sister, and Mrs. Richard Staub were the bridesmaids.

Kimberly Colson was the flower girl and Jay Warren, brother of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Richard Staub was best man and the ushers were Gary DuBois and Hal Warren, brother of the groom.

A reception was held at the Products Workers Union Hall for 250 guests.

The couple will make their home in the Irish Hills until spring when they plan to move to northern Michigan.

The new Mrs. Warren attended Tecumseh High School.

Mr. Warren graduated from Brooklyn High School, served two years in the navy air corps and is employed at Walker Mfg. Co. in Jackson.

He plans to make conservation work his career.

Tipton PTA Undertakes Unique Class

Tipton PTA is sponsoring a program to help give first grade pupils there a more extensive education than the half-day sessions now provides.

Each Wednesday, beginning this week, the first graders will go to Tipton School for an afternoon session from 12:30 until 2:45.

They will take their sack lunch and three cents for milk. Volunteer mothers will conduct the sessions.

First-grade children from the Tipton area attend class at Herrick Park School. (Tipton has no first grade this year, instead two second grades). The first graders will ride the bus directly to Tipton on Wednesdays at noon for the afternoon sessions.

The purpose of the program is to give these children social activities, mixing with other children, perhaps some art and science, music, games, show and tell and generally having a good time, which they are now missing.

Church News

Building Committee Will Report

The Sunday, following the worship service there will be a congregational meeting at the First Presbyterian Church at which time the building committee will report to the congregation progress made in determining the church facility needs.

Dwight Hodges, chairman of committee, will give the report.

There will be opportunity for the congregation to question the committee.

The Building Committee was organized at a congregational meeting in December 1960 and given the responsibility of determining the adequacy of the present facilities and the needs of the congregation both present and future.

This will be its first report.

Next Monday, the Bible Study group meets at 7:30 p.m. instead of the usual time of 8 p.m. This change is for the one time only.

Nominating committee will meet Monday at 8:30 p.m. in the fellowship center to prepare a list of nominees for the office of Elder and Deacon, Class of 1964.

This year the congregational meeting will be Sunday, Dec. 10, following the worship service

Harvest Home Festival Comes Sunday

The Harvest Home Festival will be observed in the First Baptist Church Sunday morning by those attending the church school and the worship service.

The Harvest Festival in England dates back to the Saxons in the ninth century.

It featured the decorated "hock cart" which brought in the last load of grain from the field.

Baskets will be made up for deserving persons from the articles brought in.

The Rev. B .O. Bashore is extending an invitiation to all people of Tecumseh to attend the annual Thanksgiving service that the various churches are presenting Sunday evening in the First Baptist Church.

Ingratitude Attitude Is UnChristian

"The season of Thanksgiving gives us an opportunity to pause and offer our prayers of gratitude to Almighty God for His many blessings," states the Rev. Allen Wittrup, pastor of the Methodist Church.

"There is no attitude so unChristian as that of ingratitude to God or Our fellowmen."

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup's sermon topic for Sunday will be "The Spirit of Gratitude."

The worship service is at 10 a.m. and the children's choir will make their first appearance singing "We Gather Together".

The availability here and now of the healing power of the Christ, Truth, will be stressed at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Thanksgiving Service to Be Sunday Night

The annual Union Thanksgiving Worship Service, sponsored by the Ministerial Association, will be held this year Sunday evening at 8 p.m. in the First Baptist Church.

The service, as in previous years, will be one hour in length and will be conducted by ministers from Tecumseh churches.

This year's speaker will be Dr. Howard Emerick, Adrian College chaplain and professor of philosophy and ethics.

Dr. Emerick, well known as a speaker to those of this community, will consider the Old Testament beliefs regarding thanksgiving and the impact of such beliefs on the life and teachings of Jesus.

His sermon will be entitled, "Christianity, A Religion of Thanksgiving."

The offering will be used in the Christian Rural Overseas Program. CROP as it is called, is a benevolent agency that has fed millions through purchase of surplus foods for overseas distribution.

Everyone is invited to attend this service, which offers the Christian community in and around Tecumseh the opportunity for worship and thanksgiving in acknowledgement of our spiritual heritage, local ministers state.

'Jesus Shall Come Again'

The Seventh Day Church of God held services Saturday with the Sabbath School lesson subject being "Jesus shall come again bringing His reward."

Each member took part in a discussion about the resurrection and the magnitude of our living after Jesus comes.

The sermon in the after service was preached by Elder Lidell of Ypsilanti who chose for his subject "The Qualities of Victory."

He said that because of sin we are born to die, but we should not feel sorry for ourselves, but we should seek help from God for He is able, and in spite of what goes on around us we should let our righteous convictions be seen of men so they will glorify God.

St. Peter's Holds Service Thanksgiving

A service of the "Holy Thanksgiving," which is what the ancient and traditional name the "Holy Eucharist" means, will be held Thanksgiving morning in St. Peter's Episcopal Church at 10 a.m.

The Eucharist is the regular service of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion.

The Holy Communion conveys not only the element of sacrifice in Christ's death upon the Cross, but also the central theme of thanksgiving for God's gift of His Son and for God's gift of life and sustenance.

The Rev. Frank W. Hawthorne, rector of St. Peter's, will be the celebrant at the service.

Special prayer will be offered in thanks for the harvest and a special thanksgiving offering will be received for work outside the parish.

A "committee of concern" for the revitalizing of St. Peter's Chapter of the Episcopal Churchwomen will meet for Holy Communion at 10 a.m. Friday, Nov. 17.

A discussion will follow. The service and meeting are open to all the women of St. Peter's.

Stephen Ring, son of Mrs. W. W. Ring, will be confirmed Thursday evening by the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of Michigan, at the Church of St. Michaels and All Angels, Cambridge Junction.

Stephen was ill when the class of which he was a member was recently presented for confirmation at St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Revival Services Will Feature Norris Team

Revival services begin at the Tecumseh Church of the Nazarene, 807 Sunset, Nov. 15 and continue through the 26 at 7:30 each evening.

The workers are the Revs. Roy and Lilly Anne Norris, ordained elders serving as full-time evangelists in the Church of the Nazarene.

The Norrises carry the complete revival program including the use of the accordian, piano, duets, solos, dramatic and musical readings. They will be featuring a full hour of music each week of the revival.

The ministry of the Norris team is designed to meet the needs of the entire church, and especially interesting to the youth.

Mr. Norris, in naval officer's training, was called to preach, studied for the ministry at Trevecca Nazarene College, Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Norris is considered one of the leading women preachers of this denomination. They are accompanied by their young daughter, Crystal Anne.

"The public is invited to hear these outstanding workers," said the Rev. Betty Wagner, pastor.

WITH Tecumseh TEENS

By NANCY NIXON

A beneficial evening was experienced by all the parents who attended the annual High School Open House, usually held during American Education Week.

Purpose of this special program is to give the parents a chance to become acquainted with their child's teachers and his everyday academic life at THS.

Every 10 minutes, glimpses were seen of mothers and fathers traversing from one room to another, according to their child's daily schedule, which was presented to them at the main entrance.

Noticeable was the trace of reminiscence in the air as the school day was reinacted.

Is it possible that the parents envied the students for these few hours and wished that they were once again participating in school activities and rooting at all the football games?

"L'alliance d'estudiants Francaise de Tecumseh High School" held its first formal initation last Wednesday night.

Solemnity pervaded as the French students gathered around the candle-lighted area and repeated the club's pledge, after the president, Gail Elliot.

The next day, as part of the initation, all club members were required to wear a red, white and blue French emblem.

The other club officers are:

Vice-president — Mike Carney
Secretary — Barbara Colgrove
Treasure — Candy McEnroe

What has happened to patriotism?

This is a question that is often posed before the citizens of America. Unfortunately, it is usually dismissed with a mere shrug of the shoulders.

In order to instill a patriotic feeling in the minds of young Americans and specifically in the minds of Tecumseh High School students, the first business on the agenda of every first-hour class is the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Perhaps, by cultivating this dormant patriotism, we may produce more Nathan Hales, something which our country is in dire need.

Teen Club To Hold Open Dance Saturday

The Tecumseh Teen Club will open the doors of its new facilities Saturday night.

The club has moved from its old quarters in the Sage building to the second floor of the new Community Center.

Saturday night the Teen Club will be open to the county and all are welcome to come. There will be no admission charged at the door.

Sunday, members of the Teen Club will be on hand to show the visitors the new facilities offered. Parents are urged to attend and look over the new premises.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

The Fighting Knights of Boysville were beaten by the Irish of Adrian Catholic Central, 25-13, Nov. 3.

It was the last league game for the Knights, and put them at an unenviable 2-5 record in the River Raisin Conference.

In the second frame after CC had scored, the Knights drove to the 24, from where quarterback Roger Jozwiak passed to end Tom Ryan for Boysville's first score.

But the Irish scored three more TD's to ice the game.

The Junior Knights of Boysville, under the coaching of Joe Fortunato, won their last game of the season over a rough Dexter Freshman squad, 13-7.

Speedy quarterback Jim Eldrington scored Boysville's first touchdown on a seven-yard sprint. Jim passed to Doug Paige for the extra point.

In the fourth quarter, the Junior Knights romped again on a pass from Eldrington to Paige. The extra point failed, but the knights held on till the final gun, winning 13-7.

The season total for the Junior Knights ended up at four won, one lost and one tied.

The student body, plus the girls who attended from various Detroit schools, had an enjoyable time.

The theme of the dance was "Shangri-la," and the decorations reflected a "dream world" motif.

The boiling was achieved by adding dry ice to water. Several flats were suspended from the rafters to give the impression of a lower ceiling, and glitter stars were suspended from these.

A huge glittering star, with a special spotlight playing various colors on it all evening, was hung from the middle of the gymnasium.

The student body would like to thank the Juniors and their moderator, Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, for the evening of dancing.

On October 31, Halloween, the Sophomore Class sponsored its annual party for the students and faculty of Boysville.

Prizes were awarded for the most original, the fanciest, and the funniest costumes.

The most original costume prize went to Richard Cowan and Roger Learn, both freshmen, came as Siamese twins.

The fanciest costume prize went to Charlie Stone, a junior, who was Caesar, and to his four bearers, Ed Budzynski, a senior; Milt Baxa, Franke Turner and Ron Wells, juniors.

The night was fun for all. The students would like to thank the sophomores, under the direction of their moderator, Brother William Verstraete, CSC, for the evening of fun.

The intramural season is passing by quickly and will be closing off this week. The Lions, under Charlie Kramer, are still holding on firmly to first place with a 10-1-0 record.

This year the Hobby Club will have a new moderator, Brother James Kinsella, CSC. He replaces Brother Austin Maley, CSC, who is now studying at the University of Notre Dame.

The Hobby Club held its first meeting on Monday, November 6, to discuss what the boys could make and the projects they would like to work on.

Everything seemed to go right for the Boysville eleven, especially in the second half when the Knights scored four times.

The Fighting Knights closed out the season by retaining possession of a trophy which goes permanently to the team which wins three games in succession.

Senior football players for Boysville who played their last game at St. Mary's were Tom McCullen, Ed Budzynski, Ed Breidenbach, all linemen; and Jim Palko, Tony Farr, Joe Jaworski and Tony McFarr, backs.

Already sights are set on the backboards in the Boysville gym. Basketball season is just around the corner.

'Blithe Spirit' Nets $25

"Blithe Spirit", most recent production of the Tecumseh Players, was both an artistic and financial success.

Total receipts were $900 as a result of the 580 attendance.

Expenses ran $933, leaving a net profit of $25.

The objective of the Players at this point is to at least break even on their offerings, so the figures pleased members.

The board of the Players has met twice since the production, at the home of president, Dr. Robert Murray.

Members discussed future productions for this season, budgets, and directors.

Al Katz, the director hired by the group from the University of Michigan, is unable to continue because he is working on his doctoral thesis.

Types of plays were discussed and the play reading committee, consisting of Mrs. Ralph Dabe, Mrs. Terry Mackin, Mrs. William DePuy, Mrs. Gloria Jadwin and Richard Boyd are scanning a number of possibilities.

They will make suggestions to the group and the winter production will be announced the early part of December.

The next meeting of the Players will be this Sunday, 7:30 in the Sage Building.

There will be a business meeting and a program of skits. This second set of skits, directed by Mrs. Jadwin, will also be available to local groups for programs. Anyone interested should call Rick Kureth for bookings, HA 3-7050.

Guests are invited to Sunday's meeting.

John Baker, secretary of the local chapter, read the minutes of the previous meeting and gave a report on the pig chain project.

Jerry Forsyth gave a report on the chapter's feeder pig project, which consists of four hogs at the present time.

The broiler project was given by Harry Maddux and Dennis Martinus told about the registered Dorset Sheep chain. This project consists of seven sheep at the present time.

Larrie Eaton gave his report on the chapter's new 30-ewe commercial sheep chain.

Edsel Brooks presented the FFA inventory, proudly listing the $5,300 worth of livestock and machinery which the FFA boys own.

The boys earned this money themselves and are supporting their own activities, he stated.

Paul Burns, the chapter adviser, gave out two awards:

► an honorary Chapter Farmer degree to Milburn Brooks for loaning the chapter equipment during the past four years.

► Carl Bower received a trophy for winning the chapter corn growing contest. His yield was 153 bushels per acre.

Highlight of the banquet was the presentation of the FFA's demonstration "Swine Feeds and Feeding." The members of the team were John Baker, chairman; Jerry Forsyth, and Gary Korte.

The demonstration won on the local, district and regional levels and took a silver award at the State FFA contests held at Michigan State University. They also took first place at the Lenawee County Fair this year.

"The FFA Boys wish to thank their mothers, the girls that served and the businesses which helped to make the 20th annual banquet such a big success," Mr. Burns said.

School Board Places $20,000 in Certificates

By JIM LINCOLN

Although a long and busy session was held by the Tecumseh school board Monday night, mostly routine matters and business were conducted.

The board approved paying the 17th issue of the school construction bonds, amounting to $155,000, and placing $20,000 in Time Certificates at the United Savings Bank.

Supt. James McDowell told the board that it was mandatory to retire the 17th issue of bonds.

Although the board had the money on hand, according to law, the money had to be held in reserve and could not be used for operation or placed in the general fund.

☆

IN OTHER action, the board:

► Approved soliciting bids for personal liability policies from local insurance agents.

► Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Bertha Cole, special education teacher at West Branch.

► Approved a letter of appreciation to the Tipton PTA for new chairs and tables in the library there.

► Reviewed local taxes and costs per child in the county schools, and book rental costs per schools.

ALSO TACKLES — Jerry Dunbar, speedy Adrian halfback more noted for his offensive running, shows why he played much of the game on defense in downing Craig Rosacrans.

Consolation: THS Loses Only Four Regulars

The loss, fifth this fall for Coach Dune Leetke's squad, was apparent practically from the beginning. Tecumseh simply didn't have the speed and ability to cope with the visitors.

The Maples rolled to two first-quarter touchdowns, tallied once in the second period, and twice in the third.

Adrian came right back and moved 68 yards in five plays to erase any Tecumseh hope of getting back into the game.

☆

PRETTIEST PLAY of the night occurred on the first play from scrimmage in the third stanza when quarterback Dick Heflin hurled a 40-yard pass to speedster Jerry Dunbar on the midfield strip.

The swift Maple took the pigskin in stride and raced away from two pursuing Indian defenders.

A 37-yard Tecumseh march after this tally bogged down on Adrian's 27, where the Maples started another scoring march.

With the exception of the last few seconds, the Indians dominated the fourth quarter. It proved that Tecumseh was a match for the second stringers, but not Adrian's first team.

Trailing 33-0, the Indians moved 70 yards to the Maples' half-foot mark where three consecutive plunges failed to put Tecumseh in the scoring column.

Adrian's Dunbar was exactly as predicted—fast and a hard runner. Terry Smith, like Dunbar a senior, played better than expected and actually accounted for more yardage from scrimmage than Dunbar.

☆

COACH Chappy Marvin's team was the best to face the Indians this season and was the best Maple squad in three years.

It could not be compared with Adrian's 1958 team, nor Tecumseh's team of two years ago. It was probably a lot better than last year's team which tied Tecumseh.

Only consolation for Tecumseh fans is that the Indians return a squad which will lose just six players through graduation.

A winning junior varsity squad is expected to lend some help next fall when the Indians will be able to field a veteran team, with experience or a letterwinner at nearly every post.

Adrian	14	7	12	0	—33

SO CLOSE — Halfback Dave Lemerand came about as close as one can and still not score in this fourth quarter play against Adrian. Maple center Gerald Roney and Al VanSickle (28) bring the Tecumseh sophomore down inside Adrian's one yard line.

Stolen Bike Is Discovered in Raisin River

Herbert Bagby, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bagby, 1201 Murray Dr., claimed his bicycle at the police station Friday after it had been recovered from the Raisin River.

Herb had parked his bicycle in front of Gambles on Oct. 31 to purchase a light so he could ride the bike to a Scout meeting when someone stole it.

Some boys found the bicycle Thursday night and notified the police.

The bicycle had been painted in an effort to hide its identity. The fenders had been deliberately smashed with a heavy object.

Others include an electric juke box and an electric chord organ, besides many other smaller prizes.

Contestants must fill in a signature card, signed by their parents or adult relative and return it to the Rexall store. Then each item purchased by his or her friends will count as points for the contestant.

Special bonus points will be given on selected items each week posted in the store and printed in The Tecumseh Herald.

This week's special bonus points are given on old toothbrushes contestants bring to the store.

2 Win Silver Beaver Awards

A crowd of 470 Scouters and their wives joined in the annual Wolverine Council dinner Nov. 7 at the United Products Union Hall.

Frazier Tubbs, chairman of the Council camping and activities committee, was the toastmaster.

Two Scouters, who received the "Silver Beaver", highest award that a local Council can present to volunteers, were:

► Donald E. Dennis of Addison, registered in Scouting since May 3, 1954. He is employed as superintendent at Tecumseh Products.

► Robert Roach of Temperance, first registered as a Scout in 1931, since 1938 has served as an assistant Scoutmaster, Cubmaster and Scoutmaster.

Howard D. White, past president of the Council, gave special recognition to Veteran Scouters and commended them for their leadership.

Mr. White also made a formal presentation as chairman of the long-term planning committee, of the 54 additional acres to Camp Kanesatake. This gift was made possible by Charles S. McIntyre of Monroe.

A sign for the first camp site to be developed on the new property was unveiled, it is to be known as "Camp Art Lesow" honoring Mr. Lesow who was Mr. McIntyre's Scoutmaster from 1925 through 1930.

Speaker of the evening Clyde M. Clark, deputy regional executive of Region Seven, talked about "The Image of a Leader".

Mr. Clark emphasized the community responsibility assigned by the leader and how the boys and adults with whom he comes in contact look to him as representing every part of the Scout Law and Promise.

The image and the example set by leaders and by all adults are the greatest single factor in molding character and training for citizenship.

For 1962...an all-new kind of Ford!

You've never seen anything like it, because there's never been anything like it . . . until today. On the outside the new Ford Fairlane 500 measures a quick 197 inches from stem to stern. A good foot shorter than the cars from which it borrowed its name, it calls the snuggest parking places home. At the same time, on the inside the new Fairlane 500 is every inch as big as some of the biggest Fords ever built.

The new Fairlane 500 is priced way under previous Fairlanes, well under many compacts. But Fairlane economy doesn't stop with a pretty price tag. It runs to amazing gas savings—with the world's first economy V-8 or the nickel-nursing Fairlane Six. Routine service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, only twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. And it adjusts its own brakes.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Questions and Answers

Q. Where do I get the forms to report wages paid to my household help?

A. Your social security office will give you a post card to mail the Internal Revenue Service. That office will then send you the forms you will need.

Q. I recently hired a cook. When am I supposed to report her social security?

A. Your report and the tax must be sent in by the end of the month following each calendar quarter. This means that the tax and your report for the calendar quarter ending September 30 must be sent in by October 31.

Q. I have just opened a grocery store. Several of my employees do not have a social security number. What do I do?

A. Tell these employees to apply to the nearest social security office right away to get a number. You will need their numbers when you file your quarterly reports.

Want Data on Deer

JACKSON — Hunters killing buck deer near Tecumseh or elsewhere in southern Michigan are urged to phone the Conservation Department's district office near here.

The hunter can telephone his report collect to this office at Jackson ST. 4-3188.

A game biologist will go to the hunter's residence or frozen food locker, determine the age of the deer by the amount of wear on the teeth and measure its antlers and record the weight.

Even if only the head remains he can still obtain the necessary information.

"We need to examine 500 southern Michigan buck deer this fall," states Ralph Bailey, district game supervisor.

"We are now engaged in an intensive study to secure information vital to the management of the southern Michigan deer herd. We cannot do the job without the cooperation of hunters.

"With the high productivity of two fawns from each doe, the herd should be increasing at a faster rate. First of all we need to know how many bucks are being shot and how many of each age class are being removed by the hunter.

"This will be followed around the year by a careful tally of all other causes of mortality including dogs, cars, fences, farm machinery, etc.," he concluded.

Our Readers Write

TO THE EDITORS:

Schooling is a "Big Business" now-a-days. We need administrators of our school business to practice — controlled budgets for "necessities" instead of "wants."

I believe there is a want of a Junior College, not a need of a Junior college.

Present college facilities and necessities need to be improved and cared for by the present high tax burden.

Too much waste with present schools being paid for. Present schools could be used during summer vacation, for many large new elementary schools are empty part of June, July and August.

Taxpayers, far too many, are overburdened by ever increasing taxes.

If the present trend of taxes:

1. More mills for this "want"
2. More mills for that "want", etc.

continues we will not be able to save any money to send our four children to any college.

I believe we are only one example of what many must be in the same situation. My husband is "working" and we own our home and "old" automobile.

The present colleges and institutions are having difficulty of keeping themselves going, as are the individual citizens.

How can we afford to build another possession when we are having difficulty keeping those we have now.

Concerned and Conscientious Citizen.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

The same telephone call which gave us last week's good news that the kingfisher would possibly stay with us all winter long, also told about the arrival of the white-throated and white-crowned sparrows.

Ella said her yard was full of them. Two days later we looked out and saw that our yard was full of them, too. Wasn't it nice of her to pass some of the wanderers on to us?

Twice a year the white-throats and white-crowns drop in for a week or so. They are, of course, always most welcome. Both their spring and fall visits are fun.

This year, whether by coincidence or design, their timing was perfect—they enjoyed our warm October weather, but just two days before the bottom dropped out of the thermometer and winter's vanguard roared in on that cold wind and nasty rain, the sparrows left.

How colorless things out there seem now. The sparrow-size brown birds with the white bibs under their chins were such fun to watch and in contrast to them, our ordinary English sparrows seem even duller and drabber than ever.

Oh well, next spring the happy travelers will maybe drop in for another visit—in the meantime, we hope they have a good winter vacation.

☆

ONE THING the white-crowns and white-throats have us completely stymied on is getting their pictures. To call them camera-shy is the under-statement of the century.

Always at the bird's first appearance, we rush to put scratch feed around the yard. They love it and spend hour after hour scratching, in their chicken-like fashion, through the grass and leaves.

The English sparrows rush in for their share, too, and the three species mix together with no trouble at all. The regular sparrows come to the feeders freely.

They flit from ground to feeding station and feeding station to ground continuously. Now, as long as the birds get along so well together on the ground, wouldn't you think that just once in a while a white-crown or a white-throat would follow his English cousin up to the feeder?

Wouldn't you think they would be a bit curious as to what their dining companions were doing and getting?

Well, apparently they are not because never, as far as we know, has one set foot on our feeding stations — and we have watched carefully for them, too. The camera is set and ready to go, but not once have we had the chance to photograph a white-crown or white-throat Maybe next spring.

☆

SEVERAL SATURDAY evenings ago, Beth dropped in and during the course of the conservation, guess what subject popped up—birds!

She told about the wonderful time they were having with some special visitors—Papa Cardinal and his two adolescent daughters.

The next day we could hardly believe our eyes when there, sitting on the feeder, was one of the girls. She had a light lunch of sunflower seeds and was gone.

Mom immediately rushed to the window and sure enough, the second female was on the ground under the feeder and in a minute we noticed the male flying about. Beth's whole family was visiting us, what a thrill.

Since then they have returned several times. He is a magnificent fellow—such a deep handsome red, wonder if he is Mr. Bright of last year?

His daughters are, as are all female cardinals, lovely. They are fully grown and fully colored except for their bills. Instead of the bright red which is such a brilliant splash of color, the girls' bills are still a dull black. One is begihning to change color, but only beginning.

☆

WHILE HIS daughters nibble on sunflower seeds at the feeder or pick up scratch feed from the ground, he sits on the fence keeping track of things and incidentally looking most elegant against the dark green background.

Of all the birds, the cardinals are by far the best at selecting just the proper perches. They always pick the spots which will show them off to best advantage.

So it is that there has been much good looking lately for sharing their birds with us we send thanks to some very generous friends.

How To Spell Better

LANSING—Poor spelling can pull down your child's grades in social studies, reading, science, and other school subjects, say our elementary school teachers.

Many book reports, term papers and notebooks receive lower grades as a result of spelling and grammatical errors.

Why is spelling so difficult for many children?

Learning to spell English is hard work, according to the Michigan Education Association and National Education Association.

Your child would have an easier time learning to spell in Spanish or Finnish, which are far more consistent in their rules.

Most schools concentrate on teaching children about 3,000 English root words which make up about 98% of the words both children and adults use in written expression.

Some 20% of these words don't follow regular alphabetical rules and these are probably the ones that are giving your child trouble.

Here are the ways, suggested by the MEA and NEA, in which you can help your child improve his spelling:

► Make sure your child has no physical handicaps, such as poor vision, faulty hearing, defective speech, which may be holding him back.

► Have him make his own dictionary of "demon" words that plague him. Get him a scrapbook and have him devote one page to each letter of the alphabet—as he masters the demon, he enters it on the proper page.

► Give your child the fun of adventuring with words by encouraging him to make a list of new and interesting ones he comes across.

Play games with words such as Anagrams and Hangman or ask him how many "happy words" (gay, cheerful, merry, jolly) he knows how to spell, how many "sad" ones, "holiday" ones?

► Encourage him to write frequent thank-you notes to other children and to relatives, for parties and gifts.

► Check with him to see that all the words are properly spelled and that the note is legible.

► Give him his own dictionary. He will use it faithfully if you give him a good example by looking up words.

► Avoid baby talk with your pre-schooler or first-grader. It's no help to your child. Make sure that he hears all words correctly spelled and pronounced at home.

Salk Is Only Vaccine Recommeded

LANSING—State Health Commissioner Dr. Albert E. Heustis has reiterated the state health department policy regarding oral polio vaccines.

This comes in view of apparent public misunderstanding following the announcement of the US Public Health Service licensing of an oral vaccine against Type II poliomyelitis.

* Dr. Heustis said that the licensing of this vaccine, and licensing of a similar vaccine against Type I polio last August, in no way changed the immunization picture as far as the Michigan Department of Health is concerned.

* "Our policy is that the Salk vaccine is the only licensed vaccine which provides protection against all three types of paralytic polio, and is therefore the only one which can be considered for routine immunization on a mass or individual basis," he said.

Minister Writes on Fallout Shelters

When Mrs. Dick Duffin, 212 W. Chicago Blvd., noted in the Nov. 2 Herald that ideas would be welcome on reaction to fallout shelters, she remembered a clipping she received from her mother, Mrs. Harold Beach of Rye, N.Y.

Mrs. Beach sent a copy of a letter that appeared in the New York Herald Tribune.

It was written by Mrs. Beach's Presbyterian pastor and was in answer to a recent column by John Crosby.

Portions of the letter appear below.

John Crosby says, "Building a shelter is an admission of defeat." Major Alexander P. de Seversky says, "The citizen who takes the necessary precautions to survive a nuclear attack is a true American, a patriot, and a true defender of freedom."

Every American must make a simple choice: to follow the line of John Crosby who seems to be an expert in many fields, or to follow the advice of Major de Seversky who is an expert in at least one field — air warfare.

No American home should be without a copy of the major's book, "America: Too Young to Die." It is the complete answer to the defeatists who are beginning to sit up and whine — who say,

What's the use of building a shelter if my improvident neighbors are going to crowd into it?"

One answer is to persuade your neighbor to build a shelter. If he doesn't it still seems to be a debatable question with theologians and moralists holding varying viewpoints as to how you deal with him.

Moreover I am very much concerned about my country, and indeed all mankind. Our way of life may be soft and largely un-Christian, but I can see nothing else around that is more worth preserving.

I believe God approves, with many qualifications, of our country. I believe He wants us to preserve it and make it worthy of Him. We can't do that if we are either Red or dead.

I don't mean to imply that our cause is lost. On the contrary, now is the time to make our greatest effort. Let's build shelters to show that we haven't given up.

Let's implore our Senators and Representatives to enact whatever tax measures are required far a crash program to speed up our defenses, preferably under one qualified person, with no red tape to tie him down.

Let's stop running our defense program by committee. Let's stop making decisions by counting pork barrels. Have we gotten so decadent that we are willing to sacrifice our sons in battle but unwilling to sacrifice our standard of living?

Mr. Crosby's clinching argument seems to be that air-raid shelters — at least those proposed by the "civil defense crowd" — have been declared a violation of the building code in Springfield. This simply means that Springfield approves of well-built shelters.

Mr. Crosby might have brought up the other hobgoblins: What's the use of coming out of a shelter into a ruined world? Where are we going to find uncontaminated food and water? How are we going to protect ourselves in a caveman world, etc., etc.?

But we don't know what the conditions will be. They may well be reasonably normal for millions of survivors who would have been dead without shelters.

Fall-out does not destroy food and water. Who knows what atomic difficulties the human body can withstand?

Our ancestors took shelter when necessity dictated and obviously many survived, in caves, in castles, in stockades, in trenches. Have we sunk so low in our morale, in our patriotism, and in our religious convictions that we are going to roll over and die?

WENDELL PHILLIPS,
Rector, Christ Church,
Rye, N.Y.

The Franklin Extension Club will meet Thursday, Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Glen Jones with Mrs. Grover Swarts as co-hostess. The lesson will be "Business Facts for Families". Roll call will be a blessing.

Is Language Answer?

(Editor's note: The author of this article is currently teaching Spanish at Adrian College and also studying American, French and Spanish literature and French grammar. Her goal is to enter the diplomatic service or to be a full-time college language instructor.)

By MRS. LESLIE CALHOUN

Day after day we read on the front page of the newspapers about the unique and unbelievable weapons with which the Big Powers of the world are getting ready to fight for what they believe is right.

But whatever happened to the development of the weapon that although one of the most effective ones seems to be also the most neglected and almost forgotten one?

Yes, the foreign language, the one arm with which great men of all times have been able to prevent or win a war.

Thomas Jefferson, for instance, clever diplomat and dilligent Secretary of State in critical foreign affairs, showed at all times in his notable state papers, his thorough mastery of Greek and Latin, the two languages that serve as perfect foundation for 11 more languages, at least.

John Trumbull, the brilliant scholar who passed the Yale entrance examination at the age of seven, entered college at 13 and graduated four years later, was a constant crusader for the teaching of rhetoric and modern languages.

It seems important at the present time to encourage the youth of this country to become aware of "the critical necessity" for the learning of foreign languages.

The foreign language is a complete education in itself, because it includes the history, geography, philosophy and customs of the country where that particular language is spoken.

It is also the bond that unites countries, it gives you the love and respect for the people that speak it. It is the key to a brighter future and in one word it is the most precious gift from God as it is love put into words.

It certainly would be a wonderful thing if some of the rules and laws of our educational system could be properly revised, thus giving the modern language student and teacher the so badly needed "break" to put this country at the cultural level of any European country and many of the Latin American countries.

The fast, small breakfast . . . For Mother, a snack in front of the TV for lunch . . . for Dad, Son and Daughter, lunch on a drug store stool . . . a choice of perhaps too many foods for dinner, letting one eat some of the many things and therefore not enough of the basic essential foods.

Nutri-Bio, a complete food supplement, contains all of the essential Vitamins and Minerals for which the minimum daily requirement had been established . . . PLUS those which are essential but for which no minimum daily requirement has been established . . . Expert on Lawns Will Be Rotary's Ladies Night Guest

Leon F. "Monty" Montague, a past officer of Rotary International, will be guest speaker at the Ladies Night meeting of the Tecumseh Rotary Club, Tuesday, Nov. 21.

Montague is an old Kansas cowhand who has long been interested in beautiful lawns and is now traveling and speaking through the courtesy of Scotts Seed Co.

He started his education in a one-room school. This led to degrees of bachelor of science and master of science from Kansas State University, graduate work at Harvard University, and membership in Phi Kappa Phi national honorary scholastic society.

He was reared on a cattle ranch and spent his early years raising Purebred Hereford cattle. On one of his Kansas farms during the 30's, he grew five million tree seedlings annually for the government's dust bowl shelter belt project.

"Monty" has been a Rotarian for 30 years, serving as president of the Rotary Club of Abilene, Kan. and as governor of his Rotary district.

Prior to becoming a member of the staff of Rotary International, he had organized 17 Rotary clubs and had visited Rotary clubs in 41 states of the USA and in 17 other countries.

When Montague lived in Solomon, Kansas, he was the "honorary" landscape architect for the City Council and Board of Education.

When the world headquarters of Rotary International was erected in Evanston, Illinois, he was largely responsible for the beautiful lawn which has received the national "Plant America" award of the American Association of Nurserymen and the "Special Citation" of the Men's Garden Clubs of America.

When "Monty" became 65, Rotary International's compulsory retirement age, he wanted to retire "to something" so became associated with O. M. Scott & Sons.

This century-old company specializes in grass seed, weed killers, and lawn fertilizers, and is sponsoring his address "Turned Out to Grass" as a contribution to more fruitful retirements for the Golden Years.

LEON MONTAGUE

Since his retirement from the world headquarters staff of Rotary International on June 30, 1959, Montague has spoken to more than 50,000 business and professional leaders in major cities throughout the United States and Canada.

Christmas TB Seals Go in Mail

Area residents this week began to receive the first 1961 Christmas Seals.

Envelopes containing the seals, for 55 years the symbol of united public effort to combat tuberculosis, were routed through the local post office.

The theme of the campaign, illustrated in the new seals by drawings of family groups decorating Christmas trees, is "Protect the Family Circle."

Charles H. Baker, of Jackson, president of the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, said untold suffering is caused thousands of Michigan families because of tuberculosis, still a more powerful killer than of all other infectious diseases combined.

Because tuberculosis is so treacherous and potent, there are instances in which whole families become infected and are hospitalized, Baker said.

Peace Corp Examinations Will Be Given

Tecumseh Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf announced that entrance test for the Peace Corp will be given on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28 and 29.

VOICE of THE HERALD

Not for This Area

It may come as a surprise to many, but Tecumseh and area residents may be placed in a school or college district and asked to approve a mill and one-half for expanding facilities and developing a college near Jackson and actually have little to say about it.

A plan conceived by Jackson and state education officials includes a junior college district composed of Hillsdale, Jackson and Lenawee counties.

It is understood that the three counties will vote independently, and defeat of the plan in any of the three counties will kill the tri-county community college proposal.

The Jackson Junior College plan was formulated several months ago with the assistance of state education representatives.

Although there is a present junior college in Jackson, a donation of a sizeable tract of land outside of Jackson instigated officials to start plans on expansion.

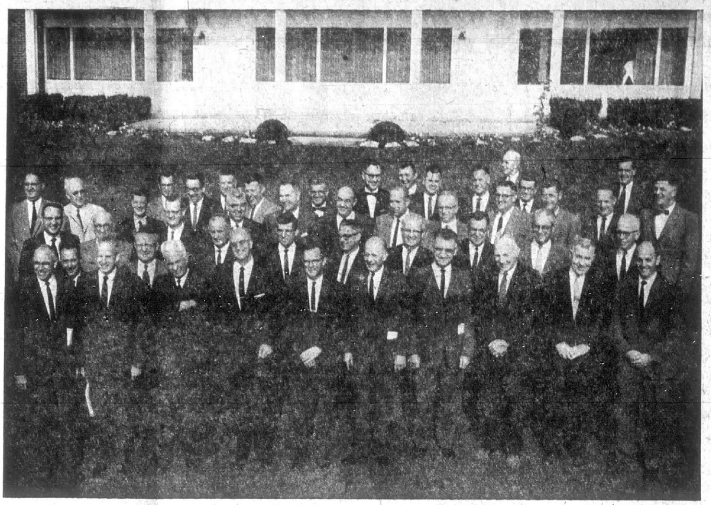
What little information gathered about the plan indicates the officials need financial help — and hope to get this financial help by forming a three-county district for tax purposes.

Reports reaching us indicate that Jackson, Jackson County and possibly Hillsdale County are in favor of the plan.

Advantages for the people and students in this area are apparent, especially due to the proximity of the proposed college.

We would like to see the plan rejected, as far as Lenawee County and Tecumseh are concerned, and see what can be done about establishing a junior college, preferably here in Tecumseh or closeby, which will be necessary in the near future.

The Jackson Junior College plan has too many factors unfavorable to Tecumseh and area, we believe, for local approval. JCI



SUPERINTENDENTS GATHER HERE — James McDowell (left front) was host at Tecumseh Country Club when 46 superintendents of schools from the Southeastern Region of the Michigan Association of School Administrators met. Howard Jones, professor of finance at the University of Michigan, spoke on "Educational Implications of Con-Con." One superintendent presented a fact sheet which showed, at the current pace, Michigan's state aid to schools will be more than $40 millions in the red by June 30, 1962. The men were a somber lot when preparing to pose for this shot. To get some grins the lensman told them, "Let's pretend everybody's budget just had three mills added."

Fay Twins Surprised by Friends

Senior High Fellowship of the Berean Baptist Church of Adrain held a surprise party Nov. 4 for Charlene and Charles Fay, who moved from 511 Nokomis St. Saturday.

The twins father has been transferred back to Maquoketa, Iowa by Clinton Engines.

About 28 were present for the evening of fun. A gift was presented to each of the honored persons during the evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. H. D. Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ostrum and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Metz accompanied the group.

Conlin Tells Exchange Club of State Mess

He told about the financial structure of Michigan, how the state got into the situation it now faces and what to expect in the future.

His talk was enthusiastically received by 42 members, guests and "Old Timers" who were in attendance to observe "Old Timers" night.

Merchants To Rent Meters for Christmas Shoppers

By JIM LINCOLN

Free parking — through the courtesy of Tecumseh merchants —in the off-street parking lots awaits Christmas shoppers this holiday season.

By letter from Don Murphy, Chamber secretary, and the retail division, Councilmen approved a request that merchants pay $450 for the off-street meters.

It will mean only a small sum from each merchant to provide shoppers with plenty of free parking space.

Merchants have talked about the plan for several months and have even discussed approaching Council about buying the off-street meters throughout the year.

The free parking will start next Monday, Nov. 27, and will extend through Dec. 23.

The off-street parking committee, headed by Bill Powell, recommended that Council adopt a rental plan for the blue meters in the off-street lots.

Motorists would be issued stickers and pay anywhere from $2 per week up to $50 per year. The blue meters take either nickels or quarters.

Council approved the plan, authorized city manager Ed Nelson to order the stickers.

☆

IN OTHER action, Council:

► Adopted the Uniform Traffic Code of the State of Michigan.

► Requested a study and survey for city retirement plan from Michigan Municipal Employees Association.

► Approved purchase of a salt and chloride spreader, costing $440.

► Tabled awarding sewer and water main bid to proposed Faraday plant until next meeting.

► Discussed programs for paving streets, installing curb and gutter and new sidewalks.

Long & Short

By TOM RIORDAN

Happy Thanksgiving.

☆

Ten oil paintings by Tecumseh's Russ Steinke will be put on display in the art department of the J. L. Hudson Co. starting Dec. 4.

Before Mr. Steinke takes his work to Detroit, a showing will be held Sunday evening from 7:30 to 9 at Don's Grill.

Coffee and rolls will be served.

The public is invited.

safe robbery, says a pattern is developing.

Within the last three months, this is the third school hoist he has been assigned in the general area.

The two others were in Henry County, O., not too many miles from here.

In the most serious one there, $600 was stolen.

In the THS theft, there were several ironic twists.

The cash sat around the athletic office for several days and Doug decided he'd better put it in the safe. Doug did—the night of the B&E.

But, by the same token, $50 was saved when Arthur Collingsworth, editor of the Scout, student newspaper, arrived after the door had been locked.

The money he had was from sale of paperbacks, which the Scout markets in the study hall. Thus, this Cash was saved.

Receipts from the Adrian-Tecumseh football game, amounting to about $1,200, were safely deposited in the United Savings Bank two days earlier.

☆

It was a grand party and the 1,200 who attended were amazed at what a marvelous building we now have.

Our teen agers have a beautiful new recreation area, for which they are truly grateful.

At the same time, I think we should give a formal "thank you" to Bill Sage, who provided rent-free clubrooms for the youngsters from 1956 until last week.

His generosity can never be repaid.

☆

Next one should be more serene — I keep telling myself — and afford a little more time to get things worked into place.

GUESTS SNACKED—Mary Katherine Houseman drinks one of the 500 Cokes served during Sunday afternoon's Community Center open house. Guests also downed 410 cups of coffee and munched 522 cookies. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Houseman, Britton. Members of the Jaycees manned the refreshment stands.

Center Open

A familiar Tecumseh figure, wearing a brilliant new outfit, was christened Sunday afternoon.

On hand for the ceremony were 1,200 area folks.

This was the official opening of the Tecumseh Community Center, which had been transformed from the old Talon plant in a $35,000 renovation project.

The place never looked so beautiful.

PRESENTS BUILDING—Councilman Terry Mackin, chairman of the Center planning committee, presented the building to the community. Behind Mr. Mackin is Clara Waldron (partially blocked), Jack Colson, Dr. Bob Laidlaw and the Rev. Paul Brantingham. Miss Waldron told of the building's history, Mr. Colson presented a flag from the American Legion and the Rev. Mr. Brantingham gave the invocation. Others on the program were Neville Hart, who spoke on behalf of youth in the community, Mayor Harold Easton, who accepted the keys and also clipped a ribbon, and the Rev. Thomas J. Collins, who gave the benediction.

MAIN MEETING ROOM—A junior guest scampers over the gleaming floor of the 132x36' main room of the Center. This was completely transposed from a zipper assembly area in the renovation. Its uses will include dancing, little theatre, lectures and exhibits. Teen-age activities are upstairs.

Members of Club See Style Show

Members of the Monday Club were entertained Nov. 13 with a style show at the St. Peter's Parish House.

Mrs. Ralph Westgate presented Mrs. Marvin Watkins, narrator, who was assisted by Mrs. C. G. Colgrove.

Five members of the club modeled the latest fashions. They were Mrs. Ralph Dabe, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, Mrs. C. O. Baily and Mrs. Herbert Munger.

Mrs. Nancy Salmonson from Herbert's Beauty Salon demonstrated various stages of hair styling, assisted by eight models including her mother.

Correct make-up was also demonstrated.

Assorted cookies were served from an attractively decorated lace-covered table with Mrs. Arch Wray and Mrs. J. Cleon Mason pouring beverages.

Mrs. Veva Connor, Mrs. Orin Feight, Mrs. Herbert Murphy and Mrs. David Gibson were the hostesses.

Mrs. John Quigley will be the leader of the program on "Health" for the meeting Nov. 27.

Cal Damon's Tog Shop Is Remodeled

Cal's Tog Shop has been completely remodeled.

The store was opened earlier this week after being closed most of last week.

It has been remodeled along colonial lines with thatched roof over clothing racks, louver doors and colonial wall prints.

Russell Cooper was carpenter for the woodwork and Brooks and Brown, decorators.

It's the second store to improve facilities recently in this downtown area. Eggleston's Jewelry moved and completely remodeled.

DeeErmia Furniture is now remodeling the rear of its store for show windows to the new off-street parking lot.

D&C has plans to construct a rear entrance, opening onto the alley which is to be closed to vehicle traffic.

Broken Foot Doesn't Stop This Hunter

Dan Green, 16, on his first hunting trip brought down a ten-point buck opening day.

The youth, wearing a cast on the broken foot he got this football season, sat on a log in the vicinity of St. Jaques in the Upper Peninsula when he spied the big animal.

Others in the party were Dan's father, Fay Green, and his cousin, Clarence Cremeans, of Dearborn.

A spike horn was shot from the same log by a member of the party on Nov. 17.

Luck Rides with Man in Accident

Luck rode with 25-year-old William H. Carter, Jr., 4920 De-Leon Dr. Friday night when his 1960 Falcon slammed into a tree on Ridge Rd.

The Tecumseh fire department was summoned to the crash to cut the injured and unconscious man from his demolished car.

Firemen report that he was pinned at the neck against the rear seat and his left foot was on the ground, through the floor board. They sawed a section of the seat away to get him out.

Carter suffered only a broken arm and bruises and is recovering at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Boosters Will Sell Sweets

Tecumseh Band Boosters have made arrangements for a candy sale to be conducted from Dec. 1 until Dec. 10.

Mrs. Russell Cooper is the chairman with Mrs. Charles Haughn assisting her.

The candy will be distributed at the Band Booster meeting Thursday, Nov. 30 at 7 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

Guest Tells of Trip to Africa

Mrs. Stanley Kruse conducted the devotional service and the thank offering was received.

Mrs. John Hamilton, as program chairman, introduced Elinor Winn who showed colored slides and told of her experiences during the 10-weeks spent in Gabor, Africa this past summer.

She was one of 200 college students to qualify for Operations Crossroads Africa, a project that takes college students to the new nations of Africa where they join with African students on work projects, study and recreation.

During their stay, Miss Winn's group was privileged to meet and talk with Dr. Albert Schweitzer and visit his hospital.

Miss Winn is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Winn of Hillsdale and is now a music student at the University of Michigan.

Members of Circles two and three acted as hostesses and Mrs. Fred Marsh and Mrs. Fred C. Dickinson presided at the tea table. The yellow and white chrysanthemums centerpiece was later taken to Mrs. Alta Phinney and Bel Plummer at Bayless Nursing Home.

Mrs. Wilbur Boyce presided at the short business meeting when reports of various chairmen were given. Mrs. Orrie Gilbert was appointed to the nominating committee.

The association will sponsor the church Christmas decorations and Mrs. Junior G. French and Mrs. Gerald Baker were appointed co-chairmen.

It was announced that a program is being planned for the Dec. 20 meeting which will be a joint meeting with the Men's Council.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton entertained Miss Winn and the Senior Hi Fellowship members at supper and all later attended the meeting in Fellowship Center.

Athletic Banquet Will Be Sunday

St. Elizabeth School will hold its annual athletic banquet Sunday evening at 6.

Closed Friday

The Chamber of Commerce office will be closed Friday.

300 Attend Sock Hop

About 300 boys and girls attended the sock hop held at the Junior High School Friday after school.

This was the first such activity this season. Others have been planned.

A Christmas party is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 22.

FIRST DEER — David Brooks with the seven point buck he shot just after daybreak opening day in the Waterloo area, four miles east of Big Portage Lake. Hunting with David were, Bill Ross and Dennis Harrison. The young men also saw two does. Dave got his deer, which weighed about 180 pounds, from about 75 yards with a shotgun slug.

Nearly $900 Stolen

"This was a professional job," was the way Police Chief Murel Clark described last week's robbery at Tecumseh High School.

"These boys have been in business before," the chief added.

Their take was betwen $600 and $900.

The yeggs cut a hole in the cinder block wall of the school's walk-in safe Wednesday night.

They deftly rifled the various cash containers and cigar boxes which contained money, hardly disturbing a variety of school supply items.

The big metal door on the 8x10 room was ignored.

Chief Clark places time of the crime between 11:30 p.m. Wednesday and 1:30 a.m. Thursday.

The building was occupied late Wednesday and it began to rain early the following morning and there was no evidence of muddy feet.

Believed to have been a gang of three or four, the robbers gained entrance by climbing onto the one-story shop and walking over its roof to a second floor window.

After breaking this, the thugs walked into the corridor and downstairs to Principal Neville Hart's office, where the safe is located.

Using a wrecker's bar, they smashed a hole in the 14" wall.

Contents of the safe were covered by insurance.

The breaking and entering was discovered by THS chief custodian, Bob Glascock, when he came to work at 6 a.m.

Police are checking out several suspects.

"They always have such an interesting story to tell."

Players 'Task Force' Gives Dramatic Program for PTA at Blissfield

Mrs. Richard Cook and Gene Earling, under the direction of Richard Kureth, presented a dramatic program for the Blissfield PTA Wednesday evening at the Junior High building.

Included in the entertainment was a poem by Robert Frost, "Death of The Hired Man," presented as a one-act play using two characters.

Mr. Kureth read Robert Browning's "My Last Duchess," followed by a comic pantomine.

A vignette of Clifford Odet's play, "Waiting For Lefty," done by Mrs. Cook and Mr. Earling, concluded the program, showing the versatility of the actors.

This program has been given seven times in and out of the city, last Tuesday evening for the Gloria Dei Men's Club.

The Players have been asked to present it for the Christmas party for United Savings Bank and for the Optimist Club in Monroe.

Another program skit is being prepared under the direction of Mrs. Gloria Jadwin for presentation soon.

Pause, Think of Persons Who Are Friends

"It is a good practice to pause and think of the many people of every race and nationality who are our friends," reminds the Rev. Allen Wittrup, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

"In the midst of propaganda, nationalism and extremists we often forget that we have many Christian and non-Christian allies around the world."

"Allies of Faith" will be the Rev. Mr. Wittrup's subject Sunday at 10 a.m.

Members are asked to remember to bring jam, jelly and money for the White Gift to Chelsea Home.

The Commissions will meet on Wednesday evening at 7:30 and the official board at 8:30.

The building council will have a luncheon meeting on Friday noon at 12 in the Social Hall of the Church.

Men's Club Selects New Officers

New officers were elected by the Men's Club of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church at the meeting Tuesday evening. They are:

President—Don Buell
Vice-president—Edwin Bunge
Secretary—Floyd Lane
Treasurer—Frank Turlukowsky

They will be installed during the worship service Nov. 26.

The Rev. Laszlo Gero has announced that the first Sunday, of Advent, Dec. 3, the new members of the church will be admitted to the congregation.

Holy Communion will be distributed that Sunday.

He said also, "To help make a higher Christmas spirit in the congregation and the community, Gloria Dei will hold advent evening services Dec. 6, 13 and 20 at 7:30 p.m."

Public Is Welcome at Service

A special service on Thanksgiving Day has been announced by Christian Science Society of Tecumseh, 111 N. Union St.

Local members have invited the public to attend this Thanksgiving service, which will be held in the church Thursday, at 10:45 a.m.

No collection of any kind is taken at this service.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon for the day on the subject of "Thanksgiving" is the Golden Text from Psalm 107:

"Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing."

Sandra Windhorst and William LaCoe were married Oct. 28 in Las Vegas, Nevada. The new Mrs. LaCoe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Windhorst of Torrance, Calif. and Mr. LaCoe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Buell of Tipton. The groom is attending Navy Officers Training School and expects to be transferred to Norfolk, Va. Dec. 1.

Faraday Plant Bids Are Opened

Bids for construction of a new Faraday, Inc. plant in Tecumseh were opened on Nov. 13 at the company's main office in Adrian.

No decision was reached on the bids from Goodrich-Hazen, the low bidder, Haeussler Construction and Krieghoff.

Jack Osburn and Karl Schneider represented the Tecumseh Industrial Development Corp. at the meeting.

Although bid figures were withheld, Mr. Osburn said Goodrich-Hazen's was approximately the estimated cost discussed at TIDC-Faraday contract signing last August.

—o—

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McConnell are spending the deer hunting season at their cabin at South Branch.

OH NO, NOT THE UGLIEST — But yes, they were. Debbie, 9½, and Lissy, 5, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shelton, 111 Burt St., were chosen ugliest in the Halloween parade this year. They represent witch's bats. Picture taken the day of the parade wasn't suitable for engraving, so another was made later. That's the reason for the lateness.

Historic Theme for Ball

"The Twelve Days of Christmas" will be the theme for the 13th annual Herrick Memorial Hospital ball to be held at the Tecumseh Country Club Saturday, Dec. 2.

The theme, taken from the quaintest of Christmas carols, dates back to the days when the 12 days between Christmas and Epiphany, were celebrated as the mid-winter feast of Yule.

The song was a musical game with each player repeating the gifts of the days, such as "partridges in a pear tree"; "two turtle doves"; "three French hens"; four Colly birds"; "five gold rings" and so forth with a different gift for each day.

The decorating committee is sparing no effort to transform the Country Club into a setting for this medieval lyric.

They're hopeful that the result will be an evening of enchantment for those attending.

THOSE ON the decorating committee are:

Mrs. Robert Mohr, chairman
Mrs. Richard Dustin, co-chairman
Mrs. Hugh Andrews
Mrs. Curtis B. Brown
Mrs. Dale Bowen
Mrs. Thomas Corkery
Mrs. Howard Furry
Mrs. Orrie Gilbert
Mrs. Donald Ketteman
Mrs. Albert Musch
Mrs. H. D. Ocamb
Mrs. Donald Phelan
Mrs. Ted Pihl
Mrs. Donald Purkey
Mrs. Allen Russell
Mrs. Karl Schneider
Mrs. Paul Clauda

☆

OTHER committee chairmen are:

Mrs. Robert Murray, posters
Mrs. Neville Hart, publicity
Mrs. James Lincoln, refreshments
Mrs. Alvin Phelan, hosts and hostesses

Invitations are now in the mail. Reservations should be made early.

Past Chiefs Enjoy Hard Times Party

Cards were sent to members who are shut in. It was decided to send Tecumseh Past Chiefs a gift for their 25th Anniversary.

Twenty three members enjoyed an evening of games. Prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Cook, Mrs. Kenneth Dowling, Mrs. L. E. Simmons, Mrs. Ray Benedict, Mrs. Lyle Bailey, Dorothy Baker and Mrs. Dale Cook.

Mrs. Richard Platt received the prize for the one best dressed to fit the occasion. Mrs. Frank Crosby won the mystery gift, Mrs. Kenneth Dowling the traveling gift.

Refreshments were served from tables in keeping with the party, worn out table cloths, mismatched dishes and TV dinner trays for plates. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Frank Crosby.

The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lester Baker in Adrian.

Committee Session

Cub Scout Pack 73 will hold a committee meeting Monday, Nov. 27 in the new Community Center at 7:30 p.m.

For All We Hold Sacred . . . Attend Church

These are the products of man's labor—and God's. From the moment the seedlings were placed in the warm earth, they have been under constant care.

First came the rain and the sun—and then the ceaseless work of fertilizing, cultivating, and spraying. Last, came harvest time, when the proud growers gathered the rewards of their labor.

Only by such diligence can we hope for a truly bountiful crop. God has given the refreshing rain and warm sunshine, but He expects us to do our part.

And so it is with the care and cultivation of our spiritual lives. Man is endowed with many talents and qualities, but unless he tends and nurtures these gifts, they will not increase and grow.

Harvest time in the life of every person is at maturity, when men are at the peak of their usefulness and wisdom. By attending the services of the Church and by studying the Scriptures, we will realize greater happiness and contentment here on earth—and will be preparing ourselves for the RICH HARVEST of a life hereafter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should Attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own welfare. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Basketball Clinic Is Being Staged Friday at THS

The Tecumseh Indians will open an 18-game basketball slate next Friday night, Dec. 1, when the local cagers will host the Dundee Vikings.

This Friday evening at 7:30, head coach Doug Murdock will conduct a basketball clinic, featuring an intra-squad game, a film titled "Official Basketball," and a review of recent changes in basketball rules by Fred Oberlin.

The clinic is open to the public.

Question marks surround the 1961-'62 basketball team and anything above an even split in games played should be considered a highly successful season.

Coach Murdock will have four lettermen returning, but like last year and in previous seasons, there'll be no height to speak of.

The offense undoubtedly will be built around high scoring forward John Britton. Britton was one of the top scorers in the area last year.

If Coach Murdock finds additional scoring punch, the Indians could be surprising and very interesting this year.

Other lettermen besides Britton include Tim Sisson, Norm Tucker and Jack Dick.

Mrs. Don Sunderland was welcomed to the club.

Mrs. Hugh DesErmia and Mrs. Carson House assisted with hostessing the 16 members present.

'Business Facts for Families' Is Club Program

The lesson on "Business Facts for Families" was the topic of discussion at the Franklin Extension Club Thursday night when the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Glen Jones.

Elmer Krout, a former employee of a Tecumseh Bank, and Mrs. Grover Swarts, postmistress of Tipton, assisted the leader Mrs. Roy Willnow in giving the lesson.

Twelve members answered roll call with a Blessing.

Plans were made for making Christmas articles for a nursing home at our next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Merrick Dibble.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in keeping with Thanksgiving. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Grover Swarts.

Greatest Threat

Mrs. Zaio Woodford Schroeder of Grosse Pointe, a lawyer and General Federation of Women's Club Chairman of International Affairs, was the speaker Nov. 14 when 17 Tecumseh women were guests of the Adrian Women's Club.

She said that Cuba's "Castroites" are America's greatest threat at present.

She described the design of Communism in Latin countries and told of their subtle tactics toward the poor and depressed.

"They are willing to accept anything or any creed in return for release from their squalor," continued Mrs. Schroeder.

She urged her audience to arouse and show the world the economic picture of free America."

She reiterated that "we must show what free enterprise has done for the women of America. We must get to them the picture of American homelife, our educational and cultural systems.

"These are our best psychological weapons in the fight against Communism."

Those from the Monday Club who attended the Adrian meeting were Edith Ingersoll, Lillian Cannon, Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Mrs. Ralph Westgate, Mrs. Enna Whaley, Mrs. Frank Hoagland, Mrs. Fred Rector and Mrs. W. A. Satterlee.

Others were Mrs. Norman McConnell, Mrs. W. J. Morse, Mrs. Nina Heath, Mrs. Clifford Knudson, Mrs. T. Rentschler, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Mrs. Roland Mohr, Mrs. James Caldwell and Mrs. A. J. Todd.

Tecumseh and area motorists insured with Auto Owners Insurance Co., will not be affected by an increase in auto rates, according to Bill and Jack Hanna of Hanna Ins. Agency.

Many companies using rates established by bureaus are increasing auto insurance rates.

The two local agents say their company sets its own rates and is not contemplating a rate increase at this time.

Cider Mill Fun

Children from the Lenawee County special education class, held at the West Branch School, recently took a field trip to the Walter German Cider Mill in Holloway. AT RIGHT — Some of the 42 youngsters view a wagon-load of apples on their way into the mill. AT LEFT — Keith Goetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goetz of Blissfield, enjoys a cup of cider with 92-year-old Stanley Doty, the father of Mrs. German. This class is taught by Mary Ellen Vogel, Jack Dempsey and Mrs. Bertha Cole. The students come from Adrian, Deerfield, Morenci, Hudson, Addison, Onsted, Somerset Center, Blissfield and Tecumseh.

'They Voted Yes'

LANSING — The story of a town's efforts to pass a school bond issue is the central theme of a new film, "They Voted Yes," produced by the Michigan Education Association in cooperation with Michigan State University.

To assist Michigan school districts, citizens, and educators in the passage of school bond issues, "They Voted Yes" demonstrates citizen support of a vital community project.

Democracy in action is the basis for this black-and-white, half-hour production, which was filmed on-location in Laingsburg Michigan.

Through an investigating committe, town meeting, public debate, radio and television appearances, and newspaper articles, the school board of the film town of Hamilton convinces the townspeople that a new high school building is badly needed. The production presents problems which any school district might encounter in securing the passage of a school bond. The Hamilton school board faces opposition realistically presented in "They Voted Yes."

Produced by the Michigan Education Association and WMSB-TV, Michigan State University Broadcasting, "They Voted Yes" is part of the MEA's 1961-62 "Constant Challenge" television series to be telecast this winter throughout Michigan.

"Although filmed in Laingsburg, there is no intended similarity between the story situation and town in 'They Voted Yes' and the town of Laingsburg itself," according to Bob Rowland of WMSB-TV, writer-producer of the film.

"Laingsburg was suited to our needs for many reasons," Rowland says. "The town in our film had a high school of traditional design and comparative size to Laingsburg High School. But unlike Laingsburg, the citizens in the film town did not recognize the responsibility to build a new addition when the school needed additional space as Laingsburg did."

Seventeen principal actors were involved in the filming of "They Voted Yes," as well as dozens of Laingsburg citizens who donated their services as "extras". Many of the cast had no previous acting experience; they were recruited from such groups as parents, teachers, businessmen, and university students.

Director of "They Voted Yes" is Martin Gal of Capital Film Service, East Lansing, the company which provided technical services.

After being telecast throughout the state, the film will become part of the MEA's film library and will be available to educational groups on a free-loan basis.

Plan Christmas Mailing

"It's time to start planning your Christmas card and gift mailings," Postmaster Jack G. Metcalf said as he launched a 1961 "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign.

Looking ahead to what may be the biggest Christmas season ever, the postmaster added, "Here are the things to watch to help in getting every Christmas card and package delivered before Dec. 25:

"Check your Christmas card and gift lists carefully. Be sure each address is complete with full name, street and number, city, zone and state. Avoid abbreviations of city and state names.

"For your gift packages, secure heavy wrapping paper, sturdy corrugated cartons, strong cord and adhesive tape.

"Remember, also, that you can include your Christmas card or letter inside your gift packages if you will add the appropriate first class mail stamps to the postage for the package itself.

"Stock up on postage stamps. By doing this soon, you'll save lots of time that might be spent standing in line later on.

"When you go to the Post Office, ask for a supply of labels which read, "All For Local Delivery" and "All For Out Of Town Delivery," so that before you mail your Christmas cards you can sort them into two groups, with the addresses all facing one way, thus expediting delivery."

"First class postage is best for mailing your Christmas cards," according to Mr. Metcalf.

"All cards sent by 4c postage may include a personal handwritten message, and they'll be forwarded or returned, if that becomes necessary.

"Be sure to put your return address on your Christmas card envelopes. It's socially correct to do this, and enables both you and your friends to keep your mailing lists up-to-date."

This year's Christmas mail will probably set an all-time record, even exceeding the 500,000 pieces that were handled here in the pre-holiday sason of 1960.

100 Volunteers Attend Session

BRITTON — Over 100 volunteers and interested persons attended the meeting of the Lenawee County Chapter of the National Foundation Monday evening at the Elks Club.

The slogan for this year is "Your Dimes Will Do it Again."

Dr. David Dickinson, head of the clinical study center at the University of Michigan Medical Center, told the group of the many types of operations some successful and some unsuccessful that have been performed on babies and small children that are born with various birth defects.

He also told of the long way that the Foundation has come in the fight against polio and of the long way to go in the fight against birth defects and crippling arthritis.

Dr. Dickinson spoke of the Tecumseh Medical Project of which the National Foundation plays a vital part.

Ernest Bates, state representative of the National Foundation, spoke on behalf of Paul Bagwell, state chairman who was unable to attend the meeting.

Mr. Bates told of the importance of the research program and how it is to the health and well being of the youth of the nation.

He praised the workers for a job well done in the past, but urged them to try a little harder as Lenawee County has fallen short of its goal for the past three years.

Blake Ferris, executive secretary of the Wayne County chapter of the National Foundation, presented and narrated a film "The Opening Door", which shows the many ways in which dimes and dollars are spent for the betterment of mankind.

ALLOW COWS SUFFICIENT REST AFTER CALVING before rebreeding. Don't rush breeding in order to keep cows on a 12-month calving schedule. Breeding too early may throw cows off further. From 50 to 60 days are needed for the reproductive system to return to normal. Then, chances are a cow will conceive if she has had a previous heat and is in good reproductive health. Breeding cows less than 50 days after calving can greatly reduce conception.

WANT FAST TRACTOR STARTS THIS WINTER? Then consider purchasing an electric engine heater. They save a lot on engine wear and tear too. Size of units available varies all the way from 500 to 1,300 watts. Smaller sizes are best where tractors are used every day—you just leave them plugged in all night. But for an occasional start, the larger units are preferred. These units will warm the engine when plugged in only a short time before the tractor is needed.

DON'T CUT GROWING HOGS SHORT ON PROTEIN. Skimping on protein slows rate of gain and adds to feed costs. Performance of 34-pound pigs fed for 90 days on varying protein levels was compared. Pigs fed a 13% to 18% ration gained 49 pounds more on 47 pounds less feed per 100 pounds of gain compared with those on a 9% to 12% ration. For most economical gains, gradually reduce protein from about 15% for 25 to 50 pound pigs to 12% for hogs 100 pounds and over.

CHECK YOUR DRAINAGE SYSTEM AND MAKE NECESSARY REPAIRS. You'll wish you did next spring if your land is slow to drain. Clear open ditches of logs, brush and sand bars. These can cut the capacity of a ditch in half. Construct free swinging water gates where fences cross open ditches.

A STRING OF PEANUTS

A handful of roasted peanuts, a large needle, some string and prepare yourself for fun. String the nuts together by running the string through the shell, and tie it to your feeding-station.

The birds and squirrels will start flocking in an amazingly short time—they discover treats so quickly that we often wonder if they don't have look-outs posted.

Peanuts are great favorites but stringing is most important because if they are not fastened down, the birds and squirrels carry them away and we are deprived of much good looking.

Bluejays and tufted tit-mice are especially bad about this—both will work as fast as possible to carry one nut away, hide it, then streak back for another till a whole feeder is emptied.

It is a regular shuttle operation. This is fun to watch but it is a short-lived pleasure; a feeder can be cleaned up unbelievably fast.

☆

ONCE THE PEANUTS are strung, we have found two styles of fastening them to the feeder. They can either be hung from the side or fastened across the feeding tray.

The hanging method will produce some marvelous aerial trapeze work. Tufted tit-mice, chickadees and an occasional nuthatch are the talented performers.

They go through all sorts of gyrations but usually they cling to the rough shell of one nut and peck a hole in another.

This is, of course, a terribly simplified version of what goes on—a string of peanuts tied at just one end to a feeder swings and sways, twists and turns, with only the slightest help.

The tinest breeze does it and you can just imagine what happens when a little bird lights and starts banging away.

The tufted titmice and chickadees usually finish a meal upside down and the nuthatch, who is upside down most of the time anyway, finds that this is one place where his long slender bill is a handicap rather than an asset. It obviously gets in the way.

The other method, tying the string of nuts across the feeder, affords an entirely different kind of entertainment. The blue jays steal this show—watching them lose their temper is great fun.

When their usual grab-and-run tactics are thwarted by the peanuts being tied fast, they explode into frenzies of ill-manners.

Up go their crests, in fact all feathers are ruffled and "Scream, scream, scream!". But Mr. Jay is not going to be denied his hearty lunch and so he starts driving his bill into the peanut's shell.

Only a few thrusts are needed, of course, and soon he extracts the nut and starts working for another bite.

The way he stands on tiptoe, rears back and then slams his bill into the nuts is something to see; it is not a bit difficult to know what he is thinking.

☆

THE TUFTED titmice seem to enjoy setting their meal topside; it is easier than working on a free swing, dangling string.

Whereas the bluejay usually stands with both feet on the same peanut and if he hits the nut just right it turns and throws him off balance, the titmouse plants one foot securely on the feeder and holds the peanut in place with the other.

Then, using well directed movements, he picks a very neat hole in the shell and, often piece by piece, enjoys his meal.

The chick-a-dees are a little disappointing in this set-up; there is no challenge apparently.

They seem to have much more fun struggling with the hanging string of nuts, certainly they put on a better performance here than on the feeding-tray.

The squirrels merely laugh at our efforts to tie the peanuts down; they simply bite the string in two and then, according to their mood, either sit on the feeder and eat one at a time or run away with the whole thing.

So it is that for some good looking and maybe some different goings on at your feeder, try putting out a string of peanuts.

The art classes have been meeting Thursday evening and have made arrangements for a display of their work in the small second floor parlor.

A "treasure tree" grab bag will be a feature of the fair.

After a tour, some patrons may wish to play cards for a small fee.

A refreshment stand will serve sandwiches, coffee and pop.

This is an opportunity for citizens to become acquainted with the program of the Golden Age Club according to Mrs. Alfred Wheaton, chairman of ways and means, who has charge of the fair arrangements.

Top Scholars Visit MSU

The highest ranking seniors in Tecumseh High School were invited to an Alumni Scholarship Student Day at Michigan State University on Saturday, Nov. 11.

Main purpose of the visit was to learn more about the extensive MSU scholarship program, in which the top award is worth up to $4,000.

The visiting students also met with professors to discuss academic programs, got answers from student leaders at the University to their questions about MSU students life and heard MSU Professor Fred Williams, one of the nation's experts in American military history, speak on "The Meaning of the Civil War."

The highest scholarship at Michigan State—and one of the very best in the United States—is the Alumni Distinguished Scholarship.

It is worth $1,000 a year and is renewable for four years. Ten of these are awarded high school seniors each year and go to some of the most brilliant students in the country.

There is no requirement for family financial need for this scholarship. Each student, however, must rank in the top five% of the senior class and score high on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test or similar exam just to be invited to compete for it.

For all other Michigan State scholarships, the student must have financial need and rank at least in the top quarter of his graduating class.

TIME FOR STANLEY — Stanley Packard (left) will have time now. A wrist watch was given to him by his fellow employees at Bruce Foundry last week when he retired. With him are Eddie Adams, Fred Brighton, Julio Trevino and Woody Bailey as Elwyn Kidd makes the presentation.

Stan Remembers First Duty: Unload Rail Car of Coal

Stanley Packard, 65, of 401 S. Pearl St. was honored when he retired from Bruce Foundry.

He had been an employee for the past 20 years.

He has been disabled for six months, but came to the plant for the ceremony.

Members of the UAW-CIO Local 1099, union at the plant, gave Mr. Packard a Hamilton wrist watch to enjoy during his retirement.

When asked about his plans for the future, the retiree said that he enjoys raising flowers and garden and feeding birds and squirrels. He has two squirrels that will eat from his hand.

He also has a scrapbook of clippings from the Tecumseh Herald that dates back to 1901.

Mr. Packard was born a block north of the city hall in 1879.

He worked for the railroad before he was hired by the Foundry, then known as Tiffany Foundry.

It was also called Easton's and Carson's before becoming Bruce Foundry.

Mr. Packard remembers working 10 hours a day for $2.50 per day.

☆

HE SAID that his first job for the Foundry was unloading a carload of coal.

"I thought I would never make it," he concluded.

In reviewing the years, Mr. Packard remembers when Tecumseh was:

- A celery growing center
- A tannery operated here.
- There was a stave factory located here.

Mr. Packard and his wife, Pauline, have no children.

What's Going on at Boysville

By DAVE KLAVON

Gymnasium doors at Boysville were opened Nov. 16 for all those who wished to try out for the varsity and junior varsity basketball teams.

The varsity team will have only four returning lettermen from last year's squad.

Coach Mike Gendzwill is hoping that several newcomers to the varsity ranks will be of help.

Assistant Coach Ed Pacioni, who is in charge of the junior varsity team, hopes that his sophomores can come up with a winning combination.

Mr. Pacioni replaces Dick Heynen as JV coach. Mr. Heynen is currently in Turkey teaching for the government.

Joe Fortunato is working with the freshmen on this years' freshman team. He has quite a few snappy-looking players on the floor and he is hopeful that they will come around soon with a winning five.

The River Raisin League representatives voted for an all star football team, also second team and honorable mention.

Senior Ed Budzynski, a tackle.

Junior Tom Ryan, an end

Senior Tom McCullen was named as center on the honorable mention team.

The new dining hall is looking better each day. Steel beams were recently installed.

Workmen have been crawling around on top of them securing them and preparing for the placement of the roof materials. Sidewalks were laid leading to each of the two main entrances.

If good weather continues, the workers should be finished in advance of the February 1 deadline.

Engagement of Vera Michajlenko to Larry Matzinger of Toledo is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Michajlenko, 606 Occidental Rd. Miss Michajlenko is a 1960 graduate of Tecumseh High School and attends Cleary College in Ypsilanti. A summer wedding is planned.

Pianist To Hold Concert

Rudolf Serkin, frequently referred to as the world's greatest living pianist, will perform in The Toledo Museum of Art Peristyle concert series Nov. 29.

He will be making his fourth appearance at the Toledo Museum and his first since 1952. Serkin is well known for his albums have been popular in this country for many years.

For his Toledo concert, Serkin has selected an all Beethoven program. Concert time is 8:30 p.m.

Stephen J. Buku, Jr., 21, is studying electronics at Fort Benning, Ga. His wife, Mary is with him. His father, employed at the Products, and Mrs. Stephen Buku, Sr. are on their way for a visit with Steve and his wife.

16 Foreign Students Tell of Countries

Sixteen foreign students of the University of Michigan were guests of the Tecumseh Grange Nov. 9 for chicken supper.

The guests presented a program when each one spoke, told what country he was from, something about his family and their country.

Four other Granges were represented Palmyra, Four Towns, Madison and North Adrian.

The next Grange meeting will be held Nov. 30 in deference to Thanksgiving. Pie will be served.

Dairy Farmers Can Give to CROP

Michigan dairy farmers are being given an opportunity this month to share their milk with hungry children in foreign lands.

Through the cooperation of (Christian Rural Overseas Program or CROP and the Michigan Milk Producers Association, "authorization" forms are being mailed out to farmers throughout the state.

Russell M. Hartzler, Michigan CROP director, explained that these cards will enable the farmer to allocate the value of the amount of milk he wishes to donate to the needy overseas.

This allocation will be made through the cooperation of the many Michigan milk processors who have offered their services to CROP.

Dried whole milk, condensed milk and cheese are the principal needs, the CROP director pointed out. Powdered skim milk is available free from the Commodity Credit Corporation.

In addition to milk, several other Michigan products are being sent overseas by CROP.

Seven freight carloads of beans have been shipped this year to India, Haiti, West Pakistan and Indonesia. Corn in carloads will be collected during December and sent to a processor in Decatur, Ill. to be exchanged for corn oil and syrup. Berrien County is donating a carload for crabapple jelly for distribution abroad.

Among the countries receiving food from Michigan CROP are Algeria, Haiti, Jordan, Greece and Hong Kong.

$58 Netted from Booth at Fair

Mrs. Harlon Boyes entertained members of the Mary Foster Circle of the Methodist Church Nov. 13.

She was assisted by Mrs. Joe Poley.

Mrs. John Curth led devotions by reading "What is a Home" and a Thanksgiving Prayer.

Mrs. Carl Hale presented a program on the World Council of Churches, from its origin until the present day.

The announcement of a profit of $58.60 from the Country Store the Circle sponsored at the Jan-ousek Fair was made.

It was also announced that the annual Christmas Tree Lane tea would be held Dec. 9, at 1:30 p.m.

Members decided to take a 50c gift for exchange and a 50c gift for a needy family.

Going into Navy

Elmo J. Rucker was accepted Nov. 7 for service in the Navy at the Federal Building in Detroit.

He will receive his boot training at Great Lakes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rucker of N. Union St.

Booklet Explains Mineral Rights to Land Owners

More exploration for oil and gas is now occurring in Michigan than in any other state. This presents legal problems to thousands of farmers who own land under exploration.

C. R. Humphrys, Michigan State University resource development researcher, is the author of a bulletin which helps clarify some of these problems.

The bulletin, entitled "Mineral Rights for Michigan Landowners," is free at county extension offices.

"Geologists regard the southern Lower Peninsula as one of the nation's best potential oil areas," Humphry points out. "More exploration is needed to determine the exact extent of this potential."

Humphrys explains that sand and gravel, peat and muck and other materials in the soil are of increasing value. His bulletin summarizes legal and property rights in these areas as well as with oil.

SOCIAL SECURITY Questions and Answers

QUESTION: I recently quit my job and started my own business. Will this self-employment be counted toward social security?

ANSWER: If your net earnings amount to $400 or more in a year, they count toward social security. If your net earnings amount to less than $400 in a year, they do not count toward social security and you do not pay social security taxes on them.

QUESTION: If I have net earnings from self-employment which amount to $400 or more, do I pay the social security self-employment tax on the entire net earnings?

ANSWER: Beginning with 1959, you report and pay the social security tax on net earnings up to $4800 a year. If you have self-employment net earnings from more than one occupation covered by the law, your income from all of them (up to $4800) is counted toward old-age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits.

QUESTION: I was an employee between January and June 15th of this year. During this time I was paid wages of $3000. In June I started my own business. How should I report my self-employment income?

ANSWER: If your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, you will pay the self-employment income tax on the first $1800 of your net earnings which will bring the combined total of your wages and self-employment income to $4800

QUESTION: During this year I had gross earnings from my grocery store of $2000 but my net earnings were less than $400. I have heard that farmers have the option of reporting $1200 if their gross earnings are more than $1800 and their net is less than $1200. Can I also report by this optional method?

ANSWER: No. The optional method applies to self-employed farmers only. All other self-employed persons must report their actual net earnings.

Q. I have a maid who works only two days a week. Must I report her wages for social security since she does not work full time?

A. If you pay her $50 or more in cash wages in any 3-month period, ending March 31, June 30, September 30, or December 31, you should deduct social security from her wages and pay an equal amount yourself. It is the employer's responsibility to make this return to the Internal Revenue Service.

No Doll Buggy, Not Even Little Wagon To Paint

Not one doll buggy is among the toys in the repair room of the Jaycees.

Neither is there one little wagon, to paint red.

The Jaycee Auxiliary members are in the process of dressing some 20 dolls to be distributed by the Service Club at Christmas time, but where will the other toys needed come from?

This is the question in the minds of many of the 40 Jaycees who are ready to repair and paint.

About two-thirds of the membership has been active in this project in past years, but this year they haven't much to work with.

Dec. 11 and 12 will be the last meeting of the group to assist old Santa in getting the toys ready for the unfortunate children in the area.

Anyone who has a used toy or a new one that they would like to donate may call these Jaycees at HA 3-7052 or HA 3-704.

TOM RIORDAN'S

Long AND Short

Woody Hayes is a great football coach.

But I think the guy should have his head examined.

After Ohio State's triumph over Michigan Saturday, Woody scurried across the field to shake hands with his opposite number, Bump Elliott.

Bump accepted the clasp then turned away and was gone.

Woody might have wondered why the "M" mentor was so tart in their meeting.

The millions of fans who saw the game in person and on TV readily realized the reason.

The Buckeyes pocketed a fine victory, only to tarnish it in the final seconds of play.

Their rock?

It was going for two points after the final Buck TD so that the score would read 50 instead of 49.

Strictly bush, Woody.

☆

There are many men I admire in the newspaper world.

One of them is Boy Myers, publisher of the fabulous Lapeer County Press, largest and best weekly in America.

In a recent column, Bob wrote a piece that is so true I almost shook my head loose nodding in agreement.

Here is what Bob said:

"There is an old adage that says, 'There are two good times to advertise—when business is good and when business is bad.' There is a lot of good sense in this advice, contradictory as it may appear.

"Advertising is a misunderstood subject. Too many retailers have the notion it can be turned on and off at will and still produce good results. It doesn't work this way.

"The true value of advertising is in its cumulative effect. The consistency of advertising is just as important as the consistency of service, friendliness and store appearance.

"None builds an image of 'a good store' overnight. But all create an image that works for the merchant long after an individual impression is forgotten.

"The urge to trim operating expense when sales drop off is certainly understandable. But it robs the businessman of sales help just at a time when he needs it most.

"Cutting out advertising to save money is like stopping the clock to save time."

☆

Some rumblings have been heard about this area's representation in the state Legislature.

The comments come from people behind the scenes who know what makes Michigan government tick—or fails to.

There was a violent shake-up in Lenawee County Republicanism a year ago and it's possible another one is coming in future party primaries.

CD Movie Film Will Be Shown

Joe Rice, Tecumseh executive officer of Civil Defense, will present the film, "Seconds For Survival" for members of the Tecumseh Acres PTA Thursday, Dec. 7.

Room visitation will be held at 7:30 p.m. with a brief meeting following at 8.

Stephan Illeck, a member of the PTA and director of Civil Defense, urges the public to attend so that they may be prepared in case of an attack.

Membership Drive Opens For Kiwanis

A membership drive has been launched by the Kiwanis in Tecumseh.

Spearheading the drive will be a Kiwanis "Get-Acquainted" meeting this Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the IOOF Hall.

Andy Anderson, former Kiwanis International state governor, will speak on, "Kiwanis—Objectives and Means of Service."

Also attending will be Elwood Little, superintendent of schools at Onsted, who was recently elected as lieutenant-governor designate for Division 7, to which the Tecumseh Club belongs.

Chairman of this membership drive is Fred Nash, 1962 president-elect.

Mr. Nash states that invitations to attend have been extended to a number of men not presently attached to any service club.

Men, who have not been contacted, but who would like to attend can contact him at HA 3-4797.

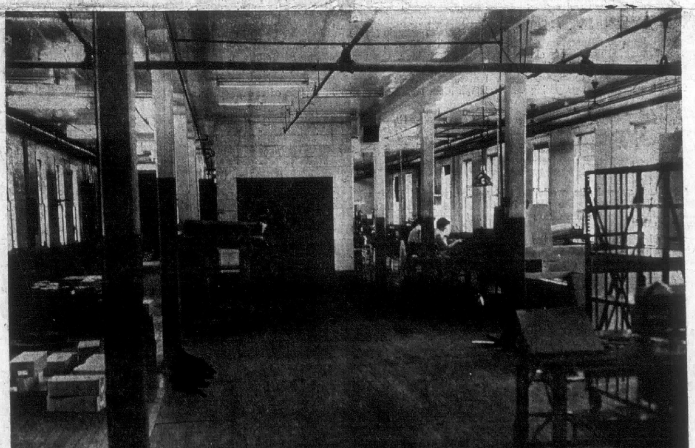
Wanted: Address of Men in Service

Mrs. Roger Williams, rehabilitation chairman for the American Legion Auxiliary, is making preparations for sending the annual remembrance to service men.

She asks that residents, who have men in service, contact her at 205 Russell Rd., or by phone HA 3-7301

Quite a Difference

Notice any similarity in these two pictures? Well, they're both taken of the same room, from almost identical spots. What once was a zipper assembly room (below) is now the main section of the new Community Center. About five months separated the time the shutters were clicked to record the two scenes. Photo of the room as it now stands was made the day of the building's dedication. Major differences, of course, are the removal of the elevator shaft and supporting posts. Steel cross-beams replaced the latter. Floor and ceiling were tiled and the walls painted. The sprinkling system is still there, but now hardly noticeable. The room is 132x36' in size.



Tax Delay Affecting Wide Area

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh and area property owners will not receive their tax bills Friday, Dec. 1, as they normally do.

Unless there's an expiditing of formalities, property owners may not be able to deduct their property tax from their income tax for this year.

The delay in sending out tax bills this year has arisen from the State Tax Commission's failure to submit its report to the county apportionment committee concerning the city of Adrian's appeal to study the county equalization figures.

Adrian, which submitted its appeal during the summer, had the city re-appraised last spring and claims new appraisal figures were not taken into consideration.

Tecumseh city manager Ed Nelson and Cal Zorn, who is a member of the County Board of Supervisors, of which the county apportionment committee is formed, say local tax bills may not be sent out until after the first of the year—which will not let property owners pay their property taxes and deduct from their income taxes.

Whether the Jan. 20 deadline is extended or the 4% penalty for late payment will be waived has not yet been ascertained.

☆

THE LOCAL schools—already in the red and without even funds to meet payrolls—could be hurt the most by the delay.

Supt. James McDowell says the schools receive approximately $315,000 in taxes and normally receive enough early in December to meet payrolls and other obligations.

A loan of $328,000 against state aid will carry the schools through January. Then, if necessary, a loan against tax anticipation will be obtained.

The city of Tecumseh will not be greatly affected, since it receives only 1% for collecting taxes — school, bonds, county, special education and library—or about $5,000.

No city official has ventured to guess just when local tax bills will be mailed, but say it will probably be at least another month.

The State Tax Commission must submit its report in writing to the apportionment committee, schedule a hearing not more than 10 days after submitting its report.

After the hearing, the Commission has seven days for its final determinations. Then the county apportionment committee must prepare and file reports for the county, usually taking four or five days.

After Tecumseh officials get the apportionment report, they can start preparing about 2,500 tax bills, which will take about 10 days of work here.

☆

IT'S THEREFORE possible that 32 days may elapse after the State Tax Commission submits its findings before property owners receive their tax bills.

If the Commission rules there will be no change, preparation of tax bills can be started immediately.

However, some changes have been indicated—a lesser tax figure for the city of Adrian of which the amount will in turn be proportionately added to other county property owners throughout the county, in order to reach the state's equalized evaluation for the entire county.

Coin-Op Setup Here Is Sold

Coin-Op dry cleaning facilities in Tecumseh have new owners.

Operated by Bancroft Cleaners since installation last spring, the equipment has been purchased by Julian Moody and associates.

Mr. Moody, who resides in Ann Arbor, is an expert in many fields—public relations, advertising, industrial consultation.

The new owner and his associatse will also operate coin-op dry cleaning establishments in the new Adrian shopping center and one located between Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor.

All will bear the name, Fabricare Center.

"Coin-op dry cleaning has a great potential," explains Mr. Moody, "But the public must be educated to its many uses."

"There are a variety of things, which require no pressing, that can be dry cleaned at considerable savings to the housewife.

The Tecumseh outlet, which is located in the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan building, will also continue to serve as a pick-up station for Bancroft Cleaners.

Toledo Museum to Stage Youth Christmas Program

Some 10,000 Toledo area public and parochial school children will be taken on an imaginary trip to the Europe of 500 years ago for a few hours when they attend the Toledo Museum of Art's 1961 Christmas program, Dec 1 through 22.

The Museum's art masterpieces will provide the children the inspiration for the imaginary visit to France, Germany, Italy and Flanders.

The story of the Nativity will be explained by members of the Museum faculty and trained volunteers of the Docent organization, as the children view the masterpieces, prints, ivory carvings, sculpture and illuminated manuscripts, all framed in Christmas greenery.

The Christmas programs are scheduled at 1:30 and 2:10 p.m. on Mondays—at 9, 9:40, 10:15 a.m., 1:30 and 2:10 p.m. Tuesday through Friday.

Schools may make reservations by calling the Museum. Adults are also welcome free of charge.

Pastor Opposes College Plan

Rev. B. O. Bashore proposed a local or county community college to Tecumseh Rotarians Tuesday night.

The local pastor opposed the tri-county community college plan proposed by Jackson Junior College and state education officials.

He suggested that a survey be made of school facilities in the county with the intent of using school buildings and many public school teachers as instructors.

There He Was

Here's a twist.

Wesley Whelan of Tipton shot a nine-point buck Wednesday morning by Evans Creek on his farm.

This shortly after he had returned from a hunting trip to the north woods with his father, Lyle Whelan, where they got nothing.

THE JUDAS TREE by A. J. Cronin — This famous author's latest book is more realistic than any he has ever written. It is the story of a man beset by a supreme egoism which affects his entire life — particularly his relations with women.

THE RED PEONY by Lin Yutang — A fascinating picture of China at the end of the nineteenth century, and a portrait of Peony, beautiful, intelligent, impetuous and independent.

THE GAME OF KINGS by Dorothy Dunnett — Amid border warfare and treacherous politics of Scotland in 1547, moves and lives an extraordinarily vivid group of individuals whose stories interweave in a suspense-filled pattern. Mrs. Dunnett knows intimately both the past and present of her native Scotland.

FEAR IS THE KEY by Alistair MacLean — A new novel of intrigue and adventure with an American setting.

CLOCK WITHOUT HANDS by Carson McCullers — Here is a book which faces directly the overwhelming question of good and evil and reaffirms our faith in the dignity of life.

DEAF, DUMB AND BLONDE by Anthony Morton

CHRONICLE OF A CRIME by Eleanor Dabrohua

THE SMARTEST GRAVE by R. J. White
All new mysteries for the who-done-it fans.

What's The Big Hurry?

"I wonder what's chasing you people?" the guest mused.

"Seems as if you have the devil behind you."

He is spending 180 days in the US to attend the University of Michigan English Institute.

On weekends, Mr. Miller makes side trips around the state and last Friday and Saturday he was a guest in the Percy Cadmus farm.

Saturday morning he was given a tour of several area farm operations by Don Mueller.

It was then that Mr. Miller made his observation about folks here—always on the move.

He explained that in Nicaragua the pace is much slower. Climatic conditions are probably a factor, the weather being hot and humid much of the time.

"In March and April it's really hot," the visitor said.

Mr. Miller feels that the US State Department and Nicaragua program, which has sent him and many other South Americans to this nation, is tremendously valuable.

The teachers first go to Washington, D.C. for a two-week orientation session and then fan out across the land to various sections for the balance of their 180-day junket.

Mr. Miller came well prepared for his Michigan trip, wearing a fur cap.

Rescue Home Aided by Ladies

The Tecumseh Friends Ladies Missionary Society will meet Thursday, Nov. 30 at 7:30 p.m. in the church basement. Hostess will be Mrs. Amos Wilson.

Each lady is to bring one small box of bobby pins, to be sent to Friends Rescue Home at Christmas time.

The churches of the Ohio Yearly Meeting of Friends have supported this home for unwed mothers of all races and creeds for many years.

The work project for Thursday will be the preparation of more bandages made of old sheets for Friends Mission Hospital in Chhatarpur, India.

The packages, containing items unobtainable in these foreign lands, had to be carefully wrapped and sewed in burlap for they will receive some rough handling on their long trip to the Orient.

The last meeting of Friends Ladies Missionary Society was dedicated entirely to acquaint everyone present with the various missionaries serving the Friends churches abroad.

Mrs. Harold Righter, the program chairman, had selected the four ladies, Mrs. Amos Wilson, Mrs. Ralph Comfort, Mrs. Melvin Muhn and Mrs. Paul Brantingham, to present biographies of missionaries.

Mrs. Russell Comfort was called upon to relate the progress made by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Neff, in obtaining their re-entry permits from the Government of Nigeria.

She said that the Neffs will probably have another few months to wait before being able to return to their former mission station.

Mrs. Willis Kilbourn presided and Mrs. Richard Butler was in charge of devotions. Mrs. Arthur Gray, Mrs. Henry King and Mrs. Charles Staples, Jr. were in charge of refreshments.

'Gardens Around World'

"Gardens around the world" by Mrs. Joe Rice was the program at the Little Garden Club's November meeting.

JC Search For Farmer Of The Year

Who is this community's most outstanding young farmer?

That's the question raised by the Tecumseh Jaycee's according to Ray Shelton, president of the local group.

A community-wide search is now under way. The public is asked to nominate any farmer aged 21 through 35 who is making progress in his agriculture career, is practicing soil and natural resource conservation and who maintains a contributory role in community improvement and affairs.

Purpose of the search, according to President Shelton, is to increase public understanding of the farmer and his problems and to create, through example, more youth interest in farming as a profitable and satisfying career.

Nomination forms are available from the Jaycees. "For your convenience a telephone call to Walt Wonderly HA 3-3931 will nominate the farmer of your choice in the competition," said Mr. Shelton.

Mannekins, dressed in the native costume of the country, are located in their respective locations, and on Sunday, the people themselves don the costumes and stand at their displays to answer questions from the visitors.

Each Sunday will find singers and dancers from the different countries portraying their native songs and dances.

An international bake sale is another feature of the Sunday presentations.

Same Tie, Same Bridegroom

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Crawford were pleasantly surprised Sunday when 80 of their friends and relatives gathered at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rhora, to honor the 25th wedding anniversary of the Crawfords.

A buffet supper was served from a large table skirted with white nylon net over pink taffeta.

A beautifully decorated cake, silver candelabra and white chrysanthemums centered the table.

The honored couple's wedding picture was also a point of interest.

Mrs. Crawford chose a three piece wool suit of hunter green with an orchid of the same color for the occasion.

Mr. Crawford wore the tie he had worn at the wedding.

Guests were present from Toledo, Chicago, Ionia, Clinton, Britton and Tecumseh.

Eldred Crawford and Rose B. McWilliams were married Nov. 26, 1936 at the Bishop's residence of he Rosary Cathedral in Toledo, O. by the Rev. Fr. Clancey.

300 Youngsters Vie for $100,000 Worth of Prizes

More than 300 Michigan 4-H Club members will enter $100,000 in prize livestock at the Detroit Junior Livestock Show next month.

This is the thirty-second year for the junior exposition to be held at the State Fair grounds December 5, 6 and 7.

The event is jointly sponsored by the 4-H Club department of Michigan State University in cooperation with the Detroit Junior Livestock Society.

The yearly show attracts exhibitors from more than 30 counties throughout Michigan. The young showmen will vie for several thousand dollars in prize and a chance to stand in the spotlight with a grand champion animal. These animals draw active bids from area buyers who support the show's sale.

Headquarters for the show will be Detroit's Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. One of the program highlights will be the annual banquet sponsored by the society at which honors are presented and special awards made to exhibitors.

In the judging competition, a grand champion market hog, lamb and steer will be selected. Livestock entries will arrive at the arena on December 5 and the judging will follow on Wednesday, December 6. Sale of the prize animals will conclude the three day event on December 7.

As a long standing 4-H activity, State 4-H Club Leader Russell Mawby, of MSU, believes the show has contributed greatly to the state's 4-H program.

Church Notes

'Prophets of His Coming' Sermon Topic

"There are many identifications for the coming of Jesus and it keeps us in appreciation of the advent season to know that there were men of God who were aware that Jesus would come in fullness of time.

"As we express our identifications, it helps us to appreciate the significance of the coming of Jesus," states the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

The pastor of the Tecumseh Methodist Church will speak on the topic "Prophets of His Coming" Sunday morning at 10 a.m.

The Senior MYF will leave at 1:30 Sunday afternoon to go to the Chelsea Home for the Aged to present the gifts of jams, jellies and money to the home.

They will be joined by other Senior Methodist Youth groups of Lenawee County in giving these gifts.

The WSCS will meet Wednesday, Dec. 6, at 8 p.m. when the program will be entitled, "A Christmas Card".

Men, Boys To Breakfast Together

Men and boys of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will meet for a corporate communion and breakfast at the 8 a.m. service Sunday.

John C. Chapin, director of the Department of Communications of the Diocese of Michigan, will be the speaker at the Communion breakfast.

Mr. Chapin is a layman who has been active in the church throughout his life. Several years ago he left advertising work to take on the leadership of the department of promotion of the Diocese.

It was through his leadership that the diocesan method of "modern tithing" was publicized throughout the country, leading to recognition in the Readers Digest and in church journals in Canada and England.

"The breakfast will be served by the Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Peter's. It is open not only to fathers and sons, but to other men and boys of the parish and their guests," said the Rev. Mr. Hawthorne.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at the 11 a.m. service.

12 Will Be Received into Church

New members will be received into the Presbyterian Church during the worship service Sunday.

Included are:
Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop
Mr. and Mrs. Murel Clark
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Feight
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Furry
Mr. and Mrs. Gaylon Robinson
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Whitman

A congregational meeting will follow the Dec. 10 worship service when elders and deacons for the Class of 1965 will be elected.

Candidates will be presented by the nominating committee in addition to any nominations made from the floor during the meeting.

At the congregational meeting Nov. 19 the congregation received a report from the building committee telling of the inadequacies of the present Christian Education facilities.

The committee requested authority for further study and recommendation as to the type and cost of facilities needed.

The congregation approved the committee's request and the building committee has resumed its study.

THS Grads Rate Tops At U Of M

(Editor's note: Janet and Jon are both sophomores at the U. of M. this year.)

ANN ARBOR—Two Tecumseh High School graduates are among the 252 freshmen in a University of Michigan program for superior students. This is one of the most select first-year groups in any of the nation's liberal arts colleges.

From Tecumseh are Janet Graham and Jon Cook.

The freshmen are among 906 students in the Honors Program of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts. Honor students form 10 per cent of the College's enrollment.

Test scores for Honors freshmen show medians above 670 and 680 on the verbal and mathematical portions of the College Board Scholastic Aptitude Test. Also, 70 per cent of the Honors freshmen ranked in the top fifth of their high school classes.

Coordinated by a council of all LSA units, the Program aims to enrich through indepth education.

Opportunities include regular courses, seminars, a summer reading program, special introductory courses, departmental honors programs for upperclassmen, and interdepartmental courses.

Entering its fifth year, the Program graduated its first class in June, including 25 Phi Beta Kappa and 38 Phi Kappa Phi members, 18 Woodrow Wilson Fellows, 12 National Science Foundation Fellows, one Danforth and one Marshall Fellowship winner.

Sam And Cy Capture $88 In Jackpot

Sam Whitney and Cy Baily clicked on the lanes of Airport Bowl Saturday.

The pair turned in a 1,368 total to capture $88 in first-prize money in the weekly Jackpot Doubles tournament.

Sam had 211, 227 and 190 actual pinfall. Cy turned in 145, 154 and 213. Sam carries a 154 average and Cy a 144.

This was the first time in the event, held for eight weeks so far, that the master jackpot has been won, explains Ray Zimmerman.

A team must hit at least 1,340 or better for the big prize.

Jackpot Doubles will continue each Saturday.

Mr. Zimmerman states that Jackpot Doubles was set up with low average bowlers in mind and last week's results certainly proved that point.

Keglers all roll at 75% of their regular league handicap.

Gal Bowler Gets 135, 135 And 135

Two members of the Woman's House League at Airport Bowl turned in some surprises recently.

Mrs. Louise Matheny of the United Products Workers Union team bowled games of 135, 135 and 135.

Mrs. Warren Peck tossed an all spare game of 176.

Mrs. Peck bowls on Ed's Bottle Gas team.

Both ladies said that they didn't realize what was happening until it was all over.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Creger and Karen were guests of Mrs. Martha Schultz in Adrian Thursday.

Our Airport Is Vital to Tecumseh

A few weeks back, we mentioned in an editorial that a firm almost came to Tecumseh, but at the last moment selected Clinton as a site for its new plant.

Tecumseh rated tops because of its airport, but finally lost out when someone said taxes here were too high.

We'd like to expand a little this week on one statement made in that editorial:

"The airstrip at Meyers Airport means a great deal more to the community than the average person realizes."

Did you know that almost daily two and three — sometimes half a dozen planes sit down in Tecumseh as their owners make business calls in the city?

On a recent day, seven out-of-town ships were spied next to the runway.

Included were three Bonanzas (worth $30,000 each), two 182 Cessnas (worth $25,000 each), an Apache (worth $40,000) and a 310 Cessna (worth $62,000).

This sort of flying is all business, a long way from the hobby class. Some firms that fly regularly into Meyer's have $75,000 invested in planes. Radio gear for these ships will cost up to $12,000.

It's easy to see that such planes need A-1 facilities on which to land and take off. In the local airstrip they have them.

The north-south concrete runway is 75 feet wide and 2,600 feet long. This can easily handle twin-engine ships in almost all types of visual landing and take-off conditions.

The strip was originally built in 1950 by Tecumseh Products Co., along with two hangars. The entire setup was later sold to Al Meyers at its cost, $15,000, when the Products decided it needed a larger air facility and built its present setup northeast of town.

Meyers Aircraft has maintained the area and allows free use of the runway. Some airports charge for landings, Detroit City (at $2 each), Cleveland Lakefront and Chicago Miegs being ones in this general area.

Landing fees to help defray maintenance costs, might be charged, but then an attendant is needed and the system would cost more to operate than it could bring in.

It's surprising the care a concrete strip requires. Cracks must be filled, general resurfacing is needed periodically, grass must be removed in openings between sections. During winter months snow has to be cleared off the runway.

Mr. Meyers petitioned the City Council for help for these chores about a year ago and he was granted a $900 tax consideration. This has helped, but there still are problems.

Council named a five-man airport committee to study all aspects of the situation. Chairman Bob Sage, R. D. Moore, Royal Welch, Dick Jacobs and E. R. Boynton have spent several months exploring all aspects of the local airport.

The committee will soon be coming up with some recommendations for the future.

It's a sure thing that one point will be—a first-rate airport is vital to the future of this community.

Apples Good to Kapnicks

Not just "to keep the doctor away," but since purchasing the Lewis Orchards in 1958, Charles and Janice have been able to expand the orchards and their housing facilities and salesrooms

Nov. 4 and 5 they served cider and doughnuts to some 1,800 people who attended the opening of their new salesroom on Roger's Hwy.

Mrs. Kapnick said that 145 dozen doughnuts were given away that Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Kapnick is a graduate of Michigan State University in agriculture. He enjoys his work and spends most of his time in the orchards.

Mrs. Kapnick likes to sew and is currently making a snow suit for 18-month-old Karen, oldest of the two little Kapnick girls. Sharon is three months.

The busy, bright-eyed housewife is planning to make a car coat for herself soon.

She does most of the grading and selling in the summer time and so is happy for the winter months when she can get out needle and thread.

The Kapnicks have been setting new varieties of fruit trees, recently planting 80 acres on Rogers Hwy. with peach trees, including "Sun Haven," "Rich Haven" and "Late Gold."

"Sun Haven" is a new July table peach, "Rich Haven" is a canning peach and "Late Gold" is an October peach that Mrs. K. says is "out of this world."

She adds, "We had the first ones this year and they are really sweet."

☆

A NEW Delicious apple variety that they will soon be marketing is called the Starkrimson.

Sweet cherries have been included in the planting. The Kapnicks plan to have luscious, black, crack-resistant varieties for people to pick in a few years.

Next year the couple plan to expand the facilities on Rogers Hwy. adding a packing shed and more refrigeration.

"Then we will be better able to serve the people with crisper apples all winter. You know, don't you," she continued, "that we have apples 12 months of the year."

Mrs. Seaman Packard talked about the history of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Kenneth Moon read "The First Thanksgiving Day."

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Glenn Rupp and Mrs. John Hartley.

Mrs. Robert Bonner will be hostess for the Christmas potluck dinner Dec. 18.

Seventh Graders Study History of Area, State

The term social studies includes a wide variety of subjects —history, geography, sociology, psychology, etc.

In Tecumseh Junior High School, two courses cover most of these areas. The social studies course is taught only to the seventh grade and is limited to geography and history.

The areas of sociology, psychology and vocations are studied in the group guidance courses taught in both seventh and eighth grade.

This article will review the seventh geography and history course.

During the first four weeks of school the boys and girls are introduced briefly to Tecumseh and Michigan historical backgrounds.

The remainder of the year is devoted to United States history and a rapid and comprehensive review of US geography.

History is a story of events and peoples.

This special importance is not placed on lists of dates, but rather on sequences of events.

The aim of the course is to impart knowledge, but even more important, to give a sense of pride of ownership in our country. Emphasis is placed on an analytical approach, studying mistakes as well as successes of national leaders and pointing out

"Most of us believe we are living in the best country in the world, but we have difficulty at times defining our belief. Social studies gives us the material to support this belief," states David Dick, junior high principal.

Seventh grade social studies is taught by Mrs. Joyce Costigan, Florence Smith and Mrs. Katherine Naser.

Edith Ingersoll To Review Book at DAR Session

Edith Ingersoll will review a book for members of the Abi-Evans Chapter of the DAR Friday, Dec. 8.

Mrs. Arthur Brown will be the hostess and Mrs. Neil Pearson, the leader of the meeting.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. Joe Rice, Mrs. Cecile Smith and Mrs. Roy Whiting.

SISTER AT THE KEYBOARD — When the seventh and eighth graders of St. Elizabeth School toured The Herald plant, their teacher, Sister Maureen Therese took a turn at the Linotype, much to the delight of the youngsters. It was Sister's first expedience as an operator.

St. Elizabeth Jottings

Thanksgiving always is fun.
Classes created appropriate sketches while other rooms memorized poems and pieces in honor of this festive occasion. Above all, everyone looked forward to the four vacation days—and the second piece of pumpkin pie.

Chris Dziachan

Geographical knowledge and artistic ability were shown this past week by the fourth graders in their maps of the United States in which mountains, rivers and other important factors were illustrated.

Sally Vaillancourt

Sixth graders have been anything but idle.

Paragraphs in English, flashcards in Arithmetic and discussions on the lowland countries in history have captured the eager sixth grade.

Sharon Boudrie

Members of the eighth grade class visited The Herald office recently.

There they saw a demonstration of machinery and the process entailed in the publication of Tecumseh's newspaper.

The tour proved to be most interesting and informative.

We of the eighth grade class would like to thank members of The Herald staff for their kindness.

Joanne Brion

They may be younger than some, but nevertheless the fourth graders are just as active as any other class of St. Elizabeth.

A religion dramitization on the Sacrament of Confirmation was presented by Don McVay, Robert Laidlaw, Dave Vaillancourt, Ricky Rohr, and Richard Lines.

WITH TECUMSEH TEENS

Everyone waddled back to school Monday after stuffing himself with lots of Thanksgiving turkey.

Although the four-day vacation was wonderful, most everyone was ready to get back to the "ole grind!"

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, 35 girls of high school age were initiated into the Future Nurses Club of Tecumseh High School.

Each initiate was required to repeat the club's pledge, after which she became an official member. Following the ceremony, cookies and punch were served to all members and their guests.

The club officers for this year are:

President—Mary Wing
Vice-president—Kathy Wagner
Secretary—Marilyn Johnson
Treasurer—Connie Schneider

A Basketball clinic was held in the gymnasium Friday night.

Its purpose was to acquaint basketball fans with the many important game rules which are often misinterpreted, by excited fans, during an actual game.

After the two officials, Fred Oberlin and Bill Warner explained the rules and regulations of this popular sport, the varsity basketball team illustrated them.

During the last 10 minutes of the program, team members staged an intra-squad game, giving those who were present, an idea of what to expect from Tecumseh's basketball team for the coming season.

Destroy Old Tabs, He Warns

Secretary of State James M. Hare warned Michigan drivers buying new license plates to destroy or mutilate their old, but still valid, license plates and tabs.

"The old green and gold plates with their 1961 tabs can be used until midnight on February 28, 1962," Hare said.

"When buyers of 1962 licenses mount their 1962 green and white plates they often fail to destroy their discarded license. Criminal elements in the community can pick up such plates, attach them to a vehicle, and steal the vehicle, use it for a joy ride, or use it in committing a crime."

Because the original owner doesn't know it is being misused, nobody reports the "missing number" and the police have difficulty in apprehending the thieves, or in checking out chiselers who may be using someone else's plates on an old jalopy for a free 100 days of no-fee driving.

General Telephone Given Authority To Raise Rates

The Michigan Public Service Commission has authorized General Telephone to increase its annual revenues by $2,478,000.

At the first public hearing on its application, the Company testified to a requirement of $4 million increased revenue.

At the second hearing, this figure was reduced to $3.2 million due to significant changes in revenue and expense factors in the interim.

General Telephone now serves 270,751 phones in Michigan through a service area that covers 34% of the area of the state.

Elks Perform for 2 Couples from Britton

BRITTON — Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rowlands spent Friday and Saturday in northern Michigan.

About dusk Friday evening, they saw five elk cross the road directly in front of them.

The elk were visible a short distance away in a thicket. Stopping the car, they waited a few moments and a cow elk came to the roadside paused looked the car over started to cross the road, paused again looked directly at the car and then into the thicket on the opposite side of the road and nonchalantly crossed and disappeared.

Three more cows followed one at a time and gracefully and cautiously crossed the road.

A few minutes later a huge bull elk stood by the roadside looked and waited, wandered to the center of the roadway paused, looked directly at the car with his 12-point rack clearly visible and then proceeded gracefully on his way.

The Palmers and the Rowlands feel they were fortunate to see the elk as they talked to a few natives of the area and they have yet to see an elk in their natural habitat.

According to the Conservation Department, seven elk were released in the Pigeon River State Forest in Otsego County in 1918.

The herd has grown to several hundred and are a protected animal with a $1,000 fine for shooting one.

That evening they saw a 900-pound bull elk hanging in a pena, the elk was displayed to show the hunters the difference between a bull elk and a buck deer.

There have been at least three elk killed in the area this hunting season.

The ballerina skirt of layers of tulle was trimmed with lace banding in point effect.

Her veil of illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins.

She carried a bouquet of gardenias and yellow roses with miniature ivy.

Jean Linn, the bride's twin sister, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Bateman, sister of the groom, and Kay Spohr, cousin of the groom.

All wore identical sheath gowns of emerald green crystal satin with overskirts. Their pearl earrings and white gloves were gifts of the bride.

Patti Taylor was the flower girl carrying a wicker basket of yellow and white chrysanthemums with pieces of fern.

Larry Wagner was the best man and guests were seated by Richard Linn, brother of the bride, of Clearwater, Fla. and Ron Richards.

About 350 guests attended the reception held at the Britton-Macon school cafeteria.

Those assisting were Kathleen Condit, Barbara Kitson, Mrs. Larry Horn, Kathleen Studnick, Barbara Rodesler, Mrs. Charles Spillman. Mrs. Gale Smith, Nancy Brown, Mrs. Henry McCarbery, San Dee Bailey, Esther Davila, Donna Welker and Gloria Hummel.

Sewage Found Seeping into Evans Creek

By TOM RIORDAN

Water from Evans Creek is being analyzed this week in the Michigan Department of Health laboratory.

Samples were taken Wednesday by Lenawee County Health Sanitarian David Dennis and his assistant, Peter Hine.

The analysis is being made at the request of City Manager Ed Nelson, following a report to Council Monday night by Police Chief Murel Clark.

Chief Clark told Councilmen that he had made a trip, accompanied by this reporter, along Evans Creek Friday to see if sewage was being dumped into it.

The chief discovered five instances of this between N. Union St. and N. Evans St., at three homes on Iroquois St., another on Evans St. and a combination store and residence on Evans.

In all cases, over-flow pipes from septic tanks were allowing wastes to seep onto the Creek bank.

The chief's inspection trip was prompted by a report, which first reached The Herald. It came from a citizen, who wondered if there could be a tie-in between this and local cases of Hepatitis, a disease which affects the liver.

The Herald had earlier querried County Health Director Dr. Eleanore Skufis to determine if there was an outbreak of Hepatitis here. She said an average number of cases had been reported, but nothing alarming.

Her office this fall has recorded 31 cases in Lenawee, 11 of these being in the Tecumseh area and five from the Britton area. Last year at this time the county total was 22.

Dr. Skufis pointed out that in Monroe and Washtenaw counties there will be this many cases reported in one week.

Hepatitis, sometimes in mild cases mistaken for flu, is a virus. Symptoms include severe headaches, nausea, high fever, heavy fatigue and mental de-

Caddy Cart Will Bring Santa Here

Stanta Claus will arrive in Tecumseh Friday afternoon—in, of all things, a caddy cart.

He is scheduled to hit the west end of town about 4 p.m. and then proceed down Chicago Blvd. to the main Four Corners.

His cart to be accompanied by several other vehicles, will be met by the Tecumseh High School band at Union St.

Anyone wishing to join the line of march should be at Wilson Motor Sales at 3:45 p.m.

Santa will stay downtown Friday until 7 p.m. He'll return again Saturday from 1 to 7 p.m.

Then business will take him back to the North Pole for a week, but he'll return to be in Tecumseh Friday Dec. 15, and each day until Dec. 23 from 1 to 7 p.m.

Open Two Saturdays

The Tecumseh post office will be open for business Saturday, Dec. 9, and Saturday, Dec. 16, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Jack Metcalf, postmaster, said, "Please take advantage of this to mail packages and purchase stamps."

TOM RIORDAN'S Long AND Short

The audience howled.

Professional magicians seldom get such cheers—and these were first-time amateurs performing.

This was magic night for Cub Scout Pack 4.

It was my first pack session and I'll have to admit to having trepridations about going.

One of the Cub Scout "musts" is to have parents attend meetings. St. Elizabeth's auditorium was full of mothers and fathers, along with a few little brothers and sisters.

Everyone got a bang out of:

► One Cub making a glass of water disappear. (He drank it.)

► The Cub telling the Swami he wanted his palm read. ("Close your eyes," said the Swami, who then stroked the lad's hand with a red paint brush.)

► A Cub being sawed in half and then restored to good health (When he slid back out of the box, "his feet" forgot to move and were still in plain sight when the victim stood up to take a bow.)

The acts were surprisingly well done, with just about every one in costume.

This is a credit to those hard-working gals known as the Den mothers. They deserve a tremendous amount of credit for the work they do with their bouncing charges.

How can you put eight or 10 boys in one place and not have

What happens when a lower grade goes on half days?

This year, all Tecumseh District first grades did and it has meant condensing all academic efforts into a morning session.

Eliminated were art, singing and other "non-vital" activities of the primary grades.

Some may say "That's just fine."

But not educators. They feel that these things can be as important to the over-all development of a child as learning numbers and letters.

Last month, Supt. James McDowell invited first-grade parents from all parts of the district to a meeting where he explained this thinking.

He suggested that parents might wish to work out a weekly program in which first-graders would get singing, art and other items.

Raymond Jackson, Tipton PTA president, said that his area would be glad to give the idea a try.

☆

IN SHORT ORDER, Mr. Jackson and Tipton Principal Mrs. Albert Tonneberger, gathered moms and dads of first graders, along with the PTA executive group, to see if they agreed.

The plan got immediate approval from 31 of 32 families.

Since the Tipton multi-purpose room was not used all day Wednesday, the group decided Wednesday afternoon would be an ideal time for the session.

The PTA agreed to furnish crayons, paste and drawing paper.

The children ride the bus from the Herrick Park School to Tipton, where volunteers become responsible for five or six children each.

☆

ALL parents who did not attend the meeting were notified preceding the first session and with one exception all agreed that they felt that the children would benefit from such a program.

All mothers except those with illness in the home offered to help.

Mrs. Frank Crosby was appointed chairman. Mrs. Raymond Platt Agreed to teach the children music.

These have been reused each time because a new group of mothers is teaching.

The children toured the building, visiting the library, locating the rest rooms and viewing the display cases.

A nature film on deer was presented, followed by musical games and art work employing the use of scissors and crayons or colored paper.

At the second session a "Show and Tell" time was held. Students decorated paper plates with cornucopia, fruits and vegetables cut from colored paper. A story time closed the session.

Mrs. Warren Wardwell offered to care for others small children in her home while the mothers worked at the school.

Mrs. Raymond Buell and Mrs. Willis Davenport, though they do not have first grade students, have also offered their services.

Mrs. Robert Jones provided portable bulletin boards.

The bulletin boards are a valuable added teaching help because the gym where the children gather has none. These can be easily removed after the sessions and stored.

Mrs. Crosby expressed gratitude to Mrs. Tonneberger and Mrs. John Jones, fifth grade teacher and PTA teacher, vice-president.

She said that they have been most helpful in supplying needed equipment, such as scissors, pins, thumb tacks.

Early Yule Gifts for Tax Payers: Tardy Tax Bills

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh and nearby township residents may not have to pay their property or winter taxes until March 1.

City Clerk Naomi Sallows told Councilmen Monday night that it may not be possible to get tax bills out until when taxes are normally due, Jan. 20.

Tax bills usually are sent to property owners on Dec. 1.

Taxes are likely to be higher here since Adrian's appeal to the State Tax Commission, that new and lower appraisal figures be used is likely to be OKed in part.

A resolution from the city was approved for presentation by City Attorney James Beardsley at the scheduled Dec. 6 hearing between the commission and the county apportionment committee.

The resolution pointed out that there were approximately 50 Tecumseh homes in mortgage foreclosure, the area is equally depressed as Adrian, and other disclosures prohibitive for a tax increase here.

If Adrian's taxes are lowered, the rest of the county must absorb the difference to equal the state's equalized figures for the county.

When local tax bills will be sent is yet to be determined. Discussion by Councilmen indicated that residents would be given about 50 days or about the same time allowed when bills are sent out Dec. 1.

THS Hem Lines Drop

A crackdown on short skirts at Tecumseh High School can result in students being placed on probation.

Neville Hart explained to students Friday that many girls were wearing skirts so short they were indecent.

He said that beginning this week the hemline of skirts must reach mid-knee.

While on probation, a student may not attend any school function, including basketball games pep meetings, club sessions and the regular school dances.

Several parents called Mr. Hart when they learned of the mid-knee decree Friday and congratulated him on his action.

The THS code of dress affects every member of the student body in an effort to have all young men and women attending the high school look decent at all times, Mr. Hart points out.

For the girls, this means no slacks or bermuda shorts. (This rule is identical to those enforced at several colleges, including Michigan State and Eastern Michigan.)

For the boys, there can be no T-shirts, there must be belts on pants and their hair must be cut regularly.

In explaining the crackdown on skirts last week, Mr. Hart told students that girls must maintain decent and modest appearance at all times.

Mr. Hart told The Herald that the situation was "getting to a point of indecent exposure" in the classrooms and study hall.

Councilmen Deadlock on Issue

A 3-3 tie vote was cast Monday night by Council regarding the sale of an acre of city property east of the hospital to three local doctors for a medical building.

The doctors — Carlton Cook, Richard Coak, Harold Ocamb — have attempted to buy, or lease, the property for several months.

Monday night, the doctors told Councilmen they were interested in buying and offered two acres of privately-owned property, at the corner of Herrick Park Dr. and N. Maumee St., plus an additional $1,500.

Although Councilman John Hamilton and Robert Bonner and Mayor Harold Easton voted against selling, Mr. Hamilton and Mayor Easton said they preferred selling, but wanted time to check the doctors' offer, particularly the property being offered to the city.

Councilmen Royal Welch, Terry Mackin and Carl Lamb were for accepting the offer.

Council Art Schwartz was absent.

Council expects to act on the offer at the Dec. 18 meeting.

Long & Short

a lot of good-natured jump?

But through it all, the Den moms get the message across and the results—as with the magic show—are pretty wonderful.

Each Cub has a handbook, which is loaded with do-it-yourself ideas. Our own little Cub spends many happy hours pouring over his and I imagine this is typical among the boys.

This is my salute to the Cub Scout program and especially to the many moms and dads who make it come alive.

My little sortie against one Woodrow Wilson Hayes last week brought several comments.

Included was this cute note from an Ohio State fanatic, whom I shall not identify.

"Would you have felt any better if Ohio State had but 49 rather than 50 points in their resounding victory over the University of Michigan?

"There is no question that Woody Hayes could have kept the score down by going for one point instead of two after that final touchdown.

"Perhaps he could have avoided another TD too. Woody could have insisted that halfback Paul Warfield stop and help Mr. McLenna to his feet after the latter was victimized by a perfect fake —faked to the seat of his pants.

"Such a gesture would have brought the score down to 42-20.

"Ohio State would have still emerged the victor, but by a more sporting score—and, unlike the 58-7 lambasting Michigan gave Ohio State in 1947."

Guess we've seen the last of Bootin's Pussy.

A card in Monday's mail was post-marked Washington, D.C.

"Tell the folks in Tecumseh goodbye for me. I'm now on special assignment with JFK. When Project X failed against Adrian, I decided I'd better get on to more serious things. Love to all."

This picture accompanied the card.

Farmers Kill Dogs Which Attack Sheep

Eight dogs, which have been killing sheep north of the city, were destroyed by farmers during the past week.

One was killed after being caught in a small game trap at the Tom Murphy farm on Allen Rd.

The farm was raided again Friday evening when a small white dog, with brown spots, slipped into the barn through a tiny opening.

Mr. Allen saw the animal escape.

He said he was amazed to find that the canine had tore flesh off of one large ewe and ripped a chunk out of another.

Herald Society Editor

It's the little thing that counts.

The oft-repeated saying rang true in The Herald office as we enjoyed a post card from Mrs. George Adamson in Douglas Arizona.

A large Indian beating a tom tom was on the face of the card while the message read,

"Sending you an Indian with glad tidings — Herald comes through in perfect condition since enclosing in envelope. Wonderful improvemnt."

Mrs. Adamson referred to the new envelopes used to mail The Herald to out-of-town subscribers.

Now our readers in distant locations no longer need sit, stand and stomp on the paper in order to uncurl it so that it may be read.

The staff of The Herald is happy to have pleased subscribers and appreciate Mrs. Adamson's thoughtfulness in writing.

MRS. GARY EDWARDS

Peggy Robinette Gary Edwards Exchange Vows

Peggy Robinette and Gary Edwards were united in marriage Saturday at the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church by the Rev. Laszlo Gero.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinette, 505 S. Pearl St.

Yellow, white and orchid carnations and pompoms filled the altar vases for the ceremony.

Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

The bride's sisters, Karen and Connie, were the maid-of-honor and the bridesmaid, respectively.

Judy Milosh, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

Delton LaGore was best man and the guests were seated by Tom Norris and Duane Oswald.

A reception for 65 was held at the VFW hall where a wedding cake made by the bride's mother was featured.

The bride is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is presently a member of the United States Army.

The couple are returning to Denver, Col. to make their home.

SEEPING SEWAGE

pression. The skin becomes yellowish after several weeks.

"Hepatitis virus thrives on human liver, producing an acute inflamation," the Saturday Evening Post reported in a July 15 article about the disease and the current search for a Hepatitis vaccine.

At present, gamma globulin is the only deterrent and this offers protection for a limited period of time.

The virus is known to be transmitted through human wastes. Septic tanks are prime suspects, where possible seepage from them might reach a drinking water supply.

Persons touching virus-contaminated water can also pick up the disease.

Dr. Skufis states that so far the 11 Hepatitis cases around there is no correlation among Tecumseh — no apparent single factor where or how the victim got Hepatitis.

A check of Creek water was made last summer by Ken Kornow, sewage plant operator, and found to be extremely low in bacteria count.

☆

HOW IS IT that septic tanks are in use in the central part of the city?

It happens that these residences are located on land too low to reach existing sewer line. The city gave owners permission to use septic tanks.

Eventually, the homes will be tied into the city's system when the proposed 15-inch intercepter line, which will follow the bed of Evans Creek, is installed.

This line will run from the present lift station at W. Chicago Blvd. and Sunset Dr. (across from Wegner's Market), to the Maumee St. bridge (north of the high school) and then to the sewage treatment plant.

This line will probably cost between $50,000 and $60,000, estimates City Engineer Carl Zorn.

The lift station, which has two pumps and an exhaust fan and requires daily inspection, could be eliminated when the creek-bed line is installed.

The city has been making steady progress in its sewer-building project. Homes in the Tecumseh Acres area have been getting prime attention in recent years and last summer another section was completed along Russell Rd.

At present, all but Orchard Lane now has sewers in the Tecumseh Acres subdivision.

When the new Maumee St. bridge was built, Mr. Zorn states, a section of 21-inch pipe was installed beneath it as the first link in the creek-bed line.

Patient Keeps Busy, Earns Cash

This sign was taped to a door at Herrick Memorial Hospital last week:

"Free-Hand drawn pictures for sale, 10c"

It attracted considerable attention.

Inside, comfortably sketching was Fred Randall, 13, an eighth grader from Manchester.

ONE OF FRED'S FREE-HAND SKETCHES

Fred was recovering from a bout of pneumonia.

His work, extremely well-done, was arrayed next to his bed. Several of the drawings were tagged "saved", meaning customers had already spoken for them.

With no training, Fred is a self-made artist. He can copy most any sketch he sees in the funny paper or in magazines.

He greatly enlarges the work (note drawing Fred did of Fred Flintstone), keeping it in proper proportion.

After the outlines are complete, Fred carefully colors his effort.

When visited by The Herald, Fred had already sold eight pictures and hoped to clear out his gallery by the time he was to leave.

Credit for this story idea goes to Mrs. Harold Warren, 1203 W. Russell Rd., who spied Fred at work while visiting the hospital.

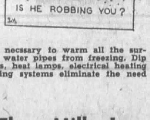
DON'T "KICK OFF" A MASTITIS CASE. Losses occurring from mastitis alone cost dairymen an average of $19.30 per cow each year. Practice good sanitation and milking procedures and avoid any misuse to the cows. Should mastitis occur, call your veterinarian to make a complete herd checkup. He can determine which mastitis organism is present and prescribe a control program for that particular type. Those being treated for mastitis should be milked last.

APPLY SOIL INSECTICIDES THIS WINTER if conditions permit! getting on the fields. Soil insecticides such as heptachlor and aldrin have proven to be just as effective in controlling soil insects when applied during the winter as in the spring. There's no need to disk them into the soil. Freezing and thawing will do that for you by next spring. Applying insecticides now can help ease the rush next spring.

POULTRY LICE COST YOU MONEY. Production of hens with lice often shows a decline of 10% or higher. An Iowa study recorded a 15% loss in egg production over a 14-week period. The longer birds go untreated, the larger will be the losses. During the first month losses are slight. But after that, the lice population increases rapidly. You can effectively use a 4% malathion dust applied to the nesting material and litter if lice are present in your flock.



SAVE ON YOUR HEAT BILL. It isn't necessary to warm all the surrounding air to keep engines warm or water pipes from freezing. Dip stick electrical heaters for oil reservoirs, heat lamps, electrical heating tape and heating units which fit cooling systems eliminate the need for this.

By NANCY NIXON

Tecumseh High School Students Council played host to student councils of all schools belonging to the Huron League last week.

The main purpose of this annual meeting is to improve intra-league relationships, in order to make more enjoyable the many contests which are held between members of the league.

Among many things discussed was the topic concerning the sportsmanship trophy, which is awarded to the student body that exhibits the best sportsmanship.

Last year, although the trophy was only on a trial basis, it was acknowledged that Tecumseh had shown the most favorable sportsmanship towards other schools.

This acomplishment is something of which THS can be extremely proud. It was decided at this meeting that the trophy had passed its "trial" and would be put into effect this year.

Cubs Take Off Shirts Hard Way

Cubmaster Lothair Hardesty conducted the meeting of Cub Pack No. 72 Nov. 28 at Herrick Park school when the Cubs entertained their parents with a magic night.

Among the tricks presented by members of the various dens were:

1. Tommy Smith and Craig Damon demonstrating the removal of their shirts without taking off their coats.

2. Gary Warner changing an orange into an apple.

3. Several Cubs demonstrating rope tricks.

Cubs and parents were encouraged by Cubmaster Hardesty to complete their achievements as awards will be presented at the next meeting.

It will also be a Christmas party.

Art Students Paint Scene On Windows

Five students of Mrs. John Westdyke's Tecumseh High School art class have decorated The Herald's front windows with a colorful Christmas scene.

The girls volunteered to do the job with The Herald paying for materials.

They spent most of Saturday to complete the life-size figures.

Working on the effort were Marielle Lugard, a senior; and Brenda Staup, Bonnie Kempf, Linda Callihan and Susie Whitney, sophomores.

The girls used soap to make outlines of the figures on the outside of the windows and then painted from the inside.

The scene shows the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph with the Infant as Wise Men and a shepherd boy, holding a lamb, stand in the background. Another shepherd appears on an adjoining window with a star painted over the main entrance.

The girls said they would be interested in decorating other downtown store windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bale were guests of Marilyn Whelan in Flint Sunday.

THS Quintet Opens Season with Victory

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh opened the 1961-'62 basketball season on a winning note last Friday night with a 10-point margin over visiting Dundee, 38-28.

John Britton, top Indian scorer last year, gave indications that he'll again pace Tecumseh in the scoring column with 16 points.

Neither team was hot in the opener, in fact, neither team was even luke warm.

Dundee did slightly better with 11 field goals for the game and thereby accounting for 22 of its 28 points from the floor.

The Indians salvaged the game from the free throw line and took advantage of 41 attempts, hitting on 24. The Vikings, making far fewer trips to the foul line, connected on six of 12 attempts.

☆

COACH DOUG MURDOCH has his work cut out for him if the Indians are to reach a respectable season mark. In today's era of basketball, Tecumseh has no height with no starter over the six-foot mark.

Lack of height coupled with inability to hit from the field usually insures a "long" season.

Several members of the starting five had numerous excellent shots, from 15 feet in, and missed repeatedly. Against a better opponent, these miscues would have been fatal.

An indication of the futility from the field is the fact Tecumseh tallied two of its goals in the wanning seconds when Dundee went into a full court press and twice left their opponents unguarded under the bucket.

The Indians, perhaps, should not be judged by one game, especially the opener. Murdoch had his five hustling, and a bit of hustle in some close games will pay off with a victory.

The coach can't shoot for his team, and shooting in the opener was a glaring weakness.

The Indians travel to Flat Rock this Friday night in hopes to make the host five their second Huron League victim.

Another Ford Econoline

We've just delivered another Ford Econoline. This one went to Fred Hartwig, Tecumseh Servicemaster agent. Fred's business includes furniture, carpet and wall cleaning. It requires a variety of equipment and the Ford Econoline fits the bill perfectly for Fred, who can get to his gear either from the big wide side doors or through the equally roomy convenient back doors. Fred tells us his Econoline drives beautifully — and this is a statement with which we'll readily agree. If your business requires deliveries or the constant movement of equipment, a good look at the Ford Econoline is in order. We'd be pleased if you'd take one of our models for a test spin.

Tecumseh High School Students Council played host to student councils of all schools belonging to the Huron League last week.

The main purpose of this annual meeting is to improve intra-league relationships, in order to make more enjoyable the many contests which are held between members of the league.

Among many things discussed was the topic concerning the sportsmanship trophy, which is awarded to the student body that exhibits the best sportsmanship.

Last year, although the trophy was only on a trial basis, it was acknowledged that Tecumseh had shown the most favorable sportsmanship towards other schools.

This acomplishment is something of which THS can be extremely proud. It was decided at this meeting that the trophy had passed its "trial" and would be put into effect this year.

Cubs Take Off Shirts Hard Way

Cubmaster Lothair Hardesty conducted the meeting of Cub Pack No. 72 Nov. 28 at Herrick Park school when the Cubs entertained their parents with a magic night.

Among the tricks presented by members of the various dens were:

1. Tommy Smith and Craig Damon demonstrating the removal of their shirts without taking off their coats.

2. Gary Warner changing an orange into an apple.

3. Several Cubs demonstrating rope tricks.

Cubs and parents were encouraged by Cubmaster Hardesty to complete their achievements as awards will be presented at the next meeting.

It will also be a Christmas party.

Art Students Paint Scene On Windows

Five students of Mrs. John Westdyke's Tecumseh High School art class have decorated The Herald's front windows with a colorful Christmas scene.

The girls volunteered to do the job with The Herald paying for materials.

They spent most of Saturday to complete the life-size figures.

The girls used soap to make outlines of the figures on the outside of the windows and then painted from the inside.

The scene shows the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph with the Infant as Wise Men and a shepherd boy, holding a lamb, stand in the background. Another shepherd appears on an adjoining window with a star painted over the main entrance.

The girls said they would be interested in decorating other downtown store windows.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Whelan and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bale were guests of Marilyn Whelan in Flint Sunday.

THS Quintet Opens Season with Victory

By JIM LINCOLN

Tecumseh opened the 1961-'62 basketball season on a winning note last Friday night with a 10-point margin over visiting Dundee, 38-28.

John Britton, top Indian scorer last year, gave indications that he'll again pace Tecumseh in the scoring column with 16 points.

Neither team was hot in the opener, in fact, neither team was even luke warm.

Dundee did slightly better with 11 field goals for the game and thereby accounting for 22 of its 28 points from the floor.

The Indians salvaged the game from the free throw line and took advantage of 41 attempts, hitting on 24. The Vikings, making far fewer trips to the foul line, connected on six of 12 attempts.

☆

COACH DOUG MURDOCH has his work cut out for him if the Indians are to reach a respectable season mark. In today's era of basketball, Tecumseh has no height with no starter over the six-foot mark.

Lack of height coupled with inability to hit from the field usually insures a "long" season.

Several members of the starting five had numerous excellent shots, from 15 feet in, and missed repeatedly. Against a better opponent, these miscues would have been fatal.

An indication of the futility from the field is the fact Tecumseh tallied two of its goals in the wanning seconds when Dundee went into a full court press and twice left their opponents unguarded under the bucket.

The Indians, perhaps, should not be judged by one game, especially the opener. Murdoch had his five hustling, and a bit of hustle in some close games will pay off with a victory.

The Indians travel to Flat Rock this Friday night in hopes to make the host five their second Huron League victim.

JIM FINCH, PRESIDENT OF TECUMSEH MOTOR SALES WITH FRED HARTWIG AND HIS NEW FORD ECONOLINE

Another Ford Econoline

We've just delivered another Ford Econoline. This one went to Fred Hartwig, Tecumseh Servicemaster agent. Fred's business includes furniture, carpet and wall cleaning. It requires a variety of equipment and the Ford Econoline fits the bill perfectly for Fred, who can get to his gear either from the big wide side doors or through the equally roomy convenient back doors. Fred tells us his Econoline drives beautifully — and this is a statement with which we'll readily agree. If your business requires deliveries or the constant movement of equipment, a good look at the Ford Econoline is in order. We'd be pleased if you'd take one of our models for a test spin.

VOICE of THE HERALD

A Generous Offer

Whether three local doctors will be able to buy one acre of city property near the hospital for a new medical office will be determined Dec. 18.

City Council will vote again on this date. A motion to sell Monday night resulted in a 3-3 tie.

The apparent problem is whether the city should or should not sell and whether to accept the doctors' offer.

The city is by far the largest property owner in the community and probably always will be. In fact at the present, the city manager remarked that the city has more property than it can take care of.

The doctors offered two acres of privately-owned property for the city's one acre, plus $1,500. The city would be gaining one acre plus $1,500.

If anything, the doctors have made an extremely generous offer and Council should accept it.

THS COUNSELING

Parents Play Vital Role in Program

This is the sixth year that Tecumseh High School has had an organized guidance and counseling department.

Its staff consists of director John Pobuda, Mrs. Barbara Speerstra and James Hoffman.

Mrs. Spreestra has four hours of assigned time for guidance and counseling and Mr. Hoffman has one hour.

The counselors perform many unique services for 745 Tecumseh High School students.

In order to carry out their wide variety of work, the counselors must have graduate training beyond the work necessary for teacher certification.

They need an educational background in the behaviorial and social sciences, biological sciences and humanities. The counselors must also have a thorough understanding of schools and the processes of education.

Other talents include knowledge and competence in counseling theory and counseling practices.

Services offered cover all aspects of his high school career and are aimed to assist the student in making the most of his education in line with his interests, objectives and abilities.

☆

COUNSELING is one of the basic services performed by the guidance staff. In Tecumseh High School the aim is to reach each student on a one to one or counselor-student basis.

The first contact that the student has with the high school counseling staff comes during the "orientation for senior high school" process which is conducted in the eighth grade.

It is during this orientation process that the student and his parents receive information regarding the programs offered by Tecumseh High School.

By this time the eighth grade student has taken the California Achievement Test Battery, the Algebra Aptitude Test, the California Test of Mental Maturity and the Foreign Language Prognostic Test.

The results are interpreted to the students. Using the student's educational objectives, vocational interests, past academic records and test scores, the counseling staff assists the student and his parents in selecting his "tentative four year" high school program.

PROGRAMS offered by THS are:

- Agriculture
- Industrial Arts
- Homemaking
- Business
- College preparatory
- General

Each student, while being enrolled for the sophomore, junior, and senior years has the opportunity to make adjustments in this tentative four-year program.

Tecumseh High School's staff feels that mothers and fathers, who have the responsibility of seeing that sons or daughters takes advantage of the educational opportunities being offered, play an important role in the program and course selection.

Therefore, the signature of a parent is required for all enrollment, re-enrollment and schedule changes.

After the counseling process is completed, the tentative four year programs are sent to the principal's office for class scheduling.

MR. AND MRS. FORD MUDGETT WITH THEIR BROOD OF NINE HEALTHY, HAPPY LITTLE MUDGETTS

Eyes of Youths Sparkle

The eyes of nine youngsters are sparkling!

Christmas is coming to the Ford Mudgett family — starting much earlier this year.

Decorations and ornaments have been taken out of the storage boxes since Mrs. Mudgett is getting ready for the Holiday Tour of homes sponsored by St. Elizabeth's Rosary Altar Society.

When Mrs. Mudgett graciously consented to open her home for church fund-raising, the thought of all the preparation necessary didn't bother her at all.

She knew that she would have plenty of help.

In charge of various annual Christmas duties such as decorating the tree, setting up the manger scene in their recreation room and hanging up their stockings (only six are personalized) are Margaret Jane's nine lively young assistants.

They are Julie Anne, 13; Mary Therese, 12; Michael Peter, 11; Charles Sage, 9; Irene, 8; Christopher, 7; Elizabeth, 5; Laurenda, 4; Margaret Jane, 1½.

The 12-room country home on Pennington Rd., near Macon, underwent extensive remodeling in 1951 and 1959 when a recreation room was added and the original kitchen doubled.

The functional aspect of modern architecture and furniture lends itself to the numerous Mudgett activities.

Many built-ins are featured in the 20 by 40 living room and in the spacious dining room. Modern Christmas decorations with gold predominating will be seen throughout the house.

Altar Society women will serve tea at the Mudgett residence. Six young Mudgett ladies will either be at home or just home from school.

The young men will not be present since they will be in school at Hall of the Divine Child in Monroe.

The St. Elizabeth event will be Thursday, Dec. 14, from 3 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Also opening their homes for the tour will be Mrs. Paul Claudia, Mrs. Robert Mohr and Mrs. Elmer Spreeman.

Mrs. Karl Schneider is chairman and Mrs. William Miller, co-chairman. Mrs. Morgan Ford will handle tea arrangements.

Tickets may be obtained at each home on the tour or from any member of the Altar Rosary Society.

Baptist Ladies Meeting Friday

The Baptist Women's Day of Prayer was held Friday, Dec. 1, from 9:30 until 10:30 p.m.

Mrs. Floyd Bryan was presented the program entitled, "Think On These Things." Mary Snedecor was in charge of the brunch.

What If Bomb Hit?

(Editor's note: There is considerable comment at present regarding the super H-Bombs. Joe Rice, 310 W. Logan St., who is one of Tecumseh's Civil Defense leaders, prepared the following article based on information he gathered at a recent lecture by State Police).

By JOE RICE
Tecumseh Civil Defense

Destructive power of a 20 megaton bomb—20 million tons of TNT—is broken down into four concentric rings starting with a five mile radius from ground zero.

Each ring is five miles wide.

Second ring: frame building destroyed, pipe lines, concrete buildings and highways severely damaged, streets impassable. 65% of population killed.

Third ring: buildings badly damaged, elevated tanks destroyed, many highways blocked, some vehicles useable 30% of population killed.

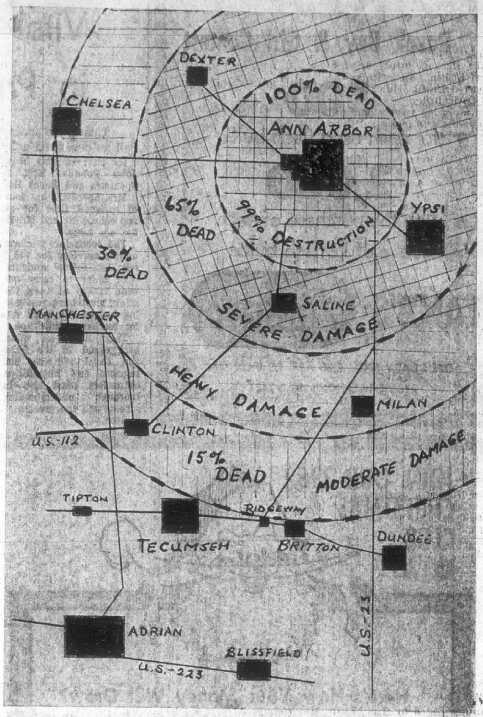
Fourth ring: buildings will be in need of much repair, some highways blocked, most vehicles will be useable. 10 to 15% of population will be killed.

Some authorities say the fourth ring will extend many miles beyond the arbitary five-mile ring with heavy damage from broken glass and ignition of such combustable materials as window curtains and draperies.

The power of a 50 megaton bomb has been described by army sources as follows:

"A 50 MT bomb exploded at a height of 30 miles midway between New York and Philadelphia would completely destroy both cities."

Translated into local terms this would mean that such a bomb exploded midway between Detroit and Toledo, possibly over Monroe, would destroy everything between Pontiac and Sandusky, Ohio, including Fayette, Hudson, Cement City and Brighton on the west., with very extensive damage outside this area in all directions.



THIS WOULD BE RESULT IF H-BOMB HIT ANN ARBOR

Girl Scouts Make Plans

Six girls and five committee women were served refreshments by Pat Rutherford.

The troop made plans to assist with the Senior Capping Ceremony Dec. 5, to attend worship service at the Methodist Church and then go to the Toledo Art Museum Dec. 17.

They also decided to have their Christmas party at the Scout Cabin and go caroling Dec. 23 and make cookies and candles for Christmas boxes for the needy.

Principal Helps

Neville Hart, principal of Tecumseh High School, was invited by the University of Michigan to be a member of an accreditation team at the Ann Arbor High School last Wednesday.

Dear Mr. Martin:

Thanks for asking me if my battery was over two years old. It was! And you saved me $17 on a new Gambles Varcon Battery when you issued me my discount savings card. I never knew it was possible to get an original equipment capacity battery at such big savings.

St. Elizabeth JOTTINGS

Mrs. Thomas Riordan's second grade students are becoming young weathermen.

They have drawn the calendar for December. As each day goes by, they add a symbol designating the kind of weather for that day.

For example, a minute cloud is used for a cloudy day and an umbrella for a rainy day.

We are sure the weather calendars will be a great success.

Eighth graders have built a small altar which is 36 x 40 inches.

It includes everything needed for a Mass — vestments, altar cloths, chalice, tabernacle, etc.

The purpose of the altar is to aid the students in their study of the Mass. It is believed that they can learn better by actually participating in the Mass with the newly-constructed altar.

Michael Wykes

√

The sisters received bushels of food for Thanksgiving. Baked and canned goods, soap, etc. were all donated by the parishioners for their sisters' use.

It was the annual Altar Society Pantry shower.

I'm a litterbug. Would you like to join my club?

I leave books and papers all over the place and nexer even think when I toss my candy and gum wrappers away.

The dues are very simple: one littered classroom every month.

In a way, I hope you don't join my club because I'm running out of membership cards. Besides, I'm reforming.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Stone masons are finished laying brick and mortar for the new dining hall, but the roof is not yet on, and the Feb. 1 deadline seems to be rushing forward.

Intramural football season came to an end a couple of weeks ago.

The Lions, led by Charlie "Red" Kramer finished on top of the senior league with a 10-2-0 record.

Charlie's dead-eye passing coupled with the speedy ends on the Lion team gave them the championship.

The Rams, led by Dave Mason, were right behind the Lions with a 9-3-0 record. The final week of competition was the rough one.

The Lions had lost their second game to the third-place Colts, 18-13. The Colts were trying for a tie for second place with the Rams after beginning the first weeks of the season in last place. The Colts eventually came in third with an 8-4-0 record.

In the junior league, the Eagles, directed by Richard Cowan, overcame everyone for first place.

On honor day in June, all boys who were on a first-place team in intramurals will receive emblems.

An intramural basketball schedule is being set up by Brother Charles Mack, CSC intramural coordinator. There promises to be as much interest and action in the hoop contests as in football.

Last Monday found the Boysville boys back from their annual Thanksgiving vacation.

Mid-quarter exams to come soon have stimulated the boys to settle down to the books again. The advent of the Christmas vacation, however, has not faded completely from view.

The boys are now waiting for the ice on the pond to become thick enough to skate on.

Many boys are ardent hockey fans. Quite a few brought equipment back with them from the Thanksgiving holiday and are ready to push the old puck around.

Several, while not hockey enthusiasts, do enjoy skating, and they too are looking forward to many pleasant hours on the ice.

...The Fighting Knights lost their opening basketball game Friday night to the Bulldogs of Summerfield, 45-28.

Both teams had a tough time getting started, the score at the half being 18-7 in favor of Summerfield.

The Knights just couldn't find the range, although they worked the ball well enough.

The Boysville team is brand new. All last year's starters either graduated or did not return to Boysville last fall.

Only four of the varsity members were on last year's team. So, experience is lacking along with height.

This year's varsity starters come from the senior, junior, sophomore and freshman classes, giving a wide representation on the team.

Practice this week has been underlining rebounding, which was not as good as it should have been last week.

This year's varsity team has five seniors on it: Mike Carter, Dave Klavon, Tony McFarr, Joe Jaworski and Gary Koscielski. Koscielski did not see action last week because of an injured hand.

Friday evening the Boysville team plays host to the Toris of Britton, always tough on the court. The tall Tories split with the Knights last season.

In last Friday's Junior Varsity game, Boysville lost to Summerfield's juniors, 51-21.

December 8, feast of the Immaculate Conception, will be a free day at Boysville.

Such days off are always eagerly anticipated by the boys and enjoyed when they arrive as welcome respites from the routine of school life.

My Neighbors

"You wash — and I'll wipe"

Marda Gene Duncan's

THROUGH MY WINDOW

LADDERS, CLOWNS AND TREE-TRIMMERS

Last week we discussed the pleasure afforded by a string of peanuts—well, I just heard another "feeder fun" idea. Some friends fell victim to my disease of wanting to see the birds and squirrels up close and so they put a feeder on their windowsill.

The question that quickly arose, how were the squirrels going to get up to the new feeding platform was soon solved. They built a little ladder and the squirrels love it!

What a sight that must be — a big fat squirrel scrambling up a ladder. And they must be big and fat because from all reports they are extremely well-fed. They are treated to a daily banquet of hard-shelled nuts.

A windowsill feeder can be most exciting. The free-loaders show a surprising lack of fear at what happens on the other side of the glass. As long as the food holds out, they eat.

Imagine the thrill of sitting by your window, watching a bushy-tailed visitor gnawing his way through a pile of nuts and suddenly having him snap to attention, look about and finally wind up leaning with one paw against your window and looking into the room!

The inside of a squirrel's hand-like paw is a curious thing and such a close-up view gives a good look at the black kid-like skin and the amazingly long, knobby knuckled fingers.

☆

OUR FRIENDS have recently, I understand, added a cleated ramp so now their nut-loving visitors go up one way and down the other.

The ramp is an especially handy exit when one squirrel is eating and another comes up the ladder — if the first doesn't wish to stand his ground and perhaps get into a fight, he merely scampers down the ramp. Isn't that wonderful.

Several articles ago we tried to divert our caricatures of the feeding station clientele.

It was, of course, impossible to do all of them and one of the most obvious and easiest we skipped because they are not too common and when they do appear, it is usually in late January, February or early March.

I am speaking about the evening grosbeaks — their brilliant yellow, brown, black and white costumes make them look like happy, carefree carnival clowns. When a wandering troop pays a visit it is a happy day indeed.

☆

THERE IS exciting news about the evening grosbeaks. Ella's dog took her for a walk a short time ago and somewhere over on the other side of the creek, they encountered a flock of these beauties.

Wow — won't it be wonderful if this is to be an evening grosbeak winter. Such an early sighting, however, poses some questions.

This is not their usual wintering area and when they do appear, it has usually been thought that severe weather and lack of food has driven them down.

Let's hope we have grosbeaks, let's hope they discover our feeding stations soon, but also let's hope that they don't bring us a long hard winter.

But look what's happened — the squirrel ladder and the clowns have run us out of space. Our tree-trimmer, trimmer in the decorative sense, not the limb-cutting, will have to wait until next week.

LENAWEE COUNTY'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

SERVING TECUMSEH, BRITTON, RIDGEWAY, MACON AND TIPTON

VOL. 111 — ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH YEAR — NUMBER 10 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1961 | 24 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Adrian Taxes Fall as Tecumseh's Go Up

Adrian taxes drop this winter and Tecumseh's go up.

When the City of Adrian received a $5 million dip in valuation from the State Tax Commission last week, it meant a boost for everyone out-county.

Adrian had sought twice this much in relief, saying valuation of its local real estate was set too high.

After months of consideration, the commission announced last week the cut would be $5 million.

Since the State Equalization Board has established a $241 million total valuation for Lenawee, this figure cannot be changed. The $5 million drop was in turn spread over all taxing units, including Adrian.

For Tecumseh property owners, there is a 42c jump per $1,000 property valuation, from $27.56 to $27.98.

Per $1,000 Local Valuation	1961	1960
School operation	$11.63	$11.46
School Bond	8.17	8.05
Special Education	.65	.64
Library Operation	.42	.41
County Gov't. Operation	7.11	7.00
TOTAL	$27.98	$27.56

What does it mean to the average home owner?

Using a Tecumseh home worth $13,000 on the present market, the winter tax last year was $179.14. This time the tab will total $181.87.

City Assessor Cal Zorn has computed the scale for City Clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows, who now is busy computing tax bills for 2,300 parcels of land in the community.

Bills will probably be in the mail during the last week of December, states Mr. Zorn.

Normally, they are out by Dec. 1, payable before Jan. 20 without penalty. After this date, 4% is tacked on.

City Attorney Jim Beardsley is checking the legality of extending this deadline, which is established by state law.

Mr. Zorn points out that Tecumseh taxpayers will have to raise about $7,812 more than last winter.

LIVE SHEEP, DONKEY HELP GIVE "LIFE" TO MANGER SCENE NEXT TO GLORIA DEI LUTHERAN CHURCH AT EVANS AND BROWN ST.

Animals Highlight Manger

Almost a year ago, members of the Gloria Dei Lutheran Church Men's Club talked about Christmas.

They wanted to do something different and unusual.

The idea of a "live" manger scene came up and was readily accepted.

Planning began immediately for 1961 and various chores were assigned.

The project was completed this week and offers a breath-taking scene at the corner of N. Evans and Brown Sts., next to the church.

Church members asked that no names be used, in this account, because this was a work of love and shared by many.

Life-size figures were made of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph, who stand over a straw crib which contained the Infant.

The three Wise Men, with their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh are nearby.

A shepherd is a few feet away.

Completing the scene are five live sheep, a donkey and a cow. A wooden fence allows them freedom to walk about the area.

☆

WHEN WORD of the project got around, the choir of another area church asked if its members might present a concert of Christmas hymns at the manger.

Gloria Dei Pastor, the Rev. Laszlo Gero, readily agreed. He also decided to extend invitations to all churches.

So far, the musical schedule includes:

Dec. 18—Friends Church choir at 7:30 p.m.

Dec. 20—St. Peters Episcopal choir at 7:30 p.m.

Dec. 24—Gloria Dei and Presbyterian choirs at 7:30 p.m.

Others interested in taking part should contact Pastor Gero.

MRS. KENNETH ROSS WITH OIL PAINTING OF THE REV. WILLIAM LYSTER

Portrait of Pioneer

An oil portrait of a church builder and pioneer citizen of Tecumseh, the Rev. William Narcissus Lyster, was unveiled and dedicated last Sunday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church during the worship service.

"Priest Lyster", as old records show he was called in the 1830s and later when he lived in Tecumseh, was painted by Mrs. Kenneth Ross, 1200 Shady Lane, a member of St. Peter's congregation.

She took the likeness from an old photographic copy of an oil miniature done in Ireland when Lyster was a young man and before he emigrated to this country.

Lawrence Blum, senior warden of the parish, received the portrait from Mrs. Ross on behalf of the congregation.

The picture will be hung permanently in St. Peter's Hall, with the possibility of a special showing at the Diocese of Michigan Cathedral Center in Detroit, at the time of the annual Diocesan Convention in February.

The Rev. Mr. Lyster was described by Richard Illender Bonner, editor of "Memoirs of Lenawee County" (1909) as "A typical Irishman in appearance and in his general make-up the very opposite of the typical Michigan pioneer citizen.

"Delicately formed, reared in luxury and wealth, he was in manners and in all his life, simple as a child. There was nothing rough or harsh (about him)."

He was born in 1805 in County Wexford, Ireland and died in Mapleton, Mich. on September 9, 1877.

It was the Rev. Mr. Lyster who named the "Irish Hills" because they reminded him so much of his home land.

Christmas Tree Lane Tea Dec. 9

About 85 members and friends of the WSCS of the Methodist Church attended the Christmas Tree Lane tea Dec. 9 in the social hall of the church.

Mrs. William Davis, general cairman, was assisted by Mrs. Robert Bonner in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Edward Beal, program chairman.

The varied program opened with a piano solo by Catherine Maples.

Rufus has played with the Symphony Orchestra in Ann Arbor since he was 13. He is a member of the Michigan Chorale who will be touring Europe this year.

Mrs. Earl Nisbett presented three short Christmas readings.

Mrs. Louis Caterina sang two soprano solos accompanied by Mrs. Fred Oberlin.

June Rhea, music student at Siena Heights, closed the program with a piano solo with the theme, "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear."

Plum pudding and tea were served by Mrs. Davis and her committee.

Long & Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

Bob "High Pockets" Moore will think twice the next time he challenges Ray Zimmerman to a bowling match.

In a friendly little session last week, Bob got himself bombed.

It turned out this is the highest three-game total ever tossed in open or league bowling in Lenawee County.

Prior to Ray's effort, the best was a 756.

Bob's score, just to keep the records complete, you understand, was a 450.

☆

John "Cliff" Cameron post cards from Ozark, Ark. that "the country is beautiful and the weather delightful."

John and his wife are looking over the property Mrs. Cameron won in a give-away last summer.

It makes quite an unusual story.

The Camerons had taken their daughter to Illinois for a summer work as a girls camp consulor.

They arrived a day early by mistake, but learned the Illinois State Fair was in session nearby and decided to go.

While browsing about the Fairgrounds, Mrs. Cameron filled out a card in a drawing.

She was notified some weeks later that she had won. Mr. Cameron sold his Rexall Drug Store to Carl Lamb and now the Camerons are deciding if they will move to the Ozarks.

☆

When Neville Hart cracked down on short skirts, there was a little grumbling at first.

But it quickly died out when students realized Mr. Hart was deadly serious.

As of now, the situation apparently is back on an even keel.

Mr. Hart was 100% correct and I'm sure that parents will agree.

Along these lines, it was interesting to note in the weekly bulletin from the Michigan Press Association that two daily newspapers in other states have taken steps to protect morals of their readers.

The Wisconsin State Journal in Madison and the Fort Wayne (Ind.) News-Sentinel have announced that they will refuse to accept movie and theatre ads which are regarded as suggestive.

The Fort Wayne paper noted: "It will insist upon pictures and reading matter in advertisements which do not give offense to persons with normal standards of good taste."

The action brought a letter of commendation from the mayor of Fort Wayne who said he thought "removal of sensational advertising from the newspaper will reduce attention to objectionable films and will have the support of all decent and civic-minded citizens."

The two papers have taken a sane and proper stand. It would be good if all metropolitan dailies followed suite.

This reminds me of an instance when I had a paper in Ohio and the local theatre decided to try an "art" film.

Being one of our better advertisers, the show manager expected we would run his down-right lewd ad.

It was a decision that I had to make and I said, "No."

He exploded and threatened the paper with all sorts of dire results.

But when it was all done, he said he was glad the ad hadn't run.

Incidentally, the theatre there has been out of business about four years. The weekly flourishes still.

Mrs. Hart Leads Cake Sales Force

Mrs. Neville Hart is a top sales lady.

In the Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary fruit cake sale Mrs. Hart leads the list, according to chairman, Mrs. Vern Manwaring.

Mrs. Hart has sold more than 70 of the three-pound cakes.

Mrs. Manwaring urges anyone planning to use these fruity deserts for gifts or home entertaining to purchase them without delay because the supply is going fast.

Mrs. Verl Sanch and Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, both of Britton, are among those who rank second among the leading sales ladies.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to further improve facilities at the hospital.

German Youths Speak at Church

A family night potluck at the Holloway Presbyterian Church was attended by about 55 last Sunday evning.

Niels Hansen and Adolph Petrus of Germany were the speakers of the evening, comparing education, Christmas customs and day-to-day living in United States to that in their homeland of Germany.

Santa Is Coming

Along with blizzardy weather, Santa comes back to Tecumseh.

He'll be at the Four Corners, starting Friday, every day except Sunday, from 1 to 8 p.m.

Santa will leave for the North Pole the afternoon of Dec. 23.

Kiwanians Entertain Their Wives

Kiwanians entertained their wives at a combined Ladies' Night-Christmas Party at the IOOF hall last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Myers were hosts for the party.

The entertainment for the evening consisted of two skits, "A Game of Chess" and "A Bit of Whimsy," presented by members of the Tecumseh Players.

Home Decoration Contest Divided into Four Parts

Tecumseh's Christmas Home Decoration contest will encompass the entire community.

It will include all residents, who wish to participate in this project to beautify the community and increase the Christmas spirit with home decorations.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsor.

Four parts are to be included in the final judging, which will be done Dec. 26 to 30.

► Artistic merit — design, composition and arrangement of elements, color scheme (30 points)

► Originality — new lighting ideas or effects, new ways of using standard devices, candles, cutouts, wreaths (20 points)

► Lighting techniques — using regular Christmas lamps, spot and flood lamps (30 points)

► Ingenuity — using structure of the house and surroundings to advantage (20 points).

Entrants for the contest may register by telephone to the Chamber of Commerce Office, HA 3-3795, or with Donald Murphy, Chamber secretary, HA 3-4818.

Rules will be mailed to each person registered.

Only those residing within the city of Tecumseh will be eligible. Prizes will be announced at a later date.

Emphasis is being placed on the concept of good Christmas lighting and decorating principles, with originality and individual expression being important.

"It is what you do with what you have that counts," agreed members of the committee.

Director Surprised by Club

Donald Johnson was coaxed away from band rehearsal recently.

This was just long enough for 26 members of the Band Boosters to surprise him with their rendition of "Happy Birthday" and a gift.

During the business session of the Boosters, $200 in gifts from friends and fellow students of David Day was presented to President Don Nettleman.

With it came the suggestion from Mr. and Mrs. Day "it be used to further the effectiveness of Tecumseh's fine band under the capable direction of Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cowdrey."

The members voted to establish a scholarship fund for Interlochen in memory of David.

Possibilities are that a talented student from the Junior High and one from the Senior High bands may be sent to the summer camp.

The combined chorus and band concert will be held at the High School Dec. 19 with a short business session preceding.

There will be no other meeting until Jan. 25.

HOLIDAY HOME DECORATING

Inspiration and Ideas

Residents of the Tecumseh area will find inspiration and ideas for their own holiday home decorating when they take the Holiday Tour sponsored by St. Elizabeth Altar Society.

The event will show the handiwork and originality of four homeowners, who will open their Christmas decorated houses to the public Thursday from 3 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Paul Clauda will display clever and artistic trimmings, made entirely by her, in her white Cape Cod home at 306 Chippewa St.

A religious theme will begin with a Nativity Scene outdoors, in the family room where a Madonna in an Advent wreath is to be the focal point and then to the kitchen.

There an illuminated chapel with choir singers will form the background for the display of religious items.

In her French provincial living room, the permanent accessories will be adorned with gold, green and red Christmas accents.

Mrs. James Tressler will assist Mrs. Clauda.

☆

MRS. ROBERT MOHR'S ranch-type home at 117 River Acres Dr. will typify do-it-yourself trimmings.

Mrs. Mohr will coordinate the theme and instruct her assistants, who will each make various ornaments. Assisting her are Mrs. Ivan Lindstrom, Mrs. James McKenna, Mrs. Robert Vaillancourt, Mrs. Frank Reinhardt and Mrs. Robert Murray.

Christmas baked goods and novelties will be sold in the Mohr home. All will be made and donated by Altar Society members.

☆

OUTSIDE and inside the 100-year old farm home at 9631 Murphy Highway, Mrs. Elmer Spreeman's Yuletide decorations will follow the holy and traditional manner.

From the entrance, where there will stand a life-size Nativity scene built by Mr. Spreeman, throughout the lovely home unusual ornaments will symbolize the real meaning of Christmas.

Nearly all of the furniture in the home has been designed and built by the Spreemans.

Mr. Spreeman, along with Robert Koffron and Dr. Robert Murray, will handle the large amount of exterior decorating.

Assisting Mrs. Spreeman will be Mrs. Koffron, Mrs. Joseph Prohaska and Mrs. Elmer Dick, who will sell Christmas baked goods and novelties.

☆

THE TOUR will end at the rambling 12-room ranch home of Mrs. Ford Mudgett, 8643 Pennington Rd., where tea will be served.

Mrs. Mudgett's country home will feature contemporary decorations.

Assisting the tea chairman Mrs. Morgan Ford, will be Mrs. Robert Sage, Mrs. Robert Laidlaw, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. Ernest Peters and Mrs. Harry Weakly.

Tickets may be obtained from Altar Society women or purchased at the door of the home. Maps will be given with each ticket.

Mrs. Jack Osburn is arranging all sale items. Mrs. Karl Schneider is general chairman and Mrs. William Miller, co-chairman.

4-H Clovers Plan Party for Center

Greg and Phil Smith entertained members of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club recently when plans were made for the Christmas party to be held Dec. 16 at the Community Center.

A Christmas tree will be purchased and decorated by members of the club for the east room of the Center, with John Kopka doing the wiring for the lights of the tree.

The tree will be left there for anyone to use during the holidays. Decorating will be done Thursday, Dec. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

The committee to purchase parents gifts include Gregg Smith, David Quick, Jane Mobley and Linda Starkey.

During the business meeting it was decided to hold future meetings the second Saturday of each month at the Community Center.

Linda Starkey reported on the price and size of the flag the club members decided to purchase for use in parades.

Members drew names for gift exchange.

Ten members have enrolled in the leathercraft project with David Quick and Linda Starkey as junior leaders.

Carolyn Woods is junior leader of knitting with four members enrolled.

Gregg Smith attended the 4-H Show in Detroit with his sheep this past week. Don Murphy, livestock leader, also attended.

Christmas Customs of Foreign Lands Explained by Guests

Mrs. Lee Norcross, Mrs. Wilhelm Spycher, Marielle Lugard and Sabina Vonlour were guest speakers at the Meeting of the ULCW of Gloria dei Lutheran Church Monday evening.

Mrs. Laszlo Gero, program chairman, asked each one to tell of the Christmas customs in their homelands.

Miss Vonlour, who is from Germany, said that the celebration takes place Christmas eve with an exchange of gifts.

It is absolutely a family holiday. There are seldom guests. Never are there any business places open, not even a restaurant or a movie, nothing.

The father brings the tree home and it is decorated and then the door is closed on the living room until after the family return from the church service.

The children are told that Christ Kindel, the Christ child or an angel, distributed the gifts.

Dec. 25 and 26 are paid holidays for workers in Germany. These are the days for guests.

☆

MISS LUGARD said that Holland customs are similar with Christmas eve climaxing festivities. The Dutch people make the ornaments for their trees from nuts, painting them or covering them with foil.

In all four countries electric lights are not used on the trees, only candles.

MRS. NORCROSS, who comes from Okinawa said that few celebrate Christmas in her homeland, because not too many are Christian.

Those who do use different customs according to the missionary that had been sent to them.

Shops do a lot of advertising, however.

Lovely in her native costume, Mrs. Norcross mentioned that there is never any snow in her country.

☆

CATHOLISM predominates in Hungary, according to Mrs. Spycher.

On Christmas eve the church people carry an image of the Christ Child around the streets and pray, returning to the church for Mass.

Those who do not regularly attend church always go on Christmas eve.

Decorator candles and other candies are used rather than ornaments to trim the tree along with icicles.

Miss Lugard and Miss Vonlour are exchange students and Mrs. Norcross and Mrs. Spycher are residents of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Ed Mengerink led devotions. An exchange of gifts was held following the business meeting.

Mrs. Gero and Mrs. Stephen Illeck served refreshments of cookies including homemade German ones.

Second Cage Loss

By JIM LINCOLN

A big fourth quarter failed for the Tecumseh Indians Friday night when they dropped a Huron League encounter to Flat Rock, 55-48.

Tecumseh came up with 24 points in the final stanza, but missed making up a 11-point third-quarter deficit.

Coach Doug Murdoch's five will meet one of their toughest opponents this Friday evening when they host the undefeated Airport team.

The Jets are heavy favorites to walk-off with the Huron League crown.

Big factors in Tecumseh's first loss of the season at Flat Rock were fouls.

The Indians, guilty of 27 infractions which gave FR 17 points from the free throw line, practically matched their opponents from the field.

Guard Tim Sisson paced the local scorers with 11 points. John Britton and Norm Tucker each tallied 10.

Flat Rock's big center, 6'-5" Roger Stevens, sparked the winners with 13 points and a tremendous job on the boards. FR's top scorer was Rich Mathewson with 16.

While the varsity bowed, making its mark 1-1 for the season, the reserves won, 40-32, evening its record at one-all.

The lesson subject was "The Millenium, Where Will It Be."

Drawing Nearer to Climax

"Each week of Advent draws us nearer to the climactic moment of Christmas Day," states the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

"All our preparation for this glorious celebration of Jesus' birth needs to be in the spirit and attitude for which the day is remembered.

The Rev. Mr. Wittrup will speak on the subject "Will Christ Be In My Christmas" at the First Methodist Church Sunday at 10 a.m.

The Christmas Pageant under the direction of John Babcock will be given at 5 p.m. the same evening.

Possible Changes Considered

By JIM LINCOLN

Many recommendations, some derived from the survey conducted by the University of Michigan, were suggsted to the Tecumseh school board Monday night by Supt. James McDowell.

The recommendations, several involved and lengthy, sought to improve school services and cut school expenses in some areas.

The North-Central Accreditdation Association has requested some changes and improvements, indicating the Tecumseh schools could be dropped from its select list unless some changes were made.

The board, not taking any action Monday night, is expected to review the suggestions at the next meeting.

Some of the recommendations included altering school hours for the high school, fewer students per teacher per class, a business manager, streamlining office work by additional equipment and cutting down on labor, and other similar school operations.

☆

IN OTHER action, the board:

► Turned over liability insurance bids for members of the board to board member Mrs. Robert Stone.

► Approved the superintendent's report that the hot lunch program is now operating in the black.

► Approved Colvin School building, in Raisin Township at the corner of Ives and Green Hwy., for sale at $2,500.

Leading Ag Authorities Will Judge

Top agricultural authorities are on the judging panel to select the community's Outstanding Young Farmer, according to Walt Wonderly, chairman of the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce committee.

Basis for their judging will be nomination forms submitted by the general public.

Winner will be the young farmer—between the ages of 21 and 35—who has made the greatest progress in his agriculture career, best practiced soil and natural source conservation, and played the most responsible and contributing role in community affairs and betterment.

Nominations are requested by Friday, according to Mr. Wonderly, and he added, "we hope to be deluged with nominations, for our community certainly has it's share of exceptional farmers."

2 Suspended for Violation of Hem Edict

After a flurry of state-wide publicity, the hemline situation at Tecumseh High School is under control.

The story in last week's Herald about Principal Nevill Hart's "mid-knee" skirt edict blossomed into stories in The Toledo Blade, Detroit Free Press, Adrian Telegram, Detroit News and over the Associated Press wire.

News writer Boyd Simmons wrote an extensive piece Monday, after talking for about 15 minutes with Mr. Hart on the telephone.

Mr. Simmons confessed that within his own family there was a problem with his teen-age daughters.

The stories brought favorable reaction from several people.

A Port Huron teacher wrote Mr. Hart, "Stick to your guns. We need more people like you in education."

A Tecumseh woman penned, "I would like to congratulate you on the stand you have taken regarding the manner in which boys and girls dress in Tecumseh High School.

"Your courage is admirable and I am sure 'thinking' parents will herald your action as a noble one.

'People conduct their actions pretty much according to the way they are dressed.

"We live in a so-called 'loose' age in dress and morals and if schools condone and abet such baseness they are only helping to further the moral decay of our great nation."

☆

THE HEMLINE action started on Dec. 1 when Mr. Hart told the student body that girls would face disciplinary action if they wore skirts any shorter than mid-knee.

The following Monday, eight girls were sent to the principal's office by teachers. Hemlines of four were too short, the others wore slacks, which also is a violation of the school's code of proper dress.

Mr. Hart suspended them for two days and placed all on probation.

However, later in the day he learned that not all teachers had checked knee lengths of their students and he rescinded the disciplinary action.

At a faculty meeting, Mr. Hart underlined the importance of complete cooperation from all instructors and said that strict action would be taken with all future cases.

There were none until Thursday, when two girls were sent to Mr. Hart. The skirts of both were in violation of the "mid-knee" rule.

The pair were suspended from classes for two days and placed on probation the balance of this month.

While on probation, the girls will not be able to attend any school functions, including Friday's basketball game, the Christmas dances or club activities.

To the parents of the young ladies, Mr. Hart sent letters explaining the situation.

The principal stated:

"Your daughter has refused to obey our rule that sets the skirt hemline at the middle of the knees or lower.

"As a penalty, she has been suspended from school for a period of two days, and has lost all rights to participate in our extra-curricular activities for the rest of the month.

"This means that she is not to report to school until Monday, Dec. 11, at the regular time. She will be permitted to remain in school only if she comes dressed in a manner that meets our regulation.

"I will be happy to discuss this matter with you if you will call for an appointment during the school day." '

☆

WHEN THE girls returned after their suspension, they conferred with the principal and agreed that in the future they would abide by the rules.

Of the 400 girls in THS, only about 35 or 40 have worn too-short skirts this fall, Mr. Hart points out.

He feels now that the problem is corrected.

"I certainly hope so," the principal sighs.

Only one parent has objected and this was not over the skirt length but the way the action was handled.

Wilfred Cameron, 916 Rivers Acres Dr., protested to the school board Monday evening that he felt the girls should have brought notes home to parents explaining the rule and possible punishments.

School boardman Aden Mead told Mr. Cameron that the schools were teaching responsibility and in this case the youngsters were informed and they had to accept the responsibility.

o

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Daniels and family of Jerome, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wisner and family of Kalamazoo and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wisner and family of Midland enjoyed a Thanksgiving Day dinner Saturday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wisner.

'Sing Along with Vera and Glenn'

A "Sing Along with Vera and Glenn" highlighted the meeting of the Tecumseh Eastern Star Thursday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Vera and Glenn are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Driscoll.

It concluded a Christmas program entitled "The Christmas Star."

☆

FOLLOWING a formal opening the American flag and the Christian flag were presented and pledges and salutes were made.

Mrs. Robert Hunt, second vice-president of the Lenawee-Monroe Association, and Mrs. Kenton Hunt ,organist, were introduced and welcomed.

Mrs. Glenn Driscoll was installed as orgmist as she was unable to attend the regular installation.

The School of Instruction Thursday, Dec. 14, at 7:30 p.m. was announced.

Mrs. K. Hunt gave a report on the General Grand Chapter meeting in Miami, Fla., which she attended.

Mrs. Cecile Viele, worthy matron, asked members having houseplants to donate to shutins and older members to contact her or the associate matron, Mrs. Harry Beland.

They will be glad to pick them up by Saturday, Dec. 16.

A gift exchange was held following the program and refreshments were served by the committee of Mrs. Clair Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey, Mrs. Lynn Harris, Lawrence Hoagland and Robert Warner.

Fast-Flowing Stream Helps, Officals Report

David Dennis, county sanitarian, doesn't feel that Evans Creek is seriously endangered by septic tank over-flow.

However, he will recommend to the city that some corrective action be taken.

Mr. Dennis said that the five over-flow pipes close to the creek bank are "contributing some contamination to the creek," but the fast-moving water has helped limit possible serious aspects.

Mr. Dennis did not make samples of the creek when in Tecumseh last week but surveyed the five spots and conferred with City Engineer Cal Zorn, in the absence of City Manager Ed Nelson.

Mr. Dennis is preparing a report, which will be delivered to city officials this week.

In it, he will state that corrections must be made.

One possibility is to put in additional leach beds.

The five property owners, along with about four others in the area, are on land too low to tie in with present city sewer lines.

Eventually, when the Evans Creek-bed intercepter line is installed, they will be able to abandon their septic tanks.

☆

THIS intecepter will run from the present Sunset St. lift station, follow the creek bed to the Maumee St. bridge and then to the sewage treatment plant.

It will cost approximately $50,000.

They Danced for Charity

Approximately 150 couples danced for charity at the annual Herrick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Holiday Ball at the Country Club Dec. 2. This event annually launched the social season in Tecumseh.

The affair grossed $850 with a net profit of nearly $600.

This money will be used to decorate the hospital's new children's ward, which is going to be in the former first-floor nursery.

The Auxiliary has also ordered two dozen sets of porcelain clown dishes, on which junior patients will be served their meals .

In addition, the Auxiliary is assisting in completion of the recovery room.

HIGH SCHOOL GUIDANCE SERIES

Counseling Starts Early

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles on the Tecumseh High School guidance office, which offers students personal, educational and vocational counseling.)

While in the ninth grade, the freshman student is introduced to individual counseling by filling out the personal data form with one of the counselors. This conference serves four purposes:

1. It makes the youngster aware that there are certain statistics and facts that apply to him alone — such as, name, date of birth, birth place, parents, parent's education, parent job, other members of the family, etc.

2. It stimulates the youngster to think about himself — who he is, what are his strong points and weak points, what are his goals and how does he get there.

Questions in this area are: Do you work? What do you do in your spare time? What special talents do you have? Which school subjects do you like best? Which subjects are hardest for you?

What would your parents like to have you prepare for as a life's work? What would you like to be after you have finished your education?

3. It introduces the student to the use of the Guidance office. Once he has his "foot in the door" he feels free to come in about anything, whether it is personal or educational.

4. It gives the counseling staff the opportunity to know the student better. This in turn makes the counseling more effective for the individual student.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Most of the time the assistance of the high school counselor is sufficient to help the youngster in resolving his personal problem as it relates to education.

If the problem is acute, the counselor may seek assistance from the county special education staff, the family physician, or the student's minister or priest.

The parents may be informed as to the use of the Huron Valley Child Guidance Clinic, the University of Michigan test clinic, and the Family Service Center or any other similiar agencies.

Educational counseling is a continuous process from the eighth-grade orientation to the day that the student is graduated. In some cases it is necessary for post-high school counseling to be done. The major work in educational counseling includes:

1. High school subject selection necessary for curriculum preparation.

2. Assistance to the youngster when he is having difficulty with a subject.

3. Aiding the student form his own philosophy as to why he is in school and how he can get the most out of his education.

4. Assistance in developing good study habits.

5. Giving occupational information to the students for exploration into various vocations.

6. A continuation of the testing processes and interpretation of the test scores.

VOCATIONAL COUNSELING

Vocational counseling reaches its peak in the senior year. After school begins in the fall, each senior boy and girl is contacted about what they plan to do after graduation.

Tecumseh High School seniors usually fall into the following catagories

1. A job, without any further training (less than 10%)

2. Armed Forces (less than 10%)

3. Marriage (possibly 1 to 4 girls)

4. Further education in business, technical or trade schools (about 33% to 40%)

5. Colleges and nurses training (from 33% to 40%)

If the student plans on entering the labor market immediately, the counselor assists him in thinking about:

1. What type of job; the gathering of information on jobs in regard to necessary preparation, functions and duties of the jobs, future outlook, pay, etc.

2. Where the student may go to find out about job opportunities.

3. Information on interviewing for a job and filling out a job application.

Most of the students who go directly into the armed service from high school are boys. The guidance office has a close liason with the recruiting offices of the various services.

In the spring of the year, the recruiting officers are invited to a meeting to talk to the seniors about their particular branch of service.

If a youngster has a potential for further education, he is urged by the services to continue his education first. This is beneficial in two ways.

1. He saves the government the cost of his initial training.

2. He is better qualified to select the most suitable branch of service to fit his vocational aptitudes and to plan for the years ahead.

Glendon Neal of Chicago was arrested in Adrian Saturday after leaving the scene of a property damage in Tecumseh.

The accident occurred in front of Van-Mer's Department Store when the Neal auto struck a pole bounded back and struck it again.

This kept Mr. Neal from going through the store window.

Mr. Neal was driving a borrowed car and had no insurance. He received a 10-day jail sentence, $100 fine and $4.90 costs or an additional 30 days if the fine is not paid.

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Boys at Dettman Hall have been enjoying a new type of recreation for the past few weeks.

The rec hall has a new machine called "Ski-Ball." There are nine wooden balls, each about the size of a softball, and these are rolled up an enbankment and into openings of various sizes and various degrees of difficulty.

The score is totaled cumulatively. Top possible score is 4,500. A few boys have rolled "the perfect game."

Another addition to the rec-hall is a piano, which is currently being played by anybody who feels the muse move him.

In all three recreation halls, contests of various types are under way. Brother Alexander Buckley, CSC, has started a card game contest in Dettman Hall and it has spread to the other two rec halls, Neri and DePaul.

All those participating in any of the contests are having a good time.

Last Sunday Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, directed the Boysville Band and Glee Club in the Fourth Annual Christmas Concert in the Boysville Gymnasium.

Among other numbers, a new one by Brother Philip, "Theme from Nowhere," was played for the first time.

Music fans are now looking forward to the Spring Concert next May.

The Boysville gymnasium is now being furnished with roll-away bleachers, obtained for the gym by hundreds of people, who generously donated trading stamps to Boysville.

Five of the eight sections proposed for the gym are already installed, and the other three sections are en route.

The bleachers saw action for the first time at the Boysville-Britton basketball game on December 8.

The bleachers are a welcomed addition to the gym.

The new dining hall is looking better eah day. After some slow activity a couple of weeks ago, the roofers moved in and in the past few days have laid most of the roofing, thus beating the snowy weather.

The window frames are being installed now, and soon the entire building will be enclosed. Then weather will no longer be a factor in the completion of the structure by Feb. 1.

The Boysville junior group passed the ball beautifully, but failed to take advantage of some scoring opportunities.

The Boysville freshman team, in its opening contest against Monroe Catholic Central's freshmen, met defeat, 64-44.

Monroe's fast break helped the Junior Falcons to win.

Children Sing Carols for WSCS

Bertha LaPointe, program chairman for the WSCS of the Methodist Church, introduced Miles Cowdrey, choir director, who presented the children's choir singing Christmas carols for the meeting Dec. 6.

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron opened the meeting with a piano arrangement of Christmas carols.

Mrs. George Bancroft read the Christmas story from the Bible.

Mrs. Lenore West read a modern Christmas story.

Allen Hizer showed colored slides taken this past summer on the MYF Caravan bus trip. The 36 young people making the tour were from various parts of the state and one girl from Australia.

Allen gave a narration of the places visited. The tour is sponsored by the WSCS.

Assisting Miss LaPointe in arranging the program were Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. Duncan Lectka and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Art Eaton and Mrs. Walter Girbach.

Joe Hayden Picked Senior Class Officer

CANTON, O. — The four academic classes of Malone Colleges have completed elections for the 1961-'62 year.

Among senior class officers will be Student Council representatives Joe Hayden of Tecumseh.

Royal Welch Named Director

Royal E. Welch, owner of Welch Cleaners, was elected area director of the Michigan Institute of Drycleaning at the Annual Convention held in Detroit last weekend.

Nearly 1,000 drycleaners and laundrymen from all over Michigan came to this Convention to learn the latest techniques employed by the industry.

Maybe Next Bake Sale Will Draw

BRITTON — Not many of the 44 PTA members contacted responded for the Bake Sale, which was held Saturday at Pauline's Restaurant.

Mrs. Roger Gillispie, Mrs. Gale Austin, Mrs. Fred Miller and Mrs. George Brablec, who spent the morning at the sale, stated that perhaps the 44 members who will be asked to furnish for the sale to be held Saturday, Jan. 6 will make a better showing.

The Ways and Means committee, Mrs. Harold Osterhout and Mrs. Raymond Seagert says that the bake sales will be the only money-making project for the Britton-Macon PTA this school year.

Tory Five Grabs Off 87 Rebounds

Britton picked off on astounding 87 rebounds.

In the point column, Phil had 23 and Larry 16.

The Tories shot ahead, 20-8, at the end of the first quarter and were going away 66-22 as the final stanza began.

Jerry Klos was the Knights' top scorer with 19.

MICHIGAN IS LIVABILITY

Yes, Michigan is good living, unexcelled—with its combination of year-around recreation of all kinds, fine educational institutions, many cultural advantages and excellent public services.

Within the state's 36,000,000 acres of water wonderland, one finds facilities for outdoor relaxation unmatched anywhere. Michigan's cultural advantages also add a rich measure to the abundant life found here.

Workers and executives who live well, will work and produce well—thus livability is a great asset for industry. In Michigan, no worker or executive is more than a few minutes from a favorite spot for recreation by way of the nation's best freeways.

Hunting, fishing, water and winter sports, great professional and amateur sporting events, and just plain loafing at a cottage or one of scores of state parks—all these are part of the good life people find in Michigan.

Help carry Michigan's message to the nation. Clip this ad and mail it to someone in another state with your comment. Let's talk up Michigan and its advantages for industry. Together we can assure a greater future for all of us.

MICHIGAN IS EVERYTHING FOR INDUSTRY

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS action by the State Tax Commission upon application by the City of Adrian has resulted in an increase in the equalized assessed value attributable to the City of Tecumseh in the sum of $516,758.00; and

WHEREAS this increase is deemed inequitable and unconsilable.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH RESOLVES THAT:

1. The Clerk present this Resolution to the public hearing of the State Tax Commission to be held Wednesday, 6 December 1961 at Adrian, Michigan, calling the attention of the said Tax Commissioners to the following facts:

(a) The depressed atmosphere which was apparently the basis for the application by the City of Adrian for tax relief has likewise affected this area and there are approximately 50 homes within the City of Tecumseh under foreclosure—a large proportion of such foreclosures being occasioned by the high taxes imposed upon this community by the State of Michigan.

(b) Adrian's loss of taxable property does not mean that Tecumseh has gained a proportionate amount. On the contrary, the valuation of the property in the City of Tecumseh for tax purposes is less than what it was last year.

(c) Although admittedly a wealthier community per capita than Adrian there is no reason in equity and good conscience that the City of Tecumseh with a population of 34.8% of the population of Adrian, should pay a tax of 42.7% in comparison with what Adrian is paying.

(d) The assessment basis on the equalized tax valuation of Tecumseh property was originally established at 50%, but said figure has been consistently increased by the State Tax Commission until it has reached 80% and unjustly penalized the thrifty and industrious; and constitutes a deterrent to the continued ownership and accumulation of property.

(e) The Clerk is further instructed to forward a copy of this Resolution to State Senator Elmer Porter, to State Representative Rollo G. Conlin, and to Governor John B. Swainson accompanied by the firm request by this Municipality that sweeping economics be undertaken on the State level on all State expenditures in general, and in connection with welfare and assistance programs in particular.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

AYES: Unanimous NAYS: None

Attest: Naomi Sallows,
City Clerk

Motion Hamilton and seconded Bonner to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

Junior Hi-lights

Phys Ed Program for Everyone

All boys and girls in Tecumseh junior high school are required to take physical education.

The seventh grade classes meet for two periods per week the first semester and the eighth grade classes meet for three periods.

The second semester this is reversed.

Girls are taught by Mrs. Peggy Jo Raeburn.

☆

Results showed that the average Tecumseh seventh and eighth grade girl scored a rating of only "fair" in comparison with national standards.

After studying her own individual record, each girl is trying to improve her rating by doing special exercises so that when the tests are given again in the spring, scorers will rank higher.

Other activities in the girls' physical education program include basketball, volleyball, softball, stunts and tumbling, folk and creative dance, track, fieldball and soccer.

In the junior high physical education curriculum, an emphasis is placed upon team sports rather than individual activities.

It is felt that a greater social value is derived from team sports, from being a member of a group, from working in an united effort, from learning to give as well as to take, and that this value is particularly essential for this age group.

The girls' physical education program is not only concerned with teaching physical skills, but with providing opportunities to develop good sportsmanship and leadership among the students.

☆

A RECREATIONAL club, with membership open to all junior high girls, is the Girls' Athletic Association.

The main purpose of the club, which meets one afternoon a week after school, is to provide additional physical activity to girls who desire it.

Competitive intramural games are played in most sports, and opportunities for participation in extra activities, such as bowling and swimming, are provided.

The boys' physical education classes are working on a unit of basketball, concentrating on fundamentals. This unit will be concluded with the intra-class basketball games. The following unit will be tumbling.

☆

MORE EMPHASIS is being placed on physical fitness this year. The boys seem interested in the program and physical changes have already been observed. Many boys get far too little constructive exercise at this age level.

This is the period of their greatest growth spurt and need developing exercise to keep the fast growing body co-ordinated.

The seventh and eighth grade basketball teams are in high gear preparing themselves for their first game with Blissfield. The eighth grade team is hoping for another fine season after winning the tournament last year.

"We would like to see more people attend the junior high games," states Principal David Dick. "We're sure you would enjoy our brand of basketball."

Following is the junior high schedule for this year.

Dec. 14 — Blissfield, there
Dec. 19 — Saline, here
Dec. 21 — Blissfield, here
Jan. 4 — Dundee, here
Jan. 18 — Milan, here
Feb. 1 — Milan, there
Feb. 15 — Dundee, there
Feb. 28 — Saline, there

All games will be played at 4 p.m. Tournament dates, February 20, 21, 22 and 24.

Girls physical education is taught by Mrs. Peggy Jo Raeburn, Boys physical education by Dermont Poley, Jr.

Junior High Study Group Holds Session Thursday

Initial meeting of the Junior High Parents Study Group will be held Thursday, Dec. 14.

All junior high school parents are invited to attend, states Principal David Dick.

The program for the evening will be presented by the mathematics department.

In addition, a formal presentation of room flags will be made by the VFW Auxiliary.

'Can't Take It With You' Is Next for Players

George S. Kaufmann's hilarious comedy, "You Can't Take It With You," will be presented Feb. 21 and 22 at the Strand Theatre.

This wonderful laugh-a-minute play has a large cast. There will be many small parts for busy people, who are interested, but who feel they haven't the time to take a large part.

Try-outs will be held the first week of January. The dates and time will be announced later.

This Sunday, there will be a meeting at 7:30 in the Sage Building. Rick Kureth is in charge of the program.

By the first of the year, The Players plan to have their quarters enlarged and made more comfortable, convenient and cheerful.

Richard Boyd is chairman of the remodeling and redecorating program, Frank Dalton is assisting him in the planning.

Last Friday night more than a dozen members worked up to four hours each on the remodeling phase.

The group is looking for donations of furniture, lamps and rugs that might be of use in their meeting rooms.

Anyone wishing to give the group useable articles should call:

New Phone Directories On the Way

One of the most widely used books in Tecumseh, Britton, Clinton and Tipton is in the mail this week — the telephone book.

"The new directory is as attractive as ever, "Ken Conway, District Manager for General Telephone said.

"Illustrated on the cover are several ways in which extension telephones can save a person time and steps at home. This new book is not only attractive, but also very handy," he stated.

"You'll find more names, more Yellow Pages and more information than ever before."

More than 5,300 directories will be distributed throughout this area with all up-to-date information.

Mr. Conway has this suggestion about the replacement of your directory: "Leaf through your old directory. You may find something valuable in it. Money, important letters, and notes, as well as cherished addresses have been found in telephone directories.

"And while you are going through the old directory, you'll want to transfer the frequently called numbers you have written to the new book."

Mr. Conway pointed out that:

► Both inside covers have space provided for frequently called numbers.

► Information to simplify long-distance or emergency calling is listed within the introductory pages.

39 Seniors Take Betty Crocker Test

Thirty-nine senior girls from the Home Making Department of Tecumseh High School, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Brown, were given a written examination Dec. 5 to help determine the winner of the 1962 Betty Crocker Search.

At stake in the contest for "The American Homemaker of Tomorrow" is the $110,000 worth of college scholarships from General Mills, sponsor of the educational program designed to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career.

The test, prepared and then scored by Science Research Associates, Chicago, provides the basis for selection of local and state winners.

ANN ARBOR — Dr. Elmore E. Buskirk, founder and president of Agent Manufacturing Company, Adrian, will serve as Lenawee County chairman for the 1962 Michigan Week to be observed next May 20-26.

The appointment was announced by John R. Meadows, vice president of Ann Arbor Bank, regional chairman for Lenawee Monroe, Livingston and Washtenaw counties.

Meadows said other regional appointments are being made as rapidly as possible and that planning is off to its earliest start.

Dr. Buskirk, who practiced for 30 years in Adrian, is a graduate of Plainwell High School and Loyola University Dental School.

A former president of Adrian Rotary Club, he is a director of Adrian State Savings Bank and former director of Emma Bixby Hospital. He is a member of Adrian Masonic Lodge, Adrian Elk Lodge and Moslem Shrine, Detroit. He founded Agem Manufacturing Co. in 1941.

Does Agriculture Have Future?

Editor's note: Paul Burns, vocational agriculture teacher at Tecumseh High School, submitted the following article, which recently appeared in Michigan Farm News.)

If you are the parent of a high school student and you live on a farm or are engaged in some other agribusiness career, you've undoubtedly asked yourself:

"Should I encourage my son or daughter to choose a career in agriculture?"

"What are the opportunities?"

"Is there a future in agriculture?"

There are those who point to the declining number of farmers and point out that the future of agriculture is limited.

Others state that modern agribusiness offers more career opportunities than ever before.

Which is correct? Without question, it is the latter. There ARE great opportunities in agriculture.

American agriculture is an expanding industry offering many and varied career opportunities. But it is also a changing industry.

Time was when agriculture meant farming and ranching and little else. For centuries most of the population of the world was engaged in farming and, in some parts of the world it still is.

But, progress in the form of science and technology brought tremendous changes in the American agricultural industry. Things that used to be done on the farm by the farmer have moved off the farm.

The processing, manufacturing, distribution, marketing and advertising is done off the farm.

But though these activities moved off the farm, most did not move out of the agricultural industry. The farmer still produces products, but he no longer processes them. He has technically trained people do his marketing for him.

American agriculture has made more progress in 50 years than in all the previous centuries, all because of science, technology, and the caliber of people employed in agriculture.

Farming is still the heart of agriculture, the hub, so to speak, around which all other agricultural endeavors revolve. But the important thing to observe is that agriculture now includes many career opportunities in addition to farming.

Major steps to success in modern agriculture are:

1) a college education with study in technical agriculture;

2) interest and enthusiasm.

A farm background can also be an important asset.

Youths who have grown up on the farm and have 4-H Club or FFA experience have a good foundation for agricultural careers.

To prepare for these careers, courses such as chemistry, biology, and mathematics should be taken in high school along with agricultural courses, — and a good scholastic average should be maintained.

After high school this background and education should be extended and refined through a college degree program or short course.

Santa Will Be Busier in 1961

Santa Claus will be busier than ever in Michigan this Christmas if Christmas Seal giving this year is any indication.

Christmas Seal contributions in Lenawee County, as in nearly every county in the state, continue well above the 1960 level for the first four weeks of campaign it was reported today.

Receipts from this area for the period totalled $4,982.31 compared with $4,454.71 for the like period last year.

SOCIAL SECURITY Questions and Answers

QUESTION: I'm past 65 but still working. I understand that since I make over $1,200 I can't get social security payments. Is this true?

ANSWER: No, it isn't. If you make over $1,200 you can't get all your social security payments for the year, but you may be able to get some of them. It depends on how much you make over $1,200, and how many months during the year you work, and how much you and your family are payable in benefits.

QUESTION: I'm 65 and I work the year round. My salary is $125 a month ($1500 a year). My neighbor says I can't collect any social security until I stop work, or at least cut my wages to $1,200 a year. Is he right?

ANSWER: No, he's wrong. Your wages of $1,500 a year will cost you only $150 in social security payments. Let's suppose after you file a social security application, your benefit is $75 a month, about the average old-age insurance benefit. That's $900 a year. With your earnings of $1,500 a year, you would lose $150 of this. You could however, still get $750 in social security payments for the year. There is a limit of a year on how far back benefits can be paid, so you will want to file your claim now.

QUESTION: Although I'm past 65, I'm still active in my hardware store. I made a very small profit last year ($1,100). This year won't be any better. Would I be eligible for any social security retirement checks?

ANSWER: Yes, all 12 for the year, as a matter of fact. Any year in which you don't clear over $1,200 from your business you are considered to be "retired." This is true even though you may be putting in 10 hours a day, 6 days a week at the store.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

THE TREE TRIMMER AT WORK

Guess who was the first in the neighborhood to catch the Christmas spirit? None other than naughty, bratty Little Red. Way back in November, Ida and I watched all afternoon and oh, how he worked!

The tree he chose to decorate was the little maple on the creek bank just outside the window—this is the tree we are trying to break ourselves of calling the wren-tree because, even though it still holds the little wren house, last year it hosted no wrens.

The decorations he chose to work with were walnuts.

Our interest was first aroused when we noticed Little Red lugging a walnut along the top rail of the fence.

Always a humorous sight, it was especially funny this day because the unhusked nut was unusually big—the little squirrel was really working.

A brief second of rest when he and his burden reached the roof of the feeding station, which we have fastened to the end post of the fence, and then, with several deft, maneuvers of his hand-like paws and amazingly strong jaws, the bulky shuck of a nut was peeled off.

They speak of magicians and their slight of hand tricks being quicker than the eye—well, have you ever watched a red squirrel twist and turn a walnut to shuck it?

The house-type bird feeder upon which Little Red was sitting is apparently a favorite husking spot used by both Little Red and his big foxy cousins; the roof is usually littered with several empty shucks.

☆

BUT BACK to the tree trimmer. With the walnut now peeled down to a more manageable size, he grasped it and was off on a mad dash through the tree tops.

In a flash he was up the little trunk of the mulberry tree and once in the higher branches, he never paused but headed straight across the tree roads into our maple.

How these characters maintain their footing while running at top speed over such tiny branches is, to me, nothing short of miraculous—especially when one considers they are carrying nuts almost bigger than they are.

Once in the maple tree, however, Little Red slowed down; in fact, he stopped.

Carefully looking things over, he moved, at a much slower pace, down the tree and then out on a lower branch. Several times he slowed up and appeared to be looking.

We had about given up wondering what he was searching for when he stopped before a Y-crotch on the limb.

He wedged the nut into the notch and to make sure it was in tight, he butted with his head, then pushed with both front hand-like paws. Stepping back for a second to survey the job, it was apparently to his liking for he immediately set off in search of another nut.

☆

AS MENTIONED earlier, the tree trimming went on most of the afternoon.

We watched him hang five or six walnuts and at least an equal number he took high in the tree out of our sight.

By late afternoon the little maple tree was quite a sight. Unfortunately the strong winds, which have whistled our way lately, raised havoc with the decorations and Little Red is apparently discouraged.

He makes only half-hearted attempts at repairing the damage. Each day he hangs two or three new nuts but he has never seemed to capture the same holiday fervor and excitement.

So it is, that although the ornaments were not tinsel and glitter and the tree was not the usual Christmas evergreen, we had an early preview of the Yule-time festivities soon to be with us, the afternoon we watched an expert tree-trimmer at work.

NEXT WEEK:
Merry Christmas

Tecumseh's New Phone Building Featured in Ad

Tecumseh's new General Telephone building is featured in an ad in the December issue of the Michigan State Chamber of Commerce magazine "Michigan Challenge."

The ad points out the $508,000 cost of the new Tecumseh telephone system and notes that Gen Tel of Michigan has expanded over $80,000,000 on new buildings, equipment and facilities since 1956.

You've got nine Chevy II models to choose from. This is the Nova 400 Sport Coupe.

Luxury and low price were never blended so beautifully

Who but Chevrolet could've done it? Price, spice and everything nice! A car that's bustin' with room, zoom and richness. One that's deep in convenience and comfort. One that won't let you squander a thing but affection. Look over the beautiful new Chevy II Nova here, and light out in it at your dealer's.

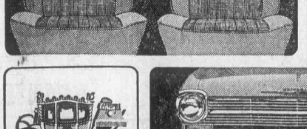
CHEVROLET

NEW CHEVY II NOVA

A SIX WITH V8 SCAT. ⇨ You design a throaty Six (120 hp. strong) with special refinements like seven main bearings. You take your Six and team it with a car that is hundreds of pounds lighter than the big jobs—and, partner, you've got Go!

⇦ EASIER GOING RIDE. New Mono-Plate rear springs take the place of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. Tough but ever so gentle, they help give you a ride that reminds you of the big Chevrolet—and you know how smooth that is.

⇧ RICH REFINED INTERIORS. Here's where you sit in the lap of luxury. Leatherlike vinyl upholstery. Foam-cushioned, of course. Carpeting and scuff mats. Vinyl overhead and chrome trim—the works!



⇦ EVEN BUCKET SEATS IF YOU LIKE. Comfortable, contoured for full support, padded with thick deep-foam cushioning, covered in rich leather-grained vinyl. Yours at slight extra cost in the Nova Sport Coupe and Convertible.

STRIKING NEW STYLING. Any way you look at it, the Chevy II Nova is a neat, nifty fashion plate. The lines are so crisp and clean we're tempted to call them "elegant" (except that sounds downright expensive and, as your dealer will happily show you, Chevy II is anything but).

See the new Chevy II, '62 Chevrolet and '62 Corvair at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

This Is What One Said . . .

"I am so glad for the new dry cleaner. I am astonished to see how clean it gets the clothes. I cannot give it enough praise."

MRS. SERENA McCLURE
215 N. Maumee St., Tecumseh

The Women Love It!

More and more women are finding how easy it is to do their dry cleaning at Tecumseh's Fabricare Center. They're discovering how much fun it can be, too.

And the tremendous savings —up to 75% over conventional methods.

Speedy coin-op dry cleaning is perfect for the busy Christmas season. Pop eight pounds of clothing into a Fabricare unit, insert coins and then go Christmas gife-buying with the money you save.

In 50 minutes, your load will be done—fresh and bright.

Our RCA-Whirlpool units are easier to use than an automatic washer.

If you haven't dry cleaned your own clothes yet, hurry to Tecumseh Fabricare Center in the Federal Savings & Loan Building, right next door to Easton's Friendly Service.

A typical load of eight pounds could include a child's snowsuit, two ladies dresses, three men's sweaters, three skirts and two pair of boys' pants.

All for just $2.

VOL. 111 — ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH YEAR — NUMBER 11 | TECUMSEH, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1961 | 16 PAGES — TEN CENTS A COPY

Long AND Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

It was the youth's most memorable Christmas.

The year was 1944.

The path of Company G, 157th Infantry Regiment — from the time it helped in the invasion of southern France in August until the snowy December—hadn't been smooth.

Many times the Germans pummeled the tired doggies of Company G, but they somehow keep slogging along.

Along about Dec. 20, the tattered lads of Company G found themselves wending through a narrow valley, heading towards a tiny German town in late afternoon.

The doggies were told they were going to relieve another company which held the town.

That wasn't quite the whole story. As a matter of fact, the other bunch was encircled and Company G was supposed to burst through and save the day.

Darkness came as Company G neared its goal.

Suddenly a heavy machine gun cut through the night, "potato masher" hand grenades popped and the GI line of march was slashed in half.

The next day was hectic.

At its end, the 60-mm mortarman was on his way to a field hospital—no wounds, "combat fatigue" was what they called it.

For the better part of a day he slept. The breakfast of fried eggs, after months of almost steady K rations, was noteworthy. He suddenly realized this was the day before Christmas.

The GI medical layout was located in a small German hospital operated by an order of Catholic nuns, who had turned over the entire facility to the American doctors and nurses.

This was the time of the famous "Bulge" in the northern sector and even along the southern portion of the western front, there was great confusion.

Christmas plans by the two or three gracious Red Cross ladies for the hospital were badly crimped.

That afternoon, ward boys told patients a Mass would be said at midnight in the small hospital chapel.

Lighted only by candles on the altar and the muzzle-blasts from 155-mm batteries, situated around the town, the chapel was quickly filled with patients.

The lovely stain-glass windows shook violently with the rumble of the cannons.

Not long after Mass started, the firing stopped. In the sudden stillness, a host of feminine voices from the balcony above burst into song. The unseen nuns were singing "Silent Night" in German.

The beauty of the setting was overwhelming. Christmas was never so lovely, the mortarman thought.

The next morning, the lovely ladies of the Red Cross started to give simple gifts to the patients.

However, there weren't enough to go around and the mortarman and several other late arrivals had to go without.

But they didn't mind.

The mortarman knew now this indeed was the grandest Christmas he had ever experienced.

What Does Christmas Mean to You?

A lot of adverse comments are heard these days about the over-commercialization of Christmas—and with justification. But could it be that some of this feeling is enlarged out of proportion in the minds of adults? How do the little ones regard this annual feast?

The Herald turned to Wayne Kaiser, principal of Tecumseh Acres School. Could some of his younger students express their ideas of Christmas? Mr. Kaiser asked five of his teachers, Mrs. Gloria Jadwin and Mrs. Lavon Renfro, second grades; Frances Baker, Mrs. James Bliesner and Mrs. L. V. Harper, third grades; to carry the project through. They invited each of their students to answer in writing, "What Does Christmas Mean to You?" Herald Co-Publisher Tom Riordan had the extremely difficult task of picking 14 for publication.

What the children wrote should be particularly heartening to critics of the modern-day attitude toward Christmas. Their words bring to mind the writings of Isaiah, "And a little child shall lead them." Other pictures and stories appear on page 2.

$71,000 Donated to Drive

Recent returns for the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation have pushed the drive approximately $6,000 over the $65,000 goal.

Virgil Tucker, drive chairman, and James P. McKenna, co-chairman, says present and anticiapted gifts may hike the 1961 campaign to nearly $71,000.

The drive nearly completes the total amount needed to finance the $169,000 library under construction. Work at the site across from the Junior High School has been progressing and steel beams have been erected.

Division chairmen in the drive included Bill Powell, Ken Conway, commercial; James Beardsley, professional and school; Cal Zorn, city government; Joe Fortunato, assisted by Tim Neill, industrial; and Mrs. Neville Hart, who has been praised for an outstanding achievement in the residential portion.

About $23,000 of the total drive is going to various charities. Almost $6,000 was designated for other communities by donors who work in Tecumseh but live elsewhere.

Mr. Tucker has expressed appreciation to all who have worked for the drive and to the donors who contributed so generously.

Who Owns Library Property?

Plats Unclear May Be County

By JIM LINCOLN

The question of who owns the property on which the new library is being built was briefly discussed Monday night at Council meeting.

Plats, some more than 100 years old, are not clear. Local officials believe that it is possible that the property belongs to the county.

If so, the Board of Supervisors undoubtedly will be approached about relinquishing their claim. The property in recent years had been leased to the schools by the city.

There's also the possibility that the site now occupied by city hall might come under scrutiny. The old plats describe public grounds and certain streets as being owned by Lenawee County.

► Approved transfer of a small area, just east of the hospital, to Drs. Carlton Cook, Richard Coak, and Harold Ocamb for a medical building, in exchange for about two acres of land at the corner of N. Maumee St. and Herrick Park Dr., and $1,500

Awarded a pickup truck bid to Tecumseh Motors, Inc. Other bidders were Tecumseh Equipment and Schneider Bros. Garage.

Declined to extend Jan. 20 deadline for payment of winter clerk Naomi Sallows said that tax bills might be mailed out late next week and before Jan. 1.

Bank Considering Loan

The United Savings Bank is taking into consideration a loan for construction of a new plant here for Faraday, Inc.

The bank's total investment and the amount under consideration is between $35,000 and $60,000, for an 82000-square foot building and probable employment here of upwards of 300.

The Small Business Administration has told TIDC that bank participation would be a great help in securing a government loan, probably of $350,000.

Tryout Dates for Comedy Are Set

Anyone interested in a role is invited to come and read, whether members of the Players or not.

A cast of 19 people is needed for this comedy, which Richard Kureth, director, says promises to be the most ambitious undertaking of the Tecumseh group to date.

He also said that this is a play for the whole family to enjoy.

They Love To Paint

Art is getting more and more of a following around Tecumseh. Main reason is the presence in our town of talented Russell Steinke, who adopted Tecumseh as his home in 1954. Mr. Steinke, who currently has a showing of 10 oils at the J. L. Hudson art gallery in Detroit, is widely recognized for his abilities as a painter and teacher.

His oil portraits command $1,000 and more.

Scenes on this page were captured as Mr. Steinke instructed members of the recently-organized Tecumseh Art Club, which has its own studio above Don's Beef Buffet.

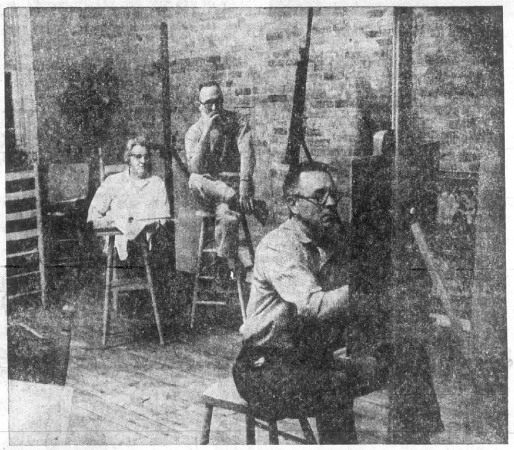
Members, who pay $9 monthly dues, hired Mr. Steinke to instruct a series of 30 session. Each one lasts three hours and members complain that the time i too short.

When the club was formed, it was hoped that there would be about 18 members. Thirty-six quickly signed up. They meet either on Wednesday mornings or Wednesday evenings each week.

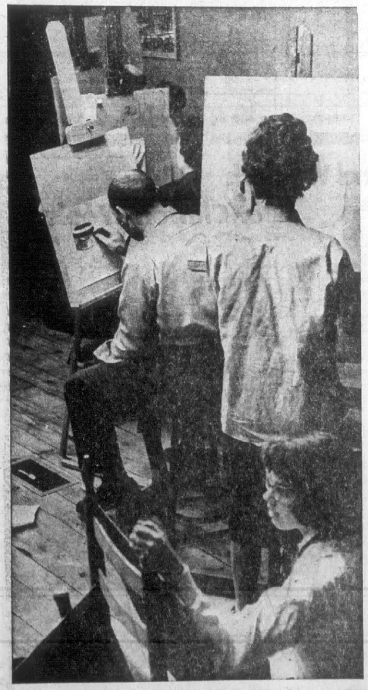
They are free to use the facilities at any time in between for practice. Besides the painting equipment, the club has complete facilities for making frames, in which they can show off their work.

Art Club members watch intently (above and below) as instructor Russ Steinke demonstrates the method of doing a pastel. When the group's classes began earlier in the fall, Mr. Steinke started on fundamentals, regardless of how much experience some members had. Working first with perspective, then light and shaded forms, he went into composition. Charcoal drawings were done first, followed by pastels. From here, students can blossom into oil, or concentrate on polishing pastel talents.

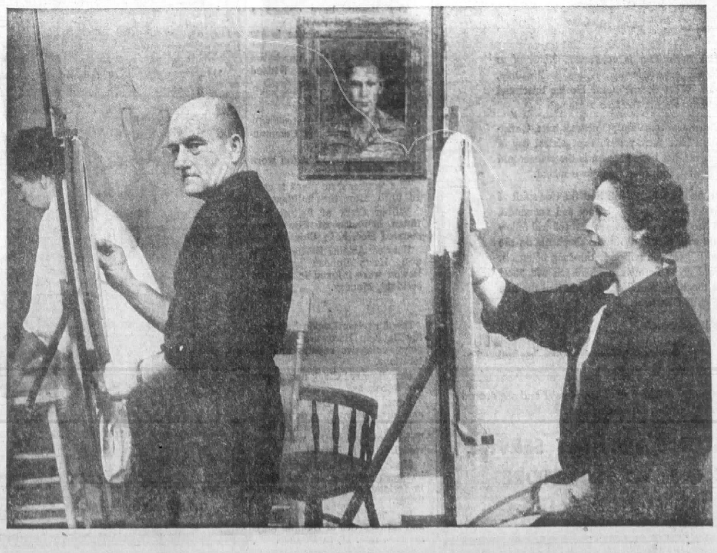
John Breilmaier ► is one of several Adrian artists who have joined the Tecumseh Club in order to study under Mr. Steinke. He labors with great concentration on making a basic sketch, to which he will later add color. Smiling in the background is Mrs. Don Smith, who is just relaxing at the moment.



A trio of would-be ► Rembrandts are Mrs. Al Phelan, Mrs. Bob Sage and Herman Dick, who size up the setup which they will draw. It was two eggs and a milk crock, which might seem a simple task to the average non-artist, but not to these perfectionists.



35mm Picture Story
By Tom Riordan



◄ Husband and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hanna work side by side. The weekly three-hour session offers an excellent opportunity for a busy businessman to relax completely, concentrating only on the task at hand. Club membership is closed until next fall. At that time, others who might be interested in joining, will be welcome. Dick Boyd serves as president.

Membership Given Mrs. Schneider

Mrs. Louis S. Schneider was presented a life membership to the American Legion Auxiliary at the group's meeting Thursday evening.

President, Mrs. Dennis Gollar, made the presentation and said, "We have wanted to do this for two years, but you never miss a meeting."

During Mrs. Schneider's recent hospitalization plans were completed for the honorary award.

Mrs. Fred Marsh is the only other member who holds a life membership.

Mrs. Schneider, a charter member, was the first president of the Unit No. 34 when it was organized here in 1921.

She was again elected president in 1928 and '29 and has held all the elected offices of the unit and district.

In 1957 she was vice-president of the state American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Schneider worked hand in hand with her husband, who was a driving force in the American Legion.

She attributes her 40 years work to eligibility made possible because he was a member of the Polar Bears in Russia in World War I.

☆

A $50 donation was given to the Tecumseh Service Club for use for needy families by the American Legion Auxiliary last week.

Mrs. Ralph Wagoner was welcomed as a new member.

Mary Lectka gave a report on Girl's State, thanking the group for sending her. Mrs. Duncan Lectka was also a guest.

A total of $25 was realized from the bazaar held during the evening.

Refreshments of cookies and coffee were served from a lace-covered table featuring candles and ornaments.

Mrs. Al Bagshaw poured and other members of the committee were Mrs. Ned Baldwin, Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. Percy Bowen and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw.

Mrs. Kenneth Herrick, Americanism chairman, reported presenting a flag to Patterson School for the hall in October.

Mrs. Robert Smith told of turning over material on education and scholarship to John Pobuda.

Flowers were sent to Mrs. Purnell Osburn, who is hospitalized.

Mrs. Fred Marsh reported sending Christmas cards to the gold star mothers.

Mrs. Robert Seitz announced that 120 children attended the Christmas party.

Mrs. Dale Tingley reported 93 paid-up members.

Mrs. Marvin Higgins, Pan American chairman, reported that Columbia is the country for study this year and she will give a talk on it in April.

Mrs. Roger Williams, rehabilitation chairman, said that 35 gifts were sent to the Veterans Hospital at Ann Arbor and Christmas remembrances were sent to 80 service men from the area.

Public Hearing Slated on Proposed Improvements to M-52, South of Adrian

A public hearing on the proposed modernization of nearly 12 miles of M-52 from Adrian south to the Michigan-Ohio line will be held Dec. 28 in Adrian.

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said the proposed $1.3 million project is part of a long-range Highway Department plan to provide motorists with an alternate route between the Michigan-Ohio line and the Mackinac Bridge.

This proposal was outlined by the Highway Department recently in a report on Michigan highway needs for the next 20 years.

It calls for completing portions of highway M-52, M-92, M-36, M-47 and M-33 and several sections of new and relocated highway for use as another continuous north-south route.

Mackie said the route would primarily serve tourist traffic and light commercial vehicles.

Preliminary plans for reconstruction of M-52 to increase the width of each lane of the two-lane highway from nine to 12 feet between the south Adrian city limits and the Michigan-Ohio line.

Highway Department officials said some additional right of way would be needed along the entire route.

The project is scheduled to be placed under contract next summer if proposed plans are approved by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

The Highway Department said the purpose of the hearing Dec. 28 will be to discuss the economic impact of the proposed project and its influence on the area.

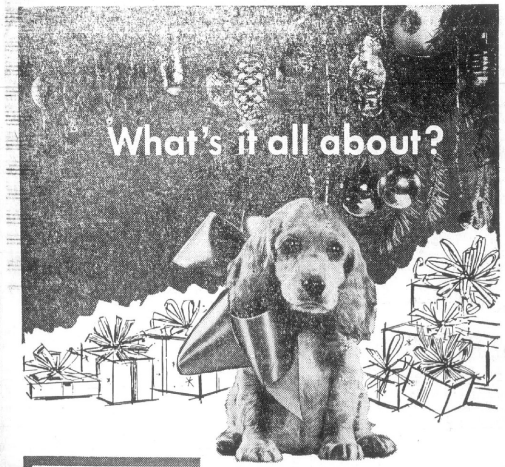
For All We Hold Sacred ... Attend Church



THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Deuteronomy	6	4-15
Monday	Deuteronomy	6	16-25
Tuesday	Galatians	4	1-7
Wednesday	John	3	16-21
Thursday	Isaiah	53	1-6
Friday	Isaiah	53	7-12
Saturday	Isaiah	9	1-7

This little dog is confused. Many of us are in the same dilemma. What is Christmas, anyway? What does it mean? Do the tinsel and decorations obscure the true meaning?

Christmas decorations, Christmas trees, Christmas gifts have their part in this greatest day of all the year, but back of them is the manger and the Christ Child, God's gift to mankind.

In the Church you will find the true spirit of Christmas in all its joy, beauty and sacredness. The Wise Men will become so real you will follow the star with them. With the shepherds on the Judean hillside you will hear the song of angels. You will go to Bethlehem where you will kneel before the King. Kneeling, you will find the true meaning of Christmas.

Will you come?

What's Going on at BOYSVILLE

By DAVE KLAVON

Many boys were waiting, hoping that the day would come when they would be able to go ice skating.

Last week the go-ahead sign was given, and, with the ice in perfect skating condition, quite a number whizzed back and forth after school and following supper.

Most of the boys are just skating, but several have hockey sticks and pucks, and are hard at work preparing for some interclass competition.

The modest seniors believe they have the "championship" all but won.

√

Last Thursday and Friday the boys took their mid-quarter exams at school and were eagerly looking forward to Christmas vacation.

There were those boys who could, upon being asked, give not only the number of days remaining before vacation, but the number of hours, minutes and even seconds!

√

Last Friday afternoon the Glee Club, directed by Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, sang a Christmas concert for the nuns in the infirmary at Siena Heights in Adrian.

The sisters enjoyed the singing and the boys were rewarded with pop and ice cream.

The Glee Club was busy Sunday as well. In the evening they sang for a combined social party in Manchester.

Then on Monday, the corridors of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor echoed with the sounds of Christmas Carols being sung by the Boysville Glee Club.

The singing group will close its pre-Christmas activities by doing a few Christmas numbers before the Annual Candlelight Banquet at Boysville this evening.

√

December 22 at 3, the campus at Boysville will spill out its inhabitants in several directions for the annual Christmas vacation. Some boys who live in the upper peninsula will be on their way in the morning because of the distance.

√

Brother John Lavelle, CSC, Director of Boysville, and Brother Philip Armstrong, CSC, music director, journeyed to Adrian to pick up several drum and bugle corps instruments, which were donated to Boysville by the William Stark Post of the American Legion.

Members of the post felt that, because the instruments were not being used, that they should be given to a group who could put them to use.

That is exactly what Boysville intends to do. This spring, if all goes well, a Boysville Drum and Bugle Corps will take the streets in various parades.

√

Merry Christmas to all, from everyone at Boysville!

Presbyterian Children Choirs Sings

Sunday morning worship service at the Presbyterian Church at 11 a.m. will include an addition to the regular St. Andrew's Choir.

The three children's choirs, which have been participating in the worship services this year will sing.

Under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Schwartz they will present:

Cherub Choir — Kindergarten to Third Grade, "Oh Come Little Children"

Junior Choir — Third to Sixth Grade, "My Sheep Were Grazing."

Chapel Choir — Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Grades, "Jesus, Sleeping in a Manger"

The Adult Choir will sing "Today There is Ringing."

The sermon will be entitled "The Prince and the Pauper."

The annual Christmas Eve service will be held at the regular time of 11 p.m.

As in other years, it will be a candlelight communion service, consisting of scripture, hymns and a meditation on the Christmas story.

Candlelight Communion for Baptists

The Rev. Blair Bashore will again tell the story of "The Man Who Owned the Stable" during the worship service Sunday, Dec. 24, at the First Baptist Church.

The pastor takes the part of the innkeeper, telling the story to acquaintances as an old man, years after the event of the birth of Christ took place.

The cantata, "Childe Jesus" will be sung by the choir during the Christmas Eve service at 11 p.m., followed by candlelight communion.

This Story Is Ever New and Lifting

"The Christmas story is ever new and no matter how often we repeat we still are lifted by the beauty and significance of that great event", says the Rev. Allen Wittrup.

"Little children singing, church bells ringing and thousands of lights make us aware of Jesus birth."

He will speak on the subject "The Wonder of Christmas" at the First Methodist Church on Sunday at 9 a.m.

There will be special Christmas music by the choir.

The Official Board of the Church voted not to have the traditional Christmas Eve service and suggests the reading of the Christmas story in the family circle on Christmas Eve.

Youngsters Will Present Playlet Sunday

"To the unbeliever, the Christmas message is a pronouncement of the coming judgment and to the believer, it is a prediction of victory with Christ," states the Rev. Paul Brantingham.

His message Sunday morning at the 10 a.m. service of the Tecumseh Friends Church will be "Christmas is both good news and bad news."

The choir will render Steiner's arrangement of "God So Loved the World."

A program of Christmas music will be presented by the FYF at the 7:30 p.m. service.

A playlet, entitled "Jimmy's Dream," will be presented by Robert Comfort, Shirley Hunt, Sue Hammack, Ruth Kempf, Richard Brown and Chuck Randolph, under the direction of Mrs. Richard Butler.

Church of God 7th Day Will Elect Officers

Members of the church of God Seventh Day learned that the purpose of the millenium is to give a time for restitution of all God-appointed things to the earth.

The sermon preached afterwards by Elder Lidell also told that Jesus is the one ordained to rule during this time and His judgements will be fair.

There will be an election of officers at 4:45 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 23, in the Williams home, 611 Division St., Adrian.

This will be preceded by a vesper service and followed by a social hour with refreshments.

The next prayer meeting will be in the Haford home, Wednesday, Dec. 27.

His Birth

The birth of Christ Jesus, and other highlights from his history as recorded in the four Gospels, will form the background of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science church services Sunday.

Sale of Seals

The Spanish Club will be holding its annual "Pinata Party" this Thursday evening at the house of Eugene Manwaring.

This type of party is a custom of the Spaniards and is much fun, although it takes careful preparation.

The object of the party is to knock down the pinata, which will be in the form of a parrot, in order to obtain the gifts which are contained inside of it.

While trying to bring the parrot down, the person must be blindfolded while handling the pole, which is used to reach the pinata.

√

A football honors assembly was held in the gymnasium Wednesday.

Letters and recognition were given to the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman players.

In an election the previous day, the varsity football squad chose Capt. Tom Simmons as best lineman and John Britton as the best back.

Both boys were given awards.

"Rendezvous with the Stars," the annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the senior class, will be held in the high school gym Saturday night from 8:30 until 12:30.

Cal Damon's Orchestra will furnish the music and refreshments will be served by the Future Homemakers Club.

All THS students and alumni are welcome.

√

Everyone is patiently awaiting Friday — 3:09 p.m. to be exact! — at which time Christmas vacation will begin.

FEED SOWS FOR LARGE LITTERS. For best litter size, sow gains should be held to 50 to 60 pounds and the ration should contain sufficient amounts of vitamins, protein and minerals. Gilts can be allowed to gain 90 to 100 pounds. Any sow ration can be self-fed by replacing 30% to 50% of it with alfalfa hay to provide bulk. If you hand feed, limit corn to about four pounds and feed one to one and one-half pounds of a 36% sow supplement per sow per day.

INSIST ON WELL-ADAPTED, RECOMMENDED FORAGE LEGUMES when purchasing your spring seeding needs. Supply of legume seed is shorter this season so it may not be as easy to buy what you want. But you'll be better off paying more to get the seed suited for your area than to settle for less adapted strains. Better plan to buy your needs soon — you're more likely to get what you want. Besides, prices are likely to be higher if you wait until next spring.

BRING YOUR RECORDS UP TO DATE. You will be needing them soon to figure your income tax returns. But that's not all. Careful study of your business this past year may show you what changes might prove helpful in improving your income situation in the year ahead. Furthermore, good records can be very helpful in determining credit needs for the coming year.

LOWER TEMPERATURES DON'T INSURE HIGH EGG QUALITY. Cold, dry air can be as damaging to egg quality as high summer temperatures. Humidity is more important than temperature in maintaining egg quality. Even in winter, you'll want to maintain the egg holding room at 70% to 80% humidity.

GREG LONG, WITH CAST TO MID-WAIST, GETS JV LETTER FROM COACH HALE

Injury Hardly Slows Down This Teenager

Greg Long, age 15, got his first sports letter Tuesday morning and he didn't even bother to stand up.

Well, actually, Greg couldn't. He's flat on his back, encased in a plaster cast, has been since October.

The spunky sophomore quarterback was rocked with a block in a practice session Oct. 23. He was taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital where he said, "I could tell it was broken, but I hoped he'd (Dr. Al Phelan) would say something different."

Greg was looking forward to the basketball season, but he'll have to postpone sports activities probably until next year.

His leg was operated on Oct. 31 and he spent two weeks in traction.

☆

AS SOON AS Greg was brought home, he got down to his school work and is rapidly catching up to his classmates.

Lenawee County homebound teacher, Mrs. Hazel Shutes, visits Greg twice weekly to instruct him in geometry and general business.

When Greg said he was also taking typing, the question was asked "how could he?" The youth responded,

"I roll over on my stomach, put a pillow under my chest and then give it all I've got."

For Spanish lessons, a neat teen-age courrier system has been worked out so that instructor Mrs. Louise Patterson can keep Greg busy.

Dave Lemerand brings an assignment to the Long home each night. In the morning, Dick Fielder picks up the finished work and turns it into Mrs. Patterson. She corrects the paper and Dave brings it back to Greg that evening with the new work.

In English, Greg's instructor, Mrs. Mervyn Boltz has prepared a long list of assignments which Greg is struggling through.

Greg has had plenty of friends drop in, as the signatures on his cast will attest.

JVs Get Hot

Tecumseh High's Jayvees, under the tutoring of Jim Hoffman, racked up their second straight win of the season with a lopsided 52-35 victory over the Airport Jayvees.

Realizing that most of the Tecumseh Jayvees are ninth graders, there's indication that the Indians may improve their cage records in the near future.

The two top scorers are Jim Newell with an average of nearly 11 points per game and Gregg Allen, about 10, and both are freshmen.

Newell hit for 14 points against Airport and Allen, 7. Allen, who has been effective on the boards, was greatly helped in this game winning factor by Jim Baker Friday night.

After a close first quarter, the Jayvees widened a one point margin to six at the half and then outscored their opponents 25 to 14 in the final two stanzas.

Airport 5 Flashes By

The Jets, highly rated, and possibly over-rated, combined big second and fourth quarters to defeat the Indians, who turned in their best offensive game in nearly a year.

Coach Doug Murdoch's five will seek to even their league record at 2-2 this Friday night against Blissfield.

The Airport-Tecumseh game should give Murdoch some solace since he saw his cagers come out of their shell and strip the nets with regularity, especially in the second half.

Defense beat the Indians, not their lack of offense or Airport's superior height. Time after time, failure to fall back on defense left a Jet alone under his basket for an easy two-pointer.

This was particularly true in the second half when Tecumseh had its chances to erase a 16-point half-time deficit with a big 24-point third period. Airport's bunny or dog shots prevented them from losing their comfortable margin.

Late in the third stanza, the Indians closed the gap to nine points and trailed by just 11 at the end of the period. The Jets then tallied six straight points to wrap-up the tilt at the start of the final quarter.

John Britton, scoreless in the initial quarter, broke loose for four points in the second, 13 in the third, six in the fourth for a total of 23 points.

Al Potratz and Tom Haws paced the visitors with 21 points each, both getting most of their points from beneath the bucket. Lynn Henry hit out front for Airport and collected 16 markers.

Story of Nativity to Capacity Crowd Told with Slides

BRITTON—Sanctuary of the Congregational Christian Church was filled to capacity Sunday evening as the Sunday School pupils with the assistance of the teachers, the Church Choir and others re-told the story of the Nativity.

Colored slides had previously been made in the fields in the Britton area of pupils dressed as shepherds around the campfire watching the sheep, as magi following the star and, as people in the streets of Bethlehem.

The angels, too, were silhouetted against the evening sky. A real stable with the usual animals was the setting for the manger scene. Joseph was shown with Mary on a donkey.

Indoor scenes were of Mary visiting Elizabeth's home, the prophet Isaiah, and the younger children as Christmas lights and in scenes emphasizing the gifts of Christmas.

The tiny tots dressed in their sleepers made a delightful scene around the tree as they listened to the Christmas story.

Yuletide songs were presented by the Primary, Junior and Junior High departments. The significance of the coming of the Christ Child was impressively told by one of the Primary classes.

The traditional tree and an arrangement of holly from a former member in Oregon decorated the sanctuary.

From a table centered with an evergreen and an angel scene, cookies, punch and coffee were served.

A creche on the altar, a shining tree with rotating lights and other seasonal table and window decorating also enhanced the Fellowship Center.

☆

CHRISTMAS service will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 when the Rev. Gustav Hannevik will speak and the Church Choir under the direction of Mrs. William Raeburn will sing.

Soloist will be Mrs. Joseph Hall.

Rescue Home Report Given at Gathering

Mrs. Floyd Shirley, assisted by Mrs. Clark Pearson, gave a report on the Friends Rescue Home for members of the Friends Missionary Society recently.

The home is for unwed mothers of all races and creeds located in Columbus, O. and supported by the Ohio Yearly meeting of Friends, of which the local church is a member.

She described in detail the facilities provided and the way of life these youngsters lead while they are being helped to adjust and comprehend.

They are also rehabilitated to a useful life during their months of confinement.

Mrs. Wade Kilbourn conducted the business meeting when reports were made.

Mrs. Harold Righter, program chairman, asked Mabel Lockwood to lead in devotions.

Miss Lockwood read the American Indian version of the 23rd Psalm and then asked ladies to recite in unison the King James version of that same Psalm.

All ladies were busily cutting and rolling bandages during the evening. These bandages are always needed at the Friends Mission Hospital in Chatarpur, India. They are made of used sheets.

Mrs. Amos Wilson and Mrs. Richard Butler were in charge of refreshments.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 28 with a $1 gift exchange. The revealing of mystery sisters will be held.

The refreshment committee is Mrs. Charles Huber and Mrs. Clark Pearson.

'God Bless You All', Happy Dad Exclaims to Friends at Party

Mike and Steve Sarvan were completely surprised Dec . 4 when a baked ham dinner for 38 was served in their honor at the American Legion Home.

Jeanette Starkey registered the guests for the "Welcome" party and Linda Starkey served the decorated cake, enscribed with "Mike and Steve" and "Good Luck."

Mrs. John Kopka, Gene Skinner, Donna Koeble of Clinton and Robert Savcich made arrangements for the party.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Galovich of Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Savcich of Sand Lake, Dwight Horn and Henry Gray of Adrian.

Gifts were presented to father and son following the dinner.

Mr. Sarvan spoke with much feeling when he said to those attending,

"To me the United States means my life and life to my son. It means freedom to me. Its a wonderful country, there's no other like it.

I love America and all the friends I have made. God bless you all and may God bless the United States."

Mike, who operates the Top Hat restaurant here, came to the United States in 1954.

Steve recently joined his father in Tecumseh, arriving from their native Yugoslavia after years of waiting.

This was the first time in 21 years that the pair had been together.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Monday is The Day—Christmas! About now however, everything is in such a hopeless state of utter confusion that many of us are almost ready to push the panic button.

There is that last minute present to buy, lost addresses to find for the new remaining Christmas cards, packages to wrap, cookies to bake, maybe a tree to trim and the list could go on and on.

Adding to the panic is the noise, the doorbell rings, the telephone jangles, the radio blares, the T.V. screams and the record player—

Well, sometimes this can be the straw that breaks the camel's back; when above all the noise and confusion, Christmas music fights to be heard it is almost too much.

With all the rush, rush and hurry, hurry, ugly little doubts begin to appear. Is it all worthwhile, Christmas isn't what it used to be, everything is too commercial.

Such bitter thoughts are wrong so wrong. Everything contributes its own to the holiday spirit, we must choose our own values.

The Christmas music, for example, it isn't played too often nor too loud—if we but take a moment to listen, the story and meaning of Christmas are so beautifully told in the carols.

☆

"O LITTLE town of Bethlehem! How still we see thee lie; Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by; Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light; The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight."

"For Christ is born of Mary, And gather'd all above, While mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond'ring love. O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth! And praises sing to God the King. And peace to men on earth.

"How silently, how silently the wondrous gift is giv'n! So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of His heav'n. No ear may hear His coming. But in this world of sin, Where meek souls will receive Him still, The dear Christ enters in.

"O holy Child of Bethlehem! Descends to us, we pray; Cast out our sin, and enter in, Be born in us today. We hear the Christmas angels, The great glad tidings tell; O come to us, abide with us, Our Lord Emmanuel!

This last stanza contains much for us to think about each and every day of the year, doesn't it?

☆

ANOTHER VERSION of the Christmas story was put to the old melody of "Greensleeves"—"What child is this who laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping? This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard, and angels sing: Haste, haste to bring him laud, The babe the son of Mary.

So bring Him incense, gold, and myrrh, Come peasant, king to own Him; The king of Kings salvation brings; Let loving hearts enthrone Him. Raise, raise the song on high; The Virgin sings her lullaby: Joy, joy for Christ is born, The babe, the son of Mary.

So it is, that the beautiful Christmas music should serve as a reminder of what we celebrate.

Joy to the world! the Lord is Come; Let earth receive her King;

Merry Christmas.

Saunders Reports: 'Atomic Power in Michigan'

"Atomic Power in Michigan" was the title of a talk presented to the Southern Michigan Veterinarian Association Dec. 13 in Adrian by William B. Saunders, public relations director of Power Reactor Development Co.

PRDC is the 25-company non-profit organization building the nuclear portion of the Enrico Fermi Atomic Power Plant near Monroe.

Consumers Power Co. and Detroit Edison Co. are both members of the organization and, in addition, Consumers Power is building the Big Rock Nuclear Plant near Charlevoix, Michigan.

Mr. Saunders discussed the Atomic Energy Commission's power reactor development program and the contributions being made to the program through the Fermi and Big Rock projects, both of which are scheduled for nuclear operation next year.

His description of the program included slides showing the other atomic power plants in the nation and detailed slides of the Fermi plant, the world's largest breeder reactor.

Michigan is the only state in the nation to boast two large prototype atomic installations.

DEAR MRS. CLAUS:

Santa has so much to do
We thought we'd send our list
Direct to you.

We've kept our ears open
And here's what we find . . .
It's Automatic gifts
Most folks have in mind.

Now Mom wants a Range
That will cook, broil and bake
A whole meal to perfection—
From the roast to the cake.

As a gift for the house
We've chosen a Freezer
It will save Pop money
And bring Mom shopping leisure.

My Sister suggests
A gift she adores
Is a wonderful Clothes Dryer
That eases laundry chores.

And as for me—
What could be "neater"
Than a convenient,
Automatic water heater!

Thank you, Mrs. Claus,
It's been fun to conspire
For these Automatic gifts
We hope to acquire.

READY TO GO—Once again members of the Service Club, assisted by Jaycees, packed and delivered boxes of food, clothing and toys for needy families in the area. This year, nearly 70 families received aid and the realization that they were not forgotten at Christmas time.

KILLER IS STILL AT LARGE

72-Year-Old Resident Murdered

A 72-year-old retired Methodist minister, who moved to Tecumseh two months ago, was murdered Tuesday.

In a fiendish crime, the Rev. Roy Decker met death in an unoccupied farm he owned two miles south of Brooklyn.

Mr. Decker and his wife, Grace, lived here at 1208 Shady Lane in a rented home.

They owned the 16-acre farm and were attempting to trade it for property in the city.

Mr. Decker was in The Herald office Tuesday morning at 9 to place an ad. Then he is reported to have driven his 1952 Buick to Brooklyn to insert another ad in the weekly Exponent there.

His final stop was his farm and a cruel death.

Mr. Decker was discovered with his hands tied behind his back on the second floor in a fire-charred room. He had been struck in the head by a hammer.

Death was caused by a combination of smoke inhalation and a heart attack.

It was the blaze that attracted attention to the home as neighbors called Brooklyn firemen. This was about 3 p.m. and the firemen discovered the body.

State Police went to work on the crime and the mobile laboratory was hurried to the scene.

Tecumseh police joined in to see if there could be any tie-in locally, but nothing was uncovered.

Two of the Decker's sons, Jack and Mendal, are both Tecumseh residents. Jack and his family reside at 4954 Milwaukee Rd. and Mendal at 710 W. Chicago Blvd. Both are carpenters.

Another son, Jim, lives in La-Habra, Calif.

The family formerly lived in Centerville, Pa.

The Decker's Buick was missing and police speculate that the killer escaped in it. A three-state alarm went out for the car, but it hadn't been found as of late Wednesday.

THEY HELPED NEIGHBOR—Among the fellows who helped pick 42 acres of corn in two days for injured Norman Ries of Tipton were, from left, Elwyn Shea, Merle Hendricks, Lyle Whelan, C. J. Lewis, Bob Ball and Ernie Helwig. Mr. Ries was injured in an accident Dec. 18, just before getting to the corn picking chore. His neighbors went to work on their Christmas present to Norm on Dec. 20 and 21.

Long & Short

BY TOM RIORDAN

To all the readers of this column, may 1962 be a grand year for you.

☆

Mary Laidlaw had been seeing all sorts of wonderful Christmas things in the sky last week.

So it was no surprise Sunday night at bedtime that she spied Santa trudging along Seminole Dr., right past the house.

She screamed the news to her brothers and sister, then suddenly the children had rushed to the front door and were hailing Santa.

Obviously heading someplace else, he detoured to Laidlaw's, came in and chatted with the youngsters for a few minutes.

Dr. and Mrs. Bob Laidlaw stood dumbfounded.

When Santa finally left, they looked at one another for the answer, but neither seemed to know. Right now they have no idea who it was.

Gosh, folks, this may have been the real Mr. Claus!

☆

One of the nice things about living in a small town is that when you run out of gas, you just step out of your car and walk up to the nearest house and ask for help.

It happened to me Saturday about supper time as the last-minute chores of Christmas were being wound up.

My car gave out in front of the John Surratt home and I dropped in right at supper to ask if I might use the phone.

Mrs. Surratt invited me to dine, but I had to decline.

Son Paul was slipping on his coat by this time and saying, "I'll drive you down to Easton's."

There was a certain amount of merriment at my expense, but it didn't bother too much. I was busy telling myself how nice it can be to live in a small community.

☆

This shortage of college class rooms is growing more acutely than we may realize.

Charlie Lewis of Wayne University dropped by last week to fill us in on Wayne's approach.

Basically, Wayne has proposed to the Legislature that as appropriations from the state increase, student fees will rise in direct proportion.

This is based on the present ratio — one student dollar for every four Legislature dollars.

The plan has gained some favorable comment and now Wayne officials await the lawmakers' response.

Of the data Charlie brought along, one thing that is eyepopping: by 1975, there will be 312,409 men and women between 18 and 24 enrolled in colleges throughout Michigan.

This compared to the present 160,261.

The projection is made using today's ratio of .249 of this age group now attending colleges.

By 1975, the ratio will probably be much greater, since more and more young people are seeking higher education. Back in 1940, the in-college ratio was just .098 of 18 to 24'ers.

But, at that, it is double the current crop, which already swells existing facilities. In 15 years will we have twice as many classrooms, labs, dorms, etc., as there are now in the state?

So the problems of education mount.

☆

An article, "Can Science Prolong Our Useful Years?" deals with medical studies affecting life spans.

The Digest notes, "And Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., of the University of Michigan, heads an even more abitious project — a study of the entire population of Tecumseh, Mich. Some 8,600 persons have already received their initial examinations, and the researchers hope to follow them through periodic tests for decades to come."

In its conclusion, the article has several interesting points to help extend one's life:

1. Avoid overeating. (In tests, 35 pounds of excess weight lowered life expectancy by at least four years.)

2. Avoid radiation. (Radiation treatments for non-malignant conditions and those X-rays or fluorscopies performed by careless technicians.)

3. Keep mentally active. (Studies of mentally active have shown that the ability for new learning persists far into our later years.)

4. Keep physically active (Regular exercise for all people, young or old, healthy or infirm.)

Say, when is that mature men's volleyball league going to start up again?

70 Families Get Baskets Saturday

Seventy families — including 214 children—were assisted by the Tecumseh Service Club and other organizations at Christmas time this year.

This is the 25th year that the club has organized this worthy cause, with the number of recipients increasing each year.

Fifty-seven of the families were given food boxes by the Service Club and the remaining 13 were donated by other groups.

Teachers, the welfare department, ADF, friends and neighbors supply names of the needy. Each family is investigated by Service Club members.

Twenty-five Christmas trees, donated by dealers and decorated by various clubs and Scout groups in the city, were also distributed.

The Jaycees, and the Auxiliary the Police Department, the American Legion and many friends assisted the Service Club with the project, which starts about Thanksgiving time.

Glasses Found

The glasses are now in the office of postmaster Jack Metcalf and can be picked up there by the owner.

Winners Are Named

First—Marshall Coulter, 118 Park St., $15

Second—A. H. Phillips, 212 W. Cummins St. $10

Third—Dr. R. F. Helzerman, 612 W. Chicago Blvd., $5

Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. Michael Gendzwill and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell conducted the judging Tuesday night along with members of the civic affairs committee of the Chamber.

Eighteen entries were received in this first home decoration contest, but all judges expressed regret that more of the nicely decorated homes did not enter.

An interesting additional "prize" of honorary mention goes to Don Maves, 9115 N. Union St., where the judges' car ran out of gas and was aided in distress by the Maves.

Pals Pick Corn Crop

Eighteen Tipton neighbors helped harvest the corn for Norman Ries, who was injured Dec. 18 while repairing his wagon.

Mr. Ries was doing some welding when the jack slipped and pinned his head between the running gear and the box.

He was taken to St. Joseph, Hospital in Ann Arbor suffering from a fractured upper jaw, as well as the large bone at the side of the eye and many tiny bones from the eye to the ear.

In the two days, the men picked 12 acres of corn on the farm of Mrs. LeRoy Titley and 40 acres of corn on the Rollo Conlin, farm. Both are worked by Mr. Ries.

Men who participated in the good deed were Ernie Helwig, Lyle Whelan, Diek Smith, Abe Hunt, Dick Gentz, Willis Davenport, Merle Hendricks, Bob Ball and Wesley Whelan.

Others were Mike Anderson, Donald Whelan, Warren Allen, Ken Munger, Bill Spycher, Pop Shea, Robert Mangus, Raynor Van Valkenberg, Ray Bolz, and C. J. Lewis.

Wrecked on Turnpike

Two new Ramblers, belonging to Wilson Motor Sales, were badly damaged on the Illinois Turnpike Saturday.

They were being brought from Kenosha Wis. by a Wilson salesman, Ed Pistole. One was connected to the other by a tow bar.

Mr. Pistole reported that a car started to pass him, then went out of control and crashed into the Ramblers.

Although he was able to continue on to Tecumseh, both cars were almost complete wrecks.

Tecumseh Grad Grace Dennis Is Domincan Nun

A Tecumseh High School graduate of 1959, Grace Dennis, received her habit as a Dominican nun Wednesday morning.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis, of Toledo and former Tecumseh residents.

Mr. Dennis was a pharmacist at Cameron's Drug Store.

Meyers Has $356,717 Contract

Meyers Aircraft Co. has landed a $356,717 government contract.

The firm received an order for 500 aluminum tops for the M-151 Military Utility Tactical Truck, known as the Mutt.

This vehicle is the successor to the Jeep.

Meyers has been building similar tops for Sears-Roebuck, which has been marketing them to Jeep owners.

The order has not created any new jobs for the present at the aircraft firm, an official told The Herald.

A story about the contract, released by the Army Ordnance Tank-Automotive Command in Detroit, which appeared in the Free Press has brought a deluge of calls to Meyers.

10-Year-Old Girl Lapses Into Coma

Sharon Meyers, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, 224 Herrick Park Dr., lapsed into a coma Saturday evening while attending the service at the Grace Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Meyers offered some money to Sharon for the offering plate. When she did not accept it, her mother looked to see her suddenly go limp.

Sharon went into the coma and didn't come out of it until 4 a.m. Sunday morning.

A brain specialist at the University Health Center said that there is pressure on the brain, but does not know exactly what is causing it.

She was hit severly on the forehead about two years ago, but physicians do not know if there is any connection between this illness and that injury.

SOME FUN—Although the Max Smith (left) Christmas display and that of Jack Hanna, side by side on Seminole St., didn't win the city's first annual home decoration contest, their efforts created a lot of grins. Max had no idea when he put out his display that Jack was going to come up with one.

Our heralds are sounding a fanfare of heartiest wishes for the coming year. Thank you, one and all, for your patronage.

Coach Disappears Among Tall Tories

BRITTON — When time-outs are called in Britton Tory basketball games Coach Sam Hamilton seems to disappear.

Sam doesn't leave the gym, he just joins his players in a strategy huddle. And that's the end of Sam.

Blessed with some of the finest height Britton-Macon High School has ever had, Sam is fast molding a real contender for state honors.

Only undefeated club in Lenawee County, the Tories stopped Adrian Catholic Central, 64-28, Friday evening for the quintet's fifth straight victory.

In those five contests, Britton has netted 358 points to its opponents' 228.

But even more startling is the rebounding record of the crew. With giants on every part of the court, Britton has had little trouble picking off almost all the stray shots.

The big guy, Sophomore Phil Benedict at 6'7½" has averaged 31 rebounds a game. Against Adrian CC he grabbed 43.

In the point column, Benedict also leads the parade with 85 for a 15-point-per-game average.

Dave Bailey has 56, Ken Southwell has, 66; Dave Bailey, 56; Larry Hummel, 47; Tom Komon, 44 and Pepper Griewahn, 31.

The Tories are taking a holiday break, but will be back in action Jan. 9 with Ida on the local court.

Following that will come two extremely tough games, Whiteford and Deerfield.

Can Britton go all the way?

This is an impossible question to answer. In modern basketball going undefeated takes many things—height, speed, shooting ability, desire—and a generous serving of good old-fashioned luck.

BENEDICT 6'7½" | SOUTHWELL 6'4" | HUMMEL 6'3" | KOMON 6'2½" | McCRATE 6'2" | GRIEWAHN 6'1" | BAILEY 6'½" | COACH HAMILTON

Dr. Skufis Sends Report to Manager

Dr. Eleanor Skufis, director of the Lenawee County Health Department, recently wrote City Manager Ed Nelson regarding the over-flow of sewage into Evans Creek from septic tanks.

Dr. Skufis said: "the various locations on Evans Creek that were referred to us by your office . . . in all cases there was a tile leading to the creek or seepage into it.

"It appeared also that these tiles with one exception were carrying either the effluent from the septic tanks or the overflow from their subsurface disposal system.

"The tile that was not carrying sewage was dry at the time of the inspection, but indications were that it was used for downspout water only.

"The only way to correct this situation is connection into the city sewage disposal system, which I understand is not available at this time, or by installation of a subsurface disposal systems.

Secret Pals Are Revealed for Exchange

Carols were sung and games played. Roll call revealed secret pals with a gift exchange.

Ice cream slices centered with candy santas, cookies, nuts and candies were served with coffee by the hostess.

Mrs. Arthur Holdridge will open her home for the January meeting.

Tax Bills Go in Mail This Week

More than 2,300 Tecumseh winter property tax bills went into the mail this week and are now payable, states Cal Zorn, city assessor.

Deadline for payment is still Jan. 20, with a 4% penalty after that date.

Taxes can be paid at city hall from 8 to 5 daily and 8 to 12 on Saturdays.

Statements were nearly three weeks late this year due to the delay in a ruling by the state regarding changes of assessments for the City of Adrian.

Adrian's plea for a re-check of valuations brought a $4 million drop in property values there and slightly increased taxes of all other Lenawee County units of government.

City Council discussed extending the deadline, because of the delay, but no action was taken.

Homemakers Enjoy Party

The Holloway Homemakers 4-H Club held a Christmas party and meeting Dec. 14 at the home of Donna Forsyth.

Mothers of the members were guests and 18 were present.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 11 at the home of Pam and Connie Gautz.

The group planned to go caroling Thursday if weather permitted.

To Square Dance

The Swinging Eights Western Square dancing group will dance Thursday evening at 7:30 at the Community Center.

All couples in the community, who have had western style dancing, are invited to join the group every Thursday evening.

Bonnie Mattis is the caller.

does your coverage provide limited cash or hospital care without limit?

Typical care and typical costs say nothing about your needs. You're an individual, not a statistic. Blue Cross-Blue Shield comprehensive coverage doesn't tell you how expensive an illness you can have, or what treatments can be used. For services covered in a comprehensive Blue Cross-Blue Shield contract, you get not limited dollars, but care without cash limit. New medicines and techniques are added to your Blue Cross-Blue Shield comprehensive coverage automatically. You get them when you need them. For instance, there is no set maximum per year for radiation and X-ray therapy for cancer. Protection based on individual need is the unique value of Blue Cross-Blue Shield. Don't settle for less! Call the enrollment specialist in your area. He'll answer your questions, tell you how to join.

THIS IS BASKETBALL—That's what they tell us. These comics on the Harlem Diplomats, who perform here Jan. 7, are Dickk (Hooks) Harvey and Goose, Jr. They're being brought to Tecumseh by the THS Student Council in a flag money-raising project. The Diplomats are slated to meet a team of area basketball coaches.

Comedy Cagers Will Take On Area Coaches

Basketball's internationally famous Harlem Diplomats will play at the Tecumseh High School gym Saturday, Jan. 6 at 8 p.m.

The game is being sponsored by the Tecumseh High School Student Council so its members may buy flags for every room in the High School.

Opposing the Diplomats will be a team composed of coaches from area high schools.

The Diplomats, who are rapidly becoming world renowned, recently played in Mexico, Cuba, Jamaica, Nassau, Brazil and Venezuela where they were labelled the "funniest team ever."

The team features two of basketball's great comedians, Dick Harvey and Goose, Jr.

Also there is a bright new sensational dribbler and ball handler, Lem Carpenter.

The Diplomats will present basketball's most spectacular magic circle. Parts of this unique circle is done in darkness; only visible objects are the hands, shoes and a glowing basketball. The tricky ball handling will preceed the game.

While playing before 200,000 fans last season, the Diplomats compiled a 173 won and four loss record.

At present the team is undefeated. The game promises to be one of fine basketball mixed with delightful comedy.

Seniors will sell refreshments.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50c for students.

Neat Theme: 'Date Out Of Court'

MACON — Mrs. Merl Cross entertained her fellow jurors at a potluck ham dinner Wednesday.

The September term of Lenawee Circuit court ended Dec. 7 so the theme for the day was "A Day Out Of Court."

Because of much illness only 14 were able to attend and the time was spent discussing various experiences.

Those present were Gladys Bartholmew, Marcel Bradstreet, Charles Griffith, Elsie Culp, Frank Wickter, Blanche Maloney, Robert Hough, Caroline Spycher, Mae Springstone, Ruth Palmer, Leo Bernot, Florence Baker, Don Bird and Margarite Renner.

A summer gathering has been planned for the entire panel.

Mrs. Ernest Harris is recovering at home from two slight strokes, which she suffered recently.

Indians May Be Surprise of Huron Loop

By JIM LINCOLN

Regardless of what the Tecumseh Indians did last night against Adrian, Coach Doug Murdoch's five is almost certain to be the surprise team in the Huron Lague.

Last Friday night, the Indians outscrapped a bigger Blissfield team for a 65-62 victory, their second in the league for a 2-2 season mark.

The next few games will determine whether Tecumseh can stay in the race for the league championship, but it's a cinch the Indians will win more games than the first game of the season indicated.

In retrospect, Tecumseh-Dundee played one of the poorest basketball games fans will ever witness. The Indians showed improvement against Flat Rock, and perhaps with a little luck, they could have won.

An over-rated Airport five handed Tecumseh its second defeat, but only because the local team failed to cover-up on defense.

The Tecumseh-Blissfield tilt was even closer than the score shows.

With the Indians leading midway in the fourth stanza by seven points, the Royals popped away and closed the gap to one point, 59-58, with about two minutes remaining.

At this stage, John Britton, top Indian scorer, fouled out, but not before he slipped in two points to give Tecumseh a three-point edge.

He was the third Tecumseh player to foul out of the game—Jerry Hebb and Tim Sisson, both regulars, also left the game via this route.

Norm Tucker paced the Indians with 16 points and Craig Rosacrans, hottest Tecumseh scorer in the second half, flipped in 13. Jack Dick scored 11.

Jim Newell Pops in 21 for Jayvees

The Tecumseh Jayvees dropped their second game of the season Friday night, 52-47, to the Blissfield Jayvees.

A cold third period beat the young Indians when the Royals tossed in 20 points to Tecumseh's nine.

A 17-point fourth quarter fell short for Coach Jim Hoffman's five.

Jim Newell continued to lead the local Jayvees with 21 points, tops for both teams. Gregg Allen netted nine.

A Little Care

By MRS. WILLIAM R. WRIGHT
Ridgeway Correspondent

It's 6:30 in the morning and I'm off and on my way,
To take my master to his work to start another day.
I love to get out in the morning, the air is so cool and crisp,
And off I go down the highway, at a bright and cheery clip.

I don't mind going, it's coming back that I gripe.
I meet those other cars who just won't dim their lights.
Please don't get me wrong, they've a job to do.
But gee whiz, fellows have a heart, I don't do that to you.

Another thing that irks me, is some crazy jerk,
Will on a hill pull out of line, suppose his brakes don't work.
I'm going along minding my business, when up behind me comes,
Some make of car just whizzing, and says, come on crumb.

Either go a little faster or get off the road, but this is a free country or so I'm told.
He sees a hole up ahead and boy will he scat.
Then he blinks his tail light at me, as much to say, take that.

This I'm saying to those who handle our wheels.
We're only as good as you are, we don't make the deals.
So remember this when you jump in our seat.
To us your head and not your feet.
We may be a bunch of nuts and bolts,
But we still like to see and hear
Each and everyone of you
Begin a brand New Year!

Services were held Saturday at the Collins-Corkery Funeral Home for Janis Murmanis, 74, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gerald Roberts, at 802 Red Mill Drive Thursday.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

GIVE IT TO THE BIRDS

In our home, as in many others, it has almost become a tradition that on New Year's Day the tree comes down. The job is started early enough so that everything is finished and tucked into packing boxes by the time the televising of the Rose Bowl football game begins.

Watching this and rooting like mad for the Big Ten representative is also traditional.

The tree de-trimming is always accomplished with mixed emotions. After all the hustle and bustle and confusion of the Holidays, it is nice to think about having a little orderly peace and quiet.

But on the other hand, when the last ornament is put away and the last string of tinsel wound up, the Christmas festivities are over. It will be a long tough pull until spring.

Once our Christmas tree is stripped of its crinkly tinsle, shining ornaments and holiday lights, we have learned not to carelessly toss it aside, a sorry reminder of the two magical Christmas weeks.

As soon as the tree is bare, we start to trim it again. We try not to recapture the glittery charm that was its bright and shiny glory, but instead with the suet and peanuts, etc., it becomes a Christmas tree for the birds.

☆

JUST AS WE are careful to place our bird feeders so they can be easily seen from the house, so too is the tree put outside, near a convenient window.

After it has been festooned with strings of bright red cranberries, tasty roasted peanuts, popcorn (too stale and tough for us to eat, but relished by the birds) and, of course, many, many balls of suet, the tree is once again a gay happy thing.

The birds certainly find it so—they are busy, busy, busy.

And they are fun, fun, fun to watch. Food is the lure and their antics are priceless. Black capped chickadee is a most able acrobat and he often ends up on the underside of a ball of suet, the upside-down position does not in the least interfere with his eating.

Pert tufted titmouse is in seventh heaven when roasted peanuts are available. Clinging to a string, hung between two branches, how he will work to peck through the outer shell and thus get at the tasty nut.

The cardinals are Mother Nature's most beautiful ornaments as they perch, in all their flaming red glory, amid the soft, bright green foliage. The scene is even more breathtaking if the ground is blanketed in white and the tree has been frosted with snow.

☆

ON THE practical side of the re-trimmed, re-dedicated tree serves two most useful purposes. The long, cold days of January are apt to bring hard times to the birds.

North winds can send the temperature dropping and mid-winter blizzards can cover natural sources of food. The dense and shaggy outstretched branches offer shelter from the raw winds and when the tree has been well decorated, how nice to be able to eat in comfort.

You will be surprised at how many "food decorations" you will find to use. Snug and warm and well-fed, the birds will be happy and grateful to snuggle in the Christmas tree protecting shelter.

We think it is a happy thought to give the trees, which during the Holidays so proudly afforded us such great pleasure, this second chance to please and serve.

☆

ONCE WE are through with our Christmas tree it is wonderful to watch the birds enjoying it. This year, why not give your tree to the birds?

A word of warning! Be very, very particular, before you put your tree outside, that all the icicles have been picked from it. Their long shimmery shininess adds so much to the tree's appearance inside, but they can be deadly once they have been taken outside.

To any unfortunate bird who perchance would try to peck and nibble the icicles, the lead they contain would prove fatal. Let us give our trees to the birds, but let us make sure they are safe!
